WHARTON ARTS ANNOUNCES 2025 SUMMER CAMP LINEUP

Wharton Arts is pleased to announce new summer camp offerings to join its lineup of returning programs for summer 2025. Meet the Instruments, for ages 4-7, encourages young campers to explore song, dance, rhythm, art, stories, and dramatic musical play while learning about a different family of instruments each day: Strings, Brass, Woodwinds, Piano, and Percussion. Broadway Adventures, for ages 4-6, introduces budding young actors to the world of acting, singing, and dancing, culminating in a fun-filled showcase for friends and family. In addition to these new offerings, summer favorites will return for 2025, including Drama Kids (Scooby Doo), Summer Musical Theater Company (You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown), Triple Threat Musical Theater Intensive (High School Musical JR), and eight weeks of Theater Explorers. To view weekly camp themes and for complete camp descriptions, visit WhartonArts.org.

In addition to summer camps at the Wharton Performing Arts School in Berkeley Heights, the New Jersey Youth Symphony (NJYS), a program of Wharton Arts, will host several ensemble-based camps in New Providence, June 22-July 3. Experience the wonders of ensemble playing at the NJYS Orchestral Camp (String and Winds/Brass/Percussion Sessions), Chamber Music Camp, and Double Reed Camp, where students learn from accomplished faculty and strengthen their talents. Whatever your camper's creative ambitions are, they will develop skills, find the space to flourish, and join an artistic community at Wharton Arts. For more information, call (908) 790-0700 or visit WhartonArts.org.

Wharton Arts' mission is to offer accessible, high quality performing arts education that sparks personal growth and builds inclusive communities.

Wharton Arts' vision is for a transformative performing arts education in an inclusive community to be accessible for everyone.

Wharton Arts is New Jersey's largest independent non-profit community performing arts education center serving nearly 2,000 students through a range of classes and ensembles. The 5 ensembles of the New Jersey Youth Chorus, an auditioned choral ensemble program for students in grades 3-12, encourage a love and appreciation of choral music while nurturing personal growth and creative development. The 15 ensembles of the New Jersey Youth Symphony, which serve over 500 students in grades 3-12 by audition, inspire young people to achieve musical excellence through high-level ensemble training and performance opportunities. Based in Paterson, the Paterson Music Project is an El Sistema-inspired program of Wharton Arts that uses music education as a vehicle for social action by empowering and inspiring young people to achieve their full potential through the community experience of ensemble learning and playing. From Pathways classes for young children to Lifelong Learning programs for adults, the Wharton Performing Arts School has a robust musical theater and drama program and offers both private and group classes for instruments and voice for all ages and all abilities. With the belief in the positive and unifying influence of music and that performing arts education should be accessible to all people regardless of their ability to pay, Wharton Arts offers need-based scholarships.

The Summit College Club Foundation is organizing and holding its annual Book Sale, its largest fundraiser each year. Starting Friday, April 4th, and continuing through Monday, April 7th, the Summit College Club Foundation will accept donations for its annual Book Sale.

Each year, the Summit College Club Foundation Book Sale sells thousands of donated books and media to area customers at very low prices. The Summit College Club Foundation uses all of the net proceeds from the sale to fund scholarships for local high school seniors on their way to four-year colleges and for women returning to community college after a break in their education.

This year, the sale will be held from April 9th through April 13th.

The sale accepts books and other media, including fiction and non-fiction books, CDs, DVDs, LPs, and audio books, all in good condition. However, it does NOT accept encyclopedias, textbooks, manuals, magazines, VHS tapes, or any damaged or defaced items.

People wishing to donate to the sale are asked to bring their items to American Legion Post 433, located at 357 Elkwood Avenue in New Providence (next to the New Providence Library) during the following days and times:

- Friday, April 4th, 9 am to 7 pm
- Saturday, April 5th, 9 am to 7 pm
- Sunday, April 6th, 9 am to 7 pm
- Monday, April 7th, 9 am to 7 pm

There's a parking lot in front of the building, and carts are available for donors to wheel containers up the ramp to the entrance. Volunteers will also be available for assistance.

"The Book Sale is our largest fundraiser of the year," explains Lynne Rogerson, Summit College Club Foundation President. "This area of New Jersey is rich in readers, and our Book Sale has flourished through their generosity despite the rise in online alternatives to books and print media. We are truly grateful to our donors, and we make every effort to place items that don't sell before the sale ends with organizations that want them, including other charities."

Summit College Club Foundation appreciates the community volunteers who help take in and sort the books before the sale, assist customers, straighten the various book areas during the sale, and clean up after the sale. If you would like to volunteer, please fill out the Volunteer with Us form at summitcollegeclub.org/booksale (scroll to Volunteer section).

Summit College Club is a branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), an organization that promotes equity for women and girls through education, research, and advocacy.

For questions and more information, please email Summit College Club at summitcollegeclub@gmail.com or visit summitcollegeclub.org.

ANNUAL SHARING THE QUILTS SHOW – MARCH 22

Harvest Quilters of Central New Jersey

Harvest Quilters of Central NJ will present their 41st annual quilt show on Saturday, March 22, 2025. The 41st Sharing the Quilts will be held at the Willow Grove Presbyterian Church, 1961 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains, NJ from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $8 for adults and $3 for children under twelve.

At 10:30 a.m., Elsa Hahn of Edison will show her work and speak on “Surface Design – Making it Personal.” The award-winning quilter and retired Westfield music teacher will share her firsthand knowledge of various art quilting techniques, including the pros and cons of popular methods.

Janice M. Tellier of Mountainside will be recognized as 2025’s Featured Quilter. The Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) graduate and lifelong creative spirit will display 20 plus works of original art. Of her 14 vibrant bed-sized quilts Tellier quipped, “I often think my beds are better dressed than I am.”

Tellier’s whimsical fiber art will be featured alongside her acrylic paintings, crochet, examples of bobbin lace making and a fascinating diorama of a miniature modern quilting studio. “My hope is to have the quilts speak to the viewer, with a sense of humor or play on words,” Tellier said.

As is tradition, local charities will benefit from drawings for a modern lap-sized quilt, a traditional queen-sized bed quilt, gift cards and craft themed gift baskets.

In addition to viewing a full array of modern, traditional, art and wall-hanging quilts, attendees can participate in viewer’s choice awards, kid’s crafting table and vendor sales area.

A tearoom offering lunch, snacks, homemade baked goods, and beverages will benefit Willow Grove Church programs.

For additional information, please visit harvestquilters.com, or email: harvestquiltersnj@gmail.com.
