STUDENTS CELEBRATE EARTH DAY AND ARBOR DAY

Berkeley Heights Public Schools

Students at Mary Kay McMillin Early Childhood Center recognized Earth Day and Arbor Day with a week devoted to learning about how to care for the Earth through a variety of fun and educational activities.

In addition to classroom lessons about the significance of Earth Day and Arbor Day when teachers talked about and shared books about appreciating nature and the gifts that the Earth gives to us as human beings, students also enjoyed learning in the outdoors by reading outside, engaging in a campus clean-up, and planting sunflowers.

A selection of 1st graders also participated in the school's annual tree planting in celebration of Arbor Day. This year the tree was a Red Bud Tree donated by Union County and planted in the playground area of school.

In partnership with the Friends of the Library, Berkeley Heights Public Library is hosting an Edible Book Contest on Saturday, June 21, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. This celebration of books, art, food, and culture will take place in the Highlander Room on the first floor of the Berkeley Heights Municipal Complex, located at 29 Park Ave., and is open to all.

Whether you're a regular library patron, a Berkeley Heights community member, or simply a book lover, join us for a lighthearted culinary, artistic, and literary event focused on edible creations inspired by literary works. Contest submissions must be made of edible materials that are cooked, baked, or created with assembled food items. Your creation can look like a book cover or character, evoke something from a book, be inspired by a character, or even be a play on words of a book title.

Crepes of Wrath? Game of Scones? The Handmaid's Tamale? Entries can be straightforward, or they can be fun, creative, and even a pun, so come on out and express yourself!

On contest day, creations will be displayed on tables for members of the public to peruse, sample, and vote for. Prize categories include most creative use of edible materials, most realistic, and most tasty, with prizes including donations from local businesses

Entry is free for Friends of BHPL members, or $5 for others. Local businesses can also enter for free. Viewing and tasting will be free to all, with patrons encouraged to consider donating to the Friends of the library. All funds raised will directly support library programs.

Asked about the upcoming event, Amy Steinbauer, Library Director of the BHPL replied "Join us for a fun and delicious event at the library and your entry fee will help support more of these and all our wonderful programs in the future. Put your culinary skills and humor to the test, and then challenge your neighbor, friends, and family to try to beat you!"

Submissions must be constructed of edible materials and be accompanied by the list of ingredients.

For more information, including contest details and instructions, please visit bhplnj.org/about-us/bhpl-friends/.

BIKE AND SEWING MACHINE COLLECTION FOR P4P - JUNE 7

Faith Lutheran Church

Do you have bikes or sewing machines needlessly taking up room in your home or garage? Give them a new home by bringing them to Faith Lutheran Church's bike and sewing machine collection for Pedals for Progress (P4P) and Sewing Peace on Saturday, June 7th from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Adult and children's bicycles in rideable or repairable condition will be shipped overseas by P4P and distributed to those who rely on them for transportation to jobs, markets, medical care, and schools. Donations of working sewing machines also provide income opportunities for those living in developing countries.

If you are unable to drop by on June 7th, you may still leave your bicycle(s) in Faith Lutheran's lower lot next to the utility shed. If you are donating a sewing machine, please leave it underneath the sheltered alcove by the red doors at the bottom of the parking lot. Faith will make sure these items get to P4P for this collection or will hold them until the next one. Please note that "bikes for parts" or disassembled bicycles will not be accepted.

On average, it costs $52 to collect, process, and ship each bicycle. A donation toward shipping costs is necessary for P4P's continued success and $20 is suggested per bike and sewing machine. All monetary donations (cash or check) and material donations are fully deductible, and a receipt will be provided on site on June 7th. Donations can also be made directly via p4p.org.

To date, Pedals for Progress has shipped over 167,000 bicycles and 6,300 sewing machines to partner agencies in Central America, Africa, and Eastern Europe.

Faith Lutheran Church is located at 524 South Street, New Providence, NJ. Find out more at famfaith.org. Worship is on Sundays at 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. with livestreaming available via website, Facebook, and YouTube. The church phone number is 908-464-5177 and the pastor of Faith is Rev. Jane McCready.

(above) Donate your unused bikes and sewing machines to Pedals for Progress (P4P), and Sewing Peace, on Saturday, June 7th.

VO-TECH STUDENTS FORGE LASTING BONDS

GlamourGals

Students at Union County Vocational Technical Schools are making a meaningful mark on their community through their growing involvement with GlamourGals—a nonprofit dedicated to ending senior isolation through teen-led makeovers and intergenerational connection. Since launching their chapter, these students have brightened the days of local seniors through complimentary manicures, heartfelt conversations, and simple moments of shared joy.

Their very first event laid the foundation for something much bigger: a movement of compassion and connection. For Ivy L., now attending her second GlamourGals visit, the experience has been deeply personal. “We connected over our childhood memories of painting our nails—she used to do her own all the time, and I talked about how my mom would paint pictures and designs on mine,” Ivy recalled. “Today’s visit was another beautiful, memorable experience. I already can’t wait for the next one.”

For fellow volunteer Gayatri S., each visit is a reminder of the deeper mission behind the glitter and polish. “When I think about why we do this, I’m reminded that GlamourGals exists to fight senior isolation,” she said. “Hearing her story helped me realize how much joy and comfort our presence brings. Every time we visit, we’re taking another step toward that goal—and that means everything.”

The Union County Vocational Technical Schools’ GlamourGals chapter is more than a student group—it’s a team of young changemakers leading with empathy. Through their commitment, seniors are reminded that they are valued, seen, and never alone. And for these students, the journey is just beginning.
