SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ JUNE SHOW

The Salem Roadhouse Café presents the Stephen Fuller Quintet, Saturday, June 10, 2023. The doors open at 7:15 p.m., the show starts at 8 p.m. Admission is $20 and includes show, snacks, non-alcoholic beverages, and dessert. The venue is located in the basement of Townley Presbyterian Church, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities.

Stephen Fuller's deep rich voice and soulful renditions have long made him a favorite with sophisticated audiences around the world, performing in Israel, Jamaica, Costa Rica and The US Virgin Islands. In addition to his overseas engagements, Fuller has also performed in renowned New York City and New Jersey venues and has opened for both Stevie Wonder and Bill Withers while attending Colgate University.

Stephen will perform at the Roadhouse with his quintet. Last year he did a total calypso show which got the audience totally involved and thrilled. Stephen has always been top notch entertainment. This show he's working on some special treats for us.

As always, the Salem Roadhouse Café is live, intimate, up front, and personal. All ages are welcome.

ABOUT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

It's not "church music." It's music music. Folks who've come to the Salem Roadhouse Café know that it's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music — in a world otherwise filled with clubs and bars. The Roadhouse has always offered its stage to local and independent mainstream musicians. Jazz, rock, folk, and other groups have performed. What's the common thread? They're all great musicians playing the kind of music people like to hear. There's no message, just music.

The Roadhouse started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth. Hey — that's why we're located where we are, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That's its social mission.

But the many musicians who've played the Salem Roadhouse Café see it as a solid performance venue. They love it because of its special intimacy and great audiences. They say people here "really listen." Ask any of the musicians you meet here — they love to play the Roadhouse, and they want to come back often.

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, and others. Many thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.

THE SPOTTED LANTERNFLY IS HATCHING

Invasive Insect Is a Danger to Trees, Decorative Plantings, and Agriculture

Residents are reminded to keep an eye out for the invasive spotted lanternfly that has caused damage to residential and agricultural plants and trees throughout the area. Residents are asked to check trees, fences, and other flat surfaces around their homes and neighborhoods for egg masses, as well as grown lanternflies and Stomp Them Out!

The spotted lanternfly is native to China, India, and Vietnam. It was first sighted in the United States in Pennsylvania, and has since spread to surrounding states, including New Jersey. The spotted lanternfly was first discovered in Somerset County in 2019. While not harmful to humans or animals, this invasive insect feeds on the sap of many different hardwood trees, scrubs, ornamental plants, and has the potential to impact agricultural crops of economic importance such as grape vines, hops, and apple orchards. Feeding damage caused by the spotted lanternfly significantly stresses the affected plants which can lead to decreased health and potential crop loss.

Residents and visitors are advised to keep an eye out for spotted lanternflies and their egg masses and kill them on sight. Destroying spotted lanternfly egg masses before they hatch is the best way to limit their spread. Eggs can be laid on any flat hard surface including metal, wood, and plastic. Egg masses are commonly found on fence posts, telephone poles, lawn furniture, and the underside of tree branches. Egg laying begins in September and continues through November or until the first freeze.

While adult spotted lanternflies do not survive the cold winters, their egg masses do. Beginning in May through June, the eggs will start to hatch and mature through their life stages into adulthood. Join the battle to beat the bug and help us Stomp Them Out!

IF YOU FIND SPOTTED LANTERNFLY EGG MASSES:

- Scrape egg masses using scraper cards, or anything else that is hard, tapered and/or flat
- Kill eggs by putting them into doubled bags, using alcohol/hand sanitizer, or by smashing

CAR DONATIONS HELP VETERANS

Submitted by Michael Boll

The New Jersey Veterans Network (NJVN) has received countless donations and other awesome support from Renna Media News readers. We are extremely fortunate to have so many readers that love helping our veterans live a better way of life. To date articles in Renna Media publications have resulted in 4 car donations. Veteran “Sarge” is the most recent recipient of a car donation after the donor read an article in a March publication. We are blessed to have such a generous following, donations like this will help our veterans get to work, and their medical appointments.

INTERNSHIPS HELP STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES BUILD THEIR FUTURES

COMMUNITY ACCESS UNLIMITED

Your first job: whether you worked in an office, restaurant, store or other business, your first professional experience teaches you about the world of work and grows your chances for future opportunities.

For students with disabilities, that opportunity to start work is harder to come by: the jobless rate for people with disabilities is about twice as high as the rate for those without a disability. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the unemployment rates for persons with a disability was 7.6 percent compared to 3.5 percent for those without a disability in 2022.

Community Access Unlimited (CAU), an Elizabeth-based nonprofit, is working to change the narrative for students in Union and Essex counties who have a disability to help them transition to a more independent adulthood. Through a nine-week paid internship program supported by a grant from the NJ Division of Vocational and Rehabilitation Services (DVRS), 34 students built their professional experience this winter and spring, most of them for the first time. CAU provides comprehensive supports for individuals with disabilities and youth at risk in New Jersey to help them reach their goals and integrate into the community.

“I feel like I have more confidence in myself and I’m ready for what comes next,” said Osayemwenre Akenbor, 19, who worked at Walgreens and learned customer service skills and how to stock a store.

The students recently celebrated completion of their internships at a graduation ceremony at CAU. For five of them, the experience has led to permanent positions. The internship program, now in its fourth year, is part of comprehensive employment services at CAU, including supportive employment (job coaching), career counseling, and pre-employment transition services.

Melody Holiday, CAU director of transition services, joined the employment services team in 2022 to manage the growing program, building the number of participating employers and supporting 26 interns in 2023, compared to 9 in 2022. “It’s helping them towards their independence and becoming productive members of society,” Holiday said. “The program is about helping them to be successful in their own communities.”

Students shared that in addition to CAU supporting them to find and complete their internships, the agency also assisted with transportation training, such as learning how to take an Uber or train, as well as resume preparation and soft skills such as communicating in a professional setting. CAU skills instructors Angela Williams and Williamae Bryant checked in during shifts to provide any needed guidance.

Cashmeir Chambers, 17, assisted in administrative duties at Weequahic High School. “I enjoyed myself, it was helpful and that’s what I wanted- my first goal was to get a job there and make money,” Chambers said.

The internship experience has also been transformative for employer partners like Jackie Park Albaum, director of environmental justice and urban agriculture at Groundwork Elizabeth. Albaum worked with six interns to train them on working in a greenhouse, building garden beds and general maintenance tasks. Some of the garden beds will be used at community gardens in Elizabeth and at schools around Union County. “We were happy to have the students join us and excited to be their first work location,” Park Albaum said. “I think it provided a good introduction to working in a nonprofit agriculture environment and to managing basic tasks.”

Park Albaum encouraged employers to hire people with disabilities and reach out to become involved in the variety of workforce development programs that bring in employees with disabilities. “I think everyone brings value,” she said. “We can always find a way to put a seat at the table and it’s important to include those with disabilities in your workforce.”

For more information on becoming an employer partner of CAU, call Melody Holiday at 908-845-2633 or email mholiday@caunj.org. For more information on CAU's comprehensive support services, visit caunj.org.
