DAISY TROOP EARNS BADGES THROUGH PANDEMIC

Garwood Daisy Troop #41108 had their first meeting since COVID on Saturday, September 12. Troop Leader Vanessa Schubring and Co-Troop Leaders Mary Alverson and Erika Zurzolo made sure all the girls wore their masks and social distanced during activities. The main goal of the meeting was to welcome the girls back. They each received a Girl Scout mask, a personal hand sanitizer to hang from their bookbags, and all the badges they received during quarantine.

During quarantine the girls earned most of their petals through various activities, whether it was sending cards to the front line workers, doing chores around their house, planting and maintaining the flowers around town, or joining in a birthday parade to show that even through tough times, they are there for each other. Troop Leader

Vanessa said "I am very proud of these girls and more so impressed by how they stood strong through everything."

As a special surprise, Mayor Sara Todisco and Council President Jen Blumenstock came to speak to the girls about democracy and helped them earn their Democracy Daisy Badge. They spoke about the differences between the town, state, and federal levels of government. They also helped the girls write a letter to the Governor. After the meeting, Mayor Sara Todisco said, "It was an honor to join the Daisies to talk about my two favorite topics--Garwood and social studies. It was nice hearing the girls share what they love about Garwood. Hartman Park was the top answer."

Co-Troop Leader Mary said "I look forward to seeing all that the girls accomplish this year, and the many badges to be earned and adventures to be had."

ARTHUR L. JOHNSON HIGH SCHOOL NAMED NATIONAL SCHOOL OF CHARACTER

Arthur L. Johnson High School in Clark was recently named a 2020 National School of Character by Character.org.

National certification is the highest level of distinction bestowed by Character.org. Schools receiving this designation have demonstrated excellence in establishing a school culture that exemplifies and brings to life The 11 Principles Framework for Schools: A Guide to Cultivating a Culture of Character.

Edward Bucior, Assistant Principal of ALJ, stated, "Collectively as a school community, we promote and instill positive core values for our students. We have the best students, teachers, parents, and community! Our stakeholders are fully invested in creating upstanding leaders within the community. There's your "image" and then there's your "character". "Image" is doing the right thing when everyone is watching. "Character" is doing the right thing even when no one is watching. Both are important, but your character is what defines you! At the end of the day, character is not something you simply acquire, but rather it is something that is developed. Our students have been developed to be leaders within our building and community."

He continued, "The Character Committee just wanted to take a moment to thank everyone that has helped ALJ get to this point. I want to thank the Board of Education and Superintendent Mr. Edward Grande for supporting ALJ throughout the process. I want to thank our teachers, students, parents, and community members for the work that they put in on a daily basis and for all of the support they gave during the application process."

Garwood resident Andrea Castro was among twenty-one women honored at the 41st Annual Tribute to Women and Industry Awards Celebration, sponsored by YWCA Union County, held virtually on September 10th.

Andrea works for New Jersey American Water at the Raritan Millstone Water Treatment Plant. Having worked in both the laboratory and in customer service, Andrea understands complex water quality issues and is able to communicate them in a customer-friendly manner. With this gift, Andrea provides critical water quality customer communication information to employees statewide. Many departments look to Andrea for guidance and clarification on water quality issues and how to explain them to customers.

Andrea is a member of the Garwood Green Team and the Education Foundation of Garwood and has assisted with different projects in her community.

YWCA Union County's Tribute to Women & Industry (TWIN) Award is a nationally recognized honor for women. Since creating the TWIN award 41 years ago, the YWCA has honored women in executive, managerial, and other professional roles who have made significant contributions in their fields. This important award recognizes successful women executives for their outstanding achievements and honors those companies that have provided opportunities for women to achieve their potential.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the YWCA Union County, which provides comprehensive services throughout Union County for victims of domestic violence and their children, providing emergency shelter, housing, legal services, children's services, counseling, advocacy, family justice center and more. If you would like to make a contribution, visit ywcatwinmidjersey.org.
