CALVIN COAKLEY BUILDS INTERNATIONAL STEM BRIDGE

Livingston Public Schools

A unique two-year collaboration led by students from Livingston High School (LHS) has culminated in the establishment of a new STEM Robotics Lab at the GRACE School in Kisii, Kenya, marking a significant achievement in global education partnership.

What began as a cultural exchange has grown into a high-impact global citizenship project, spearheaded by LHS student Calvin Coakley. Calvin raised over $5,300 to purchase ten VEX IQ Robotics Kits and, crucially, designed a comprehensive 35-lesson robotics curriculum tailored for the Kenyan students.

FROM FUNDRAISING TO FOREIGN TRAVEL

The initiative reached a dramatic turning point when Calvin traveled to the GRACE School in Kisii to provide intensive, on-site professional development for the Kenyan STEM teachers. He equipped the local staff with the skills and confidence necessary to teach the new curriculum. Since his return, he has maintained weekly virtual meetings to ensure the program's sustained success.

"Watching our students collaborate across continents—sharing knowledge, culture, and compassion—has been incredible," said Robert Rolling, K-12 Supervisor of Technology, Business, and Media. "They're not just building a STEM lab; they're building a future rooted in global connection and showing the true power of student-led innovation."

A PARTNERSHIP BUILT ON LITERACY AND CULTURE

This international bridge was initially forged by the LHS DECA club and Robotics Team. Under the guidance of teacher Dan Quackenbush, the collaboration began with a vibrant summer reading and cultural exchange. These sessions run twice weekly from June through August, connecting students through interactive online activities like trivia games, collaborative reading, and cultural showcases.

Beyond academics, the exchange focuses on mutual cultural learning: Livingston students teach Spanish or French, while their Kenyan peers introduce them to Swahili, traditional songs, and dances. This deepens mutual understanding and transforms the partnership into more than academic tutoring—it builds genuine friendships.

This entire global initiative has been made possible through the support of TEEEM (The Empathy, Equality, Entrepreneurship Mission), a non-profit dedicated to empowering the next generation of changemakers by partnering with schools in underserved communities worldwide.

FREE MUSICAL SEMINAR: 'WORDLESS ECSTASY: THE NIGGUN IN JEWISH TRADITION'

Cantor Perry Fine of Temple Beth Shalom in Livingston will present a fascinating, free two-part series, titled "Wordless Ecstasy: The Niggun in Jewish Tradition," on Thursdays, Nov. 6 and 13, at 1 p.m. via Zoom. From sadness to ecstasy, the niggun--a form of wordless, melodic tunes, sung in group settings to aid in prayer or study--has connected Jews for centuries with the many facets and emotions of Jewish prayer.

The cantor's series is coordinated by National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW), West Morris Section's Our Jewish World program, co-chaired by Ilene Dorf Manahan and Melanie Levitan, both of Morristown.

The first session, on Nov. 6, will delve into the origins of the niggun from its Hasidic roots in the 18th century with the rise of the Baal Shem Tov. "We will explore the importance of niggunim (plural of niggun) as a spiritual tool for its practitioners and devotees to connect beyond the intellectual to the emotional, wordless ecstasy. Through recorded examples and demonstration, together we will experience the niggun as a form of communal bonding and spiritual elevation, and its profound influence in the development of Jewish liturgical music," the cantor says.

For the second session, participants will examine the evolution of the niggun through the centuries, and its adaptation to local musical styles and communities. Cantor Fine notes, "We will look at examples by modern Hasidic and Jewish artists, including Shlomo Carlebach and Joey Weissenberg, and the niggun's appeal as a contemporary expression of Jewish outreach. We will also explore the influence of the niggun on secular Jewish music and even broader musical genres."

Cantor Fine has given numerous concerts and lectures on Jewish music, including many years as part of the NCJW, West Morris clergy series. He is the co-founder and principal conductor of Voices in Harmony, an interfaith choral ensemble that has served the Essex County community for the past 27 years. He has been awarded the Conservative Movement's Nathan H. Winter Award for Professional Excellence, and recently was honored by both the South Orange/Maplewood Interfaith Holocaust Remembrance Service and the Seton Hall Sister Rose Thering Jewish/Christian Studies Program for lifetime achievement.

