WHRHS SPRING MUSICAL “MATILDA” MARCH 19, 20, & 21

(above) The student singers and actors who performed at the Script and Cue Winter Cabaret, Thursday, January 16, at WHRHS gather for a post-performance photo on the Cabaret stage at the WHRHS Performing Arts Center (PAC). In addition to entertaining an audience of parents, students and fans, most of the students were also sharpening their poise and stretching their range on stage in front of a live audience in anticipation of their participation in the annual WHRHS Spring Musical, “Matilda.” Matilda will be presented by Script and Cue in the PAC on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 19, 20, and 21, and as a matinee Saturday afternoon, March 21.

Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) student singers and thespians entertained the fellow students, faculty, parents, and fans at the 2019-2020 Script and Cue Winter Cabaret, Thursday, January 16. The Winter Cabaret was presented using the intimate coffee house format on the PAC stage, as have all the WHRHS “Cabarets” in recent years.

Most of the student performers were also sharpening their poise on stage in front of a live audience in anticipation of their participation in the annual WHRHS Spring Musical, “Matilda.” Matilda will be presented by Script and Cue in the PAC on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 19, 20, and 21, and as a matinee Saturday afternoon, March 21.

Matilda includes numerous exuberant ensemble numbers, fetching for audiences of all ages.

The musical premiered on Broadway in 2013, and won five awards, including the Tony Award for Best Book of a Musical. The year before, it won 7 Laurence Olivier Awards, presented by the Society of London Theatre. The musical’s “Book” was written by Dennis Kelly. Music by Tim Minchin. The musical is based on the novel, “Matilda,” 1988, a children’s tale by British author Roald Dahl. Dahl is also known for numerous books, including “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory,” “James and the Giant Peach,” and “Fantastic Mr. Fox.”

CABARET COMING TO THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF STIRLING

The First Presbyterian Church of Stirling will present cabaret star Christine Hjorth and pianist Amanda Patanella on Sunday, March 8, 2020 at 2 p.m.

Christine Hjorth has performed locally with The Rhino Theater (Pompton Lakes, NJ), The Stollers (Maplewood, NJ) and A Work of the Heart Productions (Madison, NJ). She began singing professionally in a cabaret setting 10 years ago, and has performed at multiple venues and private events from New Hope, PA to Raleigh, NC. An experienced and certified elementary teacher, she spends her days as a private teacher for homeschool children and as an after-school tutor. Her husband and children are her constant cheerleaders, and she is so happy to have their support for her performing. Ms. Hjorth has enjoyed performing on stage for over 30 years.

Amanda Patanella is a graduate of Rutgers University/Mason Gross School of the Arts where she studied classical voice and earned a BA in art history and dance. She also holds a certification in elementary education from Caldwell College. Amanda has over 23 years experience as a dance educator, choreographer, and performer. She is a former principal dancer and vocalist with the NJ Tap Ensemble and has performed on stages including Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall, NJPAC's Victoria Theater, Mayo Arts Center, Count Basie Theater and off-Broadway at Feinstein's/54 Below. Currently, Amanda works as a professional vocalist, dance educator, and theater director/choreographer. She is active in community theater with her latest role being the witch in Into the Woods. Amanda's most cherished job is being a mom of three beautiful daughters. She is grateful to be able to continue sharing her love of music and performing.

This will be the sixth concert in the Church's concert series for the 2019 – 2020 season. Admission, as always, is free. A short reception will follow the concert at which attendees may meet the performers. Refreshments will be served.

For more information, go to fpcstirling.org or contact The First Presbyterian Church of Stirling at 908-647-1033.

EAGLE SCOUT SEEKS DONATIONS FOR STIRLING LAKE BOARDWALK PROJECT

Submitted by Christopher Gianakis, Troop 56

My Eagle Scout Project was the creation of a boardwalk over an asphalt walkway that would get flooded due to bad weather. The old path was treacherous to cross because it was a muddy mess. I designed and built a simple solution so citizens can get to their neighborhood park or home from school without having to walk through mud or climb over a fence. The project cost approximately $1,600 and took over two weeks to finish.

The boardwalk is 60 feet long with a 4 foot long angled section to compensate for the turn in the path. I made the boardwalk with 7 eight foot long sections, and the last angled section was 4 feet long. Each section was 4 feet wide, but when the composite boards were laid on top, it was about 5 feet wide.

I am looking for help with funding; checks and donations can be made out to "BSA Troop 56." Please contact me about donations at 908-472-2364. I can meet to receive donations after school, or they can be mailed to my address at 215 High Street, 07980.

Yours In Scouting,
Chris Gianakis

GREAT SWAMP HOSTS MAPLE SUGARING & FESTIVAL

(above) Discover the sweet smells, sights and tastes of maple sugaring. For more information and directions to the Great Swamp Outdoor Education Center, visit morrisparks.net or call 973.635.6629.

Experience the entire process of maple sugaring from tree tapping to tasting the pancake-topping treat at Morris County Park Commissions Maple Sugaring Weekends. The season culminates with the Maple Sugaring Festival on March 14.

The trees will be tapped and the firewood chopped at the Great Swamp Outdoor Education Center in Chatham Township for hour-long, maple sugaring demonstrations in March, at 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., on March 1, 7 & 8.

Watch as staff members identify and tap maple trees and collect the flowing sap. Witness syrup making over a wood-fired evaporator. Best of all, taste-test the Great Swamp's own homemade syrup.

Learn to appreciate the quality differences, and the process that is required to make this tasty treat. Demonstrations are fun for all ages!

Admission is $4 per person. No registration is required, but space is limited. All demonstrations are held rain or shine.

The annual Maple Sugar Festival will be Saturday, March 14, from noon to 4 p.m. featuring more tree tapping, maple cream, a guided 'Hike Through Maple Sugaring History,' and an array of supplies and instructions on how to get started at home next year. A maple sugar farmer will sell fresh syrup products. Festival admission is $5 per person.

THREE ATHLETES ANNOUNCE PLANS ON FEBRUARY COLLEGE SIGNING DAY

Submitted by Denis Kelly

Three student athletes in the Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Class of 2020

who play interscholastic sports for the Warriors announced their intentions to attend next year and play intercollegiate sports at Division I colleges, at a February College Signing Day Ceremony, Wednesday, February 5, at the school.

One of the athletes competes on the WHRHS Track and Field Team, and two compete on the WHRHS Fencing Team.

The students signing to matriculate and play at Division I colleges are:

Teresa Rotolo, who plans to attend and compete in Track and Field at Villanova University (Wildcats), Villanova, Pa., Big East Conference;

Chloe Mok, who plans to attend and compete in Fencing at Sacred Heart University (Pioneers), Fairfield, Conn., Northeast Conference; and Victor Odoliniec, who plans to attend and complete in Fencing at Yale University (Bulldogs), New Haven, Conn., Ivy League Conference.

"Congratulations to our student-athletes who have decided to continue their academic and athletic careers at such wonderful Universities," said WHRHS Athletic Director Dan Root. "We are very proud of them."

There are three College Signing Days throughout the high school academic year: November, February and May.

Earlier in the 2019-2020 School Year, an additional seven WHRHS student athletes in the Class of 2020 who play interscholastic sports for the Warriors announced their intentions to attend and play intercollegiate sports at Division I or Division II colleges, on November College Signing Day, Wednesday, November 13.
