PARENTS UNITE TO DELAY SOCIAL MEDIA USE IN CHILDREN

Inspired by Jonathan Haidt's book, "The Anxious Generation," and conversations with other concerned parents, a group of seven Madison moms with 16 children has formed Dodgers Delay, a grassroots movement advocating for children to learn to use technology in a mindful and deliberate way.

"Our mission is to delay unfettered access to the internet and social media amongst Madison children," says Lindsey Dubman, a co-founder of the movement. "There is so much evidence directly linking adolescent time spent on smart phones and social media to mental health declines."

According to the U.S. Surgeon General's Advisory Report: Social Media and Youth Mental Health, Teens who spent more than three hours a day on social media face double the risk of experiencing poor mental health outcomes. Up to 95% of teens between the ages of 13 and 17 say they use a social media platform with about a third saying they scroll, post or otherwise engage with social media "almost constantly," according to the report.

"The impact of social media and smartphone use goes beyond mental health to children's social and neurological development, covering everything from sleep deprivation to attention fragmentation, addiction, and loneliness," says Dr. Laura Venuto, a Licensed Psychologist and Madison parent. "This health impact is also having a direct effect on academic related activities."

A first priority for the movement has been to collaborate with and support local schools in fostering critical digital literacy in an ever-evolving landscape. The Madison Public School District's leadership has also identified the use of smartphones and smartwatches during the academic day as a concern, and as a result launched "Away for the Day" policies for the 2024 – 2025 school year.

Speaking at the MPS Board Meeting on Thursday, September 19th, Dodgers Delay co-founder Heidi Muccifori said, "We at Dodgers Delay are so pleased with the collective action around this topic that is building here in our parent community. We are also very grateful for the partnership that has been established with Superintendent Shanley and her administrative team of school principals. There is still more work to do, but we are now moving forward together to make meaningful change."

The movement's other primary goal is to be a resource for parents no matter where their child is at on their journey to using smart phones and social media. In talking to parents throughout the community, Dodgers Delay has recognized that many parents are interested in the latest research and alternatives to internet enabled devices for their children.

"Dodgers Delay is not a no phone movement," says Lindsey Dubman. "We support cell phones and watches without internet access for our youngest children. And we do support mindful use of smart phones for teens. We just want to arm parents with research and resources to help make informed technology decisions for their family and mitigate any shame around those decisions."

While this movement started small, it has quickly grown to include over 100 Madison families who want to learn more and be involved. As Dodgers Delay continues to grow, the group plans to launch a monthly newsletter and website, host in-person educational events, as well as bring small groups of parents together for real-world talks.

To learn more about the Dodgers Delay movement, interested parents can email Dodgers Delay at dodgersdelay@gmail.com.

AUTHOR BARB FRYE DISCUSSES GRATITUDE

Thursday Morning Club

When we dig deep, even in the darkest of times, we find a reason to be grateful. Those attending the Thursday Morning Club's luncheon were introduced to Barb Frye. She discussed "Gratitude" as part of The Wise, Wonderful, Women Lecture and Luncheon Series held at the Madison Community House. It was an inspiring afternoon. Barb, who lives in Florida, spoke to the audience via a large screen and then answered questions before lunch was served.

Barb is paralyzed from the shoulders down, but that has not stopped her from living life to the fullest. She is a mother, public speaker,

Mental Health Therapist and author. Barb lives on the west coast of Florida and can now add to her achievements surviving Hurricane Milton.

Barb's life changed at 18 years of age. She was entering college at Kent State University, when she made the decision to get into a car with a friend after drinking alcohol. Barb's friend walked away with a crashed car and in trouble with the law, while Barb suffered a broken neck leaving her paralyzed from the shoulders down, never to walk again.

Today, some 40 years later, with a grown son and a Master's in Clinical Counseling, she works but finds time to share her story with high school and college students. Barb credits her transformation away from victimhood to the recognition that she made the choice that night to enter the car and took responsibility for it. When she accepted that she would never walk again, she moved forward with her life and authored the book "Stop Wishing For The Life You Don't Have And Start Living The Life You Do."

A woman of strength and courage, she is also funny! Her time doing stand up comedy was among the stories she shared with us. Sometimes, there is a happy ending, even when it is not initially apparent.

