BSA SCOUTS EARN RANK ADVANCEMENTS

Scouts BSA Troop 7 celebrated rank advancements for fourteen scouts at its Court of Honor held on Monday, June 13, 2022.

As Senior Patrol Leader Dylan Hock explained during the ceremony, "The Boy Scouts of America recognizes achievements by awarding badges of rank. This Court of Honor is an opportunity to celebrate the Scouting traditions and to share in our Scouts' achievements."

The rank of "Scout" was awarded to Colin Detgen, Peter Kohut, Ryan Egan, and Sebastian Schleck of Madison and Nate Estrella of Florham Park. "Second Class Rank" was awarded to Robert Crimmins and Ryan Egan of Madison and Patrick Roberts of Harding Township. Mason Hock of Madison was awarded the "First Class" rank, Dylan Hock earned "Star" rank, and Ryan Hock earned the rank of "Life" Scout.

Troop 7 also recognized Ryan Carrell, George Dailey, and Connor Erezuma for earning the Eagle Scout Award, the highest and most coveted rank in Scouting and the last major step in the advancement program. Scoutmaster Martin Gurney lauded these young men by remarking that "fewer than 4 percent of all Scouts in the United States reach the

"To meet the most rigorous requirement for this rank, each of these Eagle Scouts planned, developed and led others in carrying out a significant and meaningful service project to benefit their community. It was especially challenging for these three young men, as they executed their projects under lockdown conditions over the 18 months. Ryan Carrell, who lives in East Hanover, built an outdoor classroom at Brooklake School in Florham Park. George Dailey, a Madison resident, coordinated a team of volunteers to assist with the construction of timber stairs on a trail in Madison's Summerhill Park. Madison resident Connor Erezuma selected a conservation project, building and installing bat boxes for a protected species around the perimeter of the Madison Community Pool. In carrying out these service projects, Ryan, George and Connor have left an important mark on their communities, and we applaud them."

Troop 7 is chartered by St. Vincent Martyr Catholic Church in Madison. Information about Troop 7 is available online at troopwebhost.org/Troop7Madison, and young men ages 11-17 are welcome to observe a meeting or join at any time.

The Madison Area Chamber of Commerce held its Annual Awards Dinner on Tuesday, June 14 at Brooklake Country Club, 139, Brooklake Rd., Florham Park. The year-end celebration awards were given in several categories to include business improvement, community service and the Extra Mile award.

The evening was filled with good cheer, laughter and friendship and included a buffet dinner, a cash bar, door prizes and an awards ceremony.

"The Chamber's Annual Awards Night celebrated the outstanding achievements of a carefully selected group of distinguished individuals, businesses and community organizations. All of our 2022 honorees are being honored for their dedication and support of Madison businesses and the community," said Karen Giambra, the Chamber's executive director.

The Business Improvement Awards honored Shanghai Jazz, 24 Main St. with the Outstanding Interior Renovation Award in recognition of creating an updated interior space that is modern and inviting. The Madison Area YMCA, 111 Kings Rd. was awarded the Outstanding Expansion & Renovation Award for continuing to build a healthier, stronger community for children and adults of all ages.

Sola Salon Studios, 300 Main St. received the 2022 Innovation Award in recognition of their historic milestone of becoming the first salon studio/suite concept for beauty professionals to open in the state of New Jersey.

Bagel Chateau Madison, 45 Main St. received the Cornerstone Business Award in honor of being a landmark business for more than a quarter of a century.

Dish Kitchen, 19 Green Ave. received the Sustainability Award for their environmentally sustainable efforts and for the education they are providing to other businesses. The Community Service Award honored Stop & Shop Madison, 133 Main St. in recognition of their dedicated service to the people of our community.

This year's Distinguished Service Award honored Jerry Harmen, owner of Madison PhotoPlus, 40 Main St. for his dedication to the business community and Madison as a whole.

"Jerry Harmen, the recipient of the 2022 Distinguished Service Award, has made continual and lasting contributions to the local economy and consumers; to the Madison Chamber of Commerce; and to the Madison community," said John Morris, the chamber's President and co-owner of Stewart-Morris, Awards, Gifts & Flags. "For almost fifty years Jerry has been the leader and driving force of Madison PhotoPlus, which is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year. Jerry's story has deep roots in Madison. His lifelong careers – in photography and in retailing -- are renowned for their qualities of knowledge, expertise, care, and creativity."

The favored Extra Mile Award is the only Chamber award determined by the general public. This year honored Sue Gann of The Max Challenge Madison.

"Sue leads by example and exceeds the highest standards of customer service," said Chamber executive director Karen Giambra.

"The spirit of this award is embodied in the employees and entrepreneurs who work so very hard in Madison's businesses. They provide superior customer service everyday and make doing business in Madison a unique, pleasurable and rewarding experience," said Giambra. "The Extra Mile Award gives these extraordinary business people the public recognition they deserve."

