Mrs. Moribaldi and her PreK 3 class from St. Theresa School in Kenilworth enjoyed nurturing caterpillars.

PASSAIC COUNTY CASA EXPANDS TO UNION COUNTY

Submitted by Gretchen Boger-O'Bryan

Passaic County Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), a leading child advocacy organization focused on protecting the best interests of abused and neglected youth, has announced the expansion of its service footprint to include Union County. With this expansion, critical volunteer advocacy for child victims removed from home and living under the jurisdiction of the family court will be made available to even more of New Jersey's most vulnerable children. This expansion allows for greater community impact, efficiency in operations, and greater long-term sustainability.

CASA recruits, screens, trains, and supervises community volunteers to advocate for local abused, neglected, and abandoned youth from birth to age 21 involved in the child welfare system through no fault of their own.

Executive Director Erica Fischer-Kaslander, who continues to lead the expanded advocacy organization, said, "There's no doubt this expansion will reap even greater rewards for Union County's vulnerable youth. The synergy created from two experienced programs allows far greater community impact and enhances its agility to withstand today's shifting landscape as a strengthened, multi-county program." Acknowledging the nearly two-decade impact of the previous Union County CASA organization, Fischer-Kaslander adds, "The dedicated advocates in Union County remain focused on fulfilling CASA's mission: quality advocacy, continuity of presence, and increased access to services for local vulnerable youth-victims. As a combined force, we will build on that good work. I remain grateful to all professionals involved in these cases for their support – judges, attorneys, caseworkers, and more – and look forward to the collaboration required for us all to do our best for the children depending on us."

Gretchen Boger-O'Bryan, Content Director for CASA of Passaic and Union Counties, added, "In my 11 years working with CASA in Union County, I have seen the organization pivot to meet unforeseen needs, adapt to changing trends, and persevere through recent challenges faced by all nonprofits, including a global health pandemic. Indeed, passion for and commitment to every child drives us, and this new chapter is simply an opportunity to enjoy greater efficiency, resource allocation, and space for innovation. Ultimately, the expansion of Passaic County CASA to include Union County breeds a strengthened organization that bolsters CASA's impact throughout the county. For our local youth, that's what matters."

Considered extra "eyes and ears" for judges hearing abuse and neglect cases, CASA volunteers are assigned to a youth or sibling set by court order, granting access to all parties in the youth's life. Advocates use unbiased observations to make fact-based recommendations to judges deciding the future of each youth. Often, CASA volunteers are the only long-term, caring, and informed adult in the corner of a youth awaiting a safe, stable, and permanent placement.

Volunteer advocates need no prior experience in child welfare. All prospective volunteers complete a 36-hour training course, extensive application, and screening process in addition to background checks. For details on becoming an advocate or other ways to get involved, visit casapassaicunion.org.

URGENT NEED FOR VOLUNTEER ADVOCATES FOR FOSTER YOUTH

Information sessions to be held in June in Clark and Elizabeth

Five-year-old Jennifer is diagnosed with autism and almost completely nonverbal. Due to excessive violence in the family home, a concerned neighbor called for help and, after investigation, Jennifer was placed in foster care. The two phrases Jennifer can say graphically depict violence witnessed at home and confirm trauma she's endured. Since entering care and being enrolled in school, it's evident Jennifer has also experienced educational neglect. At age three, she was entitled to an Individualized Education Plan from the Department of Education to provide such intervention services as in-home speech and behavioral therapies, both helpful for future enrollment in a half-day educational program. Unfortunately, Jennifer's parents neglected to utilize these services and she is now more than two years behind her peers.

Jennifer is one of more than 500 children removed from home in Passaic and Union counties each year due to abuse and neglect. Currently, there is an urgent need for advocates to serve Union County children, as there are more than 250 children in the foster care system, with just 72 children being served. These children are separated from all they've ever known: parents, siblings, friends, teachers, and their belongings. For Jennifer, the road ahead is long, and she needs a caring, consistent adult in her corner to protect her best interests while in foster care. That's where Child Focus comes in. Specifically, its Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) program.

Said Executive Director Erica Fischer-Kaslander, "We are committed to recruiting, screening, and training advocates for every child in Union County who needs one, just as we've done in Passaic County. It is difficult to overstate the difference a CASA volunteer can make in the life of a child removed from home through no fault of their own, often due to abuse or neglect." She added, "Children with volunteer advocates are more likely to have needed services ordered on their behalf, spend less time in the foster system, and experience significantly better outcomes than those who go without. Becoming a CASA volunteer requires a significant time commitment and training, but volunteers often find the work as life-changing for themselves as it is for the children they help."

CASA volunteers are trained on the ins and outs of advocating for child-victims and fully supported by CASA staff. No special background in child welfare is necessary; successful CASA volunteers are dedicated community members with varied life experiences who believe abuse and neglect are non-negotiable. CASA volunteers visit the children, make unbiased observations, interview others in the child's life, and make recommendations to the judge. They often are the only consistent adult in the life of a child involved in the child welfare system, as caseworkers, professionals, and placements are ever-changing. A CASA volunteer provides continuity during a time of chaos and unknowns.

