West Essex Public Schools

West Essex High School kicked off an exciting new chapter in school spirit and inclusivity with the launch of its Unified Sports Recreation program. To celebrate the beginning of this initiative, the school hosted its first-ever event: a Tie-Dye T-Shirt Social on January 29th.

Unified Sports, a key program of Special Olympics, is an inclusive sports initiative that brings together students with and without intellectual disabilities to compete on the same team. Through this partnership, athletes and partners train together, break down barriers, and foster a sense of community, respect, and friendship. The program is designed to promote social inclusion, where teamwork and shared experiences create a deeper understanding and connection among all participants. Unified Sports empowers individuals to reach their full potential, regardless of ability, and helps build a more inclusive and supportive school environment.

Director of Special Services, Dr. McQuaid, Mr. Cappello and Ms. Ayres worked closely with Carly Levitt, student representative, to plan for events this school year with a team of volunteers.

Dr. McQuaid said the following: "On behalf of all our West Essex Unified Sports Recreation and Interest volunteers, we strive to create events that celebrate our differences and foster acceptance, bringing students together to promote social inclusion. By pairing students with and without intellectual disabilities, we aim to spark friendships, build understanding, and strengthen connections through teamwork and shared experiences."

This Tie-Dye Social Event will be the first of many upcoming events designed to encourage socialization and awareness of Unified Sports, which includes a variety of recreational activities where students of all abilities can participate together. Stay tuned and be on the lookout for our Unified Bowling and district wide Kickball Interest events coming this spring. Stay tuned for upcoming dates.

SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE MARCH 7TH

Borough of Roseland

The New Jersey State League of Municipalities and the Borough of Roseland are offering a scholarship opportunity for the High School Juniors and Seniors from the Borough of Roseland. We have teamed up to offer three $1,000 scholarships through the Louis Bay 2nd Future Municipal Leaders Scholarship Competition. This statewide scholarship competition centers on the theme "What I Like About My Hometown" and seeks to advance the virtues of elected and volunteer members of municipal government.

Many of the elected officials and appointed board members serve the Borough of Roseland with little to no compensation. It is their altruistic desire to serve their community which compels them to public service. These officials, along with a cadre of dedicated professionals, are guardians of our hometown comforts and security. They give of their time and talents to help plan our community and preserve our way of life.

They serve us year-round, every day and yet are hardly noticed. This scholarship competition will help rectify that, while encouraging our future municipal leaders.

Full details on the application process for this scholarship can be obtained by visiting: www.roselandnj.org/office-mayor/news/2025-scholarship-opportunity. The deadline to submit to me is the end of the workday on March 7, 2025 and submissions can be emailed to me at jspango@roselandnj.org or by dropping a hard copy submission at Borough Hall (140 Eagle Rock Avenue) at Floor 1A to the attention of Public Information Officer Ryan Schwertfeger.

ESSEX COUNTY TEEN ARTS FESTIVAL MARCH 27TH

Essex County Teen Arts Festival is scheduled for Thursday, March 27, 2025. We invite all Essex County teens ages 13-19 to experience professional critiques in visual, writing, and performing arts. Join us for a day-long festival that celebrates the arts. We welcome Essex County teens to participate in classes and workshops dedicated to fine and performing arts. They also have the opportunity to meet other artists and their peers from across Essex County. The visual art pieces that have been submitted for adjudication will also be on display during the festival.

This year's festival will take place at the South Mountain Recreation Complex, 560 Northfield Ave, in West Orange, that includes Turtle Back Zoo, Education Building, and the Codey Arena.

There are Many Ways to Experience the Essex County Teen Arts Festival.

For more information, and to register, please visit essexcountyteenartsfestival.org.

This Year's Festival Theme is "Go Wild"! "Go Wild" is all about encouraging creativity that evokes impactful and impassioned expression. It inspires students to explore creative ideas through different art forms and style, pushing the limits, allowing for infinite possibilities in the visual arts, creative writing and performing arts. While it is not mandatory to use this theme to participate, we encourage teachers to motivate their students to create works that embrace the "Go Wild" theme. During the festival, there will be several workshops and group exhibitions that will utilize the theme of "Go Wild".

Made possible by funds from the Essex County Division of Cultural Affairs, a partner of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

Any questions, please email Maressa McFarlane, Event Manager, at mmcfarlane@parks.essexcountynj.org

Michael D Boll, NJVN President

For the last few years, the New Jersey Veterans Network (NJVN) has been helping veterans with resources and assistance with their mental health conditions. Over time we came to realize that the veteran's family was being affected by their struggles as well. Our team had to learn how to include their family members in our outreach efforts. We lose 22 veterans each day to suicide, and they leave behind grieving families. Recently, we decided to make sure all veteran family members can use the same resources that our team has available for veterans. Sometimes we forget about the sacrifices our veteran families have to make and this country should appreciate them for this.

