GROUP CULTIVATES GRATITUDE FOR FRONT LINE HEROES

As Front Line Appreciation Group (FLAG) signs started appearing on lawns in nearby towns, a thought occurred to Clark residents Kim Baglieri, Nicole Brighthouse, and Kristin Panayoutou. Those signs hadn't appeared out of nowhere, and if they wanted to see something similar happening in their own town, they were going to have to be the ones to make it happen. The trouble was, they learned rather quickly, it was going to require a bit more work than planting a seed in the ground, hoping for a flower to bloom.

So the three women quickly got to work. They researched the recent origins of the FLAG movement, which started in Chatham in March, in response to the Covid-19 pandemic. The goal was to highlight the hard work and dedication of frontline and essential workers who were risking their own lives daily, keeping hospitals and nursing homes open, providing indispensable community support such as police, fire, and EMT services, and ensuring other businesses and institutions, like banks, pharmacies, and grocery stores, remained open. FLAG groups accomplish this by offering a little appreciation and spreading some much needed love in the forms of food, notes of thanks, and other donations.

"I'm a teacher in Rahway, and I first started thinking about it when I saw that Rahway had just created a FLAG group," Brighthouse said.

"Our union was getting involved with it in town, so I thought why not do the same thing in Clark."

Baglieri, Brighthouse, and Panayoutou brainstormed their next steps, created a logo, ordered signs, established communication with community members, found local vendors from whom they could purchase food, and identified the local heroes they wished to thank. In a matter of a few weeks, lawn sign orders exceeded 800, they had raised over $16,000, distributed over $8,000 to local businesses, and donated almost 500 meals. One of Clark FLAG's first charitable acts was on Monday, April 27, when food was purchased from Bistro 1051 on Raritan Road and delivered to the Clark Nursing and Rehabilitation Center on Westfield Avenue.

At the time of this writing other deliveries included snack bags and gift cards to visiting volunteer nurses, 110 meals this Wednesday to RWJ University Hospital in Rahway, 75 meals to healthcare workers at Trinitas Regional Medical Center in Elizabeth this Friday, and meals to Hackensack Meridian JFK Medical Center in Edison.

While time-consuming and a great deal of hard work, the efforts of Clark FLAG have reaped benefits beyond what its founders could have guessed. In early May Panayoutou said, "Since we started this group just two weeks ago, we continue to be astounded by the generosity of our community. Because of those contributing, we are able to take in donations, give business to our local restaurants, and feed those working in our community throughout this crisis. It just shows how impactful the circle of kindness is here in Clark."

So maybe the next time you drive around town and notice one of those now very recognizable blue signs, offer a quick mental note of gratitude to all the workers currently keeping us safe and those striving to continue moving society forward as we survive these challenging times.

It turns out that, perhaps, through just a bit of dedication, perseverance, and appreciation, a seed has been planted in the ground after all.

ALJ KEY CLUB MEMBERS OFFER VIRTUAL READING SESSIONS

Submitted by Christine Casale Broski

Key Club Members from Arthur L. Johnson High School recorded remote reading sessions for preschool and elementary students to enjoy. The sessions have been posted on the district website under the "More" tab and then the "Year-Round/Remote Learning" sub-tab towards the top right of the page. Several members participated and books include One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish, Panda Bear, Panda Bear, What Do You See?, and Have You Filled a Bucket Today? among many others.

Key Club Advisor Kelsey Anderson stated, "The Key Clubbers have been circulating ideas of ways to help others in our community. Francesca Luongo reached out about reading children's books virtually to our local elementary school students. One of the goals was to read children's books to assist parents with a daily story or even use it as a bedtime story. The Key Clubbers were happy to send positive thoughts and messages through books to children during this time. We hope to continue to grow our virtual library to bring families more stories and support!"

 Students in both Mrs. Daneille Bihuniak and Ms. Annemarie Lamberti's seventh grade science classes at Carl H. Kumpf Middle School participated in a project-based learning assignment in connection to COVID-19. Students were asked to create a News Segment/PSA (Public Service Announcement) video about the current COVID-19 Pandemic and its impact on their community.

