STUDENTS TRANSFORMED INTO 'EXPLORERS'

Submitted by Gary Miller

Two Linden Public Schools teachers have recently completed the requirements to be certified as National Geographic Educators, a group that seeks to inspire students to be global thinkers who can change the world.

Zachary Coppa, a science teacher at Linden High School, and Michael D'Amato, a social studies teacher at Soehl Middle School, completed 30-hour courses that were broken down to a three-step process to gain certification.

"National Geographic Educator Certification is rooted in our Learning Framework, which is built around a set of attitudes, skills, and knowledge areas that embody the attributes of an explorer," said Kim Hulse, vice president of education programs for the National Geographic Society. "National Geographic Certified Educators are committed to teaching their students about the world and how it works, empowering them to succeed and to make it a better place."

Educators seeking certification attend a workshop where they learn National Geographic's philosophy of teaching about the world; implement two lessons from the National Geographic framework; and complete a video showing students' increase in skills and knowledge outlined by National Geographic.

"Congratulations to Mr. Coppa and Mr. D'Amato on this wonderful accomplishment," said Superintendent Dr. Marnie Hazelton. "This certification affords them the opportunity to use new tools to engage their students and elevate their classes. For them to seek out these tools on their own exemplifies the dedication of our teachers throughout Linden Public Schools."

(above) Zachary Coppa, a science teacher at Linden High School, has been certified as a National Geographic Educator.

(above) Michael D'Amato, a social studies teacher at Soehl Middle School in Linden, has been certified as a National Geographic Educator.

Coppa said the program allowed him to analyze teaching standards and cross-curricular connections through a new perspective.

"The certification sought to set the foundation to motivate my students to adopt the 'explorer' mindset through the National Geographic Learning Framework," he said. "It provided opportunities for students to 'reach beyond the classroom' and become global citizens who will, ultimately, create positive change throughout their post-secondary endeavors."

D'Amato said he was fan of National Geographic Magazine when he was growing up. So when he heard about their educator certification program, he knew it was for him.

"There are countless professional development opportunities for teachers these days and personally, with such limited time between being a father and teacher, I have to make sure that the ones I invest my time and effort into will have a strong impact on my growth and my students' learning," he said. "When I learned that National Geographic had an educator certification program, I knew right away it was a program that would challenge me as a teacher and provide my students with exciting tools and activities."

He said National Geographic helped him develop new "classroom catnip" – lessons that captivate students.

"From the National Geographic educator program, I was able to collaborate with teachers around the world to develop several new lessons and strategies that will elevate my classroom," he said. "I can offer my students the most sophisticated tools to explore their curiosities about local and global issues meaningful to them, then empower these students to take action that could make a difference in the lives of others."

