HIGH SCHOOL WINS NATIONAL ACADEMIC CHAMPIONSHIP

Livingston Public Schools

Livingston High School (LHS) recently achieved an unprecedented victory, with its "A" team clinching the inaugural HSNCT National Academic Championship title. The team, composed of senior captain Robert Wang, senior Kevin Zhang, and juniors Arav Kaushik and Benjamin Laskov, triumphed over 336 of the nation's top academic teams. In a decisive and dominant final match, LHS defeated Northview High School of John's Creek, Georgia, with a commanding score of 455-175 in front of nearly 1,000 spectators.

This historic win marks a triumphant end to a remarkable season for the team and for senior Robert Wang, who finished as the 11th highest individual scorer in the competition. The victory also represents the first time a New Jersey school has ever won this prestigious national competition.

Beyond the championship win, LHS made history by sending four teams to the HSNCT for the first time ever. All four teams made it to the playoffs, tying the record for the most teams from a single school to advance in a HSNCT tournament.

LHS "B" Team – Comprised of junior captain Ethan Liu, senior Lelun Li, and freshmen Kenneth Wu and Shaunak Kulkarni, this team defied expectations by tying for 13th in the country. They secured the best finish for any "B" team in the nation, winning numerous close matches against formidable opponents.

LHS "D" Team – An all-freshman squad consisting of Max Silversten, Luke Chang, Aiden Saju, and Andrew Zhou, the "D" team delivered a truly remarkable performance. They defeated several more senior and experienced teams, including two-time defending national champion Barrington High School, defending national runner-up St. Mark's High School, current Small School National Champion West Point High School, and Henderson High School (who finished 4th at HSNCT). Their incredible run led to an 8th-place finish in the country, marking the best performance in competition history for a "D" team and a full freshman team. Freshman Andrew Zhou was also recognized as one of the nation's top 10 "Rising Stars."

LHS "C" Team – Seniors Harish Lola, Sophia Peng, Ben Silversten, and Adam Dacosta also made the playoffs, showcasing the depth of talent within the LHS program.

"It was an historic day for Livingston HS as there were murmurs and rumbles all day about the remarkable success of our school and an amazing finish to boot," said team advisor, Guy Rabner.

BEST COMMUNITIES FOR MUSIC EDUCATION

Livingston Public Schools

Livingston Public Schools has been honored with the Best Communities for Music Education designation from The NAMM Foundation for their outstanding support and commitment to music education. Now in its 26th year, the Best Communities for Music Education designation is awarded to districts that demonstrate outstanding achievement for providing music access and education to all students.

Two awards are given each year: Best Communities for Music Education (BCME) for school districts and the SupportMusic Merit Award (SMMA) for individual school sites. Both reach K-12 schools and districts throughout the U.S. and offer opportunities to increase awareness and support for music programs. Over 1,000 districts and individual school sites (public, private, charter, parochial) were recognized for having the highest commitment to producing exceptional music programs.

"Being named a Best Community for Music Education from the NAMM Foundation celebrates Livingston Public Schools' commitment to music education, and the dedication of Livingston's music teachers, administrators, students, parents, Board of Education, and community members to a comprehensive K-12 music education for all students," said Mara Rubin, LPS Supervisor of Visual and Performing Arts.

She continued, "We are very proud to receive this award, as it reaffirms our convictions that a strong music program goes hand in hand with a successful school district. Receiving the Best Communities for Music Education Award validates our music teachers' talents and passion, as well as the hard work of our students and the commitment of our community to music in our schools.

To qualify for the Best Communities designation, [District] answered detailed questions about funding, graduation requirements, music class participation, instruction time, facilities, support for the music program and community music-making programs. Responses were verified by school officials and reviewed by the leading arts educational research firm, WolfBrown.

LIVINGSTON VETERANS TO HONOR KOREAN WAR ARMISTICE DAY

National Korean War Armistice Day is observed annually on July 27th in both the United States and South Korea. This day commemorates the signing of the Korean Armistice Agreement on July 27, 1953, which ended the Korean War. It serves as a time to honor and remember the service and sacrifices of Korean War veterans.

The three veterans organizations in Livingston, VFW, American Legion, and the Jewish War Veterans, will conduct a ceremony to commemorate Korean War Armistice Day. The ceremony will be held at the Livingston Library beginning at 1:30 p.m. on July 27th. We are asking if family members of Korean War veterans, living or deceased, would like to bring pictures or mementos, and we will display them prior to the ceremony.

