LIFE CHANGING SCHOLARSHIPS FOR MAASAI GIRLS FUND

Rotary Club of Hanover

The Rotary Club of Hanover NJ recently awarded the Maasai Girls Fund, an organization transforming the lives and futures of vulnerable youths in rural Kenya, two thousand dollars to provide life changing scholarships.

These scholarships provide education in a place where females have long been denied opportunity. The more education provided, the more girls are able to escape child marriage and genital mutilation which is common practice in Maasai tradition.

Educated girls become healthier women who have fewer, but healthier children. Their education adds to their community value, using their resources to benefit families and neighborhoods. Education also empowers them to make their own life decisions. $2,000 dollars will provide two full annual Primary School scholarships and 2 full annual Secondary School scholarships to these young people including books, transportation and school uniforms.

Rotary International is a global network of more than 1.2 million neighbors, friends and leaders who see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities and in ourselves.

The Hanover Rotary Club is dedicated to enriching lives by providing service to others, goodwill and peace through our fellowship of business, professional and community leaders.

If you want to join us or speak at one of our meetings, please visit hanoverrotaryclub.org.

Hanover Rotary meets at 7:30 a.m. on Thursday mornings at IHOP, 102 East Hanover Ave in Cedar Knolls.

MORRISTOWN PUP NABS SPOT IN 2025 BARK FOR LIFE CALENDAR

She’s got the ears of a supermodel, the zoomies of a champion sprinter, and a bark that says “treat, please.” Meet Josie, Morristown’s unofficial mayor of South Street — and now, one of the proud winners of the 2025 Bark for Life Calendar Contest!

After a week-long voting frenzy, Josie galloped ahead of the competition to earn a coveted feature in this year’s 2025 Bark for Life calendar. And not just a cameo — a full-page glam spread, complete with her story, her signature side-eye, and plenty of reasons why she’s the queen of local hearts.

But Josie’s calendar win is more than just a photo op. It means she’ll be a VIP (Very Important Pup) at the Bark for Life of Central NJ celebration on October 12, 2025 at Bell Works in Holmdel, where she’ll be officially honored for her victory — likely with applause, belly rubs, and maybe a few snacks.

WHO IS JOSIE?

Josie is a 4-year-old Australian Cattle Dog (allegedly)— though some suspect she may also be part professional napper and part mayhem enthusiast, depending on the hour. She was rescued as a puppy and now lives her best life ruling the sidewalks and hearts of Morristown.

Known for her expressive ears, her suspiciously dramatic sighs, and a highly curated side-eye, Josie has become a local celebrity — both on leash and online.

Her favorite things include: Car rides (windows down, please), Sidewalk café people-watching (her favorite being the Lokl!), Chasing squirrels she has no intention of catching, Ignoring her toys to chew sticks instead, and Judging humans from the couch like it’s her full-time job.

In short: she’s a rescue with attitude, heart, and a whole lot of fans.

WHAT IS BARK FOR LIFE?

The Bark for Life event is part of the American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life movement. It honors the caregiving qualities of canine companions while raising critical funds for cancer research and support services — especially here in New Jersey. Proceeds from calendar sales and fundraising events all go toward supporting programs like free rides to treatment, overnight stays near major cancer centers, and 24/7 access to cancer information and support for patients and families. GET INVOLVED!

Missed your chance to vote for Josie? You can still be part of the tail-wagging fun. Donations are open at the Bark for Life of Central NJ website, and registration is now live for the October 12 celebration at Bell Works.

Whether you’re walking in honor of a loved one, supporting a survivor, or just want to hang out with some adorable dogs (like Josie), this is your chance to do some good — and pet some pups.

Big paws up to Josie and all the calendar winners! Be sure to snag your copy of the 2025 Bark for Life Calendar, come say hi to Morristown’s finest furry ambassador this fall, and follow @ispyjosie and @barkcentralnj to come along for this year’s adventure!

FREE WIND SYMPHONY CONCERT - OCT 22

The Hanover Wind Symphony (HWS) has been playing the best sounds around for 40 years. That's quite a feat. And, speaking of feet, the wind band will present a repertoire of extraordinary dance music in a free concert called "Dance On." The toe-tapping performance will take place on Wednesday, Oct. 22, at 7 p.m., at Memorial Junior School, 61 Highland Ave., in Whippany.

The featured soloist at this engaging concert will be this year's HWS scholarship winner, Madison Choo, a junior at Northern Valley Regional High School in Demarest, who plays the oboe. She will perform her solo in "Concerto for Oboe" by Vincenzo Bellini.

Madison used her HWS scholarship for lessons with her private teacher to further her music education. She notes, "I'm extremely honored to be the recipient of this scholarship. I'm also very excited for my first-ever performance where I'm playing as a soloist. I hope everyone enjoys it." She's been practicing her oboe solo since early July.

Says Matthew Paterno of Parsippany, HWS music director and conductor, "Come dance the night away with the Hanover Wind Symphony and our fall program 'Dance On'! We hope you savor the energy and excitement of the music behind so many different types of dances."

Ever since she started playing the oboe during her freshman year, Madison has rapidly progressed in her musical abilities. Currently, she is enrolled in the pre-college program of Manhattan School of Music and plays with their Philharmonic Orchestra. Additionally, she is a member of the New York Youth Symphony, which is a Grammy-winning ensemble. There, she performs with college students and other talented musicians. She is also a member of the New Jersey Region I Band.

Among the other pieces being performed at the HWS "Dance On" concert are the following:

- * "Danzón" by Arturo Márquez
- * "Four Scottish Dances" by Malcolm Arnold
- * "Havana Nights" by Randall Standridge, with guest conductor Ayden Khan of Wayne, HWS associate music director

The Hanover Wind Symphony is a unique extension of the great American tradition of adult music performance. One of only a handful of outstanding community-based adult wind bands in New Jersey, the Hanover Wind Symphony delights audiences of all ages by giving a contemporary twist to traditional favorites. The large orchestra, made up exclusively of woodwind, brass and percussion instruments, embraces as its mission bringing "music to people and people to music."

For four decades, HWS has played to enthusiastic audiences. HWS members are volunteers who share a love for music and a passion for enriching the cultural fabric of the community with the thrill of live wind band performances. They come together to connect musically with others, share the enjoyment of music with live audiences, and help mentor the next generation of wind musicians, like Madison Choo.
