LIBRARY TO STOP CHARGING OVERDUE FEES

The Garwood Public Library has announced that effective January 1, 2022, it will stop charging fines on overdue material and expunge existing fines.

Garwood Library is not the first go fine free. Many large metropolitan libraries throughout the country have eliminated fines including New York, Philadelphia, Los Angeles County, and Chicago Public Libraries. In New Jersey, Jersey City, Newark, Princeton, Toms River and Hoboken are a few of the libraries that have eliminated fines. Closer to home, the following Union County Libraries have gone fine free, Plainfield, Roselle, Scotch Plains, Union and Westfield.

The Garwood Library Board feels its' decision to go fine free is in line with the library's goal of providing free and equitable access to its information, resources, and services. A review of the library's budget indicates the fine free decision will have limited impact on the Library's finances. Studies show and a brief poll of other fine free libraries indicates that going fine free may actually increase circulation. The decision is also in step with the American Libraries Association 2019 resolution on fines. The Board hopes that a fine free library will encourage library use and create a more welcoming environment for its patrons.

The Library will continue to assess charges for the following items 1. Lost and Damaged Material, 2. Overdue Inter Library Loan Material, 3. Museum Passes, 4. Technology Devices and 5. Resource Kits. Failure to return library materials in a timely fashion will still result in suspension of library privileges.

For more information on library services or to register for programs, check out our website at: youseemore.com/Garwood, call 908-789-1670 or email the library at: garwoodlibrary@garwood.org.

DAISY AND BROWNIE TROOPS GIVEBACK TO COMMUNITY

The Garwood Daisy Troop 41005 and Garwood Brownie Troop 41108 had a busy couple of months of giving back to their community. In the month of November, the girls made 32 Samaritan Purse Christmas boxes. The girls stuffed their boxes to the top with notebooks, pencils, coloring books, crayons, combs, brushes, toothbrushes, play doh, a surprise toy and more. This project delivered not only the joy of what, for many kids, is their first gift ever, it also teaches both troops the gift of giving and being thankful for what they have.

In December, the girls used money earned from various troop activities to donate over $100 worth of toys to Toys for Tots in Garwood. They were excited to support Milk Money, a local business in Cranford, to purchase the toys. In the months of December and January, the girls will be collecting items off their Amazon wishlist to make care kits for the homeless. They will be assembling the care kits on Monday, January 15th for their MLK Giveback act of service. If you are unable to find the wishlist, please email Vanessa at vanessa.schubring@gmail.com.

Lastly, the Daisy Troop made flower arrangements and Christmas cards as part of earning their first petal. The girls were able to bring Christmas cheer to The Village at Garwood by handing out homemade Christmas cards and putting flowers in the common area.

THREE COUNTY FAMILIES MADE OFFICIAL ON NATIONAL ADOPTION DAY

Multi-town parade includes superheroes, gift baskets and more

CASA of Union County

The frosty morning of Nov. 19 may have been any other Friday for many, but for three Union County foster youth in Rahway, Roselle and Roselle Park, all under age three, their lives changed forever, as Union County Superior Court Judge Lara DiFabrizio granted each the consistency and stability deserved by all children, finalizing their adoptions and ending their time in the child welfare system. Each family had their own CASA volunteer working the case.

The annual event is held the Saturday before Thanksgiving and courts nationwide often celebrate National Adoption Day the business day before, or even open on Saturday, to hold adoption hearings. Here in Union County, all hearings were performed via Zoom due to Covid-19, and Judge DiFabrizio made official what each child likely already felt: they were finally home.

Despite the virtual component, those involved ensured the excitement was palpable. Upon completion of each adoption, the homes were visited by a caravan of fire trucks, police cars, court staff, law guardians and other case stakeholders, CASA of Union County staff and two of its interns suited up as Captain America and Mr. Incredible, and the bear mascot from Kenilworth's David Brearley Middle and High School. All cheered for the family, where each took their first official photo together, and the children spent time with the superheroes and school mascot.

Families received a hot breakfast donated by Urban Griddle in Elizabeth; a flower bouquet provided by Jane Phillips who, until her recent retirement, headed the Adoption Day Committee for the judiciary; and a gift basket from CASA of Union County made possible by collections of board and card games, puzzles and movie night fixings from the Kenilworth school and Summit's Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child. The latter collection was spearheaded by Desiree Mitchell, daughter of CASA volunteer Hope Mitchell, and included fleece blankets made with classmates. In addition, each child and all siblings received their own superhero dress-up costume and books hand selected by the Phi Eta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha. Each family received a Walmart gift card funded by the Union County Bar Association. Costumes for CASA's interns were loaned by generous members of the Facebook Buy Nothing Group in Cranford and Garwood.

Today, more than 120,000 youth nationwide need a permanent home, with an average wait in foster care of four years. Each year, 23,000 youth age out of the system without a family or safety net in place. For details on CASA of Union County's mission, the need for volunteer advocates and how to become one, contact Lucia at lfield@casaoofunioncounty.org or log on to casaoofunioncounty.org.

TOGETHER EVERYONE ACHIEVES MORE

Students in Mrs. Carol Del Conte's 5th grade language arts classes brainstormed and created a message that they wanted to share with their community. In a beautiful demonstration of the spirit of togetherness that pervades Lincoln School in Garwood, students gesture toward the message of "FAMILY" posted on their classroom windows.

Students are often reminded that—TOGETHER with each other, and the staff—they are members of the Lincoln School family, and that "Together Everyone Achieves More".

KENILWORTH CHESS CLUB IS BACK ON BOARD

The Kenilworth Chess Club resumed meeting on November 11, 2021, after twenty months of being closed due to the Covid-19 restrictions.

Club President Jack McCorkell of Cranford held a "Welcome Back Tournament" to celebrate. The casual unrated tournament excited members, and even some new arrivals, who were itching to play "over the board" again. The three-week tournament ended in a tie for first place between Hanna Malko of Clark and Joe Renna of Cranford.

The club was formed in 1972 amid the chess craze in America spearheaded by Bobby Fischer's march to the world championship. For 45 years the club was a force to be reckoned with as its member roster included many Master level players, including state champions.

The club has a reputation for being friendly and accommodating. It welcomes non-members with no obligation or cost. It's a place where beginners can learn in a casual setting without being intimidated. Strong players are generous with their time in analyzing and giving instruction.

The club's website, kenilworthchessclub.org, is well read and features an award-winning blog by Michael Goeller and other instructional features.

Players are welcome to just pop into the Kenilworth Chess Club with no formalities every Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Kenilworth Community Center located next to Kenilworth Borough Hall on the Boulevard and the corner of 24th Street.
