SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED TO LOCAL STUDENTS

The Bayway Community Advisory Panel (CAP), an organization of local community members and industry representatives including Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery, Infineum USA L.P., Linden Cogeneration Plant, Veolia North America, and Linden VFT LLC, recently awarded $1,000 scholarships to 7 local students in the municipalities of Linden, Elizabeth, and Staten Island.

The Bayway Community Advisory Panel (CAP) is a committee of community representatives from Linden, Rahway, Elizabeth, and Staten Island including neighbors, educators, retirees, public officials, emergency responders, and environmentalists who attend quarterly meetings that serve as a forum for dialogue between the community and company representatives, in order to build trust by sharing information on safety, health, the environment, security and emergency preparedness/response. The scholarship program is one of many joint community/company activities benefitting the local communities.

FUN-DRAISER FOR FOSTER YOUTH

Submitted by Isabela Bello-Zap

May began with good news for foster youth involved in the Union County child welfare system: they have the support of their peers. Four Girl Scouts from Cranford and Elizabeth partnered with local businesses to create a fundraising event in which all proceeds were directed to Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County. Girl Scouts Natalie Kastin of troop 40222, Maddie Litterio of troop 40013, Olivia Torsone of troop 40013, and Elizabeth McMullen of troop 40013 hosted a Sunday Funday event on May 1st, 2022 as part of their Silver Award Project to make a difference for youth aging out of the child welfare system in their community.

CASA of UC is all about making a difference in a child's story. For the older youth involved in the child welfare system, aging out can be extremely challenging as they face transitions in many areas of their lives, whether that be in their education, housing, employment, or others. Any support provided to them by friends, CASA volunteers, or their community is welcome in order to facilitate their successful transition from involvement in the child welfare system to independent living and learning. These four Girl Scouts are great examples of how taking action can directly impact one's life positively and change the course of their journey. Their Sunday

Funday event, full of games, face-painting and fun activities, raised $900 worth of gift cards that will be given to youth aging out of the system.

Looking back, all the Girl Scouts had different reasons for choosing to support CASA of Union County. Kastin notes, "I wanted to support CASA to help with some of the great things they do." Chiming in, Litterio states "I wanted to support CASA, specifically teens in foster care, so they know there are other teens and peers in Union County that are there to help them." Similarly, Torsone notes "We selected this project to help teens just like us, so they know they are not alone." McMullen states, "As a Girl Scout we should reach out to those in need, especially kids. It's important to support organizations like CASA to keep them viable."

We have their example to follow in lending a helping hand to improve the lives of those in our communities. CASA of Union County's role as the only nonprofit serving as extra eyes and ears for the court inside resource homes, serves to empower and support the 1,468 youth involved in the local child welfare system due to abuse, neglect, or abandonment. To learn more about CASA of Union County, secure a seat in an upcoming training class, and for other ways to Change a Child's Story, contact info@casaoofunioncounty.org.

SCOUTS HIKE THROUGH WASHINGTON, DC

Boy Scout Troop 23, sponsored by St. Genevieve’s Roman Catholic Church in Elizabeth, spent the Memorial Day weekend in Washington, DC. Thirteen Scouts and nine adult leaders and parents camped in tents in Greenbelt Park in Greenbelt, MD and made daily excursions into our nation’s capital.

Friday evening, the Scouts toured all of the major memorials after dark, when the lighting makes them look more spectacular and crowds are non-existent. The walking tour included the FDR, Korean War, Lincoln, Vietnam War and Military Nurses Memorials. At the base of the Abraham Lincoln statue, Troop 23 presented Scoutmaster Dan Bernier with a plaque recognizing his 40th Anniversary as Scoutmaster.

On Saturday, Troop 23 started at the Washington Monument and then visited several important sites between the White House and the U.S. Capitol. Notable stops included the World War II Memorial, the Boy Scout Memorial, the US Navy Memorial and the National Archives, where the Scouts saw the original copies of the Declaration of Independence, U.S. Constitution, and the Bill of Rights.

Sunday’s itinerary started at the Chapel in the Washington Navy Yard, where Scouts participated in Catholic Mass. Then the Scouts headed to Arlington National Cemetery, where they watched the Changing of the Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and visited the grave of President John F. Kennedy. A tram ride provided a narrated tour of notable sites within Arlington, with the narrator pointing out the graves of dozens of notable people.

Before heading home on Monday, Troop 23 spent time in the Smithsonian Institution’s Museum of American History. Throughout the weekend, the Scouts visited many sites looking for clues and information to help them earn the Baden Powell Historic Trail medal.

Boy Scout Troop 23 has served the youth of St. Genevieve’s parish and the surrounding area for 60 years. For more details, please contact Dan Bernier, Scoutmaster, at (908) 451-1948 or webfoottroop@gmail.com.
