400 GRADUATES CELEBRATE AT 111TH COMMENCEMENT

Submitted by Gary Miller

After a school year of COVID-19 protocols and virtual learning, Linden High School's 111th Commencement ceremony was a rousing celebration of life, perseverance, and achievement.

Three hundred ninety-eight students graduated on Friday, June 18, in a beautiful evening ceremony at Tiger Stadium at Cooper Field that brought together students, families, teachers, staff, and administrators after many months of being scattered by a pandemic. The night was hosted by Jason Fekete, LHS's vice principal for the senior class.

Salutatorian Melissa Menzel kicked off the ceremony with a speech about her own courageous battle against a rare form of brain cancer. She discussed the long, exhausting struggle just to get a diagnosis, and then her difficult fight against the disease.

But she told her classmates that she found a way to remain positive and urged them to do the same in the face of whatever challenges may come up in life.

"I started to look for things to focus on that would help me feel hopeful, rather than hopeless," said Menzel, who will continue her education at Kean University. "I needed to focus on things to be grateful for. It wasn't until I started thinking more positively that I was able to find the motivation and commitment to not give up and to persevere through my hardship."

"If there is one last piece of advice I want to leave everyone with, it's to try your best to go through life and all of its struggles with all of the grace and optimism that you can possibly muster. It's what will help you see past the hardship you may encounter, to not give up, and to imagine the future that you want to create for yourself. Congratulations to the Class of 2021. The best of our lives is yet to come."

Linden Mayor Derek Armstead told the graduates that he was happy they were finally able to gather for a celebration after a year of COVID-19.

"I would be remiss if I didn't mention last year's Class of 2020, who suffered just as well because of the pandemic," he said. "We provided them with an airport graduation and for a while I thought we would have to do the same thing again. But then a glimmer of hope, a light at the end of the tunnel appeared."

"I am confident that the lessons that you learned from this pandemic will be carried throughout your life and will make you better and will make you stronger. I am proud of each and every one of you for never giving up."

LHS Principal Yelena Horré said that with all the graduates have faced in the past year, they deserved a very special sendoff.

"Tonight we celebrate, in front of family and friends, your incredible accomplishments during the past four years, the past two of which have been truly unprecedented," she said. "Overnight you had to adapt from face-to-face learning to distance learning. And yet you all persevered. Many of you took on the added responsibility of taking care of younger siblings, of working to support your family, and the anguish of COVID-

LINDEN MIDDLE SCHOOLERS FIND STRENGTH IN DIALOGUE WITH AN R&B BEAT

Submitted by Linden Public Schools

Students at Soehl Middle School in Linden recently got the chance to take part in a unique virtual program that will help them stay “Soehl Strong” in the face of life’s challenges.

The program was developed by Grade Success Education and centers around the song “We Are Strong” by Gold-selling R&B artist Ny’a, who is married to Soehl teacher Eugene Napoleon.

Students and staff gathered in grade-level groups on Webex from May 11 to 13 with Ny’a and Marc Hoberman, founder of Grade Success. They engaged in meaningful discussion based on curriculum questions that dissected the lyrics and meaning of the song. Students spoke up on such topics as being united, the pandemic, respect for others, standing up against injustice, and working together toward a bright future.

“This virtual program for each grade level was nothing short of amazing,” said Soehl social worker Jessica Defelice, who acted as moderator. “The program allowed open and honest dialogue. We are ‘Soehl Strong.’ Thank you Ny’a and Marc for all of your words of wisdom!”

The “We Are Strong” virtual curriculum is aligned with the language arts and history core curriculum standards and touches the social emotional needs of the students.

“I am extremely proud and excited to be part of this virtual educational curriculum,” Ny’a said. “I am humbled to know that the words of my ‘We Are Strong’ song have touched others in a positive and meaningful way. That was my purpose for writing ‘We Are Strong.’”

JASON FERMIN OF LINDEN SWORN IN AS ADVOCATE FOR FOSTER YOUTH

CASA of Union County

The most recent class of community members – seven volunteers representing six municipalities including Jason Fermin of Linden – have completed 30 hours of training to become advocates for CASA of Union County, the only nonprofit advocating for the best interests of abused, neglected or abandoned youth removed from home and placed in foster care through no fault of their own.

