Submitted by Craig Alperowitz

On Saturday, February 8, the slate of 2020 elected officers was presented by the Chatham Emergency Squad at its annual Officer Installation Dinner held at the Wyndham Hotel in Florham Park. Serving their second year in their positions are Steve Davenport (Captain), Joanne Howden (Personnel VP), Mike Lemons (Operations Lieutenant), Abigail Maddi (Secretary), Jim Martin (Equipment Lieutenant), Evan Skinner (President), Jeff Stanton (Facilities VP) and Cathy Warbrick (Finance VP). Newly elected officers this year include Craig Alperowitz (Communications VP) and Nicole DiMaggio (Training Lieutenant).

The Squad also recognized several members for their continuous years of service. Carol Grant, Tom Patterson, Kumar Paul, Evan Skinner and Carole Wilmot were recognized for 5 years of service, and Steve Davenport was recognized for 15 years of service. In addition, 30 members of the Chatham Emergency Squad were recognized for earning 100 Length of Service Awards Points (LOSAP) which is a New Jersey State incentive program recognizing volunteers who actively serve their regular and weekend shifts, and positively contribute through additional volunteer hours.

The evening's tone of appreciation to its membership base for the past year of service was captured by President Evan Skinner's opening remarks. "There are a lot of Squads in New Jersey, but there aren't many like ours. There aren't many all-volunteer squads that can cover 10 calls in a 12-hour Thursday day shift, including a mutual aid to another town. There aren't many all-volunteer squads who could cover 2 or 3 simultaneous calls 108 times in a year. And there aren't many all-volunteer Squads who can attract 9 new members in a single year. But we can - and we did."

SPECIAL RECOGNITION FOR PETER HERSLOW

The evening was also marked by standing ovations for Peter Herslow, who recently announced his retirement following 36 years of active service. In addition to serving as President (1999, 2000), Captain (1993, 1994) and many other roles throughout his tenure with the Squad, Herslow is perhaps best known for teaching thousands of Chatham residents, teachers, police, fire and Squad members how to perform CPR.

Past Chatham Emergency Squad officers Jerry Medina, Ricky D'Costa and Rich Crater along with fellow crew member Dave Elliot paid tribute to Peter's dedication to the Squad and the Chatham community recalling their time riding with and learning from Herslow.

"It's impossible to know how many lives have been saved thanks to Peter's devotion as an active Squad member and proponent of effective CPR instruction," said Jerry Medina, auxiliary member and former Captain of the Chatham Emergency Squad (2002, 2003). "Although he is retired from active service, Peter's work is not yet complete. Undoubtedly, he will continue to serve the residents of Chatham by training them in effective CPR, which in turn will continue to save countless lives."

THE CHRISTINE K. GROBERT CHATHAM EMERGENCY SQUAD SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

During the ceremony, the evening was further marked by the formal renaming of the CHS Scholarship Award to henceforth be known as the "Christine K. Grobert Chatham Emergency Squad Scholarship Award."

Established in 2014 by Christine Grobert while serving as President of the Chatham Emergency Squad (2014, 2015), the annual award is presented to a Chatham High School student who has been committed to volunteerism in the Chatham Community and/or has displayed an interest in the field of medicine or science.

The renaming of the award honors Grobert, who retired from active service in December 2019 after 21 years of dedicated service. During her tenure, Grobert held many positions beyond that of President, including Vice President for Social & Communications, Secretary, Uniforms Manager, Archivist, Weekend Crew Chief and more. Grobert was also the recipient of the 2019 EMT Excellence Awards by Overlook Medical Center.

"Being a teacher in the Chatham School District, and as our former President, Christine had the foresight to help students reach their potential by formulating this scholarship 6 years ago," said Skinner. "She represents the best of the Chatham Emergency Squad for her years of service and countless positions held. It's only appropriate that we cement her legacy by naming this scholarship in her honor," she added.

Representatives from the Chatham Borough Council, Fire Department, and Police Department, Chatham Township Committee, Police Department, and Volunteer Fire Department, Green Village Volunteer Fire Department, Madison Volunteer Ambulance Corps, New Vernon First Aid Squad and Fire Department were all in attendance at the annual celebration. The Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad responded to calls in Chatham overnight so that all Chatham Emergency Squad members could have the evening to celebrate.

The Chatham Emergency Squad is an all-volunteer organization funded nearly exclusively by donations. In 2019 the Chatham Emergency Squad responded to 1,246 emergency calls in Chatham Township and Chatham Borough and provided mutual aid to neighboring communities of New Vernon, Madison and Summit on occasion. Chatham Emergency Squad never charges for its services. The Squad provides stand-by support for community events, such as the Chatham Turkey Trot, Fishawack, and school athletic events. The Squad also provided free CPR training to more than 400 residents, teachers, coaches, school crossing guards and emergency personnel, including fire and police. ## SIX CHS ART STUDENTS WIN SCHOLASTIC ART AWARDS

Six Chatham High School Art students won various awards in the 2020 Scholastic Art Awards, including a winner of the top awarded Gold Key.