The first step to training is to attend an information session. Choose from Thursday, June 6 at 5:30 p.m., and Thursday, June 27 at 5:30 p.m., at the Clark Public Library, 303 Westfield Avenue in Clark; Monday, June 10 at noon, at the Child Focus office at 1143 East Jersey Street, 2nd Floor, Elizabeth, NJ 07201; or Wednesday, June 5 at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 12 at noon, or Monday, June 17 at 5:30 p.m. at the Wayne Child Focus office, 415 Hamburg Turnpike, Suite D2. Register now at casapassaicunion.org/info-session.

ABOUT CHILD FOCUS:

Child Focus prioritizes the needs and well-being of infants, children and teens impacted by, or at risk of, abuse or neglect by amplifying their voices and working toward lasting, permanent solutions that address their unique situations and provide support needed to thrive. This critical work is accomplished through three distinct but complementary programs: CASA of Passaic and Union Counties, NJ Safe Babies Court Team, and the Open Door Store. For more information about Child Focus, log on to childfocusnj.org.

WHAT, WHERE, WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH

DISCOVERING KENILWORTH'S "MODEL HOMES," PART 6

Last month readers were promised to learn where the Oak Knolls section of town was located and the name of a visionary planner. The planner was Harold B. Snyder (1908-1979) who in the 1930s lived with his family on S. Michigan Ave. He owned W. D. Snyder Co., at the corner of Fairfield Ave. He carried out a plan to develop the industrial area between Fairfield and Colfax avenues. He envisioned affordable homes to attract workers for the industries and a new Uptown shopping area with Kenilworth's own supermarket. To build the homes he linked up in the late 1940s with George and Harry Butts of G&H construction. In 1949 Snyder erected the colonial style shops on the north side of the Boulevard from N. 19th St. to nearly N. 21st St. Residents were jubilant to have a real supermarket in town. In the 1960s he founded the Kenilworth State Bank, now Wells Fargo.

So where is Oak Knolls? Working together, these men built over a hundred homes along portions of streets between the west side of Michigan Ave. to Orange Ave. These included portions of Kingston, Clinton, Monmouth, Newark, Passaic, and Quinton avenues; S. 23rd, S. 24th, and S. 25th streets. G&H used Oak Knolls and Oak Hill to describe their homes and Snyder used Orchard Homes. All were 4½ room Cape Cod style houses, 24 ft. X 30 ft., on generally 50 ft. X 100 ft. lots. Snyder built a few colonials on Passaic Ave. near Michigan Ave.

Frank Bresnahan (1915-2017), recalled in 2015 as a 100-year-old original owner, "My wife, Edna, and I bought a new house on Kingston Ave. It was built by the Butts brothers. We put down $25 to buy the house which cost $9,400. We moved in and the street was not paved yet so we had to keep the windows closed in the summer to keep the dust out!" The Bresnahan home was a model home and depicted in the sales brochure. Their annual taxes then were $144.

Grace Brassler (1933-2011) of 144 S. Michigan Ave., stated (2003) that for these homes her husband's grandfather – John Brassler (1876-1958) – was the sales agent. "He used to take a deposit of just $25 to hold a house for someone until they came up with the $200 down payment that was needed. Catherine Stollen (1926-2022), an original owner of 532 Quinton Ave., recalled (2015) the homes selling for about $9,000, with choice of coal or oil heat. "Harold Snyder built our house. My late husband, Walter, and I were the first owners and moved here in 1948. It cost $8,900. It was a basic house. The houses came with a coal furnace. An oil burner was more money; an extra window in the attic – more money; anything different – no matter how small – more money. Our first mortgage payment was $49 a month."

Many Oak Knolls homes have been greatly expanded. Online sales data indicate that basic Cape Cods have been selling in the $500,000 range compared to $9,000 back in 1948.

POSTCARD JOURNEY THROUGH KENILWORTH HISTORY – JUNE 20

Kenilworth Historical Society

Distinguished historian and author Walter E. Boright, Ed.D., a member of the Kenilworth Historical Society, will present "A Postcard Journey Through Kenilworth History" on Thurs., June 20, at 6:30 p.m. The event is being hosted by the Borough of Kenilworth's Senior Center (526 Boulevard). It will feature an enlightening collection of many rare and previously unknown historic postcards that bring to life places and events in Borough history from 1899 to modern times. During the program, Dr. Boright, a prolific author of historical writings, will share hints for dating old photos and postcards.

All are welcome to attend the June 20 program, which is being presented by Dr. Boright on behalf of the Kenilworth Historical Society. Admission is free, but interested attendees should register in advance by calling the Kenilworth Senior Center at 908-276-1716 and leaving a message with their name(s) and phone number(s) or by e-mailing such information to seniorcenter@kenilworthnj.org. Light refreshments will be provided by the Kenilworth Historical Society. Parking is available in front of the Senior Center and in the municipal parking lot behind the building. The Senior Center is fully accessible by an elevator, which is located in the vestibule at the back entrance to the building.