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL RETIRED NUMBER OF GIRLS BASKETBALL LEGEND TAMECKA DIXON

Submitted by Gary Miller

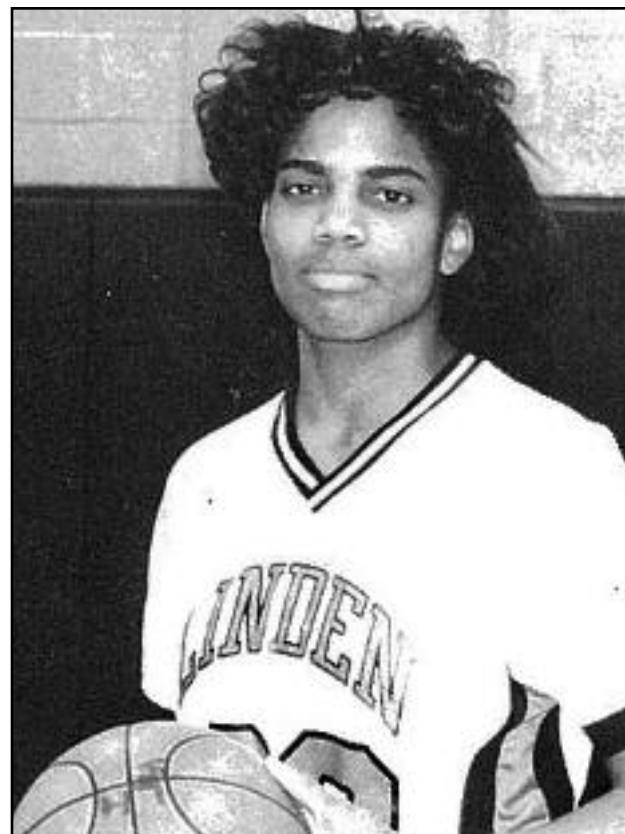

Linden High School retired the No. 33 of legendary Lady Tigers basketball player Tamecka Dixon at a ceremony held on February 24, 2020.

She graduated in 1993 and remains the school's all-time leading scorer among girls or boys with 2,092 points. Dixon led LHS to Group 4 state championships in her junior and senior seasons. She was selected as an All-American by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in her senior season, as well as first-team All-State by The Star-Ledger and Associated Press in her senior and junior years, and Player of the Year by The News Tribune as a senior.

In her senior season, she averaged 28.1 points and 13.6 rebounds to lead the team to a 28-2 record.

After graduating LHS, Dixon went on to star at the University of Kansas, where she was Big 12 Player of the Year in 1997 and was named to the Kodak All-America team. She followed that up with a 13-year career in the WNBA, including three All-Star selections and two championships with the Los Angeles Sparks.

"We couldn't be prouder to honor Tamecka Dixon after all she has accomplished here in Linden and beyond," said Director of Athletics Steven Viana. "Her achievements on the court and advocacy for education make her a stellar role model for our student athletes. When anyone thinks of Linden girls basketball, the first name they think of is Tamecka Dixon. She is truly a Linden legend, and no one could be more deserving to be remembered by future

Dixon currently owns a business in Westfield and is a member of the Union County College Board of Governors.

Dixon became the third student athlete to have their number retired at LHS, following Desmond Wade (boys basketball, Class of 2008) and Muhammad Wilkerson (football, Class of 2007).

THE LINWOOD INN TAP HOUSE CELEBRATES GRAND RE-OPENING

The Linwood Inn Tap House has bragging rights for being one of the oldest restaurants in Linden, which is located in one of the oldest buildings in Linden at 19 South Wood Avenue. The restaurant's owner, Yosh Neshimka, has been stacking shelves and slinging drinks since he was a teenager after his parents bought the restaurant in 1971. In 2000, Yosh did away with the attached liquor store and converted the space into a full restaurant kitchen.

The Linwood Inn Tap House has borne witness to some major changes, from the 1800's to the industrial revolution, and now the revitalized commuter hub it is poised to be today. Linden's train station is just a stone's throw away, and with luxury apartments cropping up on all sides, the Neshimkas are looking forward to serving a new generation of guests with the best food and atmosphere in town.

On August 31st, Governor Murphy announced indoor dining could resume in the state of NJ at a limited capacity. The Linwood Inn Tap House, alongside many establishments across the state, took the opportunity to open its doors again to the community after a two-month period without indoor dining.

After undergoing renovations during the summer months, on September 16th, 2020, Mayor Armstead and the Neshimkas performed a ribbon cutting ceremony. The ceremony marked its official reopening as everything returns to normalcy.

The Linwood Inn Tap House has 39 Tv's; and has an extensive menu featuring their famous original creations of pizzas, hamburgers, wings, clams and French dip.

They offer indoor dining at 25% occupancy. And outdoor dining until it's too cold outside.

Reservations are welcomed by calling (908) 862-2334.

You can also order delivery thru doordash.com. For pick-up orders visit www.linwoodinntaphouse.com, select online ordering.

MAKENZI HENRY HONORED AS JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT HIGH SCHOOL HERO SCHOLAR

Submitted by Gary Miller

A recent Linden High School graduate has been selected as a recipient of the 2020 JA High School Hero Scholar Award by Junior Achievement of New Jersey.