Peyton McGarry won the Gold Key Award in the "Future New" category for her piece titled "Gun Re-form." Peyton will have her work shown in a gallery at Montclair Art Museum and will be considered at the national level.

Michael Culleton, Elisabeth Diplas, Maia Horowitz, and Shenjia Lui all won Silver Key Awards. Michael won in the "Mixed Media" category for his piece titled "Time Web;" Elisabeth Diplas won two Silver Key Awards in the "Painting" category for her pieces titled "I Cut-Out" and "THE PLANE;" Maia Horowitz won in the "Jewelry" category for her piece "Geometric Necklace;" and Shenjia Lui won in two categories: in the "Digital Art" category, he won for his piece titled "Hunger," and for the "Mixed Media" category, he won for his piece titled "Fishing."

Shenjia Lui and Ella Isadora (Izzy) Shaw also received Honorable Mention. Shenjia was recognized for two pieces in the "Mixed Media" category: "Impossible Shape" and "Self-Portrait." He was also recognized in the "Painting" category for three pieces: "Drowsing," "Drift," and "Old man." In "Digital Art," he received Honorable Mention for "Whack-a-Dude," and for the "Art Portfolio" category, he received Honorable Mention for "Outside of the rectangle." Izzy received Honorable Mention in "Painting" for her piece titled "Buildingsroman."

CHS Art teacher Kiera Spadaro said, "The caliber of artwork that is considered for the Scholastic Art Awards is extremely high, as are the number of submissions. The judges making the selections are highly respected members of the art community. For our students to have received acknowledgement for their artwork is an honor and a testament to their talent and hard work. I am especially excited for Peyton to have her sculpture seen by a large audience at the Montclair Art Museum and to have it move on to the national level!"

The Montclair Art Museum said, "This is a remarkable achievement for any young artist. Since 1923, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards have recognized some of America's most celebrated artists while they were teenagers, including: Andy Warhol, Zac Posen, Idelle Weber, Ken Burns, Luis Jiménez, and Kay WalkingStick. A jury of professional artists, curators, and arts educators spent 30+ hours reviewing 3,570 works of art submitted by 1,330 individual student artists from across northern New Jersey."

Gold Key winning work will be exhibited at Montclair Art Museum from thru March 22, 2020. Museum hours are Wednesday to Sunday, 12 to 5 p.m. Ceremony and exhibition location: Montclair Art Museum, 3 South Mountain Avenue, Montclair, NJ montclairartmuseum.org.

GIRL SCOUT CALLS ON COMMUNITY'S HELP TO MAP LOCATIONS OF AEDS

Mikayla Meyler, a senior at Chatham High School and member of the Chatham Emergency Squad, is currently working on her Girl Scout Gold Award Project to create a map promoting the locations of automatic external defibrillators (AEDs) throughout the Chathams.

The project, called "A Map to the Heart," is created in cooperation with the Chatham Emergency Squad and the John Taylor Babbitt Foundation, seeking to raise awareness of the exact locations of the many AEDs in our community. But she needs your help - and is calling on the public's knowledge to assist her in populating the database, which will be made public on the Chatham Emergency Squad's website and will inform visitors of where AEDs can be found throughout Chatham Township and Chatham Borough.

"AEDs are a crucial life-saving tool in the event of a cardiac arrest," said Mikayla Meyler. "According to the National Safety Council, early access to defibrillation can increase chances of survival by 40% or more and knowing where they are located is step one in the process," she added.

The database will consist of all AEDs located in Chatham Borough and Chatham Township - the coverage area of the Chatham Emergency Squad - and it will be managed and maintained by the Squad. Anyone with responsibility for an AED is asked to share its location and some basic information by going to chatham-emergencysquad.org/aed.

"You have already made a crucial contribution to community safety by installing the device," said Steve Davenport, Captain of the Chatham Emergency Squad. "Taking a moment to update the database will increase the likelihood that it is found and used in a time of emergency."

It is recommended that everyone gets trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and the use of an automatic external defibrillator. The Chatham Emergency Squad offers free classes to the public. This training might save a stranger, a friend, or even a family member. As great as the training is, AEDs can be used without any training. Call 911 and turn the green power button on. AEDs have voice prompts that guide the user through their simple operation. The 911 dispatcher will provide further instructions until emergency responders arrive.

"No matter if you are trained or untrained in CPR or even if you're a professional responder, please have a look at the map. Find the places you work, shop, study, worship or play and be aware where the AEDs are in your life. Fast access could make all the difference," said Meyler.