Next, the new advocates will be matched to a foster youth or sibling set and, once legally assigned to their case by court order, can make arrangements to meet their assigned youth and begin their casework. This class ranges in age from 34 to 63 and includes both parents and nonparents, and those employed as well as retired. Experience includes teaching, law enforcement and homemaking.

Executive Director Mariel S. Hufnagel noted, “It’s such a wonderful moment when these dedicated individuals, who have made the decision to become Court Appointed Special Advocates, face the judge as they did today, as the culmination of weeks of intensive training. Being a CASA volunteer is a tremendous commitment, and as these individuals raised their hand and took their oaths, the pride and joy was palpable.”

Terry Gould, Advocate Liaison on the Board of Trustees, added, “I have volunteered my entire life and found my CASA work most rewarding because, although my CASA youth has aged out of the system, our friendship will be forever. It brings me great pleasure to see him beat the odds. He is a survivor. These new advocates are ready to hit the ground running and I am beyond excited for them and the adventure ahead!”

Since 2005, CASA of Union County has served more than 900 local foster youth and trained more than 600 advocates. With court-ordered access to the youth, foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists, teachers and others in order, advocates identify concerns and unmet needs, and ensure best interests are protected.

There are still youth in need of their own CASA volunteer. Is that you? For details on the advocate experience and the steps to securing your spot in an upcoming training class, reach out to info@casaofunioncounty.org.

(above) Sworn in as judiciary volunteers by Superior Court Judge James Hely via Zoom with newly named Judge Stacey Boretz looking on are Phil Newcomb of Cranford; Jason Fermin of Linden; Juliann Ford of Roselle Park; Jayme Lipkin and Neetu Salhotra of Short Hills; Amanda O'Dowd of Summit and Dawn Saunders of Warren.

Horré also spoke of discussions about “loss of learning” during the pandemic.

“I realize how absurd that concept really is. You’ve lost nothing,” she said. “You’ve gained an incredible amount of empathy, knowledge, and resilience during the past 15 months. You’ve learned more about yourself, about grit and perseverance, than perhaps any other graduating class. You’ve learned to push forward and adapt in the face of unparalleled adversity.”

Valedictorian Jordyn Loftus told her fellow graduates they should be proud for coming so far.

“Although we were all faced with many challenges, we managed to overcome them, just as we will continue to do in the future,” said Loftus, who will continue her education at West Chester University. “The road ahead is full of uncertainty, but we cannot allow this to hold us back from reaching our full potential. I would like to share a quote with you that inspires me. It reads, ‘You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think.’ You may not believe me when I tell you that this is a Disney quote spoken by Christopher Robin from ‘Winnie the Pooh,’ but it is.

“Nothing is impossible, so never say that you can’t do something, because you can. With hard work, dedication, and determination, anything is possible.”

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Marnie Hazelton said the pandemic helped graduates find strength that they did not know they possessed.

“To call you all survivors would be an understatement,” she said. “You have thrived, you are resilient, bold, and wondrously made. Sixteen months ago, your educational careers were upended, however you met adversity head-on and continued to soar.

“You are ready to face any obstacles placed in your way. You are Linden Tigers! No two tigers have the same stripes. Their stripe patterns are unique to each individual. You can hear a tiger’s roar from two miles away. So as you set the world ablaze with your roar and your uniqueness like tigers, remember the love that Linden poured into you since you were little tiger cubs.”

Board of Education President Carlos A. Rivas call the celebration a historic moment and invited all the families and friends in attendance to give the graduates a standing ovation. The crowd obliged with enthusiasm.

Rivas also recalled his journey to America when he spoke no English, and spoke to graduates whose first language is not English.

“There will be many who will perceive this language barrier as a weakness, but you will turn it into an opportunity, where there will be no closed doors and no glass ceilings,” he said. “To all of you whose first language is English, there also will be challenges. This can make you or break you in life. But you will persevere. Never give up! Stick to your core values. Remember that the recognition you receive today is the result of your hard work, determination, perseverance, and it will be great feeling when you realize that all your sacrifices were worth it.”

