RAHWAY GARDEN CLUB DAFFODIL PROJECT

Since 2013, the Rahway Garden Club (RGC) has been planting two hundred daffodils every year with our local Girl Scouts from Cadette Troop 40979 and Junior Troop 40745. At first eight hundred daffodils were planted at The Rahway Historical Society, now known as Merchants and Drovers Tavern and Museum. In the last two years the RGC / Girl Scout team planted another four hundred daffodils at Veterans Park diagonally across Saint George's Avenue. The first daffodil planting in Veterans Park in 2017 honored the '100th Anniversary Of The End Of World War I'.

When the RGC started planting with the Girl Scouts our motto was "Planting Daffodils and Planting Memories".

The Rahway Daffodil Project is a new project designed to expand the Girl Scouts plantings and spread spring colors throughout our city.

Last autumn, on November 21, 2019, eighteen people joined together to plant one thousand daffodils in the field at the corner of Saint Georges and Central Avenues, also known as Kiwanis Park. Volunteers from the Rahway Garden Club, Master Gardeners of Union County and Rahway's citizens, including council woman Joanna Miles, planted the thousand daffodils in one and a half hours.

Additionally, the Madison School Garden Club with assistance from the RCG, planted 60 daffodils in front of their school. Due to the heat of the bricks and the sun exposure, I think these are likely going to be the first flowers to bloom.

The Madison School Garden Club led by Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Padula and Mrs. Lewis is an 'after' club with students from kindergarten to fourth graders. They have started a tradition we will all enjoy for years to come.

This project would not have been possible without the support and encouragement of Mike Smalling and the Department of Public Works.

Additionally, Mr. Bartell, of Bartell's Farm Supply in Clark, coordinated with RGC President Debra Stuart, to purchase the bulbs for the Garden Club at no extra cost to the city. Les Bartell is well known for his generosity to local garden clubs and organizations.

Most importantly thanks to the volunteers* who came out and planted the daffodils on a chilly November morning.

RETIRED SCOUTS HELP MAINTAIN BOY SCOUT CAMPS

The Flintlocks repaired the Dan Beard Tree House at Boy Scout Camp Somers in Stanhope, NJ over the winter. This camp serves the Union County area scouts, as well as Morris, Sussex and Middlesex Counties.

The Flintlocks are retired scouters who volunteer every Thursday at Camp Winnebago in Rockaway, NJ. All it took was some lumber, some screws and some elbow grease. Since the Flintlocks are all volunteers with outstanding construction skills, it saves the Council from hiring outside contractors to do the repairs. A small group goes up to Camp Somers on Wednesdays to work over there. Most of the men had fathers who helped the Boy Scouts when they were in the scouts as lads, and have sons and grandchildren who were, or are, in the scouts.

For more information please visit the Facebook Page "Flintlocks", or contact Flintlocks Secretary Michael Hart at drmhart@yahoo.com.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

A Realtor's Open Letter

What a few months can do. Three months ago I wished you all a wonderful, blessed holiday season and happiness in 2020 in your current or new homes, apartments or commercial ventures.

Today many of us must put our plans on hold or on a slow track and that is okay! Our concentration now must be in protecting ourselves, our families, especially senior family members, our friends & neighbors. We need to look out for each other and work through a crisis that is unlike anything we thought we would ever face.

Now may be an excellent time to plan for the future. There can be a positive side if you were hoping to sell your home. Why not use the time you and your family have at home together and start decluttering, sorting and completing re-painting projects or minor repairs. Make it a family project!

Even if you as a buyer cannot personally view homes, together we can help you to research, analyze and view potential homes in the safety of your home on line, and where possible, arrange for in person viewing.

We all need to be cautious—wash those hands, practice social distancing and avoid large venues. Be careful about misinformation. When we care about each other, then together we will make it safely through these difficult times.

I wish you and your families, safety, health and peace for a blessed Easter and Passover holiday. If you need any help, or advice please do not hesitate to call.

