COMMUNITY CELEBRATED AT 47TH ANNUAL BOTTLE HILL DAY

Madison's annual fall festival, Bottle Hill Day, took place on Saturday, October 15.

This year marked the 47th Anniversary of this signature Madison, NJ, event. This event has continued to grow yearly since it was first established in 1974 by Mayor Elizabeth Baumgartner.

The DDC's objective is to promote economic growth and business development so that Madison's beautiful downtown continues to thrive. Bottle Hill Day was created in 1974 to promote the business district. The name originated from Madison's establishment in 1715 of the village called "Bottle Hill." Over the years, it has grown, evolving into a family, entertainment, and community celebration, which draws between 10,000 and 20,000 people to the heart of Madison every fall. This event is free and open to the public.

With the expansion a few years ago onto Kings Road, this rain-or-shine street festival spans over six blocks. It includes Family activities and rides, sidewalk sales, four stages of live music, lots of food, and a beer garden.

KIWANIS CLUB OF THE CHATHAMS AND MADISON

The annual Fish & Chips Takeout Dinners scholarships fundraiser was held on Wednesday, October 12, 2022. Thistle Catering prepared delicious fish or chicken dinners with chips, coleslaw, and condiments. Members from the Kiwanis Club of the Chathams and Madison along with students from the Chatham High School and Madison High School Key Clubs greeted the families in the front parking lot of Chatham High and brought their orders to them. Volunteers from the Kiwanis Club included Karen and Stu Shippey, Stephanie and Neil Cooperman, Dave Mutchler, Justin Montanaro, John Eyre, and Mary Anne Maloney.

Bottle Hill Day in Madison was held on Saturday, October 15, 2022, in downtown Madison. Several members from the Kiwanis Club of the Chathams and Madison chaperoned the outstanding student helpers from the Madison High School Key Club as families visited the Kiwanis booth. Visitors were given the Kiwanis International trifold describing Kiwanis Clubs as a multifaceted Service Organization, a booklet from Kiwanis International detailing the importance of becoming a Kiwanis member, and the illustrated trifold for the Kiwanis Club of the Chathams and Madison describing community service undertakings.

The Kiwanis Club of the Chathams and Madison holds in-person meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at local restaurants. Visitors may attend these meetings; please contact President Stephanie Cooperman at shc.amtnj@gmail.com or Past-President Karen Shippey at kkshippey@msn.com if you have any questions.

THURSDAY MORNING CLUB'S 'BAZAR DE NOEL'

Just in time for holiday shopping, special items for everyone on your holiday list and for yourself will be abundant at the Thursday Morning Club's festive 'Bazar de Noel' two-day holiday boutique from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday, November 11 and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, November 12 at the Madison Community House, 25 Cook Avenue.

The Bazar will feature many different exhibitors as well as prizes of theater tickets, gift cards, and gift certificates to popular local restaurants. It is the Club's major fund raising event of the year and proceeds provide funds for the Madison Community House, which is owned, operated, and supported by the Club.

La Patisserie, which has been a popular feature of every 'Bazar de Noel' (and this year's Bazar is the 42nd) will sell delicious quiches, cakes, breads, cookies, and homemade pies, perfect for your Thanksgiving dessert. Plus, the Club's catering department will offer a variety of homemade soups and sauces for sale.

Susan Packie and Jeannie Kosakowski, Bazar chairs, have selected exhibitors who will offer high quality unique classic and handmade items. Packie noted "with the special exhibitors, gift prizes and food items, the Bazar is a festive and fun shopping experience." Among the Bazar's holiday boutique selections will be Auriela Handbags, Compassion Fashion, Fennell Patch Arts, JoJo's bags and Things, Lemon and Lime Design, Pamela Cassidy Designs, Remy's Gems Jewelry, and Swarovski jewelry from Touchstone. A sample of the food items that will be available include flavored olive oils and vinegars from Seven Barrels, and local honey and a variety of sweet treats from Neshanic Valley Beekeepers.

Admission to the 'Bazar de Noel' is free. For information about the Bazar, please call 973-377-0244 or visit TCMCH.org.