For the past 28 years, Cantor Fine has served on the faculty of the Jewish Theological Seminary, teaching Biblical Cantillation to a generation of budding cantorial students.

Preregistration is required for Cantor Fine's series. To register, email iadpr@aol.com.

NJ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA: CANDLELIGHT CONCERT AND TENORS RETURN

Step into an evening of sophistication and charm as the New Jersey Festival Orchestra presents its first-ever candlelight concert, Romance in the Mansion, on Saturday, November 15 at 6:30 PM at the James Ward Mansion in Westfield.

Under the baton of Music Director and Maestro David Wroe, a string quartet of NJFO musicians — Bradley Bosenbeck (Violin I), Théo Payen (Violin II), Gregory Williams (Viola), and Ansel Cohen (Cello) — will perform an intimate program that blends the romance of Broadway, the emotion of cinematic scores, and the allure of contemporary classics. Audiences will be swept away by lush arrangements from beloved artists such as ABBA, Coldplay, George Gershwin, and more — all illuminated by the warm glow of candlelight in one of Westfield's most elegant settings.

Guests can indulge in complimentary wine and small plates as they enjoy this unique fusion of artistry and atmosphere. With its golden décor, intimate seating, and unforgettable musical program, Romance in the Mansion promises to be a highlight of the NJFO season.

NJFO gratefully acknowledges the Ward family for generously sharing their beautiful space to support this fundraising event. Proceeds will help bring notable soloists to future NJFO concerts and fund community initiatives such as the orchestra's Listening is Healing music therapy program. Earlier this season, NJFO musicians Yifei Xu and Matthew Armbruster shared the gift of music with patients at Overlook Hospital in Summit, NJ, an inspiring example of the impact programs like Listening is Healing bring to the community.

“We are thrilled to present this intimate concert experience and deeply grateful for the generosity that allows us to continue sharing music both on stage and beyond,” said Maestro Wroe.

Following Romance in the Mansion, NJFO rings in the festive season with one of its most anticipated events — The Return of the Holiday Tenors.

Back by popular demand, this symphonic spectacular will fill the concert hall with the magic of the holidays, featuring award-winning tenors John Kun Park, Luke Norvell, and Michael DeShield alongside guest choruses and the full New Jersey Festival Orchestra. Together, they'll perform an uplifting program of holiday classics, Broadway-style showstoppers, and beloved seasonal songs that capture the joy and wonder of the season.

Under Maestro Wroe's direction, this festive performance blends grand symphonic arrangements with soaring vocals and heartwarming moments, making it a beloved tradition for families across New Jersey.

Performances take place on Saturday, December 6, at 7:00 PM at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield, and on Sunday, December 7, at 3:00 PM at The Concert Hall at Drew University in Madison.

From the candlelit elegance of Romance in the Mansion to the jubilant voices of The Return of the Holiday Tenors, NJFO's 2025 season offers something truly special for every music lover.

Tickets are available at njfestivalorchestra.org or by calling the NJFO office at (908) 232-9400 during operational hours. Seating is limited, and early reservations are encouraged.

ENROLLING IN MEDICARE AND UPDATING YOUR PLAN

By George Sosa, President, The Sosa Insurance Group

Turning 65 marks eligibility for Medicare, a federal health insurance program designed for seniors and certain individuals with disabilities. While the system can be complex, resources are available to help beneficiaries navigate enrollment, updates, and plan changes to ensure their coverage continues to meet their needs.

Original Medicare consists of Part A (hospital insurance) and Part B (medical insurance). Part A covers hospital stays, skilled nursing facilities, home health, and hospice care. Part B focuses on outpatient care, doctor visits, preventive screenings, and therapies. While comprehensive, Original Medicare leaves gaps in coverage, which can be supplemented through Medigap policies. These help with deductibles, co-pays, and sometimes foreign travel coverage, offering flexibility and predictability.

Medicare Advantage (Part C), offered by private insurers, combines Parts A and B and often includes additional benefits like vision, dental, hearing, fitness programs, and lower premiums. These plans have out-of-pocket maximums, but often require use of in-network providers.

