SCOUTS MARCH IN NYC VETERANS DAY PARADE

Scouting America Troop 19

New York City came alive on Veterans Day as the 105th annual Veterans Day Parade marched proudly down Fifth Avenue, stretching from 26th Street to 46th Street. The parade, known as one of the largest celebrations honoring military veterans in the United States, drew thousands of patriotic spectators who gathered to pay homage to those who have served in the armed forces. The event featured an inspiring lineup of marching bands, military units, and veterans' organizations, all united in their dedication to honoring the nation's heroes.

Among the participants were eleven members of Scouting America Troop 19, chartered at St. Rose of Lima Church -Short Hills, NJ, who embarked on a memorable journey to New York City. The Troop departed bright and early at 8 a.m. from Millburn Train Station, traveling via New Jersey Transit to Penn Station, ready to spend the day immersed in the historic and patriotic atmosphere.

This year marked the Troop's fifth consecutive appearance in the parade, a tradition they have embraced since 2019. Once again, they were invited by the USS Intrepid Former Crew Members Association, Inc., to march in honor of all servicemen and women, including those who served aboard the gallant ship. The Scouts, with their honor guard, proudly carried a banner that read, "Scouts Salute – Former Members of USS Intrepid".

Life Scout Sara Winker, who led the Troop into the city, expressed her excitement, "Today is very exciting and eventful. We did some sightseeing in Times Square and Rockefeller Center before hiking downtown, only to march uptown again to honor the former members of the USS Intrepid."

For First Class Scout Elena Katz, the parade was a deeply personal experience. Marching for the first time, she carried the POW flag and shared her feelings, "It is such an honor to carry the POW flag for the soldiers that were prisoners and missing in action."

Assistant Scoutmaster Sandra Winker, a familiar face in recent years' parades, reflected on the day, "It is always an honor to be at the Veterans Day Parade."

Scoutmaster-Emeritus Daniel Cannon encapsulated the spirit of the day, remarking, "I am so proud of Troop 19, as we not only march again with history, but we also marched into it today!"

The Troop returned home to New Jersey by 5 p.m., enriched by their experience and proud of their role in honoring America's veterans. For Troop 19, the Veterans Day Parade was not just an event but a heartfelt tradition, an opportunity to honor the sacrifices of those who served and to demonstrate their unwavering commitment to service and citizenship.

REC DEPARTMENT IS A GREAT PART OF MILLBURN

Submitted by Thomas Fialko

It is my opinion that the Recreation Department is a great part of Millburn, and I think the staff should be recognized for their fantastic work. It continuously offers different activities and sports to the community. I have participated in a lot of the Rec Program activities since Kindergarten. I sign up each season and look forward to meeting my teams. Even now as I play more travel sports I still play rec soccer, basketball, and I am on the town swim team. The Rec Program always does its best to make the activities fun and I have many friends who also participate.

Another thing done well by the Rec Department is the maintenance of the fields, courts and the pool. The fields and courts that anyone can play on in parks such as Taylor and Gero are great and are well kept. The pool is also amazing and the changes made to the pool in the past years have been appreciated. All in all, I think the Rec Program does a great job and they should keep planning activities and events for the people of Millburn. I also hope they are recognized and thanked for their efforts and hard work.

Tommy Fialko is an 8th grader attending Millburn Middle School. He is a Boy Scout in Troop 17 Short Hills and is currently working on his communications merit badge. One of the requirements is to write to a local newspaper and express an opinion on a topic.

SUPPORT THE FIRST AID SQUAD THIS HOLIDAY

Millburn-Short Hills Volunteer First Aid Squad is fortunate to have friends and neighbors like you who support us year after year. We respond to first aid calls 24 hours a day, 365 days a year; this year, we've responded to more than 1,500 calls (from minor ones such as a bruise or a sprain to car accidents or CPR).

All of our members are trained EMTs who volunteer their time to serve the community. We have monthly training meetings to keep our members well prepared for any situation. Our ambulances are kept well stocked with all the medical supplies and equipment necessary to respond to emergency situations.

We do not receive any public funding and running an emergency medical service is very expensive. The generous contributions and donations from our friends, neighbors and community allow us to ensure that our squad continues to be among the best in the state of NJ.

We provide our service completely free of charge, and have never charged anyone for our services in our 66 years of existence.

We are currently running our annual MSHVFAS Operating Fund Drive. The money raised from this fund drive will go towards training, daily upkeep, and equipment, allowing us to maintain our high level of excellence that this community deserves. Consider making a tax deductible contribution during this holiday season to help us maintain this 66-year community tradition.

Thank you in advance for your continued generosity and support. To make a donation, visit our website at mshvfas.org.