ABOUT JOHN TAYLOR BABBITT FOUNDATION

The John Taylor Babbitt Foundation works to prevent death by increasing awareness about the severity and prevalence of sudden cardiac arrest and educating the public to be able to recognize and respond to these life-threatening events. The JTB Foundation advises business and private organizations on the acquisition and installation of AEDs. The JTB Foundation also makes monetary grants to not-for-profits to assist in the acquisition of AEDS. If your business, club, medical practice, apartment building or any other establishment would like help in considering the purchase of an AED, learn more about the JTB Foundation at jtbfoundation.org/.

CASA INVITES PUBLIC TO WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP LUNCHEON MARCH 11

Submitted by Gretchen Boger-O'Bryan

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County will host its second annual Women's Leadership Luncheon on Wednesday, March 11 — the heart of Women's History Month — to highlight two Union County women whose contributions positively impact their community.

Among them is Tina Renna, Cranford resident and owner of Renna Media, publisher of 21 community newspapers including the The Chathams.

Renna, who coordinates content for more than 135,000-issues circulated to towns in Union, Somerset and Morris counties, uses her writing, editing and photography, she says, "to tell the stories of ordinary people who do extraordinary things, big or small, that inspire others and their communities. Whether reporting news from town departments, schools and libraries, giving voice to local organizations raising awareness, or highlighting accomplishments of businesses, residents and all those who share a community — no matter strength or size — I strive to make a positive impact on each town's well-being and economic development."

Also being honored is Summit's Sue Adler, CEO of The Sue Adler Team of Keller Williams in Chatham. Currently ranked 10 worldwide out of 175,000 Keller Williams agents, Adler focuses on the community's train line towns and incorporates an in-house, team-treatment approach for clients.

Ilyse DiChiara, owner of Green Healthy Living and certified integrative nutrition, health and wellness coach, will provide the keynote address. Prior to switching professional course, DiChiara ran her nationwide trial consulting business, Litigation Support Solutions, for more than 20 years. Other participants include Summit Mayor Nora Radest and Westfield Councilwoman Joann Neylan.

Tickets are available now for the luncheon, which begins at 11:30 a.m. at the Grand Summit Hotel. Seats are $65; tables of 10 and sponsorships are available. To purchase, log on to casaleadershipluncheon.eventbrite.com. For luncheon details, contact Alexis at aslade@casaoofunioncounty.org.

CASA of Union County recruits, trains, supervises and supports community volunteers to advocate for abused, neglected and abandoned children placed in foster homes or residential facilities. There are more than 500 Union County youth, from birth to age 21, in foster care. With court-ordered access to a foster child and all parties in their life, volunteer advocates report findings to the judge so as to ensure best interests remain a priority, needs are met, and already experienced trauma is not exacerbated.

Contact Courtney at cgreen@casaoofunioncounty.org or 908-293-8136 to learn more about CASA of Union County.

SAGE PREPARES FOR 2020 MARCH FOR MEALS

City officials and members of community organizations are invited to join SAGE Eldercare in March as it participates in the 18th annual March for Meals – a month-long, nationwide coming together of local community organizations, businesses, government officials and caring individuals to ensure that homebound, older adults are not forgotten. The average age of the clients SAGE delivers meals to is 83. Of those, 65% say they rarely have visitors other than their Meals on Wheels volunteer.

March for Meals participants have included NJ State Senator Thomas Kean Jr., local mayors, police chiefs, television personalities and local government officials and volunteers.

Established in 1966, SAGE's Meals on Wheels is the oldest continuously run home delivery meal program in New Jersey. In 2019, approximately 400 volunteers delivered more than 43,729 meals to 212 people in Morris County (Chatham and Madison), Union County (Berkeley Heights, Mountainside, New Providence, Springfield, and Summit), and Essex County (Millburn and Short Hills).

"The services that we provide older adults in our area are critical; it's not just a warm meal, but also a vital wellness visit," said Marianne Kranz, SAGE Director of Meals on Wheels. "Together, we can keep older adults living independently, healthier at home and feeling more connected to their community as they age."

For more information about participating in March for Meals, contact Marianne Kranz at: 908-598-5514 or email: mkrantz@sageeldercare.org.

GREAT SWAMP HOSTS MAPLE SUGARING & FESTIVAL

Experience the entire process of maple sugaring from tree tapping to tasting the pancake-topping treat at Morris County Park Commissions Maple Sugaring Weekends. The season culminates with the Maple Sugaring Festival on March 14.

The trees will be tapped and the firewood chopped at the Great Swamp Outdoor Education Center in Chatham Township for hour-long, maple sugaring demonstrations in March, at 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., on March 1, 7 & 8.

A maple sugar farmer will sell fresh syrup products.
