ELIZABETH NATIVE NOMINATED ROSELLE PARK GRAND MARSHAL OF MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

American Legion Post 60 has nominated Kevin Murphy as the Grand Marshal of the Borough of Roselle Park's 2024 Memorial Day Parade; set to take place on Monday, May 27th.

Born in Manhattan, NYC on February 27, 1950, Kevin Murphy grew up in Elizabeth, NJ, the oldest of four boys to Kevin and Anne Murphy. His father, a WWII combat veteran and Purple Heart recipient, moved the family to Elizabeth in 1963. After high school, he enlisted in the United States Air Force, serving until 1976. He then joined the United States Army, retiring in April 1996 as a Staff Sergeant (E6). Notably, during Operation Desert Storm, he was involved with establishing an Army Family Support Unit, earning recognition from President George H. W. Bush and the Department of the Army. He later became involved with Disabled American Veterans, Operation Chillout, and various community organizations. Elected First Ward Councilman in Roselle Park from 2003 to 2006, he's also been active in Rotary Club, Knights of Columbus, and as a riding EMT member. Married to Patricia since 1972, they have two daughters and six grandchildren. This year marks their 50th year as residents of Roselle Park.

"Mr. Murphy is an excellent nomination by American Legion Post 60," said Mayor Joseph Signorello III. "He is both a pillar of our community and a revered veteran, he is truly deserving of the honor of serving as Grand Marshal of our Memorial Day Parade. Kevin's dedication, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to our country serves as a beacon of inspiration to us all. May his leadership guide us in honoring the valor and memory of those who have served and sacrificed for our nation."

TOUR DE ELIZABETH BICYCLE RIDE - MAY 19TH

Registration is open online for the 21st Annual Tour de Elizabeth, scheduled rain or shine for May 19, 2024. Bicyclists of all ages and skill levels will cycle through parks, paths along waterways, residences, businesses, restaurants, and historic neighborhoods of Elizabeth, offering cyclists a unique perspective of New Jersey's 4th largest city.

"What better way to spend a Sunday than bike riding with family and friends," said Mayor J. Christian Bollwage. "This year we're celebrating 21 years of bringing cyclists of all skill levels together in Elizabeth, all while supporting Groundwork Elizabeth's efforts for a greener and more sustainable municipality. I am looking forward to welcoming everyone for yet another safe and exciting 15-mile ride." Cyclists come from all parts of the city, county, and even some from more distant locations come back each year to renew their affinity for the city and the event. Wayne K. Wise, born and raised in Elizabeth and a graduate of Jefferson High School, comes back each year from Houston Texas. "These are my roots," says Mr. Wise, "you never forget them."

The event starts and finishes at City Hall, located at 50 Winfield Scott Plaza. Registration begins at 7:00 a.m. with the ride beginning promptly at 9:00 a.m. The first 500 registrants will receive a signature Tour de Elizabeth t-shirt and every rider will be entered into a free raffle for post event drawings. This year's theme is "Riding with a Heart," promoting physical health and social awareness.

To sign up, log on to groundworkelizabeth.org. Hard copy applications can also be found in Elizabeth public buildings, stores and Union County Bicycle shops; however, online registration is preferred. Riders are encouraged to register early as slots fill up quickly. All ages are welcome to join the Tour, as long as the rider can keep a moderate pace of 10 miles per hour and able to ride 15 miles - there is a break at the halfway mark. Helmets are required for all participants. Members of the Elizabeth Police Department will be on hand to escort cyclists on a route with rolling intersection closings and assist where needed.

Along with the support of Mayor J. Christian Bollwage and departments within the City of Elizabeth, assistance for the ride comes from the Union County Board of County Commissioners HEART grant, the Elizabeth Destination Marketing Organization (EDMO), local dedicated community nonprofits and stakeholders, with special support by Elizabethtown Gas Company. The ride is managed by Groundwork Elizabeth and part of the proceeds from the event go towards the nonprofit's goals of improving the physical environment and promoting environmental justice.

Sponsorship opportunities are available and come with benefits for those who pledge support. For more information on the Tour, the City, and Groundwork Elizabeth's projects and programs log on to the City website at elizabethnj.org,

HELPING WATCHUNG RESERVATION'S BIODIVERSITY

BOY SCOUT TROOP 23

Under the direction of Union County Parks Department staff, on Saturday, April 6, the Patriots' Path Council, Boy Scouts of America 151 Scouts, Scout leaders, Trail Stewards, and other volunteers spread out to 12 areas of the 2,143-acre Watchung Reservation Park in western Union County. Each crew cut multiflora rosa and invasive barberry bushes and raked them into brush piles to provide shelter for small wildlife. An estimated 1,400 invasive shrubs were removed.

