WERE THERE PIRATES IN NEW JERSEY?

Begin celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution by learning the little-known history of New Jersey's Privateers and the part they played in the war.

The Sea Dogs, a group of privateer re-enactors, will bare their cutlasses at historic Twin Maples in Summit on Saturday, October 4 in two shows at 2 and 3 p.m. History buffs and the whole family will enjoy a brief lecture, exhibits of privateer artifacts and musical renditions of old sea shanties. Will the British arrive to chase the brave privateers? Come and see!

Tickets are available online at www.fortnightlyclub.org/events-1/nj-privateers-the-american-revolution. Ticket prices are $15 per adult and $5 per child (3-12). Seating is limited. Free parking. No strollers, please.

The program takes place at Twin Maples, 214 Springfield Avenue, Summit, a site on both the New Jersey and National Historic Registers. The Twin Maples estate was built in 1908 in the Colonial Revival style. Its facade is reminiscent of the White House. The estate is owned by the Fortnightly Club of New Jersey, a non-profit women's club founded in 1893.

Proceeds benefit Twin Maples' historic preservation.

Later, on October 4 at 5 p.m. the Fortnightly Club of Summit will host a Colonial Tavern Night fundraiser featuring authentic colonial drinks and music with a colonial inspired appetizer and dessert buffet, featuring the Regimental Brewmeister and the Ministers of Apollo. Tickets for this event are available at fortnightlyclub.org for $65 per person. Proceeds benefit masonry repairs of the Twin Maples terrace.

The Fortnightly Club has a full calendar planned for the coming year including a Designer Fashion ReSale event, a Twin Maples Ghost Hunt with New Jersey Paranormal, a Holiday Ceramics Workshop, breakfast or brunch with Santa at Twin Maples on December 6 and 7, the Battle of the Bubbles, Baking at Twin Maples and a Tranquility Workshop. For more information about upcoming events and to join the club go to fortnightlyclub.com.

WHAT, WHERE, AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH

KENILWORTH'S DISAPPEARING HILLS – PART IV – FOUR MORE GONE

A discerning eye can still find remnants of two more hills that have gone from Kenilworth's landscape. One was on the east side of Michigan Ave. between Kingston and Monmouth avenues. The crest of a second was in the area of Oak St., Michigan Ave, and the top of N. 22nd St. running downhill to the end of the today's Boyd Ter. cul de sac.

A 1949 aerial photograph captures the area of the initial excavation for the first hill mentioned. Excavation appears to have commenced at the Monmouth Ave. area. It then continued north almost reaching the rear yards of older homes that already existed back then at what today are 729 to 735 Kingston Ave. Research to date has not determined where the dirt went. Research suggests that the hill was leveled to make is suitable to erecting new homes which commenced in the 1950s, and then most others into the 1960s.

One easily can find evidence of a segment of the hill. Take a ride past addresses 729, 733, and 735 Kingston Ave. The homes are on distinctly elevated properties – the foothills of the hill that no longer exists that were in their backyards.

According to Zillow.com, these older homes were constructed in the period of 1928 to 1930, before the hill was almost fully obliterated during the ensuing years.

A photo taken about 1920 from College Hill (now Water Tower Hill) shows a hill in the short distance away somewhat along today's Oak St. The photo is a view looking downhill from the old Upsala College main building before much of College Hill itself was hauled away in the late 1940s. Pinpointing when the Oak St. area hill was reduced in size has not yet been established, but in the early 1950s, new homes were being built at the upper end of N. 22nd St. so that fact indicates that excavation took place before then.

Looking north from the N. 22nd St. barricade the street has a definitive incline indicating a slope toward the now gone-forever Oak St. hill. More of the hill's remnants were cut away about 10 years later in the early 1960s when Boyd Ter., a cul de sac off N. Michigan Ave., was developed. To complete the cul de sac and level the land at the end for house construction, earth was carted away. A visit there today gives view of the elevated back yards of homes on N. 22nd St.

The third hill in this article once stood in the area of Lafayette Ave. pretty much off the east side of N. 17th St. It was commonly known as Johnson's Hill for a family in the area that at the time was very sparsely settled. It stood at 123 feet above sea level (ASL). A fourth hill shown on a topographical map was somewhat northwest of today's Water Tower Hill. It stood at 155 feet ASL. Research has not revealed when these hills were cut down or where the dirt went.

Read the next issue of Kenilworth Business Life for the final segment about Kenilworth's hills. Research provided by Walter E. Boright, Ed. D., historian, and Historic Signs, Inc. including data from the G. H. Cook Topographical Map of 1888. Persons with inquiries about this, or other Kenilworth history topics, may contact Dr. Boright at drbori@aol.com or 908-256-5200.

SMALL BUSINESS MENTORING HELPS MILITARY VETERANS SUCCEED

SCORE Central Jersey

During National Military Appreciation Month and beyond, SCORE mentors offer resources for veterans to start and grow their entrepreneurial enterprises.

Veterans' training, resolve and fortitude to overcome challenges make them the ideal entrepreneur. They soar as small business owners. According to research, 80 percent of the 1.7 million veteran-owned business owners consider themselves successful. The small business five-year survival rate for veterans is double that of the non-veteran population.

Data from the U.S. Small Business Administration has shown that small business owners with an established mentor have twice the success rate – 70 percent versus 35 percent – as those who do not have a mentor.

In conjunction with National Military Appreciation Month in May, SCORE, a national nonprofit organization that assists small businesses, has developed specific resources for use by its 10,000 mentors nationally in mentoring veterans.

The SCORE Veterans Small Business Resource Guide features veterans-specific resources to offer insight on developing a business plan, securing funding, starting a business, buying an existing business, buying a franchise, connecting with one of SCORE's volunteer mentors, and gaining a better understanding of business through webinars and workshops.

"Volunteering at SCORE is my way of showing appreciation to those who helped and guided me during my career while sharing my background and experience to help entrepreneurs succeed," said SCORE Mid-Atlantic Regional Vice President Ed Coleman. "While I enjoy working with all SCORE clients, as a U.S. Army veteran, I particularly enjoy working with veterans to translate their military experience into entrepreneurship. Helping clients realize their dreams is very gratifying and the essence of the SCORE mission."

SCORE Central Jersey Chapter Chair Nancy Verduin said mentors continually expand their knowledge base to better assist veterans on their entrepreneurial journey.

"Military transitioning from active duty have different needs than civilians in terms of starting a business," said Verduin. "It's wonderful to have veterans' resources at our volunteers' fingertips to aid in mentoring our service men and women."

Veterans account for about 10 percent of SCORE's client base. Veterans own 10 percent of small businesses and 14 percent of franchises. Since franchisors have a defined plan of what the business should entail, veterans represent the perfect franchisee given their ability to effectively execute plans as intended.

Nationally, veterans own nearly 2 million businesses, employing more than 5 million Americans, and generating more than $1 trillion in annual income. Of those, 40 percent of veteran-owned businesses generate more than $500,000 in annual revenue.

To learn more about SCORE, request a mentor or volunteer to be one, visit score.org.

Funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. All opinions, conclusions and/or recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the SBA.

(above) Since 1964, SCORE has helped more than 17 million entrepreneurs start, grow or successfully exit a business. SCORE's 10,000 volunteers provide free, expert mentoring, resources and education in all 50 U.S. states and territories. Visit SCORE at score.org.
