CUB SCOUTS GET A TASTE OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Submitted by Zachary Drozd

The Warren Bears Den of Cub Scout Pack 182 recently embarked on an exciting and educational adventure, touring the local Playa Bowls at 194 Liberty Corner Road. Hosted by General Manager Lia Victoria and the dedicated staff, the scouts had the opportunity to learn about the origins of the Playa Bowls franchise and the entrepreneurial journey that began in Belmar, New Jersey.

During the visit, the scouts explored the behind-the-scenes operations of the popular smoothie and acai bowl shop, gaining insight into the hard work and dedication required to run a successful business. As part of their "Bear Strong" achievement, the scouts also learned about the importance of healthy eating, discovering how fresh fruits and nutritious ingredients can be both delicious and beneficial.

A highlight of the experience was the hands-on activity where the Bears had the chance to create their own smoothies, applying what they learned about balanced nutrition and wholesome ingredients. The experience not only reinforced healthy eating habits but also provided a fun and interactive way for the scouts to earn their badge.

Cub Scout Pack 182 extends a heartfelt thank you to the owners of Playa Bowls, the Calvo family, for their generosity in hosting the event and providing delicious treats for both the scouts and their parents. The warm hospitality and support from the Playa Bowls team made this educational visit a memorable and enriching experience for all in attendance.

“USE WHAT YOU’VE GOT” BY NANCY PEER

The Art Space at Warren Library

Warren artist, Nancy Peer, will be exhibiting her artwork of varying mediums including watercolor, pastel, acrylic and photographs. The inspiration for her work comes from her parents. Her father was also an artist, from whom she has inherited (some of) her house full of art supplies. Her mother was a lover of birds, flowers, and maker of greeting cards. The portrait, “Mother’s Nature” was made to honor her and each bird depicted has a special meaning to honor her life. Nancy's work has been shown in a variety of venues throughout NJ and PA for 30 years; most recently the Senior Art Show in Somerset County 2024. She studied at Spectrum Institute for the Advertising Arts and is extremely grateful for the time and desire to paint and take photos. Her “Use What You’ve Got ” exhibit will be available to library patrons through the end of March 2025.

PINEWOOD DERBY FOSTERS COMMUNITY BONDS

Submitted by Adam Lella

Cub Scout Pack 182 of Warren completed our annual Pinewood Derby race last month in January. We were graced by the presence of the Warren Township Mayor Lisa Lontai and Deputy Mayor Daniel Croson. The event saw over 70 participants, including siblings, who eagerly raced their individually designed and built pinewood derby cars! The atmosphere was electric with excitement and camaraderie, as each scout proudly showcased their unique creations, reflecting the hard work and creativity they put in alongside their parents.

The day was not just about racing but also about community spirit and support. Families and friends gathered to cheer on the young racers, creating an environment filled with fun and appreciation. The Mayor's visit added a special touch, highlighting the importance of such events in fostering community bonds and encouraging the scouts' efforts. Overall, it was a memorable day that celebrated teamwork, creativity, and the joy of friendly competition.

If your son is in grades K-4th and you would like them to join please have them message me at pack182cubmaster@trooptrack.com.