God Bless

STUDENTS DONATE TO CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Students at Franklin Elementary School in Rahway made homemade fleece blankets, coloring books, and crayons. They also put together 'Mugs of Love,' which were mugs filled with tea, coffee, hot chocolate, soup, etc. The items were donated to the children at RWJ Children's Specialized Hospital in New Brunswick in hopes of putting a smile on the children's faces during this difficult time. Additionally, the students also gave books to be used for a book cart.

These students are members of the Blue and Gold Club, which is a school-based club. They volunteer their time throughout the year to help with different community service activities. They continually do a great job and work diligently to make a difference in their community. The club is overseen by the school's nurse, Mrs. Barbara Maher, and also Ms. Kym Adams.

GIRL SCOUT SARA WALSH WORKS TOWARD HER GOLD AWARD

Loving to Learn Throughout the Ages

Rahway Girl Scout Sara Walsh has been working toward her Gold Award this past year with the Alaris Health System in Rahway at their two facilities, Alaris Health at Riverton and Care Connection.

The residents at these two facilities have been spending time with young visitors from Merck/ECYC kindergarten and local Daisy Girl Scout Troop 40275. The residents and children have been building relationships and learning about one another through reading together, playing bingo and participating in other seasonal activities and holiday events. The residents and children both look forward to their time together. The groups quickly got comfortable with one another and it has been very rewarding to see the bonds that were built between the different generations. The residents look forward to the children's visits and the children excitedly come in to greet them and spend some time together.

THE CAT IN THE HAT VISITS FRANKLIN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

On the morning of February 10, the PreKindergarten through Second-Grade students of Franklin Elementary School in Rahway gathered together in the auditorium. They were there to listen to the story The Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss read aloud by the School Library Media Specialist, Susan Farrar, Ms.

Farrar prepared this assembly because she had a fabulous surprise she wanted to share with them. As she read the first few pages and came to the text that read, "...We looked! Then we saw him step in on the mat!", The New Jersey Education Association's The Cat in the Hat made an appearance.

The Cat in the Hat then acted out the story as Ms. Farrar continued to read. The Cat was also joined by the story characters, Thing 1 and Thing 2, who were exceptionally portrayed by Sixth-Grade students, Julia Monzon and Leandro Garcia Phillips.

As the visit came to an end, The Cat in the Hat was asked by Ms. Farrar to share his secret to becoming a better reader with the students, which was simply put "Read!, Read!, Read!"

The students were thrilled to receive a visit from one of their favorite fictional characters. As the students were leaving the auditorium, The Cat in the Hat honored each student by giving them a "high-five".

It was a wonderful morning had by all!

RAHWAY CHURCHES FEATURE VARIETY OF ARCHITECTURAL STYLES

Part 2 of 2 / Submitted by Al Shipley, city historian and Rahway Library Research Consultant

1. St. Thomas: A few years after a community of Byzantine Catholics founded a church in 1912, a sanctuary that had previously served two early Protestant congregations, became available. Built in the 1860s, the church stood on the west side of Irving Street between Seminary Avenue and Grand Avenue. The Byzantine congregation, then called St. John's Greek Catholic, would worship there until 1968 when they built a new sanctuary on St. Georges Avenue and changed their name to St. Thomas Apostle Catholic Church of the Byzantine Rite. Their new home, constructed in the Contemporary Byzantine style, was designed by famed architect J. Edward Luders, the man who designed the Vatican Pavilion at the 1964-65 New York World's Fair. The most dominant feature is the large, rounded gold dome which is topped by a jeweled triple bar cross. Three smaller golden domes, symbolic of both burning candles and the trinity, are positioned below the main dome. A magnificent stained glass, semi-circular window above the entrance covers most of the front façade.

