FOSTER YOUTH JOIN FOREVER FAMILIES AT ADOPTION DAY

CASA of Passaic and Union Counties

On a recent fall morning, five youth ranging from three to 10 years old entered the courtrooms of Superior Court Judges Gavin Handwerker, Paul Nieves and Chanel Hudson as foster youth and, shortly after, emerged as official members of their new families.

Adoption Day is eagerly anticipated by many at Union County's Family Court, as ample smiles fill the courthouse – a juxtaposition to the daily navigation of complex issues fraught with loss or discord. This year, county dignitaries presented families with proclamations and certificates, and festivities included performances by 30 high school students from Elizabeth's Thomas Jefferson Arts Academy A Cappella Choir; a former foster youth sharing her personal journey and adoption story; a roaming balloon artist; sheriff's officers dressed as superheroes and a Batmobile outside for visiting; furry greetings from Kenilworth's David Brearley Middle High School mascot bear; personalized cupcakes; and ice cream, face painting, and friendship-bracelet making stations.

CASA of Passaic and Union Counties presented family fun-themed gift baskets made possible in part from donations by David Brearley Bears That Care program and the Union County Bar Association. Baskets were given to all those finalizing on Adoption Day, as well as several families who adopted earlier in the year.

Cynthia Evans of Scotch Plains was among the CASA volunteers to attend the ceremonies for their assigned children. "The day was a long time coming for these sisters, and it was amazing," she said. "I've been their advocate since 2020. Between their adoptive families and all involved, embraces and cheers were aplenty. My time as their CASA volunteer was both rewarding and challenging. I'm thankful I could help ensure their needs were met and services were provided while in care."

Adoption Day is a national movement to raise awareness of children in foster care. Since its inception 23 years ago, nearly 60,000 children have found permanency. More than 437,000 youth in the United States are currently in the child welfare system awaiting a permanent home, and the average wait is four years. For more than 23,000 youth, that doesn't happen, and they age out of the system, facing life on their own.

INTERNET CRIMES AGAINST CHILDREN TOPIC OF MEETING

Retired Policemen and Firemen's Association, Local 3

New Jersey State Police Detective Daniel Rafanan gave a 45-minute presentation on Internet Crimes Against Children, at the Retired Policemen and Firemen's Association, Local 3 meeting recently held at the Kenilworth VFW.

Detective Rafanan covered many of the issues with the Internet that lead to texting, bullying, depression, and suicide in our teens today. Detective Rafanan also covered sextortion which is an increasingly common online crime in which people are enticed into sending sexually explicit photos. Once the photos are sent, the receiver of the images threatens to share them online or with family or friends unless the victim sends money.

Detective Rafanan also explained what parents can do including, Establish rules and expectations for online behavior early on; Review your child's social media account periodically, look at comments and photos; Explain consequences for inappropriate online behavior; Review your child's friends accounts as well; and Talk about what their friends are posting.

The Internet Crimes Against Children Unit is responsible for conducting investigations of offenders that utilize computers and computer technology for the purpose of exploiting children. The unit conducts proactive and reactive investigations into endangerment of children.

This was a powerful and educational presentation that all parents and teenagers should see and hear. If anyone would like more information on this program, you can email Retired Chief Grady at rprfllocal3@gmail.com for contact information.

STUDENTS TAKE PART IN GROUNDBREAKING

Kenilworth Public Schools

A groundbreaking ceremony at David Brearley Middle-High School on Dec. 14, 2023, included school district leaders, Board of Education members and construction contractors.

But the true guests of honor were barely taller than the shovels they used to scoop the soil. Five fourth graders – one from each homeroom – participated in the groundbreaking as their classmates watched from the bleachers.

All wore hardhats and waved blue and yellow flags – the same colors of their future school.

The current fourth-grade class at Harding Elementary will enter David Brearley Middle-High School as the school's first sixth-grade class in September 2025. The groundbreaking signaled the start of the work on the two-story addition that will expand the middle school to accommodate grades 6-8, and create a high school science wing. The project is part of a $31.4 million bond referendum that Kenilworth voters approved last year.

The building addition will give the middle school its own main entrance, a structural separation between the middle school and high school, and space for more middle school classrooms.