Prescription drug coverage (Part D) is also offered through private plans. Each plan has a formulary outlining covered medications, cost-sharing structures, and potential coverage gaps, though assistance programs like "Extra Help" exist for those with limited income. New Jersey also provides state assistance through PAAD and Senior Gold to help seniors manage prescription drug costs.

For higher-income beneficiaries, Medicare applies IRMAA (Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount), which adds extra costs to Part B and D premiums based on IRS tax information.

Enrollment timing is crucial. While some may delay enrollment due to employer coverage, late enrollment penalties apply if coverage lapses without creditable insurance.

Every year, Medicare beneficiaries have an opportunity to review and adjust their coverage. The Annual Enrollment Period (October 15 – December 7) allows switching between Original Medicare and Advantage plans, adding or changing drug plans, or returning to Original Medicare. Any changes take effect January 1. Additionally, the Medicare Advantage Open Enrollment (January 1 – March 31) allows those in Advantage plans to switch or return to Original Medicare.

When evaluating options, beneficiaries should consider cost, provider networks, additional benefits, drug coverage, and changes in their health or medications.

Understanding Medicare is the first step to making the best decisions for your health and budget. If you'd like help comparing plans or reviewing your coverage for 2026, The Sosa Insurance Group is here to guide you every step of the way. Contact us at 973-902-5445 to schedule a one-on-one review about your Medicare choices.

Saturday November 15th at 6:00pm Join us for this fun-filled evening and fundraising event for the Sieminski Theater! Just in time for the holiday Hallmark movie season, and who doesn't love those cheesy Hallmark holiday movies! "My Unauthorized Hallmark Movie Musical"!

The evening will start with a cocktail reception in the lobby with Hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Then move into the theater for this delightful, lighthearted musical production. Afterwards, enjoy a dessert bar and champagne and an opportunity to meet the star of the show. There will be raffles, drawings and more surprises. BREAKFAST WITH SANTA AT TWIN MAPLES

The entire family is invited to one of the areas loveliest historic homes, Twin Maples in Summit, on Saturday or Sunday, December 6 and 7 to join Santa for food and fun. The weekend event is hosted by the Fortnightly Club of Summit to benefit historic preservation. Festivities begin at 9:15 a.m. each day with a delicious Holiday ‘Breakfast with Santa’ served in the beautifully decorated ballroom with catering by ‘What a Dish.’ For those who can’t make it for breakfast, ‘Brunch with Santa’ will be served each day at 11:15 a.m. All seatings include a children’s buffet, adult served meal, photos with Santa, live music and more. This year’s beautiful holiday décor features a ‘Nutmacker’ theme, so don’t be surprised to see Clara, the Sugar Plum Fairies and some really naughty mice. Tickets to Santa at Twin Maples can be purchased at fortnightlyclub.org or through Eventbrite. Seating is limited. Pricing for Breakfast with Santa is $45 for adults and $20 for children under 12. Please bring booster seats for children. Highchairs are not available.

The weekend event benefits the preservation of Twin Maples, 214 Springfield Avenue, Summit, a property on the New Jersey and National Historic Registers. The house was designed and built by New York architect Alfred F. Norris in the Colonial Revival style in 1908 and resembles the White House. The Fortnightly Club purchased the property in 1949. Today, Twin Maples serves as a clubhouse and hosts many community events and fundraisers. The Fortnightly Club of Summit, a non-profit organization founded in 1893, offers women camaraderie and a full calendar of interesting events and volunteer opportunities. The Club supports the preservation of Twin Maples, education, the arts and humanitarian efforts. For over thirty-years the Club has awarded annual scholarships to deserving young, local women. Fortnightly Club’s 104 members are from Summit and many neighboring towns.

To join or for more information, visit the Club’s website at www.fortnightlyclub.org.

SHAKESPEARE AT THE LIBRARY - NOV 16

Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Join us for Shakespeare At The Library on Sunday, November 16th at 2pm when the award-winning LHS Theatre Club will be performing selections from their upcoming production of MACBETH. Shakespeare's timeless tragedy of ambition and betrayal is reimaged in this haunting post-apocalyptic dystopia, where survival is fragile and every choice comes at a cost. This bold production breathes new life into Shakespeare's classic play.

This event is free and open to all and registration is not required.