2. Church of the Good Shepherd (formerly Holy Comforter): As neighborhoods grew in the mid-1800s—and new congregants were moving into those areas—a number of established church groups saw the need to build churches for their members who lived far from the home church. Such was the case with Holy Comforter. Founded in 1867 as a mission church of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the original structure (1870-1896) stood on the corner of St. Georges Avenue and Seminary Avenue until it was destroyed by fire. The present church building was built in 1898 in the Gothic Revival style. The one story, rectangular stone edifice has its gabled end facing St. Georges which features a round stained glass window. The steeply pitched roof and pointed Gothic arched windows and doors are characteristic of the Gothic style. Built for an Episcopal congregation, the sanctuary has the traditional red doors on the north, south, and east sides to symbolize the blood of Christ and signify the sign of the cross.

3. Zion Lutheran: In 1852, a Lutheran congregation was established in Rahway by Americans of German descent. Founded as the German Independent Evangelical Lutheran Zions Church of Rahway, their original home was located on Grand Avenue just west of Allen Street. In 1916, the congregation moved into a new church on Campbell Street where they would worship for the next thirty-seven years. The current church, built in 1953 at the north-west corner of Elm Avenue and Esterbrook Avenue, is constructed in the Colonial Revival style. The brick building has a pediment gable above the entrance which is supported by six Ionic columns. A transom window is set above the two leaf door with Georgian motif over the transom. A large, rounded window, flanked by two smaller windows on the Elm Avenue side, have sunburst motifs with keystones on top and to either side of the round heads. Three similar rounded windows face Esterbrook. A steeple is set on the center ridge on the south end.

4. Word of Life Apostolic Center (formerly St. Paul's Episcopal): The Episcopal congregation of St. Paul's was established in 1836, and within seven years, was able to construct a church on the corner of Irving Street and Elm Avenue. Built in 1843 in the Gothic style, the church has many characteristics of the building style popular in the mid-1800s. The imposing four-story entrance bell tower has a two leaf door through a pointed arch opening and two pointed Gothic windows to either side. Above the entrance is a tall, narrow, bricked-in window with pointed arch top (lancet window). Circular windows, also bricked-in, are set in the third level. The belfry story has paired lancet louvered openings on all sides and sharply pointed corner finials. Pointed arch windows with Gothic tracery are on both sides of the main building. Finally, being constructed as an Episcopal structure, it also features red doors on the north, south, and east sides.

5. Second Baptist: Since its founding in 1892, the congregation of Second Baptist has worshiped in four different houses of worship. Within a few years after their founding, the group built a small chapel on Haydock Street. In 1921, they built a church on E. Milton Avenue located approximately where the city recreation building stands today. In 1950, the congregation built and moved into their third church on the corner of E. Milton and Lenox Place. The church soon became too small for the growing congregation so a new church was built—in 1982—and connected to the forty-year old structure. The current, contemporary styled sanctuary has clean lines and a gently sloping, six-sided hip roof with a tall, slender steeple set in the rear. Entrance doors with stained glass transoms and sidelights are set to each side of center steps. Tall, thin, stained glass windows on the front walls and Lawrence Street side add to its modern appearance.

6. Trinity Methodist: Founded in 1849, this Methodist group was called Second Methodist and worshiped in a church on Railroad Street (eliminated when Rahway elevated the tracks) between E. Milton Avenue and Emerson Avenue on the east side of the tracks. Although noise from the passing trains had a disruptive effect on Sunday services, the congregation worshiped there for forty-three years. In 1893, the group changed its name to Trinity United Methodist and built the beautiful, brick, Romanesque-styled church on the corner of E. Milton Avenue and Main Street. The irregular church plan features steep roof lines with a tall main corner tower and two shorter towers to each side. The three story entrance tower has a belfry with three arched louvered windows on each side topped by a tent roof. The shorter towers have similar tent roofs. Two recessed entrance doors have rounded tops. The huge, rounded arched stained glass windows on the south and east sides are impressive features of this classic design.