"We know that students thrive when they feel a sense of belonging. We have long been determined to give our middle school students a true home of their own where they can focus on their academic and social experiences," Kenilworth Public Schools Superintendent Kyle Arlington said during the ceremony.

Shifting the sixth grade to Brearley also will benefit Harding by freeing up space and providing more schedule flexibility.

"The projects and allocation of resources were intentionally planned and aligned to support our district goals and the evolving needs of our students," said Board of Education President Dr. Michelle Panichi.

Work is already underway on other bond referendum projects, including athletic field upgrades and efficient HVAC units for every classroom. Renovations are also planned for the Harding and Brearley auditoriums. Parts of the Harding auditorium have not been updated since the school was built a century ago.

IMAGINE VOLUNTEER FEBRUARY TRAINING

A recent participant in Imagine’s last volunteer facilitator training shared this about her experience: “The training was truly amazing and inspiring. I am so honored to have had the opportunity to participate in it.” Another shared: “The Imagine Staff are amazing. I so appreciate all the knowledge they shared and the encouragement they gave to me and the other participants.”

Participants in Imagine’s training programs often describe the experience as “life-changing”. In addition to story sharing and the opportunity to support one another, training participants gain knowledge and skills regarding Alan Wolfelt’s Companioning Model for grief support that’s practiced at Imagine. Participants often walk away with a new understanding of themselves, and a new capacity for supporting the people in their lives. They bring this understanding to their role as facilitators in Imagine’s peer support group program where children, youth, young adults and adults come together to share their grief experiences and receive and give support.

Imagine’s volunteer facilitators come from all walks of life and no special background is required other than a willingness to listen, a heart inclined to serve, and the ability to be with children and adults in grief without trying to fix, solve or give advice. No prior experience is necessary. Volunteers must be 18 years or older. Bilingual (Spanish speaking) volunteers are needed as well. Volunteers serve as companions and loving listeners for those who are grieving and help create a space where participants can share tears and embrace the joys of life.

If you'd like to join us for Imagine's next facilitator training, it will be held Saturday, Feb. 17th through Monday, February 19th from 9 am-5 pm each day at Imagine's Newark Center at 570 Broad Street in Newark, and we ask that our new volunteers attend the entire training. Our new Newark center is located downtown in the Chase building with parking available directly behind the building. It's also close to public transportation. We're hoping those completing the training will be able to facilitate groups held every other week at our Newark center. We have a world where no

child grieves alone

so many children and families currently in need of support that we're planning to launch a new Night of Support in Newark. We’re also looking for a few new facilitators for our Mountainside location.

If you're interested in making a difference in the lives of grieving families and would like to participate in this transformative training experience, please visit Imagine’s website at imaginej.org or scan the bar code below to let us know of your interest. Please reach out to Imagine’s Program Supervisor, Abigail Preece, LPC at abigail@imaginej.org with any questions.

Imagine is a 501c3 nonprofit that offers free year-round grief support groups for children ages 3-18 and young adults 19-30 who are coping with a loss due to death. Concurrently, support groups are available for the parents and guardians of the children in the groups and offered in English and Spanish. Imagine also offers grief and loss education and training to the community. For more information please contact Imagine at 908-264-3100 or info@imaginej.org.

DISCOVERING KENILWORTH’S “MODEL HOMES,” PART 2

The New Orange Industrial Association created New Orange in 1894 from over 30 farms it bought in Union and Cranford. Most of New Orange was known as Kenilworth in 1904. The Association divided the farms into thousands of building lots and wanted to sell homes it had built and also lots by themselves, to make a profit on its investment in buying the vast land area.

It marketed the properties in large ads in NY newspapers. One such ad was titled, “A NEW CITY, New Orange.” It read in part, “If you are looking for a first-class investment where property is sure to double in a few years . . . , [then buy a home] in New Orange.”

A contract was awarded in 1897 to master builder William Hopkins of Brooklyn, to erect 140 homes. He built the first in July 1897. Many were built Downtown, the area west of N. 14th Street, primarily north of Monroe Ave.

