WERE THERE PIRATES IN NEW JERSEY?

Begin celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution by learning the little-known history of New Jersey's Privateers and the part they played in the war.

The Sea Dogs, a group of privateer re-enactors, will bare their cutlasses at historic Twin Maples in Summit on Saturday, October 4 in two shows at 2 and 3 p.m. History buffs and the whole family will enjoy a brief lecture, exhibits of privateer artifacts and musical renditions of old sea shanties. Will the British arrive to chase the brave privateers? Come and see!

Tickets are available online at www.fortnightlyclub.org/events-1/nj-privateers-the-american-revolution. Ticket prices are $15 per adult and $5 per child (3-12). Seating is limited. Free parking. No strollers, please.

The program takes place at Twin Maples, 214 Springfield Avenue, Summit, a site on both the New Jersey and National Historic Registers. The Twin Maples estate was built in 1908 in the Colonial Revival style. Its facade is reminiscent of the White House. The estate is owned by the Fortnightly Club of New Jersey, a non-profit women's club founded in 1893.

Proceeds benefit Twin Maples' historic preservation.

Later, on October 4 at 5 p.m. the Fortnightly Club of Summit will host a Colonial Tavern Night fundraiser featuring authentic colonial drinks and music with a colonial inspired appetizer and dessert buffet, featuring the Regimental Brewmeister and the Ministers of Apollo. Tickets for this event are available at fortnightlyclub.org for $65 per person. Proceeds benefit masonry repairs of the Twin Maples terrace.

The Fortnightly Club has a full calendar planned for the coming year including a Designer Fashion ReSale event, a Twin Maples Ghost Hunt with New Jersey Paranormal, a Holiday Ceramics Workshop, breakfast or brunch with Santa at Twin Maples on December 6 and 7, the Battle of the Bubblys, Baking at Twin Maples and a Tranquility Workshop. For more information about upcoming events and to join the club go to fortnightlyclub.com.

SEPTEMBER SHINES AS DOWNTOWN SUMMIT IS FILLED WITH FESTIVITIES!

September is shaping up to be an unforgettable month in Downtown Summit! From live music and classic cars to gallery-worthy artwork and shopping deals, there's something for everyone to enjoy. Summit Downtown, Inc. (SDI) is thrilled to invite residents and visitors alike to experience these exciting community events this month: Welcome Back Summit from September 5th – 7th, Arts & Cars on September 21st, and the weekly Summit Farmers Market, running every Sunday through December 21st.

WELCOME BACK SUMMIT SEPTEMBER 5TH – 7TH

Downtown Summit kicks off the month with Welcome Back Summit, a weekend-long shopping event designed to celebrate the return to routine as summer winds down. Participating stores and restaurants will offer special promotions, discounts, sidewalk sales, and exclusive items throughout the weekend. It's the perfect opportunity to support local businesses while refreshing your fall wardrobe or finding the perfect gift. Using digital passports, there will be a GRAND PRIZE for the person that visits the most participating stores. The festivities will be accompanied by the only dates for Fall Street Sounds on Friday, September 5th (from 5-8pm), and Saturday, September 6th (from 1-4pm). For more information visit: <https://www.summitdowntown.org/events/welcome-back-summit/>

ARTS & CARS – SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21 10AM–4PM

Do you remember, the 21st DAY of September? You will now!

A community favorite, the Arts & Cars Festival is a one-day celebration that brings together automotive enthusiasts and local artists for a day filled with beauty, culture, and family fun. The event features the premier Peotter's Car Show, showcasing stunning classic, cool, and custom cars lining the streets of Downtown Summit. Whether you're a car buff or simply appreciate fine craftsmanship, you won't want to miss these striking vehicles.

In tandem with the car show, the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey will be hosting an Arts Festival that will transform the downtown into an open-air gallery, with juried artists and artisans from around the region displaying and selling their work - ranging from paintings and pottery to jewelry and sculpture.

Arts & Cars will also have downtown Summit packed with exciting activities for teens and kids! Sponsored in part by Dwell NJ, this year's lineup is sure to keep young visitors smiling all day long. Get excited for remote controlled car racing, mini golf, an interactive photo booth, airbrush tattoos, balloon animals and so much more!

Make sure to come hungry too! This spectacle will feature a delicious assortment of food vendors offering something for everyone. Indulge in buttery lobster rolls from Angry Archies, flavorful Peruvian street food from SandWiCheRia, juicy burgers from Jake's Surf & Turf, and artisanal pizza from Pizza Vita. Don't forget to grab fresh kettle corn from Just Delicious and beat the heat with ice pops and agua-frescas from Puras Paletas. In the Bank Street parking lot, across from the food truck alley there will also be a Beer/Wine Garden, courtesy of Cambridge Wines and Peerless Beverage & Co.