GOT KIDS AT HOME? LET THEM SEW, CRAFT & QUILT!

With schools closed indefinitely and an increasing number of work-from-home parents and guardians due to the COVID-19 situation, planning daily activities for your favorite little people will obviously be key for the well-being of all involved!

Once their online schoolwork is complete, try using your own interest in sewing and quilting to keep them occupied. Depending on the age group, they could be happy gluing colorful scraps to cardstock to create collage artwork. Older kids might want to stitch together fabrics in their favorite color (by hand or machine) to make a simple pillow or tote bag.

Whether they've expressed an interest in learning more about the needle arts, or the suggestion is yours, we've gathered a few tips for quilting with children to make the process both fun and successful!

- Keep it simple – begin with quick fabric crafts like bookmarks, sachets, fabric pendants, pouches or a fabric collage that can also become a simple art piece suitable for framing.
- Mending is Trendy! Show them how to creatively mend their clothes and/or add decorative patches and pockets with hand stitching and easy embroidery stitches.
- Take into account the child's personality when planning your quilting session. For younger kids, keep it fun (and safe) by avoiding projects that require precise measuring and cutting. Instead, pull out some precuts from your stash, focusing on the fun of design and the creativity of blending colors and patterns.

- For older kids, or those who are naturally inclined to math and geometry might be open to the more precision-based aspects of quilting, where templates & rulers are used.
- Remember that children's taste levels are more sophisticated than ever; have a variety of fabrics and embellishments available for experimentation. Provide the opportunity to work with batiks and other cool "adult" fabrics that aren't strictly juvenile in design and coloration.
- Let the child work with scraps of one of your own current projects, to create a small "featured block" you can use as the back label for your quilt. The label can include both of your signatures.

(above) Sewers and quilters interested in making their own fabric face masks will also find CE's FREE face mask video tutorial on Instagram @culturedexpressions.

- Remember, creative expression can help to relieve some of the stress of the situation for people of any age – with any luck, you might also create a budding new fiber artist in the process! Have a follow-up project in mind to keep up the momentum and encourage their efforts as they work. The follow-ups can introduce new techniques to gradually increase their quilting skills.
- Stay safe, and keep creating!

LOCAL GARDEN CLUBS

Your local garden club is a great way to learn more about gardening, exchange ideas, ask questions, hear speakers and meet other gardeners that live in your area. You might be surprised how much you know and can share with others. Personal experience is the best teacher. Most of our local NJ clubs are organized under the umbrella group of the 'New Jersey Garden Club'.

Garden clubs give citizens a wonderful opportunity to meet and socialize with folks that have a common interest. After all, gardening is one of the most popular hobbies in our country.

The Rahway Garden Club meets on the 3rd Thursday of the month from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Merchants & Drover's Tavern.

For more information write to:

If you have a passion for gardening, come visit us. Meetings are free and open to the public. You might even decide to become the newest member.

RAHWAY FIREFIGHTERS COMPETE IN COOKED AND UNCORKED FESTIVAL

On Monday, February 24, 2020, Rahway firefighters joined with firefighters from around New Jersey to compete at the Cooked and Uncorked Food and Wine Festival, at the Pines Manor in Edison. Proceeds from the event were donated to the New Jersey State Firefighter's Mutual Benevolent Association (FMBA), and

The Burn Center at Saint Barnabas Medical Center.

The Ultimate Fire Department Cook-off was an integral part of the evening as firefighters from 25 departments competed in three different categories: Gourmet, Firehouse and Dessert.

The competition is part of the culinary extravaganza where participants were able to experience the tastes and flavors of more than 40 of New Jersey's finest restaurants, caterers and dessert shops all in one location.

The Food and Wine Festival, which draws people from throughout New Jersey, is an amazing event for a great cause.

Photos from this and other events can be found online at rennamedia.com and on Our Town Rahway page on facebook.com. Feel free to "Like," "Tag," and "Share."