The Thursday Morning Club, organized in 1896, is a non-profit which provides services for Madison area communities. It owns, operates, and maintains the Madison Community House and is a member of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's clubs (NJSFWC) and of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC). If you would like to serve the community, make new friends, and enjoy programs and activities, consider joining the Thursday morning Club; for more information, call the community House at 973-377-0244 or visit TCMCH.org.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WELCOMES NEW PASTOR REV. CAROL HOWARD

Howard most recently served as pastor of the Bedford Presbyterian Church in Westchester County, N.Y. Before that, she led Presbyterian congregations across the U.S., including at a bayside village in Rhode Island and an urban neighborhood in Washington, D.C.

Friends first introduced Howard to PCM and she was struck by the camaraderie of its members.

“It felt right as soon as I met with the members of Session. They asked great questions and clearly, they are friends and work well together. As I’ve gotten to know the congregation, it has been the same way,” Howard said. “The people of Presbyterian Church of Madison worship God, reach out to the community and enjoy one another.”

As pastor, Howard succeeds Jacqui Van Vliet, who served as transitional pastor for nearly four years before retiring in the spring.

The mission of the church is to see lives transformed, families strengthened and its community renewed through intentional relationship with Jesus Christ. Its congregation, dating back to 1747, is the oldest in Madison and the its parish hall, at 19 Green Ave., is the largest meetinghouse in the borough.

Beyond her ministry, Howard is an award-winning author of several books and devotionals. She was a regular columnist for The Christian Century, and her writing has appeared in The New York Times, Slate, The Washington Post and Newsweek, among other publications. In 2020, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary honored her with the Distinguished Alumna Award for her service to the church.

Her committee and board work includes serving as the moderator of the Special General Assembly Committee on the Nature of the Church in the 21st Century and as the moderator of the General Assembly’s Survivors of Clergy Misconduct Task Force.

In her free time, Howard enjoys hiking with her adult daughter, Calla. She also loves painting, drawing and exploring museums. She grew up on the East Coast of Florida, where she spent as much time as possible at the beach.

PCM’s congregation meets Sundays at 10:15 a.m. More information is available at pccmadison.org/about-us.

WINTER WONDERLAND SNOW VILLAGE OPENS DEC. 1

Free, Family Fun – more than 100 Model Houses, Cars and Figures on Display

The Chatham Emergency Squad is excited to celebrate the holiday season once again with the 20th annual Winter Wonderland Snow Village at its Chatham Borough building, located at 31 North Passaic Street. The event kicks off on December 1 and runs through December 29, 2024. CES warmly invites everyone to partake in this cherished tradition that has brought joy to generations of children and adults alike.

The Snow Village has been a holiday favorite at CES since 2003 when Mark Spinner, affectionately known as “Spanky,” first crafted a charming arrangement of model houses and a train display to entertain children from Chatham and its neighboring areas. It quickly became a beloved attraction, and Spanky's collection grew significantly over the years.

In 2019, after four decades of dedicated service with the Chatham Emergency Squad – the longest-serving member in the organization's history – Spanky generously entrusted his collection to CES upon his retirement. Since then, Bryan McGookin has assumed the role of caretaker and maintenance manager of the Snow Village.

This impressive display features over 100 Department 56 model houses, cars, and figurines, complete with a working ski lift, an ice-skating rink, and more – all highlighted by a model train traversing the heart of the village. Guests are encouraged to visit and discover the hidden treasures throughout the exhibition during the various open houses at the Squad building.

The Winter Wonderland Snow Village will be open every Saturday from 3-6 p.m. and Sunday from 12-3 p.m. in December, with additional hours on December 2, 10, 18 and 26. A complete schedule of open houses can be found on the Chatham Emergency Squad website. Special hours and group tours can be arranged by emailing community@chathamemergencysquad.org.

About the Chatham Emergency Squad: The Chatham Emergency Squad is an all-volunteer organization primarily funded by donations, providing emergency medical assistance to residents and visitors of Chatham. CES never charges for its services. To learn more, to donate or to volunteer, please visit www.chathamemergencysquad.org.

CELEBRATE WITH THE PIPES OF CHRISTMAS

The beloved Pipes of Christmas fundraising concert is delighted to be entering their second quarter century with a brand-new production.

The popular holiday event will be returning to the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in NYC on Decemebr 14, and Central Presbyterian Church in Summit, NJ on Decemebr 15.