One thing our team decided to do was to have Gold Star families meet disabled veterans at our events, so they can work together and form a bond. This effort was extremely affective and immediately brought joy to both the Gold Star families and to the disabled veterans. By adding veteran family members to the team, it allows us to work together on our peer support and recreational therapy programs. We are honored to have veteran family members to work alongside us and know they are just as committed with helping our veterans live a better way of life.

If you need assistance, or would like to join the team as a volunteer, please send us your name, email, and phone number to NJVN1775@gmail.com.

ABOUT NEW JERSEY VETERANS NETWORK

We are a group of veterans and volunteers dedicated to helping our veterans and their families live better lives. Our mission is to identify veterans and connect them with resources and programs designed to meet their unique set of needs. Help us save Vets! We are always looking for volunteers, with various skills, to join the team. If you are a veteran or family member that is in need of assistance; or are interested in volunteering, would like us to speak at your event, or contribute to our mission, call 973-332-1556 or email NJVN1775@gmail.com. To learn more visit njvn.org.

ANNUAL SHARING THE QUILTS SHOW – MARCH 22

Harvest Quilters of Central New Jersey

Harvest Quilters of Central NJ will present their 41st annual quilt show on Saturday, March 22, 2025. The 41st Sharing the Quilts will be held at the Willow Grove Presbyterian Church, 1961 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains, NJ from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $8 for adults and $3 for children under twelve.

At 10:30 a.m., Elsa Hahn of Edison will show her work and speak on "Surface Design – Making it Personal." The award-winning quilter and retired Westfield music teacher will share her firsthand knowledge of various art quilting techniques, including the pros and cons of popular methods.

Janice M. Tellier of Mountainside will be recognized as 2025's Featured Quilter. The Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) graduate and lifelong creative spirit will display 20 plus works of original art. Of her 14 vibrant bed-sized quilts Tellier quipped, "I often think my beds are better dressed than I am."

Tellier's whimsical fiber art will be featured alongside her acrylic paintings, crochet, examples of bobbin lace making and a fascinating diorama of a miniature modern quilting studio. "My hope is to have the quilts speak to the viewer, with a sense of humor or play on words," Tellier said.

As is tradition, local charities will benefit from drawings for a modern lap-sized quilt, a traditional queen-sized bed quilt, gift cards and craft themed gift baskets.

In addition to viewing a full array of modern, traditional, art and wall-hanging quilts, attendees can participate in viewer's choice awards, kid's crafting table and vendor sales area.

A tearoom offering lunch, snacks, homemade baked goods, and beverages will benefit Willow Grove Church programs.

For additional information, please visit harvestquilters.com, or email: harvestquiltersnj@gmail.com.

PREMIERE STAGES AT KEAN ANNOUNCES CAMP PREMIERE 2025

Premiere Stages, the professional theatre company at Kean University, has announced that Camp Premiere, the annual summer theatre program for middle school and high school students, will be held on Kean University's Nathan Weiss East Campus in Enlow Recital Hall. Registration is now open for both camp sessions. Premiere Stages will offer two two-week sessions this summer.

Theatremakers (July 7-18), for students entering Grades 6-8. Campers translate their creative ideas into brand new, original material for the stage. Through structured improvisation, storytelling exercises, and acting games, campers craft and star in their own, totally original theatrical presentation for friends and family.

Actors Studio (July 21-August 1), for students entering Grades 9-12. Campers focus on the craft of acting through physical and vocal warm-ups, improvisation, acting technique, and scene study. Working closely with industry professionals, campers perform scenes from contemporary plays, selected specifically for unique talents and areas for growth. This camp culminates in a performance of the campers' work for friends and family.

Premiere Stages is committed to ensuring that all students who are interested in Camp Premiere are afforded the opportunity to participate. The full tuition for each two-week session is $350. An Early Bird discount (a savings of $50) is currently available through Monday, March 17. For families seeking assistance with camp tuition, scholarships may be available.

Information regarding Camper Registration, Tuition Payment, and Scholarship Applications can be found at: premierestagesatkean.com/camp-premiere

Any Camp Premiere inquiries can be emailed to Premiere Stages Managing Director Nick Gandiello at ngandiel@kean.edu.

Premiere Stages is committed to producing topical plays and interactive programs that reflect people of all ethnic and racial backgrounds, national origins, nationalities, ancestry, religious groups, gender expression or identities, sexual orientation, political beliefs, ages, abilities and disabilities.

ABOUT PREMIERE STAGES

Created in 2004, Premiere Stages is the professional Equity theatre in residence at Kean University.
