RACE TO KINDNESS CHALLENGE AT WARREN MIDDLE SCHOOL

Warren Public Schools

Warren Middle School students took part in the Race to Kindness Challenge as part of the Pay It Forward 9/11 Foundation's 11 Days of Kindness initiative. Now in its 24th year, the Pay It Forward 9/11 campaign encourages schools, organizations, businesses, and individuals across the country to honor the lives lost on September 11, 2001, by completing three random acts of kindness for strangers between September 1–11.

WMS will keep the spirit of kindness alive well beyond September by continuing the challenge throughout the school year. Each Friday, students will share Acts of Kindness announcements, celebrating positive actions within the school.

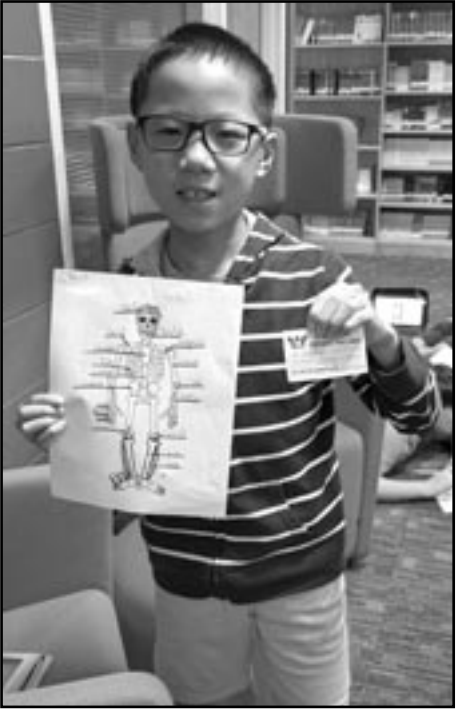

As part of the initiative, students can earn "kindness cards," each aligned with one of CASEL's five core competencies: self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision-making. The cards, color-coded to represent each competency, will also contribute to a schoolwide "kindness chain."

Each act of kindness adds a link to a grade-level chain displayed in the hallways, creating a friendly competition to see which grade can reach the end of the hall first. Both grade-level and individual prizes will be awarded, with special recognition for students who collect all five competency cards.

Warren Township Superintendent Dr. Matthew Mingle is also the Vice President of the Pay it Forward 9/11 Foundation's Board of Directors. "In the days and weeks after the 9/11 attacks, we said we would 'Never Forget.' Spreading kindness and inspiring young people to do the same is the best way we can model compassion and the importance of honoring the lives lost on 9/11 in a positive way. I am proud of our Warren Middle School students for leading the way in the community with their Race to Kindness."

Pay It Forward 9/11 was founded in 2002 by Kevin Tuerff, one of 7,000 airline passengers stranded on 9/11 in Gander Newfoundland, wondering if others would do the same where they lived. Tuerff, supported by a collection of 9/11 survivors and kind friends, created the nonprofit charity in tribute to the compassionate people of small towns in the island province of Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada.

"During those dark days, we pledged to never forget those lives taken on 9/11 and the kindness and bravery of helpers and first responders," said Kevin Tuerff, president and founder of Pay it Forward 9/11. "Our 11 Days of Kindness campaign honors those killed in 2001 on 9/11, and also the heroes who volunteered with acts of compassion. In my case, thousands of unexpected travelers like me who were stranded in Newfoundland were provided the necessities of food, clothing, and shelter for five days by locals, and their kindness continues decades later through the relationships built during that challenging time."

AMERICAN REPERTORY BALLET PRESENTS THE RETURN OF STIEFEL & KOBORG'S GISELLE

American Repertory Ballet (ARB) opens its 2025/26 season at the New Brunswick Performing Arts Center (NBPAC) with the highly anticipated return of Ethan Stiefel and Johan Kobborg's acclaimed adaptation of the classic ballet Giselle. Presented Friday, October 10, 2025 through Sunday, October 12, 2025, Giselle tells the story of a young woman who dies of a broken heart—only to confront, and eventually forgive, her beloved from beyond the grave.