Students were asked to research COVID-19 using a variety of sources. They were given a research outline and rubric to use as a guide while completing the project. Questions to be covered included: What is a pandemic? What are the symptoms of COVID-19? What are some things you can do to reduce your risk of contracting COVID-19? What 3 things do you personally do to stay healthy and happy while under the "stay at home order"?

Videos included either images and text with voice over narration or actual video footage of themselves reporting. Students were also allowed to interview family members.

Bihuniak stated, "I am so proud of the work my students have put into these projects. Students did an excellent job of covering the spread of COVID-19 and the precautionary actions that are advised for all of us to stay healthy. As is often the case, younger generations tend to have a unique perspective on world events. It is evident from these videos that students are definitely missing their traditional classes and friends but are truly enjoying the increased amount of family time the stay at home order has created."

CARL H. KUMPF NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

The Carl H. Kumpf Middle School National Junior Honor Society recently inducted 15 new members into its chapter.

In addition to achieving a cumulative, weighted average of 4.25 students also had to demonstrate strong examples of leadership, service, character, and citizenship. Upon return to school, new inductees will be awarded membership cards and medals.

NJHS Advisor Ms. Hamilton stated, “I am so incredibly proud of this group. In addition to demonstrating stellar academic achievement and involvement, this group of students has continued to maintain a positive rapport with their teachers and staff during remote learning. When regular school sessions resume, we will be doing some fantastic service projects to improve our community at large.”

ALJ CLASS OF 2020 VALEDICTORIAN AND SALUTATORIAN

Clark Public Schools is proud to announce 2019-2020 Arthur L. Johnson High School's valedictorian Robert Lukasiewicz and salutatorian Heidi Compton.

Robert Lukasiewicz is the top-ranked senior and will lead the way to graduation in June 2020. He has earned the highest cumulative grade point average for his four years at ALJ. In addition to working towards an AP Capstone Diploma, he has completed fourteen AP courses throughout his high school career. He plays an active role as an academic student achieving inductions into the National Honor Society, of which he is Vice President, Science Honor Society of which he is President, and Italian Honor Society of which he is President. His high academic achievements are balanced by his involvement in extracurricular activities such as: Varsity Tennis of which he is captain, Key Club, Italian Club, Science League, and Varsity Basketball Team. In Robert's junior year, he was awarded the Dwight D. Eisenhower Award. The Dwight D. Eisenhower award identifies a high school junior who exhibits exceptional performance and potential in the areas of academics, athletics, community service, good citizenship and leadership. Robert will be studying engineering at Notre Dame in the fall.

Heidi Compton will be graduating Arthur L. Johnson High School as 2019-2020 ALJ salutatorian. Heidi's stellar academic efforts at Arthur L. Johnson High School have led her to inductions into the National Honor Society where she serves as Secretary; the Science National Honor Society; the Italian Honor Society; and

Tri-M, our Music Honor Society. Heidi also participates in activities that highlight her leadership ability, communication skills, and passions. These activities include our Varsity Field Hockey Team of which she is the Captain, President of the Senior Class, Science League, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Choir, Student Council, Recycling Club, Italian Club of which she is the President, Core Team at St. Agnes Church, Heroes and Cool Kids, and Peer Leadership. Volunteering occupies much of Heidi's time. This past summer, for example, she created and led an environmental program for children at our local library that included weekly lessons and activities. Her AP Capstone research study also had an environmental focus. She has been an active member helping others in her community volunteering at Home for Good Dog Rescue and various food and clothing drives. This coming fall she will attend Vassar College to major in English and Political Science while also playing Division III Field Hockey.

KUMPF HOLDS "KTV STARPOWER: HOME EDITION" COMPETITION

kTV StarPower is Carl H. Kumpf Middle School's annual lip sync contest, which started in 2012 in Clark. The kTV StarPower event has always showcased students' and teachers' lip sync videos that air on the school's daily student-produced television broadcast, kTV Live. These broadcasts typically culminate into live stage performances from the finalists at a special evening event. Even though kTV StarPower has already taken place this school year, a second "season" was added to act as Kumpf Middle School's first "virtual assembly" for the students to enjoy together online during the school day.