Dr. Hazelton gave awards to the three students who earned top honors overall. First honors went to Loftus, second honors to Menzel, and third honors to Mahmoud Shehata.

Students were also given special awards for top honors in three areas of study. Students in the College Preparatory program were honored by Rivas and board member Jennifer Flemming. They were Loftus, Menzel, Shehata, Nahuel D’Elias, and Emily Pieczyrak.

Students in the Business Education/Computer Science program of study were honored by Rivas and board member Marianthe Manganello. They were Erick Johan Macias, Christian Ortiz, Nylah A. Hughes Green, Karichia Thomas, and Shane M. Bean

Students in the Career and Technical Education program of study were honored by board members Flemming and Sheenaider Guillaume. They were Leo Yeung, Dylan Gomez, Christian Calvo, Ethan Martinez, and Chisa Torto.

Dr. Karen Baldwin, human resources manager, presented the A.R. Taranto Award, named for a past superintendent, to the best all-around student. The honoree was Makenzie Kuntz.

Principal Yelena Horr  presented the Principal’s Award to a student who stands apart as a person of character, honor, and commitment to academic excellence. Menzel was the honoree.

“This year’s recipient is very special,” Horre said. “She battled through a life-threatening illness, refusing to give up or give in. While others would have buckled, she maintained a full IB course load, bringing her computer with her to the hospital and never missing a beat. I am inspired by her strength of character and her resilience. It is nothing short of heroic.”

Students who achieved perfect attendance in Grades 9 through 12 were honored with the William McMahon Award, named for a retired language arts teacher who never missed a day in his 33 years of service. Assistant Superintendent Denise Cleary presented the award to Izabela Furtek, Alexander Stapkowitz, and Leo Yeung.

Six retiring faculty members were honored with diplomas emeritus from board members Sheenaider Guillaume and Malaysia Thomas. They were Linden High School counselor Helena Augustyniak, LHS English teacher Patricia Gergely, LHS Naval Science teacher Jaunita O’Neal, and LHS history teacher Patricia Zenchak.

An empty chair was set aside with a cap and gown and a moment of silence was held in honor of senior Jade Essence Givens, who died in November 2020.

“You will always be a part of the Class of 2021,” Fekete said.

Senior Class President Makenzie Kuntz gave the farewell address.

“It’s fair to note that we have had a unique high school experience,” she said. “We started off the same way as preceding classes. That was before our world was completely flipped upside down.

“After it all, we find ourselves here under the painted sky and bright lights of Tiger Stadium. As the sun sets here tonight and the natural light expires, so do our ID numbers and our time as Linden High School students.

“And although the sun has set and our high school journey has come to an end, the memories will last forever.”

“GOOD ENERGY” AT BLUE ACRES RESTORATION AND RAIN GARDEN

City of Linden

On April 22, 2021, volunteers from Phillips 66 joined the City of Linden, Conserve Wildlife, Enviroscapes and community members to clean up trash and debris that has collected in the recently established floodplain restoration and rain gardens areas of the Tremley section of the City. The volunteers also worked to do some necessary maintenance – pruning and removal of last year’s growth, fence repair and mulching.

Mayor Derek Armstead stated, “We are very fortunate to have a long-standing partnership with Phillips 66 - Bayway Refinery who was a driving force in the Blue Acres Restoration project. Bayway consistently supports the City of Linden’s needs and this community service cleanup is just one of many illustrations of their full commitment to Linden.”

“This is a great way to celebrate Earth Day, and to show our collective commitment to the environment and the Tremley Point Community,” noted Wilmar Rusinque, Phillips 66 Black Employee Network (BEN) Community Outreach Co-Coordinator.

“At Phillips 66, we believe actions speak louder than words,” continued Brittaney Faniel, Phillips 66 BEN Outreach Co-Coordinator.

“Good Energy is the Phillips 66 employee volunteer program. Phillips 66 employees are encouraged and empowered to grow personally and professionally by applying their time, skills and resources to build stronger communities across the country. Whether participating in a team volunteer day, sharing talents in a long-term relationship with a nonprofit organization or donating to a cause, our people are using their energy and talents to improve lives, every day,” explained Refinery Manager Chris Gallo.