Originally choreographed in 2012 for the Royal New Zealand Ballet under Stiefel's artistic leadership, Giselle was initially restaged and partially redesigned specifically for ARB at NBPAC in 2022 by the award-winning team of Howard Jones (Scenic Designer), Natalia Stewart (Costume Designer), and Joseph R. Walls (Lighting Designer). Giselle is celebrated as being "[s]uperbly coached, curated, and danced," says The Ballet Herald's Nadia Vostrikov. "ARB's Giselle is everything the original had and more."

Featuring emotionally powerful and technically stunning performances, this moving production will no doubt get audiences in the Halloween spirit via this haunting tale of love, betrayal, and the supernatural.

CUB SCOUT PACK 182 HOSTED A LIVELY END-OF-SUMMER PICNIC

Submitted by Adam Lella, Cubmaster

Cub Scout Pack 182 of Warren, NJ hosted a lively end-of-summer picnic that brought together scouts, families, and leaders for a day of fun, creativity, and connection. Held in a local park, the event featured engaging craft activities that encouraged teamwork and creativity among the scouts, while giving them a chance to showcase their skills and enjoy the outdoors. The picnic also served as a warm welcome to new scout members and their families, who were introduced to the Pack 182 community through games, group activities, and friendly conversations. It was a great opportunity for families to meet pack leaders, learn about upcoming events, and experience the supportive spirit of scouting. The picnic was a wonderful reflection of the values of scouting—friendship, and family and set a positive tone for the Scouting year ahead. For any interested boys in Warren Township elementary schools grades kindergarten through 5th we have our next Pack meeting on October 7 check out our Facebook page for detail details!

CUB SCOUT'S PRESENTED THE COLORS AT SOMERSET PATRIOTS GAME

Cub Scout Pack 182 of Warren, NJ had the distinct honor of presenting the colors at TD Bank Ballpark before the Somerset Patriots game held on August 24th. The scouts proudly served as the evening's official color guard, carrying the American flag onto the field in front of a full crowd of cheering fans.

The opportunity was a memorable experience for the young scouts, who take pride in learning about service, citizenship, and respect for our nation's traditions. "It was incredible to watch our scouts march out with the flags, standing tall and showing the community what Cub Scouting is all about," said Jeffrey Siegel, Assistant Cubmaster.

Pack 182, part of Scouting America's Patriots' Path Council, has been active in Warren, NJ for decades, offering boys in kindergarten through fifth grade the chance to build character, learn new skills, and give back to their community. Events like this one give scouts the chance to connect with local organizations while celebrating teamwork and patriotism.

The Somerset Patriots, the New York Yankees' Double-A affiliate, regularly welcome community groups to participate in pre-game ceremonies. For Pack 182, this was an especially proud evening—one the scouts and their families will remember for years to come.

Cub Scout Pack 182 welcomes new families to join in the fun and adventure of scouting. For more information about joining, visit warrenpack182.trooptrack.com or email membership@warrenpack182.org.

DOREEN LADINSKI NAMED LITERACY ‘TUTOR OF THE MONTH’

Retired high school English teacher Doreen Ladinski of Warren has been named Literacy Volunteers of Somerset County’s (LVSC) “Tutor of the Month.”

LVSC is a non-profit that promotes literacy throughout the community by providing free student-centered tutoring and literacy programs, which enable adults to function more effectively in their daily lives. Founded in 1981, LVSC serves students who struggle to read, write and communicate in English. Literacy skills help students with tasks such as calling 9-1-1, filling out an application or reading emails from a child’s teacher. Ladinski, currently a substitute teacher, joined LVSC in 2019 and has tutored numerous students since. She takes great pride in her students’ accomplishments and helps them with tasks such as understanding U.S. currency and taking and passing proficiency tests.

Commenting on her LVSC journey, Ladinski said, “LVSC offered me the perfect opportunity to help others develop their literacy skills. I learned early on in my teaching career that helping people develop these skills was one of the most gratifying experiences I’ve ever known. Nothing is more fulfilling for me than helping others meet their needs or goals.”

LVSC is actively recruiting volunteers in Warren to help meet the needs of the local community. An hour or two a week is all it takes to make a difference, and you don’t have to be a teacher to be a tutor. With one-to-one or small group tutoring, you can help English as a Second Language (ESL) students improve their reading comprehension, writing skills, and conversational English. Training is provided.

For more information, visit www.literacysomerset.org, email info@literacysomerset.org, or call (908) 725-5430.
