MEMORIAL LIBRARY HOLDS GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION

Submitted by Tom Kranz

The new Fanwood Memorial Library opened to the public and a ribbon cutting ceremony on Saturday, September 14th, 2024, attracted more than 100 residents, local VIPs and elected officials.

The opening of the new building is the culmination of a decade of planning that began seeing daylight with the demolition of the 70-year-old original library in January 2023 followed by groundbreaking for the new facility in February 2023. The $9-million project was funded by the Borough of Fanwood, a state library grant and an appropriation from the state legislature.

The new, two-story building includes large, bright spaces, a family room, living room area, an enlarged children's section, a special room for teenagers including a large TV for gaming and extensive stacks of books and DVDs on the second floor. Just off the entrance on the first floor is a gallery featuring local artists, the first of whom is Joe Schott who, at age 102, is believed to be Fanwood's oldest citizen. There is also a community room that can accommodate 100 people for various town events. The entire building is ADA compliant and contains an elevator, easy ingress and egress, modern climate controls and automatic lighting.

A special feature is the Carlo Bravo Business Center, a room populated with multiple computers, copy machine and printer, named in honor of Fanwood native Carlo Bravo, who died in 2023 and whose family donated $20,000 to the Fanwood Memorial Library Foundation. In presenting the donation in May, Mr. Bravo's brother Gino cited his brother's love of the library having spent countless hours reading and borrowing books about the Vietnam war.

The library's hours, programs and benefits for card holders can be found at fanwoodlibrary.org. The Fanwood Memorial Library Foundation is looking for new members to assist in its mission of supporting the new library. Interested parties may contact Foundation President Sam Rogers at samuellangstonrogers@gmail.com.

IMMACULATE HEART PARISHIONERS HELP OUT NEWARK SOUP KITCHEN

Parishioners from Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Scotch Plains, volunteered at St. John's Soup Kitchen in Newark, NJ in Septemeber, where they cooked and served meals for hungry folks in the area. FANNY WOOD DAY ATTRACTS THOUSANDS TO DOWNTOWN

Borough of Fanwood

Fanny Wood Day was held under sunny skies Sunday with temperatures in the 70s, attracting thousands to Downtown Fanwood. The event featured over 200 vendors including 20 food trucks, kids' activities, a petting zoo and live music throughout the day.

The opening ceremony included the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Boys Scouts Troop 33 Color Guard, Pledge of Allegiance, and the singing of God Bless America. Borough Council members Anthony Carter, Jeff Banks and Trish Walsh were on hand along with Bruce Zakarin of the Fanwood Recreation Commission, now in his 16th year as the event's organizer.

(above) A Petting Zoo was a new feature.

The event, held along South and Martine Avenues, included a County Stage where bands played throughout the day, and a kids stage for children's acts. Members of the Fanwood Rescue Squad, Fire and Police Departments were also on hand to give tours of their vehicles. A children's Play Land featuring rides was located at South Avenue Train Station Lot.

WrestlePro returned for a second straight year and attracted large crowds as wrestlers held a Meet and Greet and four winners of the Fanny Wood Day Raffle received autographed photos of each of the featured wrestlers. Three wrestling matches were featured to the delight of the crowd, especially children, as wrestlers went airborne and crashed down their opponents or the wrestling ring floor.

A scavenger hunt, water balloon toss, bubble gum blowing contest and spaghetti and meatball eating contest were also featured.

Fanny Wood Day sponsors included Unity Bank, Scotch Plains-Fanwood Dental Care, Lightbridge Academy, Carano Square, Provident Bank, and Fabio's Bistro.

RAI COMPLETES WEST POINT BASIC TRAINING

Cadet Sohem Jayant Rai, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manjul Rai of Fanwood, N.J., completed Cadet Basic Training at the U.S. Military Academy.

Rai entered West Point on July 1 and has successfully completed six weeks of CBT. CBT is one of the most challenging events a cadet will encounter over the course of their four years at the academy.