The homes were referred to as “De Hirsch Houses” as the impetus for their erection was to shelter the many Jewish families to be brought to New Orange – the predecessor of Kenilworth – by the De Hirsch Fund. The De Hirsch Fund sought factory jobs here for Jewish people who it brought to the United States from eastern Europe – mainly Russia – to escape religious persecution.

By 1899 Hopkins was far behind schedule having completed only 40 units. At this pace the Association knew its business venture could be doomed. In desperation, another builder was sought to build the remaining 100 houses – but it had to be done in just 100 days. That summer James Arthur of Philadelphia was contracted to build those 100 houses in 100 days. Arthur, who built more than a thousand homes in the Philadelphia area, was up to the challenge.

Arthur recruited tradespeople to form “work gangs.” Many lived in tents and vacated farm buildings. Some remained in the community once the work was done. Some rose to prominence such as William Hoiles and John Hiller, Jr., eventually Kenilworth’s second and third mayors. Joseph Gow, was later school board president. Jack and John Shallcross became prominent local businessmen. Hiller branched out built dozens of homes on his own. He served as a postmaster. Gow later constructed homes as well.

The 100 homes were completed by November, well within the 100 days. At the same time, Arthur amazingly built other homes, stores, a factory, a huge rooming house, and two hotels. Realtor John T. Kanane, another new arriver, handled sales, rentals, and construction progress. He later served as postmaster, school board president, and as a county undersheriff.

The contract specified three “model” home styles. Prices varied based on the number of rooms. The 32, six- 6-room, 1 bath homes cost $1,300 each. The 34, seven-room, 1 bath homes, cost $1,600. Each was built on a 25 ft. by 100 ft. lot. The 34 duplexes (17 individual buildings) with 1 bath for each side, cost $2,200 for both sides. The duplex was built on two lots measuring 50 ft. by 100 ft. That totaled 100 housing units. The workers had no power equipment so building 100 homes in 100 days was even more remarkable. Numbers of these homes are still standing Downtown such as those pictured with this article.

HILARIOUS WHODUNIT COMING TO CDC THEATRE IN CRANFORD

The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940, an Agatha-Christie-meets-Clue parody, is full of twists, turns, red herrings and slapstick for audiences of all ages! John Bishop's 1987 comedy is a send-up of all the cliches and stereotypes from both musical theater and murder mysteries thrown together and shaken up for laughs.

The creative team responsible for a recent Broadway flop assemble for a backer's audition of their new show at the Westchester estate of a wealthy and eccentric theatre financier. However, the shadow of the team's last show hangs over the group-- Manhattan Holiday was ravaged by the "Stage Door Slasher," a mysterious killer who stabbed chorus girls. As the composer, lyricist, actors and director prepare their performance, and a blizzard cuts off any possible retreat, bodies start to drop in plain sight. It doesn't take long for everyone to figure out that one of them is The Stage Door Slasher and accusing fingers point in all directions. The bumbling police inspector, who snowshoes in to investigate, is hoping to flush out the killer from this group of suspects--but the killer has other plans. More than that, the threat of Nazi saboteurs lurks among them!

Will the Slasher be unmasked? Maybe, but not before the audience has been treated to a rollicking good time full of the author's biting, satiric and irreverent wit.

Performances are at CDC Theatre, 78 Winans Ave. in Cranford with shows on Fridays and Saturdays, February 9-24 at 8pm and on Sunday, February 18 at 2pm. For the best ticket selection and price, visit cdctheatre.org.

OLD GUARD FEBRUARY SPEAKERS

The Summit Area Old Guard was founded in 1930 and meets most Tuesdays at the New Providence Presbyterian Church located at 1307 Springfield Ave. Our motto is "Come for the Programs. Stay for the Friends."

February speakers include Scott Hough, Ed Oatman or Amy Wagner, Dr. Yaron Moshel, and Amy Behr-Shields. Please join us. Our programs are free to the public, and we welcome you!

Our speaker on Tuesday, February 6th will be Scott Hough, Superintendent of Schools, Summit, NJ. Scott will give us an overview of the school system and describe the impact covid had and how he dealt with it (he was appointed to his position in June 2020!). Scott will also discuss critical issues facing all school administrators, such as bullying, security and student safety. Roughly one half of Summit's annual budget goes to support the public schools, and the appeal of Summit as a great place to live is supported by its excellent schools.

