UNIONTV34 OPENS ITS DOORS TO KEANTV STUDENTS

Over the years UnionTV34 has welcomed visitors, students, and boy and girl scouts of all ages to tour their studio and control room while getting a look at the current TV technology and view the achievements of the channel over the years. On Thursday, February 27, 2020, for the first time, Kean University students, part of KeanTV, stopped by for a two hour tour with their professor.

“I am so grateful to UnionTV34 for all the support they’ve given to our students,” stated

Kean University Professor Gina Gili. “We have been provided with an opportunity to give our students a firsthand view of a professional television studio, steps away from their classroom. The feedback and the opportunities to provide weekly programming has been truly invaluable to our students.”

During their visit at UnionTV34, they learned the ins and outs of how the channel runs, helped produce the weekly “Spotlight on Union” show hosted by Edess Damis, and tried their hand in hosting “Union Minute,” a weekly one minute spotlight of events throughout town posted on the Township’s social media platforms @TWPUnionNJ.

“I believe this was a great opportunity not only for the Kean students to grasp real-life experiences but for the Township to be able to expand their partnership with Kean University,” mentioned Sal Terrezza.

GOT KIDS AT HOME? LET THEM SEW, CRAFT & QUILT!

With schools closed indefinitely and an increasing number of work-from-home parents and guardians due to the COVID-19 situation, planning daily activities for your favorite little people will obviously be key for the well-being of all involved!

Once their online schoolwork is complete, try using your own interest in sewing and quilting to keep them occupied. Depending on the age group, they could be happy gluing colorful scraps to cardstock to create collage artwork. Older kids might want to stitch together fabrics in their favorite color (by hand or machine) to make a simple pillow or tote bag.

Whether they've expressed an interest in learning more about the needle arts, or the suggestion is yours, we've gathered a few tips for quilting with children to make the process both fun and successful!

- Keep it simple – begin with quick fabric crafts like bookmarks, sachets, fabric pendants, pouches or a fabric collage that can also become a simple art piece suitable for framing.

- Mending is Trendy! Show them how to creatively mend their clothes and/or add decorative patches and pockets with hand stitching and easy embroidery stitches.
- Take into account the child's personality when planning your quilting session. For younger kids, keep it fun (and safe) by avoiding projects that require precise measuring and cutting. Instead, pull out some precuts from your stash, focusing on the fun of design and the creativity of blending colors and patterns.
- For older kids, or those who are naturally inclined to math and geometry might be open to the more precision-based aspects of quilting, where templates & rulers are used.
- Remember that children's taste levels are more sophisticated than ever; have a variety of fabrics and embellishments available for experimentation. Provide the opportunity to work with batiks and other cool "adult" fabrics that aren't strictly juvenile in design and coloration.

- Let the child work with scraps of one of your own current projects, to create a small "featured block" you can use as the back label for your quilt. The label can include both of your signatures.
  - Remember, creative expression can help to relieve some of the stress of the situation for people of any age – with any luck, you might also create a budding new fiber artist in the process! Have a follow-up project in mind to keep up the momentum and encourage their efforts as they work. The follow-ups can introduce new techniques to gradually increase their quilting skills.
- Stay safe, and keep creating!

LEARN THE RISK FACTORS FOR FALLS AND HOW TO PREVENT THEM

Submitted by Colleen Clayton

The Gateway Family YMCA is joining the National Council on Aging (NCOA) and the Falls Free Coalition to help raise awareness and prevention of falls.

Each year, it's estimated that one out of four Americans aged 65 or older will suffer a fall, leaving many adults with a fear of falling that can cause them to limit physical activities. This leads to reduced mobility and diminished quality of life and can increase their risk of falling. In addition, as the population ages, falls put an immense strain on the health care system, with the financial toll expected to reach $67.7 billion by 2020.

The good news is that many falls are preventable. With a focus on healthy aging, the Y is committed to helping older adults learn their fall risk and provide resources that can help them reduce their risk for falls.

"As a leading community-based organization dedicated to improving the nation's health, the Y is asking older adults, caregivers, family members and health care professionals to raise awareness and prevent falls in the older adult population," said Krystal R. Canady, CEO, The Gateway Family YMCA. "Many falls are preventable, but many older adults and their families don't know how to safely get active. The good news is that organizations like the Y can help," added Melynda A. Mileski, EVP/COO.

The first step to prevention is understanding risk. Older adults can assess their fall risk by taking a simple test at ymca.net/fallsrisk. Through this assessment, individuals can learn how routine activities and other factors help determine their risk for falls.

Once assessing risk, the next step is to take action; The Gateway Family YMCA is helping to improve the health and well-being of older adults across the country through programs like Enhance@Fitness, Action Against Arthritis, Tai Chi, Water Exercise, SilverSneakers Fitness and Gentle Yoga.

The CDC suggests these basic lifestyle and safety changes to help reduce risk and prevent falls: begin an exercise program to improve your leg strength and balance; ask your doctor or pharmacist to review your medicines; get annual eye check-ups and update your eyeglasses; make your home safer by removing clutter and tripping hazards, putting railings on all stairs and adding grab bars in the bathroom, and installing proper lighting, especially on stairs.

The Gateway Family YMCA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, health and community service organization of caring staff and volunteers dedicated to strengthening the foundations of community through youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. The Gateway Family YMCA impacts the community by providing quality services to people of all ages, races, faith or incomes. The Y does not just strengthen bodies – it strengthens people, families and communities.
