ADULT FACILITATOR TRAINING PLANNED FOR OCTOBER

Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss

The staff at Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, are so pleased to welcome 15 new youth facilitators who participated in their 2-day youth facilitator training program in August. These high school age volunteers will help create safe spaces for Imagine's young participants who are grieving the loss of someone close to them.

During their training, the new volunteers learned about Alan Wolfelt's companioning model followed in Imagine's groups, where facilitators walk beside participants on their grief journey. The new youth facilitators also learned about how children may use play to help them process their experiences and understand their feelings.

Imagine's Mountainside Clinical Program Supervisor, Abigail Preece, LPC shared this about the new group of youth facilitators: "Youth facilitators are such an asset and benefit our children and our overall program. Their energy, connection with the kids and dedication is invaluable. This new group of facilitators is enthusiastic and skilled, and we are excited to welcome them to the Imagine community!"

The demand for Imagine's programs has been consistently increasing, leading to the addition of new groups and Nights of Support for their upcoming program year. In order to meet the growing need for peer support groups for children, youth, young adults and their parents and caregivers, Imagine is looking for additional adult facilitators as well. A 3-day training for adult facilitators is planned for October 12-14 from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. each day.

Imagine's volunteer facilitators come from all walks of life and no special background is required other than a willingness to listen, a heart inclined to serve, and the ability to be with children and adults in grief without trying to fix, solve or give advice. No prior experience is necessary.

Volunteers must be 18 years of age or older and must attend all 3 days of the facilitator training. Spanish speaking volunteers are needed as well. Though Imagine asks facilitators to commit to one year facilitating their peer support groups, many stay on for many years. Here's what some of Imagine's facilitators have shared about their experience:

"I love Imagine- I love the people; I love the model, and I love being a part of this incredible place."

-Kathy-11+ years facilitating at Imagine

"I feel like I get more back than I give, from the participants, my fellow facilitators, and the staff."

-Debbie-9+ years facilitating at Imagine

"As I offer space for healing to others, I too am healed."

-Thomas-6 years facilitating at Imagine

If you'd like to participate in Imagine's upcoming training and join this incredible team of volunteers, please visit Imagine's website at imagineinj.org and complete their interest form for the upcoming training. If you have questions regarding volunteering with Imagine, please reach out to val@imagineinj.org. The staff at Imagine hope to welcome you to their wonderful team of volunteers!

Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss is a 501c3 that offers grief and loss education and training to the community and free year-round grief support groups for children ages 3-18 and young adults 19-30 who are coping with a loss due to death. Concurrently, support groups are available for the parents and guardians of the children in the groups and offered in English and Spanish.

CANDIDATES FORUM - OCTOBER 10

The New Providence School District's PTAs, PTO and PTSA traditionally work with the League of Women Voters to hold the BOE Candidate Forum. This year, the Forum will be on Thursday, October 10 at 7:00 p.m. in the New Providence High School Media Center.

There are five candidates for three open seats: Laura Castellano, Brian Gardner, Miguel Marshal, Donna Zane and incumbent Stacey Gunderman. The Forum will be moderated by Lisa Winkler, a Summit resident, of the League of Women Voters.

Questions for the candidates are being solicited from the public via Google Form. To submit a question, you can visit the New Providence Middle School PTO website npmspto.weebly.com/boe-forum.html. There you will find links to the submission form for your questions as well as a link to a brief document explaining the Roles and Responsibilities of the Board of Education.

If you would rather email your question, please send it to president@npmspto.org. Questions may be addressed to a particular candidate, but all the candidates will have the opportunity to reply. All questions will be screened by the moderator to eliminate redundancies, ensure that they are applicable to all candidates, are not personal in nature, and are addressed to subjects relevant to this forum. Please do not submit questions that are not relevant to the roles and responsibilities of the Board of Education.

No live audience questions will be taken at the event. Remember to vote on November 5!

LONG-TIME PUPPY RAISERS HONORED

The Seeing Eye

The Seeing Eye recently honored five long-time puppy raisers with induction to “The Seeing Eye 21 Club”, a special honor for volunteers who have raised at least 21 Seeing Eye® puppies. The non-profit also honored the Seeing Eye puppy raising club volunteers with two awards, the Outstanding Leader Award and the 20-year Leader Award. Finally, 34 exceptional college-bound puppy raisers were awarded college scholarships totaling $64,000.

“Each year, The Seeing Eye’s Family Day is a celebration of all the hard work and dedication of our volunteer puppy raising families,” said Seeing Eye director of canine development Peggy Gibbon. “An army of volunteers provides each Seeing Eye puppy with a loving home environment, socialization, and basic training that prepares them to become Seeing Eye dogs for people who are blind.”

