RYAN BRITTEN ATTAINS RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

Green Brook Boy Scout Troop 129 would like to announce our newest Eagle Scout, Ryan Patrick Britten. Ryan has worked hard to earn his Eagle Rank, while taking on the challenges of multiple school programs such as playing the trombone in Watchung Hills Regional High School Marching Band and Jazz Band and running on the track team while maintaining the Honor Roll. Ryan is planning on attending NJIT this fall, majoring in Mechanical Engineering with the tentative plan of a Master's Degree in Aerospace Engineering.

His leadership skills helped him plan and successfully complete his Eagle Project which was installing a display box at IEF school in Green Brook. The display box contains documentation and memorabilia of Green Brook's school dating back to 1938. The original cupola from the old school is in a courtyard at the new school and the display now explains for generations to come the history of their school. All of Green Brook would like to congratulate Ryan on this highest achievement in Boy Scouting of America.

SCLSNJ COMMEMORATES CULTURAL DIVERSITY

During Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month

The Somerset County Library System of New Jersey (SCLSNJ) continues their commitment to celebrating the diversity of Somerset County through cultural displays, programs, and collections that explore perspectives and share experiences. Throughout the month of May, the Library System honored the Asian American and Pacific Islander communities, which make up approximately 19 percent of Somerset County residents.

"Making personalized connections between our patrons and the materials in our collections is one of the most important things that we do at our branches," said Lynn Mazur, youth services supervisor. "By creating booklists and curating displays that spotlight and reflect the diversity that we see in our communities, we are ensuring that our customers are able to see themselves reflected on the covers and in the pages of books."

In honor of Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, the Manville branch, located at 100 South 10th Avenue in Manville, created a display that focuses on geography, history, and culture.

"The books featured on this display are all from the Enchantment of the World series (by various authors), typically housed in our children's nonfiction collection," said Jen Fitzgerald, youth service supervisor. "Asian and Pacific Islands countries from this series include: Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Iraq, Japan, Kuwait, Malaysia, Mongolia, Myanmar, Nepal, New Zealand, North Korea, Pakistan, The Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Syria, Taiwan, Thailand, Tibet, Turkey, United Arab Emirates, Vietnam, and Yemen."

Fitzgerald continued, "However, this is not an exhaustive list of all Asian and Pacific Islands countries. This display gives customers visiting the Manville branch an opportunity to learn more about these nations, with many people browsing the books while in the Library and others checking these titles out to read more at home."

The display also featured a family heirloom, a traditional Korean dress that belongs to Rosemary Kim, circulation supervisor.

"The dress is a handmade traditional hanbok from Korea," said Kim. "Today, we wear this dress during special occasions and events, particularly during the New Year's sebae tradition, which is a bow given to elders. This particular dress has been in my family for approximately 30 years and I am happy to share my heritage during Asian American Pacific Islander Heritage Month."

In addition to the display at the Manville branch, SCLSNJ's expert librarians have curated booklists that delve into the lives of members of the Asian American and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander communities.

"As a librarian, I believe that there is no better way to understand diverse communities than to read their stories in their own words," said Bob Helmbrecht, collection development librarian. "Whether you're looking for memoirs dealing with adoption, LGBTQIA+ memoirs, coming-of-age stories, business memoirs, or even graphic memoirs, you can find some great titles in the Library's collections."

Explore Asian American and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander memoirs for adults:

- "All You Can Ever Know" by Nicole Chung
- "Crying in H Mart" by Michelle Zauner
- "Eat a Peach" by David Chang
- "Fairest" by Meredith Talusan
- "How to Write an Autobiographical Novel" by Alexander Chee
- "Long Live the Tribe of Fatherless Girls" by T Kira Madden
- "The Magical Language of Others" by E.J. Koh
- "Sigh, Gone: A Misfit's Memoir of Great Books, Punk Rock, and the Fight to Fit In" by Phuc Tran

