KATE WHITCHER SAVES LIFE ON VACATION

Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad (SVFAS)

Summit resident and First Aid Squad volunteer Kate Witcher (19) was part of a civilian three-person rescue team to resuscitate a patient in Vail, Colorado. While vacationing, Witcher identified a patient in distress and applied advanced lifesaving measures learned while obtaining her EMT license in her role as a Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad (SVFAS) volunteer. Witcher joined the SVFAS Junior program in April, 2022 as a sophomore in high school. Currently a freshman at Fairfield University, Witcher is pursuing a degree in nursing. "I'm so grateful I had the opportunity to become a licensed EMT in high school. I knew my CPR skills might be needed on duty, but I was surprised to use them on vacation," said Witcher.

Every year the SVFAS accepts applications from high school students who are sixteen years of age to join the Junior Program. Approximately ten candidates are selected for the coveted positions. According to SVFAS Chief, Laura Benevento, "SVFAS Junior volunteers obtain real-life experience working alongside seasoned crew members. We highly encourage qualified students, especially those interested in pursuing careers in the medical field, to apply." Visit: summitems.org/join/junior-program

The SVFAS is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization providing pre-hospital emergency medical care and transportation for the city of Summit. The squad renders aid and assistance to over 22,000 people in the Summit community free of charge, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Volunteer members are highly trained emergency medical technicians who are prepared to render care for medical and traumatic emergencies. SVFAS EMT's receive ongoing education and utilize state of the art equipment to consistently provide the high quality of care Summit residents deserve and expect.

Applications for the 2025/2026 school year are open through March 15, 2025. SVFAS covers the cost of EMT school and uniforms for accepted applicants.

BOOK AND MEDIA DONATIONS SOUGHT FOR BOOK SALE

The Summit College Club Foundation is organizing and holding its annual Book Sale, its largest fundraiser each year. Starting Friday, April 4th, and continuing through Monday, April 7th, the Summit College Club Foundation will accept donations for its annual Book Sale.

Each year, the Summit College Club Foundation Book Sale sells thousands of donated books and media to area customers at very low prices. The Summit College Club Foundation uses all of the net proceeds from the sale to fund scholarships for local high school seniors on their way to four-year colleges and for women returning to community college after a break in their education.

This year, the sale will be held from April 9th through April 13th.

The sale accepts books and other media, including fiction and non-fiction books, CDs, DVDs, LPs, and audio books, all in good condition. However, it does NOT accept encyclopedias, textbooks, manuals, magazines, VHS tapes, or any damaged or defaced items.

People wishing to donate to the sale are asked to bring their items to American Legion Post 433, located at 357 Elkwood Avenue in New Providence (next to the New Providence Library) during the following days and times:

Friday, April 4th, 9 am to 7 pm
 Saturday, April 5th, 9 am to 7 pm
 Sunday, April 6th, 9 am to 7 pm
 Monday, April 7th, 9 am to 7 pm

There's a parking lot in front of the building, and carts are available for donors to wheel containers up the ramp to the entrance. Volunteers will also be available for assistance.

"The Book Sale is our largest fundraiser of the year," explains Lynne Rogerson, Summit College Club Foundation President. "This area of New Jersey is rich in readers, and our Book Sale has flourished through their generosity despite the rise in online alternatives to books and print media. We are truly grateful to our donors, and we make every effort to place items that don't sell before the sale ends with organizations that want them, including other charities."

Summit College Club Foundation appreciates the community volunteers who help take in and sort the books before the sale, assist customers, straighten the various book areas during the sale, and clean up after the sale. If you would like to volunteer, please fill out the Volunteer with Us form at summitcollegeclub.org/booksale (scroll to Volunteer section).

Summit College Club is a branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), an organization that promotes equity for women and girls through education, research, and advocacy.

For questions and more information, please email Summit College Club at summitcollegeclub@gmail.com or visit summitcollegeclub.org.

SVFAS GRATEFUL

The Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad received grants from several Summit-based organizations during the calendar year 2024. They include the Luminary Fund, The Fred C. Rummel Foundation, the Maeve Foundation and The Raymond and Lucille Benedetto Charitable Foundation, who all have been longtime supporters.

The Fred C. Rummel Foundation Grant was used for the purchase of radios for the Squad. The Benedetto Grant will go toward helping fund a new ambulance. The Maeve and Luminary Fund Grants will assist the Squad in providing quality emergency medical services to the Summit Community.

Leah Griffith, President of Summit Volunteer First Aid Squad, commented on the financial gifts, "The support from the community and these local foundations is essential to our ability to respond to emergency calls and we are incredibly grateful for their support."

The generosity and support allow the all volunteer First Aid Squad to answer emergency calls 24/7 365 days a year for a total of 2421 in 2024. In January 2025, the squad responded to 213 calls, including 140 medical emergencies, 27 motor vehicle accidents, 7 traumatic injuries and 3 pedestrians struck by cars.

The Squad is always looking for new volunteers, and will provide all needed training, uniforms, and equipment. Please go to our website at summitems.org to learn more.

"GREAT DECISIONS" DISCUSSION GROUP

The Summit Free Public Library is pleased to announce the continuation of its popular "Great Decisions" discussion group, a program dedicated to exploring critical global issues. Reflecting the Library's mission to inform, enrich, and inspire, this long-standing program offers community members a valuable opportunity to engage in thoughtful dialogue on current affairs.

Great Decisions, a national program of the Foreign Policy Association (FPA), provides resources and a structured format for citizens to discuss the most pressing global challenges facing the United States. The program utilizes briefing books written by subject matter experts, DVDs, and a flexible discussion model to facilitate informed conversations. The FPA describes Great Decisions as "America's largest discussion group on world affairs," with groups meeting in various venues across the country. The Summit Library's group stands out by offering free participation to all interested individuals.

Summit resident Fred Honold, a volunteer facilitator with extensive global experience gained through his work with organizations across multiple continents, leads the group. Honold's background, including a history degree from Bowdoin College, provides a unique perspective to the discussions. A long-time Summit resident and Library supporter, Honold is passionate about fostering community engagement through the Great Decisions program. He dedicates his time to organizing the format, researching topics, providing notes for participants, and occasionally recruiting co-moderators.

The Great Decisions sessions, funded by the Friends of the Library, will run monthly from March through December 2025, with breaks in July and August. Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month from 1:00-3:00 pm in the Library's Liss Room. This year's topics include: "AI and American National Security", "International Cooperation on Climate Change", "India: Between China, the West, and the Global South", and "The Future of NATO and European Security".

The Summit Library's Great Decisions group attracts an average of 30-35 active local residents from diverse professional and educational backgrounds. In describing the group, Honold says, "Participants arrive at our meetings with an educated point of view, respectfully asking questions and sharing seasoned commentary."

Reference Librarian Rebecca Cohan supports the program by inviting prominent experts to select sessions, further enriching the discussions.