Since the students and teachers can only meet remotely via distance learning for the remainder of this school year, the event took place online via a live video stream on YouTube, with all videos from the contestants being pre-recorded. For the first time, contestants were also allowed to incorporate their family members into their lip sync performances, including parents and siblings.

kTV StarPower featured three teacher judges who provide "colorful" criticism and award each act up to five "stars" for each performance. Ms. Suzanne Hamilton, known by the students as the "cool" judge, stated that she likes lip sync acts with good "choreography and originality." She also said that she's always on the lookout for interesting fashion choices. Mrs. Cheri Fabrizzio, known as the "nice" judge, is usually reminding contestants to "be safe and appropriate" in their performances. "I love performances containing a lot of energy as well as those that look polished," Fabrizzio stated. Mrs. Kelli Yetsko tends to be a more "brutally honest" judge and is known to be labeled as "the mean judge" by the students. She stated that she is "looking for acts that put in a lot of forethought and really dedicate themselves to entertaining the audience."

In addition to the three teacher judges' scores,

Kumpf students were also invited to score each contestant via online voting to help determine the winner. Each year, the winning performance wins $100.

Kumpf's kTV program is produced by multimedia teacher Mr. Matthew Serwedes. This year marks kTV's 20th anniversary. Even though the school building is empty, kTV Live has still continued to create live broadcasts for the school every day via YouTube, with each kTV student staff member able to present their segments live from their homes, with live appearances from Kumpf teachers and staff.

Serwedes stated, "It was important for kTV to use their broadcast technology to create a sense of 'normalcy' to an otherwise difficult situation. The daily 'kTV Live' broadcasts and the 'kTV StarPower: Home Edition' virtual assembly were our ways to support the community and show how we can all persevere in a time of hardship. In preparation for kTV's 20th anniversary, Mr. Delmonaco allocated funding to upgrade all of kTV's studio equipment over the last few years, which fortunately already included the ability to live stream from any digital device worldwide. We are happy to use these new tools to help unite the community even when everyone has to be apart right now," Serwedes stated.

"kTV StarPower: Home Edition" can be viewed via the school's YouTube page at: youtube.com/kumpftv.

HEHNLY SCHOOL PARTICIPATES IN A VIRTUAL EARTH DAY CELEBRATION

Frank K. Hehnly School celebrated Earth Day virtually this year on Wednesday, April 22. Although the celebration was a bit different this year, the Hehnly Recycling Crusaders recognized this special day in many ways.

FKH staff and students were invited to wear their Earth Day shirts or colors (green and blue) to represent the day. Students were encouraged to participate in an outdoor, socially distanced activity, such as gardening or cleaning up their yard. Mrs. Nina Conner and Mrs. Annemarie Estevez, the Recycling Crusaders Advisors and Hehnly teachers, were both excited to see the participation from their Hehnly families. Mrs. Conner stated, “We are both proud to be a part of Clark’s team and know that Hehnly teachers will continue to do everything to give the children as many typical experiences as possible under the circumstances.”

Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Estevez sent out a few fun supplementary activities for the students to take part in: an Earth Day scavenger hunt, two videos, and a link to a virtual visit to the NASA website to see an Earth Day Special.

CLARK BOARD OF EDUCATION’S VIRTUAL SHOWCASE OF SUCCESS

Submitted by Christine Casale Broski
The Clark Board of Education recently celebrated the achievements of students and teachers as part of its virtual Showcase of Success. Each day, Superintendent Grande has been recognizing the efforts of students and teachers through his daily Honeywell announcements.

This year’s Governor’s Educators of the Year were recognized for educational excellence and their commitment to student learning. The Governor’s Educators of the Year Program recognizes “educational innovation, student achievement, the rewards of teaching, and important services outside the classroom environment that lead to student success.”