The project aimed to eradicate invasive plants from the Watchung Reservation. The goals of the event were to improve biodiversity by making room for native plants, stop encroachment on hiking and bridle trails by thorny bushes, eliminate barberry bushes that harbor the ticks that carry Lyme disease, and provide an opportunity for Scouts to complete service hours requirements.

The Scouts of Troop 23, sponsored by St. Genevieve's Church of Elizabeth, worked in the Deserted Village of Feltville. They were able to create two large brush piles from the plants that they cut. As an added bonus for the Scouts, Troop 23 camped that entire weekend in the nearby Scout Camping Area of the Watchung Reservation. On Saturday afternoon, the Scouts followed map and compass bearings to find nine markers along a mile-long orienteering course. After cooking dinner, the Scouts enjoyed a gluten-free cake that they baked themselves in a Dutch oven on a charcoal fire.

Boy Scout Troop 23, sponsored by St. Genevieve's Church of Elizabeth, welcomes any boys who are at least 11 years old or graduated from the fifth grade to join them on upcoming camping trips and hikes, a 4-day trip on Memorial Day weekend to Gettysburg, and a week-long summer camp in July. Contact Scoutmaster Dan Bernier at 908-451-1948 or webfoottroop@gmail.com for more details.

SCOUTING FUN AT RAINGUTTER REGATTA

CUB SCOUT PACK 23

Cub Scout Pack 23 held its annual Raingutter Regatta at St. Genevieve's Church on April 12. Each Scout created a wooden sailboat from a kit, decorated it, and then competed with it against other Cubs on a 2-lane 10-foot long track filled with water. There was a lot of excitement and enthusiasm among the Cub Scouts who participated!

If you know a child who is anywhere between a Kindergartener and a high school senior, please encourage them to get in on the fun of Scouting. The Scouting program instills character, good citizenship, and physical fitness in youth through outdoor activities such as campouts and hikes, involvement in community activities, and just plain FUN!

Cub Scout Pack 23 provides activities and training for boys and girls in Kindergarten through fifth grades. Boy Scout Troop 23 is for boys who are at least 11 years old or graduated from the fifth grade. New members are welcome at any time, all year round.

For more details, please contact Dan Bernier, Scoutmaster, at (908) 451-1948 or webfoottroop@gmail.com.

In addition to her support, she was active in the development and establishment of the Family Justice Center in 2017, and has helped rebuild the YWCA's administrative headquarters after it burned down.

Ms. Estabrook is the Owner and Chairperson of Elberon Development Group, a family-owned real estate holding company in northern New Jersey. Much of her career has been spent building women up in her industry, and to give women in violent situations the skills to rebuild their lives professionally and financially. She was chosen by New Jersey Monthly Magazine as one of its Top 25 Leading Women Entrepreneurs and in May 2011 Ms. Estabrook was honored with The Scholarship Fund for Inner-City Children's "Vitae Discimus Award".

Ms. Estabrook will receive the award at the inaugural Champions for Family Justice Breakfast held on Thursday, May 9, 2024 from 8am to 10am at the Embassy Suites in Berkeley Heights, NJ. Along with her, this prestigious celebration will honor and award the achievements of other community champions who have made significant contributions in the field of family justice.

"The Champions for Family Justice Awards are a great opportunity for us to celebrate all of those who work hard to support families in crisis throughout Union County, and we are especially excited to present Anne with the Lifetime Achievement Award in recognition of all of the support she has provided to the YWCA which enables us to support victims of domestic violence in becoming survivors," shared Lisa Poris, Director of Union County Family Justice Center.

The Family Justice Center was implemented in partnership and receives annual support by the Union County Board of County Commissioners and the Union County Department of Human Services. Each year, hundreds of victims of domestic violence come to the Family Justice Center (FJC) to receive emotional, financial, and legal help, as they take steps towards a safe and stable future. The event will benefit core funding for these services offered by the FJC.