- "They Called Us Enemy" by George Takei, Justin Eisinger, and Steven Scott
 - "What We Carry" by Maya Shanbhag Lang
- Celebrate the culture and diversity of Asian American Pacific Islander communities through teen reads:
- "Almost American Girl" by Robin Ha
 - "American Betiya" by Anuradha D. Rajurkar
 - "Darius the Great Is Not Okay" by Adib Khorram
 - "The Girl King" by Mimi Yu
 - "Girls of Paper and Fire" by Natasha Ngan
 - "Heiress Apparently" by Diana Ma
 - "The Henna Wars" by Adiba Jaigirdar
 - "The Infinity Courts" by Akemi Dawn Bowman
 - "I'll Be the One" by Lyla Lee

LIBRARY SYSTEM SUPPORTS SENIOR HEALTH THROUGH COLLECTIONS, SERVICES

May 26 is National Senior Health and Fitness Day, a day that promotes the significance of physical activity for the aging population, as well as an opportunity for local organizations to demonstrate what they are doing to help to improve the population's health. Since U.S. Census data shows that 16.2 percent of Somerset County's population is aged 65 years or older, the Somerset County Library System of New Jersey (SCLSNJ) remains dedicated to serving this population through collections, services, and resources.

"Science has proven what librarians have known all along - reading is really good for you," said Jen Sulligan, civic services supervisor. "According to scientific studies, reading improves brain connectivity, helps prevent age-related cognitive decline, reduces stress, and can extend your lifespan."

In order to connect Library customers to materials that can help improve their overall health and well-being, SCLSNJ's expert librarians have curated a booklist of titles that showcase the exploration of various exercises; health and wellness tips; and the science of longevity.

"This year marks the 28th annual commemoration of National Senior Health and Fitness Day," said Bob Helmbrecht, collection development librarian. "If you're interested in discovering ways to stay healthy and fit as you get older, we are excited to share some of our favorite titles with you that offer ways to keep you sharp, moving, and thriving."

EXPLORE THE LIBRARY'S COLLECTION:

- "Age Later: Health Span, Life Span, and the New Science of Longevity" by Nir Barzilai
- "Aging Joyfully: A Woman's Guide to Optimal Health, Relationships, and Fulfillment for Her 50s and Beyond" by Carla Marie Manly
- "Dynamic Aging: Simple Exercises for Whole-Body Mobility" by Katy Bowman
- "Just Move!: A New Approach to Fitness After 50" by James P. Owen
- "Keep Sharp: Build a Better Brain at Any Age" by Sanjay Gupta, MD
- "Lifelong Yoga: Maximizing Your Balance, Flexibility, and Core Strength in Your 50s, 60s, and Beyond" by Sage Rountree and Alexandra DeSiato
- "Natural and Home Remedies for Aging Well: 196 Alternative Health and Wellness Secrets That Will Change Your Life" by Bottom Line Inc.
- "Pilates for Living: Get Stronger, Fitter and Healthier for an Active Later Life" by Harri Angell

- "Running Until You're 100: A Guide to Lifelong Running" by Jeff Galloway
- "Stretching for 50-Plus: A Customized Program for Increasing Flexibility, Avoiding Injury and Enjoying an Active Lifestyle" by Karl G. Knopf
- And more: catalog.SCLSNJ.org.

"If you can't make it to the Library to reap the benefits of reading due to age-related, health, or other qualifying barriers, SCLSNJ's Home Borrowing Library Services (HBLS) may be able to help," said Sulligan. "Through this recently launched service, the Library will send qualified customers their choice of materials in the mail via the United States Postal Service, or help facilitate pickup with a carrier of your choice."

For more information about HBLS visit: SCLSNJ.org/HomeBorrowing.

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL ★★★★★

Roseann's knowledge of the marketplace and the nuances of the communities she serves allow her to advise her buyers/sellers on how they may need to alter strategies to get their desired outcomes. Roseann is also a fantastic problem solver and goes above and beyond to bring solutions to tough situations. She listens and gets the job done but always in a respectful and pleasant manner. We were selling our house in NJ while living in Florida so Roseann was our eyes and ears on the home and made every showing perfect for those coming through. She went above and beyond on so many fronts that I can't say enough of the experience of having worked with her. She is truly the most knowledgeable, ethical, and easy to work with real estate professional I know, as I am now moving into my 6th house and 4th state. She's the best!