If a family member would like to speak on behalf of their loved one, they will be given the opportunity to do so. For further information, contact Charlie at bravo6k@verizon.net.

Arbor II is a two-year-old lab-golden retriever cross specially bred and trained by Canine Companions to serve people with disabilities. Arbor knows over 40 professional commands to assist Mike in his daily life. Arbor opens doors, turns on lights, and picks up dropped items for Mike to name just a few.

Mike enjoys sled hockey, weightlifting, and is heavily involved in the Canine Companions New Jersey Volunteer Chapter.

About Canine Companions: National nonprofit Canine Companions is celebrating 50 years of empowering people with disabilities to live with greater independence — and it all started with a service dog named Abdul. MORRISTOWN AUTHOR MARK EHRENKRANZ DISHES ABOUT JERSEY AND THE MOVIE BIZ

The Great American Suburban Experiment is a deeply personal, unflinchingly honest exposé from industry veteran Mark Ehrenkranz. Set against the backdrop of post-war suburbia - a time of rapid growth, excess, and evolving values - the book explores America's most prosperous decades through the lens of one man's life, struggles, and redemption.

Spanning 43 years in the film industry, Ehrenkranz's journey from suburban boyhood to Hollywood insider is layered with raw accounts of addiction, recovery, and self-discovery. With candor and courage, he questions whether the comforts of suburban life and the rise of consumerism may have inadvertently fostered unhealthy behaviors and dependence.

With a unique voice and a lifetime of behind-the-scenes experience, Ehrenkranz shares intimate stories involving notable Hollywood figures, as well as deeply personal family revelations. His background as the producer of The New York Film Critics Series® - which brought major films and filmmakers to audiences across the country - offers readers an insider's look at the entertainment world.

Mark Ehrenkranz is a veteran of the entertainment industry and a Certified Peer Recovery Specialist. Mark's four-decade career includes film consulting, theatrical and home distribution, and festival strategy. Today, he devotes his time to helping others recover from substance use disorders at a leading hospital in Northern New Jersey. He is happily married to his wife Allison of 38 years and is the proud father of two daughters, Jamie and Niki.

The Great American Suburban Experiment is available for purchase in book form on Amazon.com and digitally on Kindle.

SMALL BUSINESS MENTORING HELPS VETS

SCORE Central Jersey

During National Military Appreciation Month and beyond, SCORE mentors offer resources for veterans to start and grow their entrepreneurial enterprises.

Veterans' training, resolve and fortitude to overcome challenges make them the ideal entrepreneur. They soar as small business owners. According to research, 80 percent of the 1.7 million veteran-owned business owners consider themselves successful. The small business five-year survival rate for veterans is double that of the non-veteran population.

Data from the U.S. Small Business Administration has shown that small business owners with an established mentor have twice the success rate - 70 percent versus 35 percent - as those who do not have a mentor.

In conjunction with National Military Appreciation Month in May, SCORE, a national nonprofit organization that assists small businesses, has developed specific resources for use by its 10,000 mentors nationally in mentoring veterans.

The SCORE Veterans Small Business Resource Guide features veterans-specific resources to offer insight on developing a business plan, securing funding, starting a business, buying an existing business, buying a franchise, connecting with one of SCORE's volunteer mentors, and gaining a better understanding of business through webinars and workshops.

"Volunteering at SCORE is my way of showing appreciation to those who helped and guided me during my career while sharing my background and experience to help entrepreneurs succeed," said SCORE Mid-Atlantic Regional Vice President Ed Coleman. "While I enjoy working with all SCORE clients, as a U.S. Army veteran, I particularly enjoy working with veterans to translate their military experience into entrepreneurship. Helping clients realize their dreams is very gratifying and the essence of the SCORE mission."

SCORE Central Jersey Chapter Chair Nancy Verduin said mentors continually expand their knowledge base to better assist veterans on their entrepreneurial journey.

"Military transitioning from active duty have different needs than civilians in terms of starting a business," said Verduin. "It's wonderful to have veterans' resources at our volunteers' fingertips to aid in mentoring our service men and women."

Veterans account for about 10 percent of SCORE's client base. Veterans own 10 percent of small businesses and 14 percent of franchises. Since franchisors have a defined plan of what the business should entail, veterans represent the perfect franchisee given their ability to effectively execute plans as intended.

Nationally, veterans own nearly 2 million businesses, employing more than 5 million Americans, and generating more than $1 trillion in annual income. Of those, 40 percent of veteran-owned businesses generate more than $500,000 in annual revenue.