“There is a special commitment by Phillips 66 to the Tremley Point community. This dates back to 2012 when Hurricane Sandy devastated the area, and Phillips 66 employees stepped up to help residents clean out homes and remove storm deposited debris,” noted Peter A. Brown Jr., Linden Environmental Committee Chairman. In later years, the Tremley Point community benefited from the establishment of five rain gardens (2016 – 2018) and the floodplain restoration on the state-owned New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (NJDEP) Blue Acres buyout properties in 2019-2020. These improvements were made possible as a result of United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) Superstorm Sandy grant funding, National Fish and Wildlife Foundation management and the philanthropic support of Phillips 66 and the New Jersey Corporate Wetlands Restoration Partnership.

“The project involved 22 properties/residential homes purchased by the state and houses removed, 3,000 Cubic Yards of soil removed, 4,659 trees, shrubs and plugs planted, to note a few project statistics,” explained Ed Blonar, CEO of Enviroscapes, the ecological restoration contractor.

Additional philanthropic support from Phillips 66 to Conserve Wildlife Foundation of New Jersey and Wildlife Habitat Council in 2021 will support wildlife research, habitat enhancement and invasive species control at the Blue Acres Restoration site. “This site offers a unique opportunity to survey various wildlife habitats, birds, pollinators, bats, turtles, and frogs and discover how this innovative ecological restoration is functioning within a densely populated region,” commented David Wheeler, executive director of Conserve Wildlife Foundation.

“It’s great to see so many Bayway employees volunteering today, this month and year-round. Volunteer work helps advance sustainable communities and improve lives,” Gallo added. “The City of Linden is a great partner, the Tremley Point Community is a special place. Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery is very proud to have been a supporting partner in this project and is pleased to be able to put our Good Energy volunteer efforts towards maintaining and protecting this award winning ecological restoration project created in this community,” stated Nancy Sadlon, Public Affairs Manager.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL EVENT GIVES SCIENCE AND TECH A DOWN-HOME FEEL

Linden Public Schools

Students at School No. 4 in Linden recently went back to nature on a virtual “farm” to learn how science and technology can affect the world around them.

“STEM on the Farm,” held on April 29, was a family-friendly night of learning through a virtual classroom hosted by technology teacher Mitch Gorbunoff. He took on the lively persona of “Farmer G” to introduce Science, Technology, Engineering and Math activities to students in a fun way.

“In the age of COVID-19, students of all ages have experienced how technology and science affect their everyday life in substantial ways,” Gorbunoff said. “This event further showed students how being involved in STEM learning gives you tools to effect change in the larger world.”

Students were given learning materials ahead of time and “Farmer G” walked them through various STEM activities related to farm life, such as creating a feeding system for pigs using paper towel tubes. Principal Dr. Suzanne Olivero and other School No. 4 staff members joined in the fun to encourage and applaud students’ efforts.

“The student response was incredible!” Gorbunoff said. “We received a ton of responses, pictures and videos of kids exploring and learning by trying.”

The event was made possible through the Union County STEM Scholars Grant, which paid for the materials for the student activities.

“I want to thank Union County Commissioners for starting this program, the wonderful teachers who worked with me to bring this event to life, and do so much to plan, facilitate and carry out the wonderful things we do at School No. 4,” Gorbunoff said.

“Lastly, I need to thank the families, teachers, staff, and administrators who all come together, show up and be there for each other. Dr. Olivero leads an amazing organization and has built a community that continues to do wonderful things.”

Hereditary membership is available to a male descendant, 14 years of age, who directly descends from a Soldier, Sailor, Marine or member of the Revenue Cutter Service between April 12, 1861 and April 9, 1865.

The General Phil Kearny Camp #20 meets four times a year at the Abraham Clark House in Roselle, NJ. The next scheduled Camp meetings are September 11, and November 13, 2021, all Saturdays at 1 p.m. We support over 20 high schools and 2 universities with the SUVCW ROTC Medal.
