FANWOOD CELEBRATES ELEANOR MCGOVERN

Retiring Fanwood Borough Clerk and Administrator, Eleanor McGovern was celebrated on December 18, 2019, at a dinner at the Shackamaxon Country Club with gifts, proclamations and about 100 guests who honored her 35 years of service.

Mrs. McGovern, who began working as Clerk/Administrator in 1984, saw five mayors and many more council members come and go during her tenure, which came to an end on December 31, 2019. She announced her retirement in the fall.

Mayor Colleen Mahr was the keynote speaker, and was joined by Public Works Director Clint Dickson and Police Chief Richard Trigo who praised her service and their ability to work seamlessly with her to perform the important functions of the Borough. Fanwood Tax Collector and Registrar Colleen Huehn spoke fondly of her as a friend and coworker for the last 34 years and presented her with a gift card from coworkers and friends. Council President Tom Kranz read portions of proclamations in Mrs. McGovern's honor from Congresswoman Bonnie Watson Coleman, the New Jersey Assembly and the Union County Freeholders. Mayor Mahr and members of the Council presented her with a pen crafted from the Fanwood Oak, the iconic tree that once stood on Martine Avenue but had to be cut down for safety reasons. She also received a plaque made from the tree.

Many members of Mrs. McGovern's family were in attendance, including her son Bill who flew in from Denver, sons Mike and Jerry and two grandsons. Two of her sisters also attended.

A virtual who's who of Fanwood and regional officials, former officials and volunteers were among the approximately 100 people in attendance, including County Clerk Joanne Rajoppi, Garwood Mayor Sara Todisco, former Scotch Plains Town Manager Tom Atkins, municipal clerks from across the region, Fire Chief John Piccola, Rescue Squad president Ed Winsor, Library Director Dan Weiss, Shade Tree Commission Chairman Steve Falco, Borough Engineer Antonios Panagopolous, Zoning Official Ray Sullivan, Tax Assessor Mike Ross, Borough CFO Fred Tomkins, Redevelopment Director Liz Jeffrey, Fanwood poet laureate Adele Kenny, all of Mrs. McGovern's coworkers at Borough Hall, and all members of the Borough Council.

TEACHERS NAMED 2019 NEW JERSEY EXEMPLARY EDUCATORS

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District is pleased to announce that Sharon Atta, 8th grade Social Studies Teacher at Terrill Middle School; Ronald Litz, 7th grade Social Studies Teacher at Park Middle School and Daniel Valentine, 11th grade Social Studies Teacher at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, have been selected as 2019 New Jersey Exemplary Educators.

On Monday, November 11, Dr. Joan Mast, Superintendent of Schools, along with building Principals, Noel Baxter, Supervisor of Social Studies and Candice Testa, President of SPFEA, honored Sharon, Ronald and Daniel in their classrooms presenting them with their certificates of recognition.

The goal of the program is to identify educators who are valued by their school and community and have exhibited strong knowledge and skills, have an inspiring presence and a clear vision for quality teaching and learning.

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District is fortunate to have Sharon, Ronald and Daniel who provide a positive impact on our students, colleagues and the school community.

COLLEGE CLUB OF F-SP IS HOSTING THE FLORIAN SCHANTZ JAZZ COMBO ON FEBRUARY 24

Fanwood Post • Page 5 • February 2020

Come celebrate the roaring 20's with the Florian Schantz Jazz Combo on February 24, 2020, 7 p.m., at the Fanwood Presbyterian Church, 74 Martine Avenue, Fanwood (around the back at the McDermott Street entrance). The program is sponsored by the College Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains. This lively and entertaining program is free and open to the public. The Florian Schantz Jazz Combo who specializes in thematic historical musical programs with informational narrative will be featuring the music that put the "roar" in the roaring 20's. Come witness the revival of the one true American art form in its purest form during its heyday. The program is suitable for all ages.

The band has performed over 65 library programs across the tri-state area as well as numerous historical societies and hundreds of other venues. The combo is led by a 17 year old professional trumpet player, Florian Schantz, who started the band at age 9 and has performed over 470 engagements across NJ, NY, CT, PA and Germany. Also appearing in the band are Rup Chattopadhyay on trombone, Margaret Schantz on Flugelhorn and Lowell Schantz on guitar.

Additional information about the College Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains can be found on the club's website at fspcollegeclub.org.

WORLD LANGUAGE HONOR SOCIETIES INDUCTION CEREMONY

Submitted by Patrice Barth

On Wednesday, November 13, 2019, a total of 32 students were inducted into their respective world language honor societies during a ceremony replete with pomp and circumstance. Flag-bearing officers led their inductees into the auditorium as cultural music played.