Organized in 1896, the Thursday Morning Club (TMC) is a member of both the New Jersey State and General Federation of Women's Clubs. The Club offers programs and services to support the community, and its Madison Community House provides a home for a five-day Preschool and Before and After School Child Care Program as well as a number of sports, recreation, and civic groups. If you would like to serve the community, make new friends, enjoy programs and activities, consider joining the Thursday Morning Club.

For information about the Thursday Morning Club or membership, call the Community House at 973-377-0244 or visit TCMCH.org.

STUDENTS CHANGE HUNGER

MHS Key Club students are hosting the annual Students Change Hunger Food Drive!

38 million Americans are food insecure, meaning they don’t know if they have enough to feed themselves and their families. Over 650,000 live right here in New Jersey. The Community Food Bank of New Jersey is challenging all students, staff, teachers, and parents to think of those less fortunate by organizing a food drive and collecting as much food as possible to support those who need it the most.

Ways to Get Involved:

Students, faculty, and community members can drop off nonperishable food items either at the front entrance of the school from 2:00-2:40 on FRIDAYS starting on 10/21 - 1/13 or in Room A1 any day of the week.

Donations can also be made online using this link: <https://give.cfbnj.org/team/454075>

Confrontational Duets in Opera

November 19, 2022

Hartman Lounge, The Mansion, Fairleigh Dickinson University, 285 Madison Ave, Madison, NJ

When two singers blend their voices, our listening becomes doubly rewarded; and when their characters' interaction is conflicted, we enjoy exciting vocalization and theater! This presentation will feature a variety of memorable duets from Opera scenes where the characters express themselves quite dramatically.

In addition, Opera at Florham is now offering The Joy of Opera series with Lou Barrella as part of the Florham Institute for Lifelong Learning at Fairleigh Dickinson University. The public is welcome to attend the class, "Singing without Words," on Friday, November 11 from 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. in Lenfell Hall, The Mansion, FDU, Madison, NJ. Advance registration required.

Louis Barrella has been a dedicated Music Educator for over 50 years, specializing in Music and Opera Appreciation in schools and cultural organizations. He has lectured at colleges, museums and cultural institutions throughout the Metropolitan Area. He conducts an Opera class at the Garibaldi Meucci Museum and lectures for Opera at Florham. He has organized student trips for the Metropolitan Opera Education Department for over 40 years. He is a member of the Board of the Enrico Caruso Museum, a regular presenter at the Mario Lanza luncheons, and co-host for Columbus Citizens' Foundation's Opera nights.

Opera at Florham has been in residence since 1982 at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Madison, presenting concerts, fully staged operas, and an annual Vocal Competition. Each season our professionally trained artists present four to five concerts where they perform famous arias and excerpts from America's great Broadway musical theater repertoire. MADISON VOLUNTEER AMBULANCE CORPS FALL 2022 "TWO IN ONE DRIVE"

Our Fall Fund Drive appeal letter was sent out in October. The message asks recipients to consider two things, money and people. If only 25% of Madison's approximately 5,500 households contributed $100 or more, we would reach our budget's goal. To those who made that decision during a prior drive, we extend our sincere appreciation and look forward to your continuing support. Our budget needs everyone's contributions. Every nickel, dime, quarter and dollar counts. To donate you may select from one of the following: Mail your check to Madison Volunteer Ambulance Corps, 29 Prospect Street, Madison 07940, or donate on line at madisonems.org/content/donate. Donations are fully tax deductible.

While money pays the bills, people provide the actual 24/7 services for which you never receive a bill. We've tried lawn signs. A large white sign has stood at the corner of our building at 29 Prospect Street for months on end asking for volunteers. The net results of these efforts have been largely fruitless. MVAC needs additional members so that we can continue to serve you. We are all one great Madison family.

All of our members give freely of their time covering their monthly shifts. In addition, many are covering double or triple shifts. This is time away from their families that they devote to serving you. Step 1 of the appeal letter's response form has a box that says, "I am interested in joining MVAC." We'd love to hear from you. We'll gladly provide the training and the uniforms but without you, there may come a time when there is no us.

Take this opportunity to help us so we can help you when you make call 911 about a medical emergency. On behalf of my colleagues who are the Madison Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Thank you!