“We’re actively recruiting puppy raisers and puppy sitters for our upcoming litters that are planned for the coming months. If you’re interested in joining our community of dog lovers, now is a great time to reach out to us and learn what puppy raising is all about,” said Gibbon. “We need homes and families of all shapes and sizes for our puppies because fully trained Seeing Eye dogs are placed in similarly diverse families and living situations with people who are blind.”

A puppy raiser family is responsible for providing a loving and nurturing home environment for approximately one year. During that time, the raiser is responsible for teaching basic obedience, house manners, bringing the puppy to Seeing Eye puppy club meetings and socialization trips in their area. The Seeing Eye puppy could be a German shepherd, Labrador retriever, golden retriever, or a Labrador/golden retriever cross.

Puppy raisers must live within New Jersey, eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware or New York (Rockland or Orange Counties) so they can attend regular puppy club meetings where they will receive help and coaching with their puppies. All veterinary expenses are covered by The Seeing Eye and a stipend is provided to help cover the cost of dog food. If a Seeing Eye puppy does not graduate from the program, the family who raised the puppy is offered the first option to adopt the puppy they raised. For more information visit seeingeye.org/raise.

Established in 1929, The Seeing Eye provides specially bred and trained dogs to guide people who are blind. Seeing Eye dog handlers experience greatly enhanced mobility and independence, allowing them to retain their active lifestyles. The Seeing Eye is a 501(c)3 non-profit supported by contributions from individuals, corporations and foundations, bequests, and other planned gifts.

The Seeing Eye is a trademarked name and can only be used to describe the dogs bred and trained at the school’s facilities in Morristown, N.J. If you would like more information on The Seeing Eye, please visit the website at SeeingEye.org, call 973-539-4425, or email info@seeingeye.org.

AMERICAN REPERTORY BALLET PRESENTS WONDERMENT

American Repertory Ballet's 2024-2025 season opens with WONDERMENT, a program sure to delight both audiences new to ballet and aficionados alike. Presented at the New Brunswick Performing Arts Center (NBPAC) on Friday, October 18 through Sunday, October 20, 2024, WONDERMENT is a mixed bill of four unique and exciting dance works: Antony Tudor's Little Improvisations, Lar Lubovitch's Something About Night, the Swan Lake "Black Swan Pas de Deux and Coda," and the world premiere of a new ballet choreographed by Ethan Stiefel, ARB's Artist in Residence.

Antony Tudor's Little Improvisations depicts two children playing in an attic on a rainy day. Choreographed for one man and one woman, the ballet premiered at Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in 1953, and features music by Robert Schumann. From Amanda McKerrow and John Gardner at the Antony Tudor Ballet Trust: "It is always an immense pleasure for us to share Antony Tudor's work with new generations of dancers, but we are particularly delighted to be staging Little Improvisations at ARB. Both Ethan Stiefel and Gillian Murphy are highly respected longtime friends and colleagues and we are thrilled to be working together again. An added joy for us is that Gillian will be involved in the staging this time and sharing her experiences of when she danced this ballet at University of North Carolina School of the Arts."

Something About Night is "danced to Schubert's tender choral songs about the mysteries of the heart," says choreographer Lar Lubovitch. "Something About Night offers a glimpse into the art of stillness. An opportunity for the dancers and the viewers to share a moment of quiet in a world that has become profoundly noisy." ARB Executive Director Julie Diana Hench says: "It is an honor to have Mr. Lubovitch working directly with our talented artists, and we are delighted to feature his beautiful ballet in the opening program of our 2024-2025 season."

The renowned Swan Lake "Black Swan Pas de Deux and Coda" is an iconic display of technical bravura. This excerpt from Act III of the classic ballet tells the story of Prince Siegfried as he is seduced by Odile, the Black Swan, daughter of the evil Von Rothbart, and the doppelganger of Odette, the White Swan. This pinnacle moment in the tragic tale seals Odette's fate, as Siegfried had previously declared his undying love to her in order to break Von Rothbart's mystical spell trapping her as a swan.

WONDERMENT features a world premiere choreographed by American Repertory Ballet's Artist in Residence Ethan Stiefel. This new ballet is inspired by prolific baroque composer, conductor, and ballet dancer Jean Baptiste Lully, and one of his protégés, Marin Marais. From Stiefel: "In the 1990's, I was introduced to, and mesmerized by, the viol or viola da gamba, particularly through the artistry and musicianship of Jordi Savall. Many years later, I have found myself in a place where the opportunity has arisen in which I can celebrate the many years of inspiration this music has provided to me. A chance to create a ballet that looks to imbue the drama, reverence and illuminations within the baroque musical and dance canon, although not necessarily by way of pursuing a completely historical or biographical approach to the movement."

Tickets for WONDERMENT range from $30 to $60.

Accessible seating is available.
