SUDDEN CARDIAC ARREST (SCA) AWARENESS MONTH

Submitted by Jill A. Pall, The Aliver Foundation

Most people probably aren't aware that October is Sudden Cardiac Arrest (SCA) Awareness Month. I know I wasn't until I had SCA on June 25, 2021, at Echo Lake Park in Mountainside, NJ.

Over the past three years, I've learned so much and was inspired to start The Aliver Foundation, an all-volunteer 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, with a mission to raise awareness and funds to install all weather AEDs (automated external defibrillators) in outdoor recreation spaces while also providing crucial resources and educational opportunities to individuals and communities.

Our goal is simple. We want to save lives and help hearts. We're doing this by 1) Increasing the number of all weather, climate controlled AEDs that are in outdoor recreation spaces, 2) Creating access to educational opportunities like CPR and AED training, 3) Providing resources and support to sudden cardiac arrest survivors and their loved ones, and 4) Circulating messaging about the difference between SCA and heart attacks as well as CPR and AED usage.

These primary focuses were chosen because we felt they needed to be prioritized in order to save as many lives as possible. When I had my SCA, a friend stepped in to perform CPR until paramedics arrived with a defibrillator because there was no AED in the park.

Since January, we've helped a handful of communities by donating CE-TEK 4000 Outdoor AED Enclosures (along with the AEDs that go inside) that can be kept outside safely 24/7/365.

Whenever The Aliver Foundation works with a particular community, we hold a family friendly unveiling event bringing together officials, residents, and local first responders to celebrate the town's commitment to saving lives while also showing people how to do CPR compressions and how easy it is to use an AED (there's nothing to learn when it comes to an AED- if you know how to press a button and follow voice prompts, you're good to go). We encourage people to take classes to become comfortable with both CPR and AED usage.

The mental health toll SCA takes on the people who experience it- both survivors and their loved ones is intense. That is why The Aliver Foundation provides free two support groups each month, facilitated by a trauma therapist.

16 STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Clark Public Schools

The Arthur L. Johnson chapter of the National Honor Society inducted 16 students in a candle-lighting ceremony held at the Shackamaxon Country Club on February 27th. The night began with a welcome from NHS President Grace Wright. NHS member Isabel Cortese opened the ceremony with the National Anthem and Eva Sarantidis led the flag salute.

Ms. Jessica Kyle, National Honor Society Advisor spoke of the collective accomplishments of the group and the rigorous selection process. The candle-lighting ceremony was completed by NHS members Taylor Normann, Eva Sarantidis, Grace Wright, and Zoey Brown. Each current member discussed the meaning of the pillars scholarship, leadership, service, and character and their role in the life of a NHS member.

Superintendent of Schools Edward Grande congratulated the students and reminded them that we all make mistakes but what is important is what is learned from them. He reminded them their journey does not end here.

Arthur L. Johnson High School Principal Tara Oliveira spoke about the students and their specific accomplishments to the community which have led to their recognition as NHS inductees.

New inductees took a pledge led by Brown and received certificates. NHS Member Taylor Normann issued a challenge to students to “My challenge to you is to keep going. Never be satisfied with where you are right now. Do things that make you nervous and that you wouldn’t normally do. You all have proven that you are able to balance so much, but in order to continue to grow you need to keep doing things outside of your comfort zone.”

NHS Member Abigail Henkel then recognized Mr. Joy Donaldson, ALJ English teacher. Every year, a staff member is recognized for their dedication to student learning. Henkel stated, “The best teachers are those who can connect with their students, and Mrs. Donaldson brings a vivacity to teaching I have never seen in another classroom. There is no being bored or having a dull day in her room filled with conversation, energy, and poetry.”

During the ceremony, students were also asked to give a flower to someone who supported them throughout their lives.

The evening closed with “Words of Inspiration” from member Gwendalyn Cahill who stated, “Even if whatever you want to do in life seems daunting, I know you can do it. Your determination, hard work, and care is what has gotten you here, and it is what will take you far in life. So, don’t be afraid to go for whatever you want in life. Even if it seems super outlandish and unattainable to you, there is always a chance for it to happen. And just remember: if you shoot for the moon and miss, you will still land among the stars.”

The evening was attended by parents, teachers, administrators, and Board of Education members.

In order to be invited to submit an application to the National Honor Society, the first requirement is to have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 4.15 at the conclusion of their sophomore or junior year. Next, students submit an application detailing their contributions to Leadership, the School and Community. Lastly, a group of faculty council scores and rates these applications based on Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character. If a passing score is achieved, students are offered to be in the National Honor Society.

The 16 new inductees join 18 existing members.

Current Members: Danielle Archer, Elisabeth Brighthouse, Zoey Brown, Dillon Cahill, Gwendalyn Cahill, Isabel Cortese, Sophia Downing, Kaden Hackney, Abigail Henkel, Jacob Kolibas, Miriam Lakkis, Kaileigh Netland, Taylor Normann, Antonio Rafoa, Natalia Rojas, Eva Sarantidis, Leah Scepkowski, Grace Wright

THERE'S NO "I" IN TEAM

Garwood Public Schools

Miss Tarantino and Mrs. Elias's 4th grade classes had fun participating in team-building activities on the first few days of school. Students participated in challenges such as making the longest paper chain, building a marshmallow tower, and rescuing "Sam" the gummy worm using a paperclip. Students had fun while working together and using problem-solving skills!

MINI MUSTANG PRESCHOOL OPENS

Garwood Public Schools

For the first time in fifteen years, the Garwood Public School District (GPSD) opens up its doors at Washington School to welcome 45 preschoolers or as they are known "Mini Mustangs".

Through a grant from the Department of Education, the school operates a full-day preschool program where students are engaged through play and exploration in the Creative Curriculum. With full Board of Education support, the Washington School building was transformed over the summer to be able to meet the needs of its youngest learners and begin their educational journey in the GPSD.

The Garwood Schools Superintendent, Christopher Kinney, would like to thank the community's support for this program and is excited to be able to offer such a service to the youngest learners and their families.

Board of Education President April Farrell states: "We are thrilled to announce the launch of universal preschool in Garwood, a significant step forward in providing our youngest learners with the foundational skills they need for academic success. This initiative reflects our commitment to ensuring that every child in our community has access to quality early education, setting the stage for a brighter future for all."

The Mini Mustang Preschool program will be a staple of the early education foundation necessary for the youngest learners in Garwood for years to come.

Cheryl Vogel attended Garwood Public Schools when we were three schools. She has fond memories of her time here that include: walking to and from school four times a day because they went home for lunch, wearing uniforms for PE, and being a cheerleader for the boys basketball team because there weren't any other sports for girls. In High School Cheryl joined the Color Guard and volunteered in the Athletic Office.

For 35 years, Cheryl worked as a bookkeeper at her family's business, Vogel Bus Company. Today she continues her passion and legacy in school transportation as our bus driver. Cheryl is a strong asset in our school and community. She always greets our kids with a huge smile and creates a safe and inviting atmosphere on her bus.

Congratulations Cheryl!