Makenzi Henry, a member of the graduating Class of 2020, was awarded a $2,500 scholarship for being a role model who exemplifies the importance of an education and giving back to the community. She was part of the LHS Junior Achievement High School Heroes program in her junior and senior years. The program takes high school students to visit elementary schools to talk about financial literacy, job readiness, and entrepreneur skills with their younger peers.

"Makenzi has really shown outstanding leadership while part of the program," said

Linden High School business education teacher Holly Sepulveda, who is advisor for the Junior Achievement program. "She has always guided others and set a good example for her fellow students."

Henry applied for the award with an essay that talked about how JA helped her prepare for the workforce and the important lessons she learned by teaching younger students.

"We're excited to announce that you are a recipient of the 2020 JA High School Hero Scholar Award!" said Catherine Milone, president of JA New Jersey, in a letter notifying Henry of her award. "The field of applicants this year was extremely competitive, and clearly, your leadership, courage, and dedication to the youth of your community have made you a most deserving recipient."

NJ RENEWS SUPPORT FOR VALUABLE AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

Submitted by Gary Miller

A grant to operate the highly successful after-school program at Soehl Middle School in Linden has been renewed for the 2020-21 school year.

The 21st Century Community Learning Center is entering its 16th year at Soehl, offering tutoring, enrichment programs, recreation, and more each day from 3 to 6 p.m.

"I am so grateful that the New Jersey Department of Education has accepted our 21st Century Community Learning Center grant award application for the 2020-2021 school year," said Soehl Principal Isabella Scocozza. "The 21st Century Grant will enable us to continue providing high-quality after school programming to our Soehl Middle School students."

The state grant is awarded for five-year terms but must be renewed each year. This is the second year of the current term. The program will be awarded $425,000 for the school year to pay for staff, materials, trips, programs, and a daily snack for the students.

The program continues to offer virtual classes even during remote instruction, including language arts and math homework assistance, coding, physical fitness, yoga, robotics, painting, and more. It will transition to in-person sessions when students return to the school.

"The 21st Century Community Learning Center does wonderful things for our students at Soehl Middle School," said Superintendent Dr. Marnie Hazelton. "Students who may be struggling get extra help, and all students take part in enrichment programs that help to expand their learning in the STEM fields and other areas. Even during virtual instruction, the program is there to support our students day in and day out."

The program works with about a third of all the students at Soehl at different times throughout the year.

"The main focus is to provide students with a wide range of activities that focus on STEM, homework assistance, enrichment programs, class trips, counseling, recreation, community service, mentoring – among many others," Scocozza said.