The initial military training program provides cadets with basic skills to instill discipline, pride, cohesion, confidence and a high sense of duty to prepare them for entry into the Corps of Cadets. Areas of summer instruction included first aid, mountaineering, hand grenades, rifle marksmanship and nuclear, biological, and chemical training.

Rai began classes August 19. The West Point curriculum offers 36 majors balancing physical sciences and engineering with humanities and social sciences leading to a Bachelor of Science degree.

Rai graduated from Union County Acad Info Tech. He plans to graduate from West Point in 2028 and be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

The U. S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year, co-educational, federal, liberal arts college located 50 miles north of New York City. It was founded in 1802 as America's first college of engineering and continues today as the world's premier leader-development institution, consistently ranked among top colleges in the country. Its mission remains constant--to build, educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets to be commissioned leaders of character committed to the Army Values and ready for a lifetime of service to the Army and Nation. THRIFT SHOP'S ANNUAL BOOT BONANZA

The Fanwood-Scotch Plains Service League is once again kicking off a great deal on boots at its non-profit Thrift Shop, 1741 East Second Street, Scotch Plains.

Tuesday, October 15, marks the start of the Thrift Shop's annual Boot Bonanza. Here, a wide assortment of both warm and fashion-minded boots for men, women and children will be showcased, with many items brand-new. The Shop's reasonably priced boots include such famous brand names as Hunter, Sorel, Timberline, Michael Kors and UGG, as well as Disney-branded footwear for kids. Outsmart the cold by keeping your feet warm and dry as we head into rainy, snowy weather! Be sure to shop early for the best selection.

The store also boasts a variety of Halloween costumes for children, adults and pets, along with related holiday accessories. Find spook-tacular costumes in all sizes for trick-or-treating and ghostly parties. And, while you are in the holiday mood, pick up some autumn-themed bric-a-brac and décor to turn your home into a haunted mansion or a colorful fall festival.

The Fanwood-Scotch Plains Service League is a local, volunteer organization, with all store proceeds outside of the shop's operating expenses provided to local non-profit organizations or used for student scholarships. In each of the past two years, $60,000 in grants and scholarships were awarded. All items for sale are provided by generous donors who supply the store with good-quality merchandise they no longer need. Clothing in all sizes, shoes, bric-a-brac, linens, household goods, toys, games, books, and more are constantly replenished, so shoppers can always find something "new to them!"

Store hours are Tuesday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., and Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. To learn more about the Service League, volunteer opportunities and types of donations accepted call the store during Thrift Shop business hours: 908-322-5420. You can also visit the Scotch Plains Thrift Shop website scotchplains thriftshop.weebly.com or search and follow the "Fanwood-Scotch Plains Service League" on Facebook.

AUTHOR PRESENTATION - OCTOBER 23

Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood

Just before Halloween the Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood is thrilled to present New Jersey's second most notorious crime as its program at its October 23rd meeting. The story of John List killing his family is past spooky. It is scary. And it happened around Halloween.

JD Solomon, the presenter, is a Westfield resident and retired journalist who gives presentations about historical true crime at senior centers and community organizations in Union County. He is the author of two historical novels.

His first, The Tinen Killings, is a thriller about aging Civil War veterans in Philadelphia in 1898. His second, Home News, is a thriller about bootlegging set in his home town of Bay Shore, NY, in 1928.

This frightening and enlightening program is free and open to all. It occurs on Wednesday, October 23rd beginning at 7:30 p.m. It is held in the historic Shady Rest Golf and Country Club, 820 Jerusalem Road (at the Corner of Plainfield Avenue) in Scotch Plains. Fellowship and refreshments follow the meeting.

CHILL MAMAS DANCERS TO PERFORM OCT 21

The College Club of Fanwood-Scotch Plains is hosting the Chill Mamas Dance Group on October 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Mira Vie, 295 South Avenue in Fanwood. The event is free and open to the public. The Chill Mamas are a nonprofit group that performs native Chinese dances and seeks to empower communities through the power of dance. The group aims to foster creativity, inclusivity, and cultural appreciation.