Live music will fill the air throughout the day with Main Stage performances from the Maura Glynn Band, Four the Record, and the Carnival Dogs, along with Beer/Wine Garden sounds from Beth Sherby, and the Firepit - sponsored by Summit Hearing Aid Center.

And of course, SDI extends a special shout-out and thanks to the Major Tier sponsor, Peotter's Autobody & Spa, whose continued support and assistance with the car show, makes this signature event possible. Moreover, "the partnership between SDI and the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey, is what has made this event so popular over the years. The Arts Festival aspect continues to bring in more and more people each year to view the incredible work of area artists and we could not make such an event happen without the help and collaboration of VACNJ's Director Melanie Cohn" – Nancy Adams, Executive Director of Summit Downtown, Inc.

FORMER MAYOR WHITMAN'S VISIT TO CITY HALL

City of Summit

A decades-old mission brought a familiar face back to Summit City Hall in July, as former Mayor Janet Whitman (1988 to 1995) returned to complete a heartfelt chapter of the city's history, one she began during the construction of City Hall 30 years ago.

Whitman, the first woman ever elected mayor of Summit, was instrumental in the planning and development of the current City Hall building, which opened in 1996. But she didn't just help build a government center. She planted the seeds for future generations of civic leaders.

"I knew I had to finish this project," she said with a laugh, as she sat down at her old desk in the Mayor's office, pulling out the stationery. "It's been on my mind that these letters have to get written."

As part of her original vision, Whitman had two time capsules created during construction. They are scheduled to be opened in 2049 and 2099, marking the 150th and 200th anniversaries of Summit's incorporation as a city. Tucked inside each are scavenger hunts designed by Whitman to lead future mayors and council members to a hidden gift and personal letter from her.

This week, joined by former Common Council member Phyllis Sank, Whitman returned to City Hall to complete those letters, adding a final, personal touch to a visionary project she began more than a generation ago.

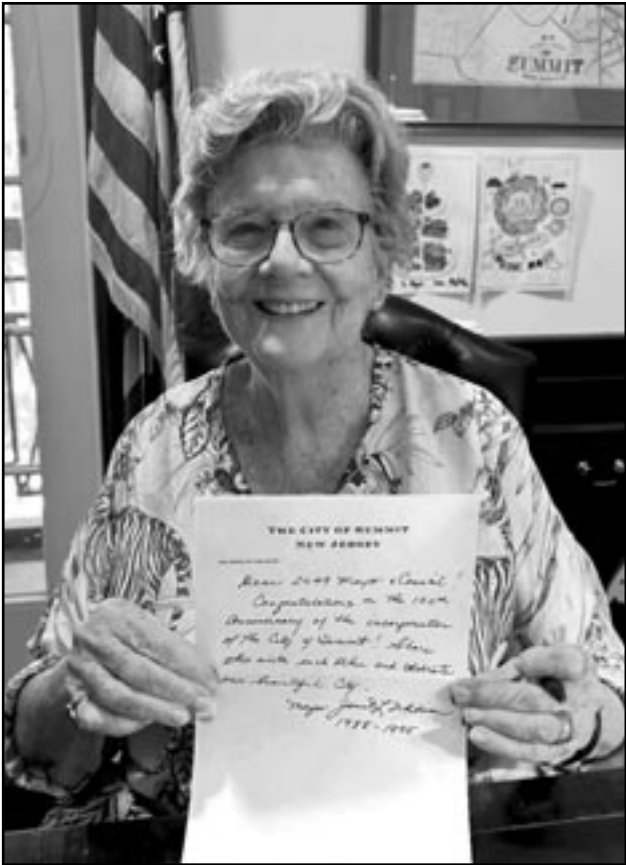

Now a resident of Austin, Texas, Whitman says Summit will always be home. During her visit, she toured the City Hall building she helped bring to life, including the Janet Whitman Community Room, which is currently undergoing a facelift after 30 years of service.

She also spent time in the law library, rekindling memories of her time in office.

Current Mayor Elizabeth Fagan presented Whitman with a ceremonial key to the city in recognition of her lasting impact, not only as a leader but as a trailblazer. Whitman's historic election as Summit's first female mayor set a precedent that continues today. Three of the five mayors who followed her have also been women.

"Mayor Whitman didn't just shape our city in the 1990s. She ensured her influence would echo through the 21st century and beyond," said Mayor Fagan. "Thanks to her, future leaders will not only discover her gifts but be reminded of the responsibility and inspiration that comes with public service."

As Summit looks ahead to its next 75 years, Janet Whitman has ensured its future leaders will be connected to their city's past.

THE GYPSY SPIRIT - NJ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA

Season-Opening Concert Features International Talent and Folk-Inspired Melodies

The New Jersey Festival Orchestra raises the curtain on its highly anticipated 2025–2026 season with The Gypsy Spirit, a vivid and exhilarating journey through folk traditions reimagined in symphonic splendor. Under the baton of Maestro David Wroe, this electrifying program will be performed on Saturday, September 27 at 7:00 PM at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield and Sunday, September 28 at 2:30 PM at the Sieminski Theater at Fellowship Village in Basking Ridge.