ADVANTAGE PLUSSM CHECKING ACCOUNT DISCLOSURE • EFFECTIVE DATE: Sept. 9, 2020

[1] Advantage Plus Checking Account $200 New Account Cash Bonus In order to be eligible to obtain the cash bonuses, you must open a New Advantage Plus Checking Account. You will receive a one-time new account $150 cash credit to your Advantage Plus Checking Account after we have verified qualifying direct deposit transactions that total at least $1,000 posted to your Advantage Plus Checking Account within 60 days after the date you opened the new account. The $150 will be credited to your account within 60 days after we have determined that you satisfied this requirement. Only one new account $150 credit will be made in total for qualifying direct deposit activity to this account within the first 60 days of account opening. You will receive a one-time new account $50 cash credit to your Advantage Plus Checking account after we have verified that 10 qualifying POS debit card transactions not including ATM withdrawals have been made with your Advantage Plus Columbia Bank debit card and those transactions post and settle to your Advantage Plus Checking Account within 60 days of the new account opening. The $50 credit will be credited to your account within 60 days after we have determined that you have satisfied this requirement. Only one new account $50 credit will be made in total for the qualifying Advantage Plus debit card activity. A "qualifying POS debit card transaction" is any Columbia Bank Debit Card transaction that requires either a signature or PIN at the point-of-sale. Please note that ATM withdrawals and online bill payments are not considered qualifying POS debit card transactions. Total $200 per person If you have ever received a new account opening bonus in the past, you are not eligible for either of the cash bonuses even if you open a new Advantage Plus Checking Account. You are permitted to receive only one of each of these new account bonuses irrespective of the number or type of checking accounts you open. To receive any of the aforementioned new account bonuses, the account must still be open at the time we are ready to credit the funds and at all times the account was in good standing. The new account cash bonuses will be reported as interest to the IRS on form 1099-INT. [2] Advantage Plus Checking Account is non-interest bearing. The minimum to open the account is $0.01. This account is only available to consumers (natural persons) for personal, family, or household purposes. It is not available for business purposes or to entities such as trusts, partnerships, LLCs, corporations, non-profits, etc. A daily minimum balance of $500.00 must be maintained in the account to avoid a monthly service charge of $8.00. If you transact 10 POS debit card transactions not including ATM withdrawals and those transactions post and settle to your Advantage Plus Checking Account during the month (i.e. statement cycle), the daily minimum balance of $500.00 is not required and your account will not be assessed the monthly service charge of $8.00. Consumers 22 years of age and under are not subject to the daily minimum balance requirement. Commencing with the month you turn 23 years of age and thereafter the daily balance must be $500.00 or greater for the entire month, otherwise your account will be charged the monthly service fee. [3] UChoose Cash Back Rewards: You receive one point for every $2 spent on signature-based and pin-based purchase transactions. By paying with your Columbia Bank Debit Card you can earn unlimited cash back annually on all qualifying purchases. A "qualifying purchase" is any Columbia Bank Debit Card transaction that requires either a signature or PIN at the point-of-sale. Please note that ATM withdrawals and bill payments are not considered qualifying purchases. [4] Advantage Plus Checking provides for a rebate of up to ten (10) ATM surcharge fees or $30, whichever is less, for each statement cycle when you use your Columbia Bank VisaSM Debit Card at domestic ATMs not owned or operated by us and the owners of such ATMs add a surcharge to your transaction. The refund of such surcharge fees will appear on your statement as a "credit." The maximum rebate per 12 month cycle period is $300.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist, 230 Melrose Terrace in Linden, will host their annual Blessing of the Animals on Sunday, October 4, 2020 at 2 p.m. A rain date is scheduled for October 11. The Blessing will take place on the great lawn of the church.

People participating in the events are asked to bring a folding chair. All persons coming to the event must wear a face mask to create a healthy environment and to comply with worship requirements established by the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey. Spaces will be designated on the great lawn to allow for social distancing.

A short Christian prayer service will begin at 2 p.m. and will include an individual blessing of animals. The priest will come to each animal and, with the owner's permission, bless the animal without touching the animal. Donations will be accepted for a local animal shelter.

The Blessing of the Animals takes place on the first Sunday of October since the blessing remembers St. Francis of Assisi, the Patron Saint of Animals, whose feast is celebrated on October 4. Throughout his life, St. Francis was known to preach to the birds, release rabbits caught in traps or fish caught by people and even make peace between a wolf and the people of Gubbio whom the wolf terrorized.

For additional information, please call the parish at 908-925-1535.

VOTING IN UNION COUNTY THIS NOVEMBER

The Union County Board of Elections continues to update voters on what to expect as Election Day, November 3, 2020, nears under Governor Phil Murphy's order for a primarily vote-by-mail election.

A video with step-by-step instructions for voters wishing to vote-by-mail can be accessed on the County Clerk's elections website, unioncountyvotes.com.

The video was produced to address the requirement by the New Jersey State Legislature and the Governor that the November 3 General Election be conducted primarily through vote-by-mail and the fact that most voters are unfamiliar with the vote-by-mail process.

Vote-by-mail ballots will be mailed to all registered voters beginning on Tuesday, September 15. All ballots for registered voters will be in the mail by October 5. If voters do not receive their ballots by October 13, they are asked to contact the Union County Clerk Election Division by calling 908-527-4996.

A step by step graphic how-to brochure will be enclosed with every ballot to help voters with the process. Voters with questions or concerns are asked to call the office of the Union County Clerk Elections Division at 908-527-4996.

Ballots can be mailed via the US Postal Service.

