WE WILL NEVER FORGET!

Green Brook Volunteer Fire Department

On September 11, 2022 several Green Brook Volunteer Firefighters took part in the 10th annual 9/11 Stair Climb, hosted by Raritan Township Fire Company and Hunterdon Health, to honor those that made the ultimate sacrifice on September 11, 2001.

The challenge of the event is to climb the equivalent number of stairs in full firefighting turnout gear and air packs that FDNY firefighters climbed in the World Trade Center prior to the collapses.

Each participant climbed in remembrance of a FDNY Firefighter who lost their life that day. As a team, Green Brook Volunteer Fire Fighters climbed in remembrance of our past Green Brook Fire Department Chief Alvin P. Kappelmann Jr., who lost his life on September 11, 2001.

TROOP 65157 HOLDS EVENT FOR LOCAL SENIOR CITIZENS TO EARN BRONZE AWARD

Submitted by Lucy Chen, Green Brook Girl Scout Troop #65157 (6th grade)

As a Junior girl scout, the Bronze Award is the highest award you can earn. Our small yet influential Girl Scout troop has identified an issue that we feel truly passionate about: helping seniors in our community. Seven months ago we had our first meeting discussing our ideas, and decided we wanted to tackle the problem of senior isolation. This marked the beginning of a long, exciting, and fulfilling journey as we talked to seniors and researched ways we could help. On August 30, 2022, all of our work came together as we held a planting event with senior citizens to help combat loneliness and brighten their day. We met at the Green Brook Senior Center and worked with the Seniors to make beautiful planters (that they got to keep) with flowers and supplies that we had purchased previously. We also played games and talked and all of us had a great time!

To plan for this event, we split our troop into three smaller committees. The financial group created budgets, planned shopping trips, and solicited donations. The production committee lead the troop in taking videos and pictures throughout the project, which includes making a short film on event preparation and execution. And finally, the event planning committee created a timeline and logistics plan, communicated with the senior center, and worked with the production committee. In addition, they also are creating a guide on how to host senior connection events in order to make this project sustainable. Every single one of these groups helped make this journey possible. We are excited to finish up by making a film that other Scouts can use to get inspired and see where the rest of this journey takes us.

MOM AND DAUGHTER RAISE AWARENESS OF ORGAN AND TISSUE DONATION

New Jersey Sharing Network

Jane Fischer and her daughter, Suzy, understand what it takes to overcome some of life's greatest challenges. As they celebrated Suzy's 48th birthday on July 18, they both took time to reflect on the gift of life and the miracle of organ and tissue donation.

On the day Suzy was born, doctors told Jane and her husband, Al, that their daughter would never be able to talk or walk or play like other children. While Suzy's special needs were great, Jane and Al kept hope alive that they would be able to persevere on the difficult journey ahead.

"Suzy proved them all wrong," said Jane. "Over the years, she has kept defying all the odds through her tenacity, courage, and strength. She surprised some of the best pediatricians and neurologists in our area by constantly working hard to develop and learn to do all the things they said she could never do."

While Suzy's life seemed to be filled with endless obstacles, she began to develop critical health issues shortly after turning 24 years old. Her kidneys began to fail, and she was soon placed on dialysis.

"It seemed like there were complications in nearly every one of her dialysis sessions," said Jane. "It took its emotional toll on Suzy and all of us, but she always did her best to keep her smile and the staff at the dialysis center loved her."

In December 2000, the Fischer family was in an airport in Jacksonville, Florida, when Jane's pager kept beeping and buzzing. "At the time, I mistakenly thought it was due to air traffic signals creating interference," said Jane. "But when we arrived home in New Jersey after our flight, we received an urgent phone call from our transplant coordinator at Saint Barnabas (Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center). They had a donated kidney for Suzy!"

Suzy received a successful kidney transplant, and the family is forever grateful to the 64-year-old woman who gave the gift of life. For 13 years, Suzy's transplanted kidney restored her health and she continued to fight through other serious health issues, including thyroid cancer that forced her to undergo a thyroidectomy.

In 2013, Suzy's transplanted kidney began to fail, and she faced another uphill struggle as dialysis loomed as the only treatment option. However, Suzy received encouraging news when another donated kidney became available for transplant. This time, her donor hero was a 24-year-old man who passed away in a tragic motorcycle accident.