Interested in joining the squad? We are always in need of volunteers, and we provide free training to town residents. Our next class begins January 2023. Please feel free to call us at (973) 379-7969 or visit our website at mshvfas.org.

HOLIDAY GIFT DRIVE

Millburn Township Public Schools

Caring Kids is proud to announce our 14th annual holiday gift drive and celebration. Once again, we have partnered with New Jersey Regional Day School and the Center for Autism in Newark. Every child in the school has significant special needs. Additionally, most of the families are dealing with dire financial hardships and food insecurity. Most of the young adults at the Center for Autism are graduates of Regional Day and have aged out of other care.

Caring Kids is reaching out to our community to bring the joy of the season once again to so many children, young adults, and families in need. If you would like to sponsor someone and provide them with gifts for the holidays, or if you need more information, please email Sharon Cohen at sharonmcohen2@gmail.com.

We are also collecting Shoprite and Walmart gift cards to help the families with necessities. And save the date for our holiday party. On Saturday, December 14th, from 12-2 p.m., you may bring the gifts to Hartshorn School for a festive gift wrapping, card making, chocolate treat dipping celebration. Please help Caring Kids spread our message of changing the world, one kid at a time, by sponsoring someone in need.

CELEBRATE WITH THE PIPES OF CHRISTMAS

The beloved Pipes of Christmas fundraising concert is delighted to be entering their second quarter century with a brand-new production.

The popular holiday event will be returning to the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in NYC on Decemebr 14, and Central Presbyterian Church in Summit, NJ on Decemebr 15.

The Pipes of Christmas brings together musicians, soloists, and performers from across America and the UK to share the magic of the holiday season through the timeless sounds of Celtic music. The show features traditional favorites and newly commissioned works performed on pipes and drums, harp and fiddle, organ, brass, and more, as well as readings taken from the Celtic literature of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales.

Featured performers include guitarist and music director Steve Gibb from Inverness, Scotland, actor James Robinson of “A Merry Scottish Christmas,” “Braveheart,” and “Outlander,” fiddler Caitlin Warbelow from Broadway’s “Come from Away,” and US Harp Champion harpist Rachel Clemente.

Audiences will thrill to the Commonwealth Pipes and Drums under the leadership of Pipe Major Adam Holdaway and the B-Line Brass Quintet led by CJ Waldrop.

In both locations, the company will include the Solid Brass ensemble and the St. Columille United Pipe Band led by Pipe Major Cameron MacDougall.

Also making her Pipes of Christmas debut will be Madelyn Monaghan, an Irish American traditional (sean-nós) singer based in New York City. In September of this year, Madelyn was a leading performer at the Celtic World Forum in Dublin alongside the likes of Máiréad Nesbitt and Clannad’s Moya Brennan and appeared in the Celtic Music Festival in Rockport, MA. Her voice can be heard via TikTok, museums, film scores, and commercials, and her album éist is available on all streaming platforms.

Proceeds Support Scholarships and Cultural Heritage Initiatives

The Pipes of Christmas is hosted by the Learned Kindred of Currie, a non-profit cultural and educational organization dedicated to preserving and promoting Scottish and Highland heritage and the arts. As its primary fundraiser, the concert enables the Kindred’s continued efforts to support the global Scottish community through initiatives such as:

- Producing Tartan Day on Ellis Island, perhaps the largest Tartan Day event in the world, which received 80,000 visitors in 2024 alone
- Providing scholarships to deserving students in the US, Canada, and Scotland
- Sponsoring competitions and festivals across the globe
- Commissioning of new musical and cultural works
- A global monuments initiative, which helps erect and preserve new and existing locations such as the Scottish Writers Museum and Bale nam Bàrd (the bard’s home) on the Island of South Uist
- Developing a cultural heritage center in Scotland (currently in preliminary stages)

TICKETS AVAILABLE NOW

Tickets are now available via Eventbrite. Reserved VIP and general admission seating is available. Access to the global web stream of concert highlights can also be booked in advance. Tickets for Summit are $60 general admission and $150 VIP - reserved tickets.

ABOUT “THE PIPES OF CHRISTMAS”

Since its debut, The Pipes of Christmas has played to standing-room-only audiences. Now a cherished holiday event, the concert gives audiences a stirring and reverent celebration of the Christmas season and the Celtic spirit. Audience-goers return year after year to experience the program, many reporting that the Pipes of Christmas has become part of their family’s annual Christmas tradition.

The concert has been lavished with critical acclaim. In his review for Classical New Jersey Magazine, Paul Somers wrote, “The whole evening was constructed to introduce gem after gem and still have a finale which raised the roof. In short, it was like a well-constructed fireworks show on the Glorious Fourth.”

Join Us for the Learned Kindred of Currie's 26th Annual Production.
