FAIR MOUNT CEMETERY TOUR WAS A BIG HIT

Submitted by Marianne Ivers

The Chatham Historical Society held a walking tour of Chatham's past at Fair Mount Cemetery on Saturday, October 5 under sunny skies. The tour introduced a few of the men and women whose lives and visions contributed to the unique character and development of Chatham.

The society would like to thank all of the 14 "Re-inActors:" Stacey Keenan, Bill O'Shaughnessy, Bill Fuller, Rich Crater, Susan Allen, Don Dinnhaupt, Jennifer Duteil, Len Resto, Debbie Fabian, Frank Viola, Tom Salvias, Andy Dinnhaupt, Brigid McMenamin, and Liz

Holler, for making this memorable tour a success. "Many had done their own research, created convincing costumes, and truly enjoyed sharing their "stories," said Lynn Magrane, who organized the event along with other Chatham Historical Society members. Additionally, the society would like to express their gratitude to Dawn Roode who volunteered behind the artifacts table as well as all the residents who came to join the tour.

More information about the Chatham Historical Society and the upcoming programs can be found at chathamnjhistoricalsociety.org.

ART LEAGUE FALL ART SHOW OPENED THRU DECEMBER 3

The Art League of the Chathams (ALC) hosted its Fall Show opening reception on September 8, 2024, at the Chatham Township Municipal Building. The event featured a vibrant array of artwork from local artists, with a special focus on Warren Township artist Jack Masterson's solo exhibition in the Lundt-Glover Gallery. Masterson, known for his dynamic acrylic paintings, is generously donating 100% of the proceeds from his art sales to the Goryeb Children's Hospital in Morristown.

Masterson's collection included striking pieces depicting a variety of subjects, ranging from movie sets to nature scenes. His work drew significant attention during the reception. In addition to Masterson's exhibit, the ALC's general membership displayed their diverse artwork in the strolling gallery, providing an eclectic mix of styles and themes.

The reception brought together art lovers and community members, celebrating local talent and supporting a good cause.

The exhibit is free and open to the public until December 3, 2024, with weekday visiting hours from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.

For more information about upcoming exhibitions and membership opportunities, visit artleagueofthechathams.org.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

County of Morris

The Morris County Board of County Commissioners declared October 2024 "Domestic Violence Awareness Month" and presented a framed proclamation to JBWS President and CEO Diane Williams during tonight's work session in Morristown.

JBWS, established in 1976, has grown into a full-service nonprofit that provides safety, support, and solutions for survivors of abuse. In 2023, JBWS handled approximately 4,685 helpline calls, offered legal advocacy to 1,143 people, and conducted 940 Crisis Response Team interventions at local police stations and hospitals.

In partnership with Morris County agencies, JBWS founded the Morris Family Justice Center in 2016. Located at the county's Administration and Records Building, the center offers a centralized hub where survivors can access counseling, legal and immigration assistance, child services, and more. The center is one of only two in New Jersey and is recognized as a best practice by the U.S. Department of Justice.

In 2023, 599 adults and children received comprehensive services from multiple agencies within the Morris Family Justice Center, a statistic that increased significantly from 470 in 2022.

If you are a victim or survivor of dating, domestic or partner abuse seeking support, contact 24-Hour Helpline & Referral: 1.877.R.U.ABUSED or 1.877.782.2873

The National Domestic Violence Hotline offers the option to chat or text with an advocate. Click "Chat Now" on the website or text LOVEIS to 22522. For more information about the Morris Family Justice Center, visit morrisfjc.org.

Look for the unmistakable Jersey Fresh sign, it insures the purchase of authentic New Jersey produce.

New Jersey boasts over 715,000 acres of dedicated farmland and is renowned for its diverse specialty crops, producing an impressive 1.2 billion pounds of tomatoes, 74 million pounds of blueberries, and 400 million pounds of sweet corn annually. With its unique climate and fertile soil, New Jersey's farmers are devoted to sustainable practices that not only elevate the flavor and quality of their crops but also support environmental stewardship. Specialty crops from New Jersey play a crucial role in both local consumption and national markets, significantly bolstering the state's economy.

The NJFCFC supports numerous farmers' markets across the state, fostering community engagement and promoting sustainable living. "New Jersey's agricultural industry is thriving, and our specialty crops are among the best in the nation," said Joseph Mikulewicz, President of NJFCFC. "By choosing local produce, consumers invest in their health while supporting our dedicated farmers and strengthening their communities."

Buying local produce provides numerous advantages: it minimizes carbon footprints thanks to shorter transportation distances, stimulates local economies, and guarantees access to fresher, nutrient-rich food. Research shows that locally grown fruits and vegetables often have higher nutrient levels compared to those transported over long distances.

Farmers' markets, along with local restaurants and grocery stores throughout New Jersey, proudly feature locally sourced produce that encourages healthier eating habits while nurturing a sense of community connection. The state remains committed to upholding its leadership in specialty crop production through initiatives centered on education, sustainability, and making fresh food accessible to all residents.

BIG NEWS: RENNA MEDIA IS LAUNCHING SIX MORE NEWSPAPERS IN DECEMBER

Renna Media will be launching six new newspapers in December 2024. The new towns joining Renna Media's family of newspapers are Livingston, Roseland, Hanover, East Hanover, Morristown, and Morris Township. The newspapers are Every Door Direct Mailing (EDDM) to every home and business in town.

The new monthly publications will add over 40,000 new postal patrons for a new total of over 200,000 newspapers mailed to 30 towns in Union, Somerset and Morris Counties.

The publications are "hyperlocal" in nature in that they contain information focused on each individual town and are direct mailed within those towns. The newspaper's goal is to have a positive influence on the economic development and overall well-being of the town. Our publications exist to share community service news and the good things that are happening in the community.

The concept of being hyper-local is to give local businesses a venue to promote services. Reaching local customers gives you the highest return for your advertising dollars. The black and white newspapers are designed to keep the cost of an advertisement to a minimum. Ads in one town start at $100. Regional businesses can take advantage of discounted rates for advertising in multiple towns.

Renna Media also prints full-color flyers and tri-fold menus that get mailed along with the newspapers. A cost effective alternative to mailing postcards.

Renna Media is a Cranford, NJ based business owned and operated by husband-and-wife team of Joe and Tina Renna. They are celebrating 40 years in business.