"Not only are we excited to be launching our first ever Champions for Family Justice Breakfast," says Kathryn Lynch, Interim Executive Director YWCA Union County. "We are thrilled to dedicate this event to spotlight all of our amazing honorees and the remarkable work that the FJC does throughout the year for our clients."

Sponsors for the event include: Phillips 66, Lowenstein Sandler, Northfield Bank, Elberon Development Company, Resnick Law Firm and Alliance Community Healthcare.

New to the Roadhouse, Flesh World is a collaboration of drummer Justin Vedovelli, keyboardist Peter Rushing, and saxophonist/keyboardist Carter Vames. They play an eclectic and experimental mix of diverse musical styles, ranging from free jazz to Afro-Caribbean and pop. Their repertoire includes cutting-edge original compositions as well as covers of tunes by popular artists such as Britney Spears, Juice WRLD, and Nine Inch Nails.

As always, the Salem Roadhouse Café music is live, intimate, up front, and personal. All ages are welcome.

ABOUT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

It's not "church music." It's music music. Folks who've come to the Salem Roadhouse Café know that it's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music — in a world otherwise filled with clubs and bars. The Roadhouse has always offered its stage to local and independent mainstream musicians. Jazz, rock, folk, and other groups have performed. What's the common thread? They're all great musicians playing the kind of music people like to hear. There's no message, just music.

Now in its 16th year of operation, the Roadhouse started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth. Hey — that's why we're located where we are, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That's its social mission.

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, and others. Many thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.

The Two Hundred Club Medal of Valor Award is a prestigious honor reserved for the courageous Police and Firefighters of Union County who have gone above and beyond in the line of duty. Each spring, our Annual Spring Valor Award Luncheon is held, attracting hundreds of attendees who gather to celebrate and honor these true heroes. Since 1968, we have recognized over 400 police officers, firefighters, and State Troopers, all of whom have selflessly risked their lives in service of the public good. The Valor Awards Luncheon is also a time to pay tribute to those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty. With solemn respect, we honor the memory of those who have given their lives to protect and serve our community.

ELIZABETH POLICE DEPARTMENT HONOREES

Officer Steven Lazo and Officer Walter Franco
On July 29, 2023, Officers Steven Lazo and Walter Franco quickly responded to the scene of a distressed caller who stated that there was an unwanted guest in the residence.

As they approached the house, they could hear a woman scream as she urgently called for help. Despite multiple attempts to get a response by knocking, they entered through an unlocked door and headed towards the source of the screams where they unexpectedly encountered a man wielding a knife, threatening the life of the terrified woman. Officer Lazo, relying on his training, assessed the grave danger before them. In a split-second decision, he drew his weapon and fired with precision, striking the assailant in the chest and neutralizing the threat.

Despite the intense danger and chaos of the situation, the officers used their training and knowledge to remain composed — immediately transitioning to first-aid, ensuring that the victim and the suspect received proper medical attention.

This harrowing incident serves as a reminder of the dangers that officers face every day on the job. For their quick thinking, bravery and dedication, Officer Lazo and Officer Franco are being awarded with the Two Hundred Club of Union County Medal of Valor.

OFFICERS JOHN RODRIGUEZ, LUIS RODRIGUEZ, CHRISTIAN ESTREMER, JAIME FERREIRA AND KELLAN MORAN

On May 27, 2023, Officers John Rodriguez and his partner were tasked in a directed patrol assignment aimed at crime prevention.

Responding to a stolen vehicle alert, the officers found themselves face to face with a dangerous situation at a local 7-Eleven — a possible robbery in progress.

Upon sight of the approaching officers, one of the suspects took off on foot and Officer John Rodriguez fearlessly pursued. With combined efforts of his fellow officers on foot and by vehicle, the officers cornered the fleeing suspect, who in a moment of panic, grabbed a handgun from his crossbody bag and fired a shot. Fortunately, the only one harmed by the gunshot was the suspect himself. The officers did not hesitate to administer life-saving aid until help arrived. The discipline they portrayed resulted in no shots fired by the Police.

In the face of adversity, these officers proved that true heroes will always rise to the occasion. For their unmatched bravery, determination, and selfless service, Officers John Rodriguez, Luis Rodriguez, Christian Estremera, Jaime Ferreira, and Kellan Moran are being awarded with the Two Hundred Club of Union County Medal of Valor. Their unwavering commitment to keeping their community safe serves as a shining example of the courage and dedication that defines law enforcement.
