EVENT BRINGS THE DANGERS OF DRINKING AND DRIVING TO LIFE

Kenilworth Police Department

The Kenilworth Police Department, in partnership with David Brearley High School and the Kenilworth Municipal Alliance, recently held their biennial Every 15 Minutes event—an emotional and eye-opening program that brings the dangers of drinking and driving to life without putting anyone at real risk.

This powerful experience was once again met with a strong response from DBHS students, who witnessed firsthand the devastating effects impaired driving can have on families, friendships, and entire communities. By involving their peers in realistic scenarios, the program helped drive home a message that words alone often can't express.

We extend our deepest gratitude to everyone who participated in and supported this important event. A special thank you goes to Detective Byron and DBHS counselor Megan Harrison for their dedication and coordination in bringing this impactful program to life.

ROBERT E. LEE LIVED IN KENILWORTH – PART 2 OF 2

Robert E. Lee, 1892-1963, was the great grandnephew of Confederate General Robert E. Lee. He was an all-giving person, a very good citizen, and a skilled artist and painter. He and his wife Mary were the original owners of 12 Columbia Ave which they purchased in 1941.

In the year 1917 Mr. Lee married Mary Glass. Soon after, the United States was fighting in the “Great War” – later known as WWII. He served in the Army. His first job was as a solderer in a jewelry shop and next as a teacher. He lost teaching positions during the Great Depression due to layoffs. He decided he’d be better off providing for his family on his own. He became a self-employed, highly skilled commercial artist and sign painter.

According to his daughters their father was “a very generous man who often painted things for free for friends, family, and organizations. Because of this” stated his late daughter, Mary Lee Lemme, “my mother watched closely household expenses.”

During WWII, Kenilworth authorized an “honor roll” for residents serving in the military. Utilizing his artistic and construction skills, he personally erected on the library lawn without charge, a large billboard containing the names of every resident in the Armed Forces. His inventive mind resulted in him creating moveable name plates so that as someone entered the service, the name could be placed in alphabetical order on the Honor Roll. He shifted all of the names around as needed. The billboard stood for several years after the war’s end.

His patriotic and generous spirit caused him to be chosen in the 1940s as a commander of local VFW Post 2230. Pride in the military did not end there. He painted a large mural on the wall of the VFW Post in neighboring Union where he and his family lived for many years before coming to Kenilworth. According to his daughters, this was another pro bono work of artistry.

One of his most beautiful artistic endeavors came when he was permitted to paint the interior of the dome of the Union County Court House in Elizabeth. He crafted a celestial blue scene of constellations, clouds, cherubs and other intricacies. It took weeks to complete. Some years ago, the county government decided to install a false ceiling in the rotunda which very sadly has concealed Mr. Lee’s treasured artistic masterpiece.

And yes, Lee Ter. that connects S. 17th St. to Coolidge Dr., is named for Mr. Lee. According to his daughters, their father made two large Blue Ridge Manor signs for the company that was building the homes in the development opposite Harding School. They explained that one was posted near Coolidge Dr. and the other near Columbia Ave. In addition, he painted the lettering on the original wooden street signs for each street in Blue Ridge Manor. Again, something at “no charge.” They were replaced decades ago with metal sign posts as the wooden ones fell victim to the elements of weather. In return for his “no charge” generosity, the developer named one street in his honor – Lee Terrace.

In Part I of this story, it was noted that the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee was killed in a Five Points traffic accident when they lived on Galloping Holl Rd. in Union. As a very young boy, every time I observed Mr. Lee driving his car down the Boulevard on his way home to Columbia Ave., he would stop his car in the middle of the Boulevard and let me and any other pedestrians cross the road. Maybe he did so, recalling what had happened to his son or due to his kind and generous nature. Perhaps it was for both reasons. Research provided by Walter E. Boright, Ed. D., historian, and Historic Signs, Inc. and interviews (2002) with two of Mr. Lee’s daughters: Mary (Lemme) and Madeline Virginia (Anderson). Persons with inquiries about this or other Kenilworth history topics may contact Dr. Boright at drbori@aol.com or 908-256-5200.

CDC THEATRE PRESENTS LEGALLY BLONDE

Harvard's beloved blonde takes the stage at CDC Theatre in Cranford by pink storm in this fun, upbeat story of self-discovery!

A fabulously fun, award-winning musical based on the adored movie, Legally Blonde, the musical, follows the transformation of Elle Woods as she tackles stereotypes and scandal in pursuit of her dreams. With music and lyrics by Laurence O'Keefe & Nell Benjamin and book by Heather Hach, the show is based on the novel by Amanda Brown and the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture.

Action-packed and exploding with memorable songs and dynamic dances - this musical is so much fun, it should be illegal! Elle Woods appears to have it all. Her life is turned upside down when her boyfriend Warner dumps her so he can attend Harvard Law. Determined to get him back, Elle ingeniously charms her way into the prestigious law school. While there, she struggles with peers, professors and her ex. With the support of some new friends, though, Elle quickly realizes her potential and sets out to prove herself to the world.