Senior Derick Vega, who served as Master of Ceremonies, began the night by sharing his own experiences of being raised bilingual at home and then choosing to study a third language, Italian, in middle and high school. He then introduced various guest speakers of the evening. Junior, Matthew London, spoke from the heart about his positive experiences in his Chinese classes over the years and gave specific thanks to his teacher, Mrs. Li Salewski. Senior, Michaela Genty amused the audience with her humorous tales of traveling to France and speaking with the locals. She also credited her family's French-Creole heritage as her inspiration for studying French. Senior, Kyle Isolda shared his reasons for studying Italian in middle and high school and spoke with delight over the exchanges he was able to have with his host family while participating in the district's Italian exchange program. Finally, Senior, Aleezah Madraswalla, spoke with joy as she shared her earliest memories of learning Spanish in second grade and traveling to Mexico with her family. She attributed the world language curriculum for not just teaching her the Spanish language but for giving her the opportunity to explore and to appreciate the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world.

The World Language Honor Society officers conducted the induction ceremonies for each language entirely in the target language. The officers included: Catherine Buren and William Robertson (Chinese), Carina Delcore and Michaela Genty (French), Antoinette Chango and Christina Gubernat (Italian), and Sarai Romero and Tara Wolman (Spanish).

LOCAL AUTHOR WILL APPEAR AT FANWOOD LIBRARY ON FEBRUARY 13

Local author Mia Marko has written a unique five-volume novel about love, meditation, swashbuckling adventure, and the big questions of life. She will be speaking about her book at the Fanwood Library at 7 p.m. on Valentine's Eve, Thursday, February 13.

A love story can touch your heart. Can it also touch your soul? The Delicate, Passionate World of Gregory Morgan and Vivien Prevette is the world's first self-help novel, and it traces the supernatural relationship between two people from meeting to declaration to bliss to loss to mature courtship and the Great Love.

The result is a philosophical love story for thoughtful adults, a kind of loose retelling of the story of Eros and Psyche which the Ancient Greeks had about a godlike if troubled god/man and his mortal beloved. Can God and mortal love each other, and can they ultimately be together? This can be a much higher order philosophical question that goes well beyond just the original adventure-story myth.

The narrative alternates both of their voices, giving even-numbered chapters to the gentleman Gregory and giving odd-numbered chapters to his mortal beloved Vivien. Telling one story from two intertwined points of view certainly is contributed to the overall length of the book, but it makes the story more complete for the reader. The Delicate, Passionate World is not a series. All five books were written, edited, and published together. The result is a single work which brings alive a luxurious world for readers to savor and to go and live in whenever they wish.

The elegant, adventurous, warm, and enjoyable story subtly creates opportunities for introspection and ultimately invites us all to participate in our own supernatural love with the Divine. Book 1: The Accident takes place in New Orleans in the first part of the 20th Century. A free copy can be picked up at the Fanwood Library event or by reaching out to Mia at mia@peppertonpress.com.

Available in hardcopy, as e-book where e-books are sold, and audio for free on YouTube under Pepperton Press Delicate, Passionate World Audio Experience.

A long-time volunteer with the Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield since 2001 and Past President of that organization, Mia Marko began working on her unique five-volume novel in 2013. Learn more about her literary project at delicatepassionateworld.com. Upcoming book reading event and reception with free books coming up on Thursday, February 13 at 7:00 p.m. at the Fanwood Public Library. The event is open to the public. Free books and refreshments will be provided.

PRESCHOOL REGISTRATION BEGINS ON FEBRUARY 3

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Public School District will begin accepting preschool applications for the 2020-2021 school year on February 3, 2020. The Preschool Program uses the Creative Curriculum, which fosters children's learning through exploration and discovery. Preschool classes are comprised of general education students and students with special needs, as determined by a district evaluation.

Applicants must be residents of Scotch Plains or Fanwood. Proof of residency status and an original birth certificate will be required for new students enrolling in the program. The child's age as of October 1, 2020 will determine placement in a 3-year-old or 4-year-old class. Typically, 3-year-olds attend the morning session from 8:35-11:20 a.m. and 4-year-olds attend the afternoon session from 12:20-3:10 p.m. All classes meet five days per week.

Tuition for the half-day program will be $340 per month. A 10% sibling discount is available. In addition, free or reduced tuition may be available for families who qualify per federal guidelines or a district review.

Applications will be available at all district elementary schools and on the program website (spfk12.org/preschool) beginning February 3, 2020.

Please mail all completed applications to the Preschool Office located at 667 Westfield Road, Scotch Plains, NJ 07076.

For additional information, please contact the Preschool Office at 908-889-8600 x3302 or preschool@spfk12.org.

COLLEGE CLUB BLOOD DRIVE ON FEBRUARY 29

The College Club of Fanwood Scotch Plains is sponsoring a blood drive on Saturday, February 29 at the New Jersey Blood Services, Scotch Plains Donor Center, 2279 South Avenue, Scotch Plains (adjacent to Tom the Green Grocer). The entrance to the building and the parking area are located in the back of the building. Donation hours are 8:00 a.m. - 2:45 p.m.

Age qualifications for donors: minimum age is 16; maximum age is up to and including 76th birthday. Donors past 76 must have approval from their physician.

All members of the community are encouraged to join College Club members and donate blood at a time that there is an urgent need for blood donations. According to a recent article in the Star Ledger, New Jersey is facing a critical blood shortage due to a higher than usual drop in donations during the holiday season.

College Club members participate in and support a Community Outreach activity during each month of the year. More information about the College Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains can be found on the club's website at fspcollegeclub.org.