"Suzy definitely had a lot of survivor's guilt," said Jane. "It helped ease her pain when I explained to her that the young man would have wanted his kidney to go to her to keep his memory alive."

Today, Suzy continues to thrive and enjoy life's most precious moments thanks to her organ donor heroes. Suzy and Jane have made it a priority to support NJ Sharing Network, the nonprofit organization responsible for the recovery and placement of donated organs and tissue in the Garden State. By sharing their story with others, Suzy and Jane hope to encourage more people to register as organ and tissue donors.

"The most important thing is to get others to understand the need for organ and tissue donation and how it saves and enhances the lives of others," said Jane. "We also want to keep hope alive for those waiting for a life-saving transplant. We want to encourage them to never give up. I do not know why Suzy's life has been so hard, but I have always believed it has been to help others and make a difference in someone else's life."

According to United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS), there are over 100,000 Americans – nearly 4,000 of whom live in New Jersey – waiting for a life-saving transplant. One organ and tissue donor can save eight lives and enhance the lives of over 75 others.

"We forever honor our donor heroes, as well as their supportive families, for their selfless decision to save and enhance the lives of others. Because of them, Suzy and all transplant recipients now have more birthdays, holidays, and special moments to share with their loved ones," said Joseph S. Roth, President and CEO of NJ Sharing Network.

GRAVE MARKER DEDICATION CEREMONY HELD AT VERMEULE CEMETERY

Submitted by Denise Wolf, Green Brook Historical Society

A dedication ceremony for the grave marker of Dr. John Vermeule was held recently. The Cultural, Heritage and Historic Preservation Committee and Green Brook Historical Society were very happy to see this day come. Green Brook Township acquired the historic Dr. John Vermeule House and property on nearby Rock Avenue in 2008. Along with the Township, our historic groups help to maintain and preserve this important historic site, which dates back to 1799. Renovations and the pandemic have held us back in making it a proper house museum yet, but we are well on our way.

Dr. Vermeule was born in 1768, the son of Adrian and Elizabeth Vermeule. Adrian was a scout and dispatch rider for the local militia during the Revolutionary War. He was wounded and captured by the British in January 1777 and died in the notorious Sugar House Prison in NYC in March of that year. John was only an 8 yr. old boy when his father died. The family lived on the other side of Rock Avenue from the present-day Vermeule property. When John reached the age of 20, he inherited 116 acres that covered the land from the foot of the Watchung Mountain down into Plainfield. He studied medicine, most probably under Melancthon Freeman from Woodbridge, and married Sarah Freeman in 1793. It is likely that he was the only country doctor in the area. They had three children that survived infancy - John, Margaret and Susan. Tax records show that the doctor and his family moved into the present house on Rock Avenue in 1805. He practiced medicine for the local farming community and was a farmer himself, growing wheat, oats, flax, rye, corn and hay. The farm records showed an inventory of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. In 1813 the doctor got seriously ill and died at the age of 45, on the last day of the year. Since then, there have been quite a few owners and tenants, including Quakers in the mid to late 1800's. Up until the 1960's, the Mundy family operated the Grotto Dairy Farm on the property.

Until recently, there was a missing piece of the puzzle. Could we confirm that Dr. John Vermeule was indeed buried in the family cemetery, here in North Plainfield? We don't see a stone for him here. His Last Will and Testament and other documents didn't give us that information. Finally, we got that evidence from two sources. One was from a nephew, Richard Vermeule, who visited the cemetery in 1846 and referred to him as the "beloved family physician" and one was from an account in the Courier News in 1950 which mentioned that his stone was still intact at that point in time. Sometime after 1950, the gravestone was either damaged or vandalized and is no longer visible.

Since Dr. Vermeule's house is on the National and State Historic Registers, we thought it was important to dedicate a new grave marker to restore the record of his place of burial. Research was done to try to find the original layout of the cemetery and find the exact location of his gravestone, but it bore no fruit. Given that he was one of the earliest burials here, it seems logical that he was close to the other early burial sites of his uncles who died in the 1820's.

The dedication of the grave marker remembering Dr. Vermeule will ensure that this part of local history is restored and not forgotten. We selected an appropriate marker to be consistent with the other replacement markers that have been installed here. Now we can conclude tours of the property by directing visitors to come to see this gravestone in this historic cemetery.