Our speaker on Tuesday, February 13th will be either the manager or deputy manager of Union County, NJ. Union County has a diverse population equivalent in size to that of Wyoming and a budget of a half billion dollars. Most people are quite familiar with their own city or town, but usually know much less about their county. Ed Oatman, manager, or Amy Wagner, deputy manager, will hopefully change that for you. County operations include areas such as law enforcement/courts, parks & recreation, public works -roads and infrastructure, health care, economic development, and a lot more.

On Tuesday, February 20th, Dr. Yaron Moshel, co-director of the Gerald J. Glasser Brain Tumor Center at Atlantic Health System's Overlook Medical Center, will be our speaker. He is one of a select few surgeons who specialize in removing deep-seated brain tumors using technology that includes computer-guided navigation, awake intraoperative brain mapping, endoscopy, and microsurgery. Dr. Moshel will explain how the convergence of precision medicine, advanced robotics, and specialized imaging are fostering new breakthroughs in the treatment of brain and spine tumors.

Finally, on Tuesday, February 27th, we ask the question, 'with so much information accessible online, is a public library still relevant'? Amy Behr-Shields, the Director of the Summit Free Library, will explain how the library is needed to curate reliable sources of information, and to manage the complexities of digital and non-digital media, while serving as a community center and a welcoming environment. You will also be surprised to learn how many varied programs and services the library offers.

Past speakers and much more can be viewed at SummitOldGuard.org but we encourage people to drop in on our meetings which take place at the church at 10:00 a.m. most Tuesdays. "Come for the Speakers. Stay for the Friends."

We look forward to meeting you.

NEW JERSEY VETERANS NETWORK - HELP US SAVE VETS!

Michael D. Boll, Director NJVN

Everyday 22 veterans take their own lives, unfortunately this number hasn't changed over the years. Several groups and organizations have worked tirelessly to combat this horrible epidemic. The New Jersey Veterans Network (NJVN) is one of those groups that strives to help veterans daily to live a better way of life.

NJVN is a mobile outreach team, that aggressively seeks out veterans in need and provides them life changing and saving resources. The NJVN is a 501c3 created in 2017 and has focused its mission by always putting our veterans first. Since the NJVN started thousands of veterans and National Guardsmen have been fed, clothed, and provided with various personal items. Also, we were able to get 30 veterans newer refurbished vehicles through the Recycled Rides program. However, the NJVN most important mission is that we save lives, just in the past first years alone our team has saved over a dozen lives.

Being a network, the NJVN works with other military, veteran, and first responder groups that share the same mission. We would never have succeeded without having the support and commitment from our partners and sponsors. This is vital for the NJVN to be able to help veterans in need throughout New Jersey.

Most recently, the NJVN has stepped up recreational events and programs such as camping, hiking, movie nights, BBQs, and field trips. We are fortunate to have amazing partners and volunteers that will help transport our veterans to and from the hospitals and shelters. These events allow our veterans to feel like they are part of a unit again and are not forgotten or abandoned.

What makes the NJVN unique is its willingness to try different things and think outside the box. By asking the veterans what they want most, and how we can help them, has really made our program a huge success.

Our next initiative will be the launch of our veteran peer support/ mentoring program the "Uniformed Heroes Project". This initiative is a collaboration between the military-veteran-first responders groups and organizations. Also, it is backed by legislators and numerous charitable organizations. The NJVN is currently looking for volunteers and groups willing to help us provide our veterans with the best help possible. If you are interested in filing the team, or would like to volunteer, please send us an email at NJVN1775@gmail.com or call directly (973)332-1556.

ABOUT NEW JERSEY VETERANS NETWORK

We are a group of veterans and volunteers dedicated to helping our veterans and their families live better lives. Our mission is to identify veterans and connect them with resources and programs designed to meet their unique set of needs. Help us save Vets! We are always looking for volunteers, with various skills, to join the team. If you are a veteran or family member that's in need of assistance; or are interested in volunteering, would like us to speak at your event, or contribute to our mission, call 973-332-1556 or email njvn1775@gmail.com. To learn more about the team please check out our website njvn.org (accomplishments). Help us save Vets!