This year’s winners were: Janice Gossman, Art Teacher – Arthur L. Johnson High School Educator of the Year; Molly Cusick, School Counselor – Arthur L. Johnson High School Educational Services Professional of the Year; Thomas Peitz, Art Teacher – Carl H. Kumpf Middle School Educator of the Year; Steven Acosta, School Counselor – Carl H. Kumpf Middle School Educational Services Professional of the Year; Mary Jo Baker, 3rd Grade Teacher – Frank K. Hehnly School Educator of the Year; Cecilia Petela, 2nd Grade Teacher – Valley Road School Educator of the Year; Kristina Novello, Paraprofessional Aide – Clark Preschool Educational Services Professional of the Year.

25 students also received the State Seal of Biliteracy. These students needed to demonstrate a proficiency level of Intermediate Mid in all four domains of a world language. In addition, they were required to demonstrate proficiency in English by meeting the State high school graduation requirements for English language arts or through attaining the appropriate cut score on the ACCESS for English Language Learners (ELLs) assessment. These students were Juan Acosta-Lopez, Vicente Afonso, Justin Altamirano, Juliette Barakat, Andres Barraza, Sandy Botros, Omar Brito-Vargas, Emi Budnik, Briahna Castano, Andrea Coarite, Brandon Costa, Elizabeth Gondek, Julia Jaskiewicz, Ashley Jimenez, Gabriella Lopez, Saul Lopez, Gabriella Matos, Ariana Menes, Veronica Mierzejewski, Gabriella Mintz, America Renteria, Julian Rodriguez, Adrian Skiba, Oliwia Szostek, and Yahiree Yoplac.

Superintendent Edward Grande commented, "These students and staff members displayed their greatness in a variety of ways. We could not be more proud of them, especially at such a time as now."

An Important Message to our Community

Your Safety is our Top Concern!

Gary S. Horan

Victor M. Richel

Thank you for your overwhelming support during this pandemic. Businesses, restaurants, community organizations, religious groups and many, many individuals have reached out to show our staff that they're valued. We are very appreciative.

Stay Safe

Although the number of cases in New Jersey is declining, it is very important that we don't let down our guard. Continue to be safe by wearing face masks, washing your hands and practicing social distancing.

Above all, do not ignore your health. Don't become so focused on the COVID-19 pandemic that you neglect symptoms of serious disease like stroke, heart attack, and of course any serious injury. Chest pain, bleeding, shortness of breath, loss of muscular control, severe pain or dizziness, drug overdose, severe depression or anxiety, suicidal thoughts...these are just some of the serious symptoms that should be treated in a hospital.

You can feel confident coming to the Emergency Room for any health emergency.

Keeping You Safe

Here are the steps we are taking to keep you safe during the pandemic:

- Everyone who enters the Medical Center is screened for fever and given a face mask
- Patients with COVID-19 symptoms are separated from patients who do not have symptoms, and their treatment is governed by strict infection control protocols
- Each member of our staff is trained regularly in infection control and prevention procedures, and in the use of personal protective equipment
- All areas of the Medical Center are cleaned consistently and thoroughly, and all patient rooms undergo a deep cleaning using several steps including state-of-the-art ultraviolet technology

To fight COVID, Trinitas purchased an additional Surfiide unit that automatically disinfects every surface in every room where a patient has been treated.

What's Ahead

We are planning to reopen services including elective surgery, diagnostic procedures and outpatient testing – but only when it is safe to do so. Our experienced staff is conquering COVID and is ready and willing to care for all your health needs again.

As we start to return to normal in the coming weeks we ask that you stay safe, keep social distancing, wash your hands, wear a mask, and don't hesitate to seek medical attention if there is a need.

More than Ever - Caring for You in Every Way

CARL H. KUMPF MIDDLE SCHOOL CREATES ONLINE ART GALLERY

Tommy Peitz, Art Teacher at Carl H. Kumpf Middle School in Clark, has created an online art gallery for his students' work to be displayed. The gallery, a tool used to connect the community during this time of social distancing, features work from sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students.

Peitz stated, "I know the students were really looking forward to going to the Union County Teen Arts Festival this year. In order for the students to have a chance to show their work without social gathering, creating this website seemed to be the right direction. I am happy for the students to have their work shown to the Clark community while also maintaining social distancing. The site also serves as the CHK art bulletin board so student-work made in class and made remotely are shown as well."

Check out the students' work through visiting clarkschools.org/chkart/home.