Many thanks to Green Brook Township Mayor VanArsdale and the township committee for their support and North Plainfield Mayor Le Ronde, Administrative Asst. Katherine Miller, former Mayor Jean Allen and Borough Clerk Richard Phoenix from North Plainfield, for giving us permission to install this marker. It couldn't have been done without their support. Thanks to Frank Stabile of the Lions Club, who has been very helpful and supportive. Many thanks to all for attending.

On October 8 and 9 we will have the Vermeule House open for visitors, as well as having a table up at Washington Rock, for the Somerset County Weekend Journey through the Past. General George Washington will be our distinguished guest on Saturday, at 1 p.m. We hope you can join us.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FALL LEAF CLEAN-UP

Help the Elderly & Disabled Prepare for Winter

The Somerset County Office of Volunteer Services is seeking individuals and groups to volunteer for its annual Fall Leaf Clean-Up project. Each year, on the weekend before Thanksgiving, volunteers rake leaves for the county's elderly and disabled homeowners who are unable to do their yard work.

Volunteering is a great opportunity for friends, families, church groups, sports teams, Girl Scouts and BSA Scout Troops, 4-H Clubs, high school clubs, or other groups to help their community. Sign up early so that plans can be made to serve as many residents as possible.

The annual leaf clean-up project is a one-day event that will occur on Saturday, November 19. Anyone who would like to volunteer but cannot make it on November 19 is welcome to schedule an alternative date and time through the Office of Volunteer Services.

Elderly or disabled Somerset County residents who need this service can call the Office of Volunteer Services.

For more information, or to sign up as a volunteer, call the Somerset County Office of Volunteer Services at 908-704-6301 or email VolunteerSvs@co.somerset.nj.us.

ABOUT CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark has been in operation since 1903 serving adults, children, families, seniors, veterans, and those suffering from HIV with compassionate care and services that provide help and hope. Our 84 programs serve close to 50,000 individuals in Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Union Counties annually. Our programs include counseling and support services for at-risk youth and their families; psychological and psychiatric help for those with mental illness; job training for those who are cognitively disabled; childhood education for preschoolers in Newark, Bloomfield and Elizabeth; emergency shelter for the homeless and for those who are HIV-positive; affordable housing for low-income families; immigration legal services; refugee resettlement; and adoption services.

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS AND MEMBERS

The Green Brook Cultural, Heritage and Historic Preservation Committee/Green Brook Historical Society is always looking for people of all ages interested in joining our group as a volunteer or member. There are also opportunities to get involved on an occasional basis, for special events or work days.

In October, we will be participating in the county-wide 'Weekend Journey Through the Past' event, which will be held on Saturday, 10/8 and Sunday, 10/9. We are hosting a table up at Washington Rock and distributing information about the history that took place there in 1777. General George Washington will make an appearance on Saturday, from 1 – 2 p.m. to give an interesting presentation. The Rock has also been the site of other interesting happenings throughout the decades.

The Dr. John Vermeule House at 223 Rock Avenue, Green Brook will be open for visitors, on 10/8 from 10 am – 5 pm and 10/9 from 12 pm - 4pm. The House dates back to 1799 and offers an interesting glimpse into 19th-20th century rural living. There are some interesting outbuildings and farm equipment to see, on the 2-acre property.

Mark your calendars and consider participating as a volunteer or enjoy the event as a proud resident!

Our meetings are held at Green Brook Town

Hall, 111 Greenbrook Road on the 3rd Thursday of every month at 7:30 pm. We also offer Zoom, for those who can't come in person. Our group has a lot of fun exploring our local history and doing our best to preserve and document its rich heritage. Please consider joining us!

OFFICE OF VOLUNTEER SERVICES SEEKS TUTORS

Help a child reach their potential

The Somerset County Office of Volunteer Services is seeking volunteers to help students who are struggling on their path to academic achievement. Volunteer tutors can help boost a child's confidence and help them reach their academic potential.

In this program, volunteers will work directly with the counselors and teachers who request tutors for their students. Tutors are needed for a variety of subjects, ages, and grade levels, and their skills and knowledge will be matched according to the student's needs. After the student is paired with a tutor, a schedule will be arranged by the tutor and the family. All sessions will be held at a local public library.

To become a volunteer tutor, send an email to jdamebeck@co.somerset.nj.us, and include what subject and grade level you prefer, as well as what towns are convenient to travel.

For more information, contact Jennifer Damebeck, Somerset County Office of Volunteer Services, at 908-704-6301.
