NEW CADET CLASS START EMT TRAINING TOGETHER

Submitted by AJ George

Each year, the Chatham Emergency Squad selects six local high school sophomores to become cadet members. The cadets are attending EMT class at Union County College, where they will hone their skills in the classroom, as well as on their assigned duty shifts and in hospital rotations. "I know our cadets are excited to have begun their EMT class and our crews welcome the energy and enthusiasm they bring to each shift," said Captain Bryan McGookin.

Upon passing their final exams, they will begin riding with their crew as Nationally Registered Emergency Medical Technicians. President Nicole DiMaggio said, "We take great pride in the Chatham Emergency Squad Cadet Program. Our high school cadets gain meaningful, hands-on experience providing care to patients in Chatham and surrounding communities. We're especially excited to welcome this new cadet class as they begin their journey. Their future looks incredibly bright!"

We are excited to announce the cadet members from the class of 2027!

The all-volunteer Chatham Emergency Squad provides emergency care to the residents, businesses and visitors in Chatham. They also provide stand-by assistance at many community events including CHS varsity football games, road races, Fishawack and many others. CES is also committed to educating as many citizens as possible in CPR and provides classes at no charge to Chatham teachers, first responders, DPW staff and Chatham residents. CES is always interested in speaking with prospective volunteers. Contact us via our website at ChathamEmergencySquad.org

REPAIR, REUSE, AND RECYCLE EVENT - OCT 11

Repair Cafe returns to Madison on Saturday, October 11, 2025. Volunteer repair experts will be helping you to fix your household items for free at Grace Church in Madison (4 Madison Ave.), from 11:00 until 3:00. All types of items can be brought in: lamps, bicycles, clothing and other fabric items, phones and computers, small appliances, wooden things, watches needing batteries, jewelry, toys, knives in need of sharpening, and many other kinds of repairs. As a bonus, you will get to meet your neighbors from Madison and surrounding towns!

The Repair Cafe is central to Rotary International’s focus on protecting the environment, and furthers our club’s mission of partnering with other organizations to keep Madison one of the “Best Places to Live in New Jersey.” This event is also an important part of Grace’s outreach program.

The repairers will show you how the repairs are made and what tools are needed. Most of the time they can get your things working for you again, keeping them out of the landfills, and saving you some money. You can even learn how to do the repairs yourself. Items should be small enough to be carried in by one person. No gasoline motors or hazardous materials, please. Also, please note: We start our last repair at 2:30! First come, first served! And if you can, it’s helpful if you send us an email telling us what you will be bringing in for repair.

This event is a follow-up to our first three, very successful, Repair Cafes in Madison. Our volunteers and our visitors came from Madison and many surrounding towns. We had 247 items brought in for repair and we succeeded on getting most of them fixed! Our repairs at our recent events ranged from lamps, to bikes and teddy bears, but also included bird feeders and giant skulls.

And we are always looking for new volunteers to join our team. Whether you are an expert repairer with your own tools, or someone who wants to help out on logistics and organization, we would love to have you! There is no age requirement. Our volunteers have ranged in age from their teens to their eighties.

Please visit madisonrotarynj.org for more information about Madison Rotary, and RepairCafeGS.org for information about this and other Repair Cafe’s in the Garden State, and GraceMadison.org for information about Grace Church.

State Senator Anthony Bucco has been chosen to be Grand Marshal. Joining Senator Bucco is Thomas Trepasso, a career law enforcement professional. He will be the Italian American Man of the Year. "This is an outstanding group of honorees who serve as great role models for young people and demonstrate how hard work and family values are the backbone of what Italian Americans are all about," said parade spokesman, William Agnellino.

Lisa Marie Falbo of Long Shot Productions will serve as the Parade Master of Ceremonies. Assisting her at Town Square Park will be Christina Agnellino. The parade will feature marching bands including the Hanover Park and Whippany Park marching bands.

Police officers from the community of Arezzo Italy will also participate in this year's parade. Also, many social and civic organizations, performers, elected officials, police and fire departments from all around Morris County will be participating.

There will also be a family fun day at Lurker Park in East Hanover on the day of the parade with food vendors, games, Bouncy rides and face painting for all to enjoy beginning after the parade, all sponsored by the East Hanover Italian American Club. In celebration of the parade, music will start in Lurker Park after the parade featuring Damico Entertainment, and Danielle Delvescovo of Dance with Danielle will host a performance of Italian Dance classics.

A BELOVED ART EVENT MAKES A REMARKABLE RETURN TO THE ARMORY

Westfield will once again will play host to a remarkable art event - one unlike any other in the greater New York metro area.

First launched in 1982 as the Westfield Craft Market, this event enjoyed a 20-year run, earning a reputation for quality and community spirit. Now, producers Richard & Joanna Rothbard - owners of An American Craftsman Galleries in NYC and Great Barrington, MA - return with fresh energy to reintroduce Westfield to a cultural tradition it once embraced.

Sharing the spotlight will be 80 gifted artists and designers including several nationally recognized for their award winning accomplishments; many traveling from across the U.S., from as far as California and Florida. Guests will enjoy work never before seen on the East Coast. The fair could be called a weekend "Off-Broadway production" - with a great cast, many stars, with several booths designed like stage sets.

WERE THERE PIRATES IN NEW JERSEY?

Begin celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution by learning the little-known history of New Jersey's Privateers and the part they played in the war.

The Sea Dogs, a group of privateer reenactors, will bare their cutlasses at historic Twin Maples in Summit on Saturday, October 4 in two shows at 2 and 3 p.m. History buffs and the whole family will enjoy a brief lecture, exhibits of privateer artifacts and musical renditions of old sea shanties. Will the British arrive to chase the brave privateers? Come and see!

Tickets are available online at www.fortnightlyclub.org/events-1/nj-privateers-the-american-revolution. Ticket prices are $15 per adult and $5 per child (3-12). Seating is limited. Free parking. No strollers, please.

The program takes place at Twin Maples, 214 Springfield Avenue, Summit, a site on both the New Jersey and National Historic Registers. The Twin Maples estate was built in 1908 in the Colonial Revival style. Its facade is reminiscent of the White House. The estate is owned by the Fortnightly Club of New Jersey, a non-profit women's club founded in 1893.

Proceeds benefit Twin Maples' historic preservation.

Later, on October 4 at 5 p.m. the Fortnightly Club of Summit will host a Colonial Tavern Night fundraiser featuring authentic colonial drinks and music with a colonial inspired appetizer and dessert buffet, featuring the Regimental Brewmeister and the Ministers of Apollo. Tickets for this event are available at fortnightlyclub.org for $65 per person. Proceeds benefit masonry repairs of the Twin Maples terrace.