Bringing together rich musical traditions of Eastern and Southern Europe, The Gypsy Spirit features works by Janáček, Bruch, and de Falla, performed by NJFO in collaboration with special guests Imperial Brass (Westfield performance only) and internationally acclaimed Armenian violinist Anush Nikoghosyan.

The evening begins with Janáček's Sinfonietta, a bold and ceremonial tribute to Czech national pride, featuring dazzling brass fanfares performed with Imperial Brass. This rousing work will be heard only at the Westfield concert.

“Imperial Brass is very excited to be partnering with our Westfield neighbors, the New Jersey Festival Orchestra, in our first collaboration with this exceptional ensemble,” reports Imperial Brass. “[We] will be featured on Janáček's inspiring Sinfonietta, which opens with one of the great brass fanfares of the orchestral repertoire. Imperial Brass performs regularly at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield and throughout the state.” For more information, please visit imperialbrass.org.

Next, Anush Nikoghosyan brings warmth, fire, and virtuosity to Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1, a romantic masterwork beloved for its soaring melodies and emotional power.

The concert concludes with de Falla's Three-Cornered Hat Suites Nos. 1 & 2, an exuberant orchestral portrait bursting with Flamenco rhythm, Andalusian color, and theatrical flair.

“The music in The Gypsy Spirit is a perfect marriage between the popular and classical idioms,” said NJFO Music Director David Wroe. “I’m also excited to be working with Imperial Brass; collaborating with the community is an essential part of our mission.”

Concertgoers are invited to deepen their experience with a pre-concert lecture by Dr. Yifei Xu, NJFO's Operations Director and renowned pianist, at 6:00 PM in Westfield and 1:30 PM in Basking Ridge.

LUNCHEON OPENS 2025-2026 YEAR - SUMMIT COLLEGE CLUB

Members of the Summit College Club will hold their annual opening luncheon at Baltusrol Golf Club on the afternoon of Sunday, September 28th. "The clubhouse overlooking the golf course is such a beautiful setting for our first gathering of the new year, where our members and their guests can catch up with one another after a summer hiatus," commented Leslie Carson, chair of the event.

Summit College Club, a branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), is dedicated to promoting women's and girls' equity through local programs that support education, empowerment, and connection. This commitment motivates members to contribute to the community while enjoying the camaraderie that comes from working together for a common purpose.

The luncheon will celebrate TECH TREK, an AAUW program for rising eighth grade girls who attend a week-long summer camp on a college campus. AAUW NJ's TECH TREK exposes girls from all over the state to the fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) at Stockton University. At the September luncheon, three recent alumnae of TECH TREK will share their experiences and how those experiences influenced their interest in STEM.

The luncheon will also honor Erna Hoover, a dear friend, long-time member, and past president of the Summit College Club. Dr. Hoover, who was the first woman technical department head at Bell Labs, has several important patents to her name and has been inducted in the National Inventors Hall of Fame.

Many in the broader local community are familiar with the Summit College Club through its annual Book Sale, which takes place each spring in nearby New Providence. The community at large contributes by donating books, by volunteering to assist with the event, and by purchasing books at the sale. The proceeds support the Summit College Club Foundation, which provides financial assistance for its core initiatives, including college scholarships for local students.

"This past year, the Summit College Club Foundation awarded nearly $30,000 in scholarships to seven college-bound, high-achieving young women from local high schools," explained scholarship committee chair Marylou Motto: "It was thrilling to distribute a record amount to the 2025 student recipients. Their achievements inspire hope, and, by supporting them, Summit College Club is making a real difference in the lives of young women in our community."

The Summit College Club Foundation also provided scholarship funds to women enrolling in a local community college after a break in their education. This program, which began last year, is designed to encourage women to continue pursuing higher education.

Summit College Club serves the local community throughout the year with informative lectures, films, and other events centered on women's education, empowerment, and connections. The programs are inclusive, covering subjects ranging from women's health and finance to visits to local landmarks. Information can be found on the Summit College Club website, summitcollegeclub.org

Along with mission-focused activities, members form friendships by participating in interest groups. These groups not only reflect members' diverse interests but also provide opportunities for making meaningful connections through discussing books and ideas, dining out, playing games, and viewing films.

To learn more about Summit College Club and the Summit College Club Foundation, visit summitcollegeclub.org. Anyone with a two- or four-year college degree is eligible to be a member. Members enjoy programs and activities, work toward a shared goal, participate in interest groups, and enjoy the camaraderie of like-minded individuals. New members, continuing members, and their invited guests are all welcome at the Baltusrol event.

If you are interested in joining, go to summitcollegeclub.org/join to complete the membership form, or email your interest to summitcollegeclub@gmail.com.