Boright, a native of Kenilworth who now resides elsewhere in New Jersey, has authored five popular books about Kenilworth history: A History of Kenilworth as Told Through its Streets and Street Signs; Kenilworth: Houses, People, Pictures, and Stories; Women of Kenilworth; A History of the Kenilworth Free Public Library; and Kenilworth Memories: A History of Kenilworth in Story and Pictures. He also has published 100 historic postcards of Kenilworth and has written a series of articles for Kenilworth Life as part of a monthly local history column titled "What, where, and when in old Kenilworth."

Boright earned his bachelor's degree in history at Kean University and master's and doctoral degrees at Seton Hall University. Prior to retirement, he enjoyed a life-long career in education, serving as superintendent of schools and as director of Kean University's Gateway Institute for Regional Development. His father, Walter, Sr., was a Kenilworth mayor in the 1950s and 1960s.

The Kenilworth Historical Society is an independent, volunteer-based, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501 (c) 3 organization dedicated to the research, preservation and interpretation of the Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture.

ELKS ASSEMBLE 200 BACKPACKS FOR HOMELESS VETERANS

Elks members from across NJ recently gathered at the NJ Elks Veterans Annex in Stirling to assemble 200 backpacks which will be distributed to homeless veterans at Stand Down events in Newark, Atlantic City, and other locations throughout the state. These backpacks help to provide comfort to homeless veterans, offering them a sense of support and care during challenging times.

The backpacks contain clothing, food, personal hygiene, and other care items, including many of the 4,000 pairs of socks and undergarments that were collected and donated to the Elks through the Middlesex Borough Police sock drive for New Jersey veterans.

The NJ Elks Veterans Annex also serves as a warehouse for Welcome Home kits consisting of furniture and other household items that a formerly homeless veteran would need when moving into their new housing. It is featured in the Youtube video "Givers of Hope".

Elks pledge "So long as there are veterans, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will never forget them." Every night, as many as 40,000 veterans sleep on the streets. In partnership with the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Elks National Veterans Service Commission has pledged to help end veteran homelessness and ensure that all veterans have the safe, stable homes they deserve.

Please email njelksnpsc@gmail.com to learn more about what NJ State Elks are doing to help veterans and visit Elks.org for more information about the Elks, including how to become a member.

JOB/INTERNSHIP SITE FOR EMPLOYERS AND JOB SEEKERS

Greater Union Chamber of Commerce

In a special collaboration with the Township of Union and the Union Township Board of Education, the Greater Union Township Chamber of Commerce has unveiled a "Job/Internship Portal" designed to assist local employers in finding talent – and enabling job seekers from the surrounding communities to search and apply for jobs.

The portal is featured on the websites of all three sponsoring entities: unionchamber.com; uniontownship.com and twpunionschools.org.

Job postings are free to Chamber members and Union Center SID businesses. Businesses that are not members may also participate at a nominal charge.

"Since the days of the pandemic, our members have shared the difficulties they have encountered in recruiting and retaining qualified staff," said Chamber CEO James Masterson. "This initiative helps to address that concern among our businesses, while also helping job seekers in our communities as well."

To post jobs, employers may visit the Chamber website and click on the "Job Board" tab. From there, they may request a log in ID to begin the process. Employers looking for interns may also follow the same process.

Members of the community seeking jobs may click on the "Find a Job" link under the original tab.

For more information on how to participate in this initiative, contact Masterson at the Chamber Office: 908-688-2777, or email executivedirector@unionchamber.com.

SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ JUNE SHOW

The Salem Roadhouse Café presents the Stephen Fuller Quintet, Saturday, June 8, 2024. The doors open at 7:15 p.m., the show starts at 8 p.m. Admission is $20 and includes show, snacks, non-alcoholic beverages, and dessert. The venue is located in Bailey Hall, below Townley Presbyterian Church, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities.

Stephen Fuller's deep rich voice and soulful renditions have long made him a favorite with sophisticated audiences around the world, performing in Israel, Jamaica, Costa Rica and The US Virgin Islands. In addition to his overseas engagements, Fuller has performed in renowned New York City and New Jersey venues and has opened for both Stevie Wonder and Bill Withers while attending Colgate University.

Stephen will perform at the Roadhouse with his quintet, consisting of Brandon McCune – Piano; Alex Gressel – Bass; Gordon Lane – Drums and Oloye Karade - Percussion. Music featured will cross styles: from American Songbook, to Jazz, R&B, Bossa Nova, Calypso and more.

As always, the Salem Roadhouse Café is live, intimate, up front, and personal. All ages are welcome.

ABOUT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

It's not "church music." It's music music. Folks who've come to the Salem Roadhouse Café know that it's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music — in a world otherwise filled with clubs and bars. The Roadhouse has always offered its stage to local and independent mainstream musicians. Jazz, rock, folk, and other groups have performed. What's the common thread? They're all great musicians playing the kind of music people like to hear. There's no message, just music.

The Roadhouse started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth. Hey — that's why we're located where we are, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That's its social mission.

But the many musicians who've played the Salem Roadhouse Café see it as a solid performance venue. They love it because of its special intimacy and great audiences. They say people here "really listen." Ask any of the musicians you meet here — they love to play the Roadhouse, and they want to come back often.

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, and others. Many thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.