Edgar Hidalgo directs the cast which includes Melissa Calicchio as Elle, Zach Mazouat as Emmet, Rachel Love as Paulette, Larry Brustofski as Callahan and Gabe Weiss as Warner. They are joined by a talented cast of supporting actors and a fabulous ensemble! With Musical Director Kaeden Oh, Choreographer Jaimie Bass, Stage Manager Dana Dispoto and Producer Elizabeth Howard on the production team, the show promises to be the crescendo of the 106th season at CDC Theatre.

PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT: "PERSPECTIVES"

The Gallery is located in the Kenilworth Library 548 Boulevard.

The Gallery-on-the-Boulevard will present "Perspectives: Life Through Our Lenses" exhibiting the work of four women photographers from May through August at the Kenilworth Public Library.

Jacki Dickert is a New Jersey fine art photographer and is active in the NJ photography community as an exhibiting artist, teacher, and judge. About her infrared photos she proclaims: "Infrared hones my ability to compose without the distraction of the usual colors and the temptation to fall into cliched ways of seeing."

Cintia Malhotra is a visual artist and educator whose primary medium is photography. Her work has been exhibited in various galleries, including New York and California. Speaking of her photos, she states: "I am in constant observation mode, focusing on what others normally ignore in their day-to-day."

Charlene Federowicz graduated from Rutgers University School of Communication and worked in various industries. Now retired, she is savoring a rediscovered passion for photography. She enjoys "photographing nature, particularly the beauty of the ocean at sunrise, as well as the sunsets along the bay."

Barbara Wirkus is a self taught photographer who has exhibited her award winning work in local galleries for many years. She explains that

"As I enter the 9th decade of my life, I am drawn to photographing things that are aging and deteriorating. They document the last stages of life."

The exhibit is free and open to the public during regular library hours. For more information call 908-276-2451.

Elvis took America by storm, snaring a prized spot on Ed Sullivan's television show, appearing on numerous other variety programs, and diving headlong into film acting.

As he captivated audiences, the world changed. America emerged from its “Leave It to Beaver” age to face crises such as the rise of communism in Cuba and simmering racial tensions in Southern states that neared the boiling point.

ASTRONOMY DAY MAY 17, 2025

Amateur Astronomers, Inc. along with the North Jersey Astronomical Group, two amateur astronomy clubs located in New Jersey, are once again holding their annual Astronomy Day on Saturday, May 17, 2025. The event will be held in 2 locations: Trailside Nature & Science Center in Mountainside in the afternoon and at William Miller Sperry Observatory on the campus of Union College in Cranford in the evening. The theme is "Solar Max, Unlocking the Secrets of the Sun." This is a family friendly event that focuses on learning about our Sun and its impact on us, and also about astronomy and related sciences in a fun and easy to understand atmosphere. This event appeals to both children and adults. The event is free and open to the public and does not require preregistration. So, mark your calendars for Saturday, May 17, 2025, and come out to learn more about the Sun and our universe!

Housed in the William Miller Sperry Observatory on the Union College campus in Cranford, the observatory is open to the public every Friday night with their twin domes looking at the heavens. One of the domes houses a 24-inch reflector and the other dome houses a 10 refractor, which was constructed by club members. Public lectures start at 8:30 p.m. on Fridays, they are on current topics in Astronomy.

Youth lectures are presented by the club at 7:00 p.m. to preregistered scout groups to help them earn their patches in science. If you are interested in preregistering a scout group, please contact info@asterism.org.

For more information about AAI email, membership@asterism.org or visit asterism.org.

BUILD YOUR ONLINE PRESENCE: NEW DFY* SERVICE

DONE FOR YOU - NJLOCALINFO.COM

Struggling to build your business' online presence? NJLocalInfo.com offers not only a powerful, cutting-edge content marketing service, but also a high quality local directory to connect you with leads directly.

NEW JERSEY: POWERED BY SMALL BUSINESS

It would not be a stretch to say that the New Jersey economy is built on the backs of the small businesses that call the state their home. Nearly one million SMB enterprises are registered in the state as of 2024, a sector of the economy that now accounts for half of all employment in the state. Things are competitive, to say the least. So, how do you, as a business owner, stand out?

WHAT TO BOOST YOUR ONLINE VISIBILITY?
VISIT NJLOCALINFO.COM

To answer that question, we need to first understand the shape of the problem facing many small business owners. There is one very critical thing putting many businesses at a massive disadvantage, not only when compared to other SMBs, but against larger competitors as well. That key ingredient? Digital marketing.

A recent Forbes report found that over half of all small business growth in 2025 comes from digital sources. Translation? Without a digital presence, you are leaving a huge chunk of your potential revenue on the table.

NJLOCALINFO TO THE RESCUE

To help level the playing field, NJLocalInfo.com has developed a two-fold visibility solution that will allow your business to quickly and sustainably build organic traffic in your local market. They accomplish this both by establishing high-quality backlinks to build site authority, and by promoting your business directly to customers through their own directory.

PROVEN SYSTEM

Their content marketing services are based on their "Create, Repurpose, Distribute" system, which combines the talents of a team of human experts with leading automation technologies to facilitate broad-reach campaigns on a budget. The system relies on informative yet engaging content, which is then transformed into various formats using automation and distributed to hundreds of high-authority channels
