NJ SHARING NETWORK AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

The Sharing Network

Twelve New Jersey high school students, including Lily Coniglio and Brian Lippman of New Providence, were awarded scholarships from the Sharing Network Foundation for their passion and dedication to raising awareness of organ and tissue donation and transplantation. The 2025 graduates were presented with their scholarship awards at NJ Sharing Network's headquarters in New Providence.

Lily Coniglio of New Providence (New Providence High School), received a scholarship from the Jim Rhatican Scholarship Fund. She will attend Boston College. Lily's journey with organ donation advocacy began as a child watching NJ Sharing Network's 5K Celebration of Life pass by her home - an event that inspired her to lace up and get involved. After recovering from a serious illness, her gratitude fueled an even deeper passion for the cause. As the team captain of "Lily's Laces," she has encouraged friends to run, register as donors, and join her efforts to spread awareness. She's participated in local outreach and consistently brings energy and heart to events that celebrate the power of donation. When she received her driver's license, saying "yes" to organ and tissue donation was her first proud act of commitment. Lily now looks forward to continuing her advocacy in college, determined to inspire others to give the gift of life.

Brian Lippman of New Providence (New Providence High School), received a scholarship from the Missy's Miracle Scholarship Fund. He will attend Boston College. Brian's advocacy for organ and tissue donation is driven by personal experience and a deep commitment to honoring donors and supporting recipients. He has been actively involved in donor remembrance projects, helping families honor their loved ones through quilts, memorials, and holiday gifts. Brian's belief in donation's impact grew stronger after witnessing his five-year-old neighbor's successful liver transplant. At Boston College, he plans to continue his advocacy through student organizations like SODA (Student Organ Donation Advocates) and the American Red Cross, working to raise awareness and ensure that more lives are saved through the gift of donation.

The Sharing Network Foundation's scholarships are made possible thanks to several of the organization's family and partner funds:

The Sharing Network

Hearts for Emma Partner Fund - created in celebration of Emma Rothman's lifesaving heart transplant to support high school education and donation advocacy efforts.

Jim Rhatican Scholarship Fund - created in memory of Jim Rhatican, a NJ Sharing Network Volunteer, liver transplant recipient, and retired teacher and coach of 35 years.

Missy's Miracle Scholarship Fund - created in celebration of Missy Rodriguez's lifesaving liver transplant to follow her passion as a college counselor through scholarships for high school students.

Riley's Path - created in memory of organ donor Riley Kogen to provide financial assistance to transplant patients in times of crisis, and to award scholarships to high school students and advocacy heroes.

The Sharing Network Foundation's high school scholarship program provides an opportunity to recognize and award graduating high school seniors whose lives have been touched by organ and tissue donation and transplantation. Applicants were measured on academic achievement, community and volunteer efforts, extracurricular activities, and advocacy for organ and tissue donation. Since the scholarship program's inception in 2011, more than $140,000 has been awarded to 74 dedicated student advocates.

"We are grateful for the generous support of our partner funds and their ongoing commitment to rewarding students who share a commitment to our lifesaving mission," said Amanda Tibok, Executive Director, Sharing Network Foundation. "We know that all of our scholarship awardees will continue as strong leaders educating others about donation and transplantation throughout their college years and beyond."

At a time when many people are searching for meaningful, screen-free ways to connect, the New Jersey Intergenerational Orchestra (NJIO) offers something special: a space where musicians of all ages and levels come together to create music, and where audiences are invited into that same spirit of community.

Founded on the belief that orchestra is for everyone, NJIO welcomes people of all ages and Concert lobbies feature NJIO's Concert Comfort Station, offering sensory and comfort items such as cushions so everyone can enjoy the music.