The Pipes of Christmas brings together musicians, soloists, and performers from across America and the UK to share the magic of the holiday season through the timeless sounds of Celtic music. The show features traditional favorites and newly commissioned works performed on pipes and drums, harp and fiddle, organ, brass, and more, as well as readings taken from the Celtic literature of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales.

Featured performers include guitarist and music director Steve Gibb from Inverness, Scotland, actor James Robinson of “A Merry Scottish Christmas,” “Braveheart,” and “Outlander,” fiddler Caitlin Warbelow from Broadway’s “Come from Away,” and US Harp Champion harpist Rachel Clemente.

Audiences will thrill to the Commonwealth Pipes and Drums under the leadership of Pipe Major Adam Holdaway and the B-Line Brass Quintet led by CJ Waldrop.

In both locations, the company will include the Solid Brass ensemble and the St. Columcille United Pipe Band led by Pipe Major Cameron MacDougall.

Also making her Pipes of Christmas debut will be Madelyn Monaghan, an Irish American traditional (sean-nós) singer based in New York City. In September of this year, Madelyn was a leading performer at the Celtic World Forum in Dublin alongside the likes of Máiréad Nesbitt and Clannad’s Moya Brennan and appeared in the Celtic Music Festival in Rockport, MA. Her voice can be heard via TikTok, museums, film scores, and commercials, and her album éist is available on all streaming platforms.

Proceeds Support Scholarships and Cultural Heritage Initiatives

The Pipes of Christmas is hosted by the Learned Kindred of Currie, a non-profit cultural and educational organization dedicated to preserving and promoting Scottish and Highland heritage and the arts. As its primary fundraiser, the concert enables the Kindred’s continued efforts to support the global Scottish community through initiatives such as:

- Producing Tartan Day on Ellis Island, perhaps the largest Tartan Day event in the world, which received 80,000 visitors in 2024 alone
- Providing scholarships to deserving students in the US, Canada, and Scotland
- Sponsoring competitions and festivals across the globe
- Commissioning of new musical and cultural works
- A global monuments initiative, which helps erect and preserve new and existing locations such as the Scottish Writers Museum and Bale nam Bàrd (the bard’s home) on the Island of South Uist
- Developing a cultural heritage center in Scotland (currently in preliminary stages)

TICKETS AVAILABLE NOW

Tickets are now available via Eventbrite. Reserved VIP and general admission seating is available. Access to the global web stream of concert highlights can also be booked in advance. Tickets for Summit are $60 general admission and $150 VIP - reserved tickets.

ABOUT “THE PIPES OF CHRISTMAS”

Since its debut, The Pipes of Christmas has played to standing-room-only audiences. Now a cherished holiday event, the concert gives audiences a stirring and reverent celebration of the Christmas season and the Celtic spirit. Audience-goers return year after year to experience the program, many reporting that the Pipes of Christmas has become part of their family’s annual Christmas tradition.

The concert has been lavished with critical acclaim. In his review for Classical New Jersey Magazine, Paul Somers wrote, “The whole evening was constructed to introduce gem after gem and still have a finale which raised the roof. In short, it was like a well-constructed fireworks show on the Glorious Fourth.”

AMBULANCE CORPS FALL "TWO IN ONE DRIVE"

Our Fall/Winter Fund Drive appeal is ongoing. We ask you to consider two things, money and people. If 25% of Madison's approximately 5,500 households contributed $100 or more, we would reach our budget's goal. To those who made that decision during a prior drive, we extend our sincere appreciation and look forward to your continuing support.

To donate you may select from one of the following: Mail your check to Madison Volunteer Ambulance Corps, 29 Prospect Street, Madison, NJ 07940, or donate online at madisonems.org/content/donate. Donations are fully tax deductible.

While money pays the bills, people provide the actual 24/7 services. We've tried lawn signs. A large white sign stood at the corner of our building at 29 Prospect Street for months on end asking for volunteers. These efforts have been fruitless. MVAC needs additional members now so that we can continue to serve you.

Interested in joining MVAC? We'd love to hear from you. We'll gladly provide the training and the uniforms. Without you, there may come a time when there is no us.

V.H. Schumacher Ed.D.

Vice President

Madison Volunteer Ambulance Corps

(above) Our Mission "Serving the citizens of Madison since 1954, our mission is, To save human life, relieve suffering of the injured, promote safety in all its branches and provide ambulance service for those in need, principally in the Borough of Madison, NJ"
