SCOUTS LEARN ABOUT ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Boy Scout Troop 145

John Samsel, owner of So Delicious Ice Cream located in Clark, recently joined the scouts of Troop 145 to discuss entrepreneurship. John spoke to the Scouts about how he came about what it means to be a business owner and what is needed to make your business a success. Boy Scouts teaches to always be prepared, think ahead, and analyze all possible outcomes. Hearing Mr. Samsel speak about his experience allowed the boys to hear first-hand how these skills can help them be successful. As an added treat, Mr. Samsel had the So Delicious Truck come and all were treated to their delicious ice cream. Troop 145 Scoutmaster, John Cistaro, thanks Mr. Samsel for donating his time and talent, it will be an experience the scouts won't soon forget.

MEMORIAL DAY

Submitted by Susan Alacchi, EMT, CVES

The Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad (CVES) was proud to attend Clark Township's Memorial Day Ceremony. Both ambulances were in the parade and EMTs Gary Wagner and Anshul Natakala carried the squad's banner while walking the parade route. EMTs Pauline LeDoeze and Carlos Colon drove the duty ambulance in the parade. Luckily, they didn't have any calls during the parade and ceremony.

Gary started with the squad in 1974 and has been an active member all these years. "I was so glad that the American Legion decided to keep the parade as scheduled on Monday even though there was a chance of rain. After all, the soldiers didn't stop serving because of bad weather." Wagner also thanked American Legion Post 328 for inviting attendees to a barbecue after the ceremony.

EMT Carlos Colon quoted General Douglas MacArthur who said, "No man is entitled to the blessings of freedom unless he be vigilant in its preservation." Colon then said he has the deepest gratitude for the fallen men and women who were vigilant in preserving our freedom and giving the citizens of the United States a chance to make this world a better place.

The Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad is proud to serve the Clark community since 1941.

Donations are gratefully accepted by sending a check to The Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad at 875 Raritan Road, Clark, New Jersey, 07066 or donating online at the CVES webpage at Ourclark.com (ourclark.com/324/Clark-Volunteer-Emergency-Squad). Anyone with questions or interested in joining the Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad is invited to contact the squad at cves@ourclark.com for an application.

ALJ WIFFLE BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Clark Public Schools

In a thrilling display of skill, determination, and sheer willpower, the 2024 Wiffle Ball Championship at Arthur L. Johnson High School concluded with Team Beans emerging victorious over Team Do Not Delete. According to ALJ Physical Education Teacher Laura Bundy, "This year's championship, held at the historic Peragallo Gymnasium, will be remembered as one of the most exciting and unpredictable tournaments in recent memory.

UNICO INSTALLS BOARD MEMBERS AT DINNER

Submitted by Ralph Bernardo

Clark UNICO held its annual Installation Dinner at the Gran Centurions on Tuesday June 11th. Over 70 people were in attendance. Chapter President Joe Arancio welcomed the group, swore in the new members, and congratulated the scholarship winners. Each of the ten recipients were given a $2,000 check.

Clark UNICO is an Italian American organization that strives to incorporate our unique Italian heritage and culture into the lives of our members and surrounding communities. In accomplishing this, we organize and run countless community related and Italian-centered events throughout the year. Some of these events consist of but are not limited to our trips to Dyker Heights in Brooklyn, New York to view their Christmas light displays, Arthur Avenue in Bronx, New York, mozzarella, and wine making lessons, and of course our Annual Clark Unico Italian Festival. In addition to the heritage-based events, we also strive to give back within our local communities, which can be emphasized by our motto, “Service Above Self”. In contributing towards the greater good, we as an organization volunteer for different causes and make much needed contributions to the local sporting clubs and leagues of Clark. Furthermore, we sponsor annual scholarships for well deserving high school seniors that reside in the town of Clark, have Italian lineage, and are seeking to continue their academic education. As an organization we have much to offer, which is more than what is written here. If you have any specific questions, we kindly welcome you to reach out to us. Email: CLARKUNICONJ@GMAIL.COM.

Mrs. Lorraine Haney, a teacher at Valley Road School, once again organized the annual "Hats On". The event was held on March 21st when students were invited to wear a hat and make a contribution in support of the Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad (CVES). The students are very generous and seem to enjoy the event. "This event is very close to my heart," Mrs. Haney said. Mrs. Haney's daughter is a former member of the Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad.

Mrs. Haney tells the children that they should not be frightened when they hear sirens. She explains that it means that police, fire and ambulances are going to help someone needs our help.

Helping Mrs. Haney this year were students from Mrs. Petela's second grade class. Mila DaSilva, Thomas Gillespie, and Michael Loguidice donned their favorite hats and gave the donations to Susan Alacchi from the CVES. Clark Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Ed Grande, and Valley Road School Principal, Mr. Joe Beltramba, also joined the festivities.