Ballots can also be deposited in one of 22 ballot boxes placed around the county. These boxes are under surveillance and picked up by authorized Board of Election personnel on a regular basis. Locations of the boxes can be found by visiting unioncountyvotes.com or ucnj.org/ucboe.

Those wishing to register to vote can download a voter registration application from unioncountyvotes.com. Fill it out and mail it no later than October 13 in order to be eligible to vote in the General Election on November 3.

For more information about all County Clerk programs and services, visit online at ucnj.org/county-clerk or call 908-527-4787.

ST. JOSEPH SOCIAL SERVICE CENTER VIRTUAL FUNDRAISER TO BE HELD ON OCTOBER 17

St. Joseph's serves the materially poor and homeless community of greater Elizabeth. The economic fallout from the pandemic has created an unanticipated increase in the demand for basic human needs such as food and medications. Since the end of March, we have distributed thousands of bags of food to more than 600 families. We have also shared thousands of sandwiches, toiletries, and protective equipment.

This year, more than ever, we could harness the support and participation of the community in our annual fundraiser. Because we want to make sure that everyone stays safe and healthy, we've modified the format, from an in-person dinner to a "Virtual Fundraiser."

Here's How to Support Our Virtual Fundraiser
Online: To purchase Virtual Dinner tickets, sponsorships, or to donate online, please visit eventbrite.com and search for St. Joseph Social Service Center- 2020 Virtual Annual Fundraising Dinner. A link can also be found on our website, sjeliz.org.

Mail: To purchase raffle tickets, Virtual Dinner tickets, sponsorships, or to donate by mail, please download the form, which can be found on sjeliz.org.

In Person: To purchase Grand Raffle Tickets in person, here are the locations:

St. Joseph Social Service Center, 118 Division Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07201 - Emy Cruz, 908-354-5456 x3

St. Helen's Parish Center, 1600 Rahway Avenue, Westfield, NJ 07090 - Marilyn Ryan, 908-232-1214 x113

We hope you'll support us with ticket purchases, sponsorships, and donations and join us via Facebook Live on October 17. Together, we can help our community survive and thrive!

$10,000 GRANT FROM INFINEUM BOOSTS REAL-WORLD LEARNING

Linden Public Schools have received a $10,000 grant from Infineum USA LP to support exciting, real-world educational programs in the areas of science and financial literacy.

"We are thrilled to have community partners like Infineum to help our students thrive," said Superintendent Dr. Marnie Hazelton. "Programs like these give our students the chance to step outside the normal routine to see real-life applications to what they are learning. Thank to you to Infineum for making that possible."

The largest portion of the grant will be used to fund environmental programs for students in fourth and seventh grades. A total of $6,000 will allow all students in those grades to visit Hawk Rise Sanctuary, a 95-acre ecological preserve and wetland complex along the Rahway River in Linden. The students will participate in a half-day field trip to Hawk Rise, guided and facilitated by NJ Audubon conservationists.

Student scientists will have the experiential learning opportunity to see the concepts they investigate in the classroom come alive in their own community. Hawk Rise includes a diversity of habitats, including forested wetlands, vernal pools, grasslands, shrublands, salt marsh, mudflats, a large pond, and the tidal Rahway River.

Another $3,000 will be fund a chick-hatching project for all kindergarten students. During this two-week classroom experience, students are immersed in the practices of science as they ask questions, make observations, analyze data, and construct explanations about the life cycle of a living organism. Student scientists' anticipation is palpable as they experience the magic of seeing the chicks break out of their shells.

The final $1,000 will be used to support the Entrepreneurial Management Achievement Program (EMAP), which is in its 13th year at Linden High School. EMAP is an independent program that works closely with the city and school district to give LHS students a reality-based education that prepares them for entrepreneurship and the business world after high school.

"Infineum USA LP is pleased to support the three programs for Linden students," said John R. Wise, plant manager. "Best wishes on behalf of the people at Infineum's Bayway Chemical Plant and the Linden Business and Technology Center."

(above) Kindergarten students throughout Linden Public Schools will be able to watch the hatching process of chicks thanks to $3,000 from a grant from Infineum USA LP.