PROHIBITION & SPEAKEASIES THEN AND NOW

Madison Public Library

Zoom Program, Tuesday, August 9th @ p.m.

You will receive Zoom instructions and online meeting information in your registration confirmation email in addition to a reminder email prior to the date of the program.

Please register at madisonnjlibrary.org

A century ago, the 18th Amendment was passed which prohibited the 'manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes' – for 13 years! During this zoom tour we will explore the dynamics that led to this most unusual law and the most interesting ways in which people dealt with it or worked round it. Since this time also fell into the Great Depression, people had to get quite creative to have a grand time, which many of them definitely did – it is also the roaring 20s and the azz age! How did people get their drinks? How did breweries survive? Where were all these speakeasies in NYC and which ones survive?

THRIFT SHOP PREPARING FOR AUGUST SHOPPERS

The Madison Independent Thrift Shop invites shoppers to stop in during the month of August when shoes, watches and anything blue will be 50% off the regular price.

The Thrift Shop, located at 39 Kings Road, is open Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., and Saturday from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. It is a non-profit group operated by volunteers, with all proceeds received from sales distributed annually to charitable groups in Madison and surrounding communities. If you have questions or need further information, please call 973-377-2450 during business hours listed above.

MADISON ROTARY BREAKFAST SPEAKERS

On August 11th, local Madison Bee Keeper, Blair Conley. After a career in global business development with Cisco Systems and AT&T, Blair retired and now works part time for the Best Bees Co. as a Beekeeper. He will discuss how beekeeping became a second career in his retirement, and his current work as a part-time beekeeper.

On August 18th, Mr. Ray Freaney will discuss the recent formation of a new "E-Club" within Rotary International focused on Mental Health Issues. Mr. Freaney is an active Rotarian and a Past District Governor of Rotary District 7475.

On August 25th, Mr. Jim Foster will provide an overview of the respective roles and activities of different land use boards under New Jersey's Municipal Land Use Law. Mr. Foster is an attorney, a Rotarian, and a member of the Madison Zoning Board of Adjustment.

The Rotary Club of Madison meets each Thursday morning at the Madison YMCA, 111 Kings Road, Madison, from 7:45 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. No fee for first-time guests. Morning meetings are also accessible by Zoom.

Please visit the Rotary website at madisonrotarynj.org for information on accessing the meetings via Zoom, and for any updates to the schedule and other meeting details. Please note that Rotary meetings, speakers, or speaker schedules are potentially subject to change. All are welcome to attend.

Madison Rotary members actively engage to eradicate food insecurity in our community, to empower youth and to partner with other local organizations to enrich the Madison community for all. The Rotary Club of Madison will celebrate its 100th Anniversary in 2023.

CHORUS OFFERS FREE A CAPPELLA SESSIONS

LIBRARY LAUNCHES SUMMER READING PROGRAM WITH PARTY

The Madison Public Library started summer with a splash as they kicked off their summer reading program on June 21st. Over 200 people attended the event, which was the first in-person summer reading kickoff since 2019. The summer reading theme this year is “Oceans of Possibilities,” part of a nationwide summer reading initiative and organized by the New Jersey State Library.

The kickoff took place in the library courtyard and had several stations. Attendees were encouraged to sign up for the reading club, during which children can track their reading and earn rewards. Children who signed up for the reading program during kickoff received a complimentary treat from Mike’s Ice Cream Truck. Participants also lined up to receive a glitter tattoo and have their faces painted. The Friends of the Madison Public Library, who sponsor the summer reading program, had their own table at the event, donating their time and their legendary homemade playdough. Finally, library staff had prepared nearly 200 ocean themed craft kits for people to make.

After the party in the courtyard, Eyes of the Wild presented a number of animals that live in or near the water. It was the first of several programs scheduled for the end of June through July at the library.

The reading program extends to teens and adults too: read a book to enter into a grand prize raffle! The summer reading program at the Madison Public Library runs through August 6th.

Retiring from a job or career often leads to a shift in identity. There are certain expectations about how you are 'supposed' to feel. But many find they miss the camaraderie of colleagues, are bored, or are not sure what to do with their day. Retirees may also feel a loss of professional identity and have questions about the future. These are all very normal parts of the transition to retirement. If you are struggling to define your next step and looking to connect with others in the same transition, join this support group facilitated by Claire Solu-Burd, LCSW. The group runs through August 17. Sign up is required.

COMPRISING THE

Continuo Arts Symphonic Chorus

.... "the Continuo Arts Symphonic Chorus sound marvelous: One of the signal pleasures of the show is the rich choral singing."

THE NEW YORK TIMES

"What better than a fine performance in a fine concert hall, and Carnegie Hall is assuredly one of the world's finest. A special word to the Children's Choir, you were great, one of the best I've ever worked with!"

JOHN RUTTER
composer/conductor

.... "uncommonly complex, classically-influenced score often soars, thanks in no small part to Continuo Arts Symphonic Chorus"
