GRANT A CHILD'S HOLIDAY WISH - ANGEL TREE AT POST OFFICE

Submitted by Peter Nicolas

The Florham Park Angel Tree is now available in the Florham Park Post Office with each ornament representing a child in need. More than ever, residents and local businesses are encouraged to donate holiday gifts under the Angel Tree. On Friday, November 28, for the 26th consecutive year, the Florham Park Rotary decorated the tree and placed it at the Florham Park Post Office at 187 Columbia Turnpike.

Each ornament on the tree holds local children's gift wishes. Most of the children are from Florham Park, East Hanover and other Morris County towns, many of whom are orphans or resource (aka foster) children. "The people of Florham Park do a fantastic job," said Rotarian Rexford Lyon, who helped to organize the annual event. "Some of these gifts are real needs, like diapers or a winter coat. Coloring books and toys are also common requests. The people of Florham Park really go above and beyond."

This effort is coordinated by the Florham Park Rotary through the East Morris office of the state Division of Child Protection and Permanency, formerly known as the DYFS.

More than 100 ornaments are filled with wishes and hang from the tree. They are a reminder that even in eastern Morris County, there are many children and families in need.

Amazing Grace Lutheran Church, 160 Ridgedale Avenue, Florham Park is galvanizing its parishioners to contribute for the second year in a row. This is especially appreciated this year as many families struggle.

Dave Kramer, Rotary club president, encourages residents to visit the Angel Tree at the Post Office, take a look at the ornaments, and see which gift request they can fulfill.

nail polish kit, sneakers (girls 7), hygiene items, winter coat, boots, hat, glove, scarf, anything for drawing, coloring or painting.

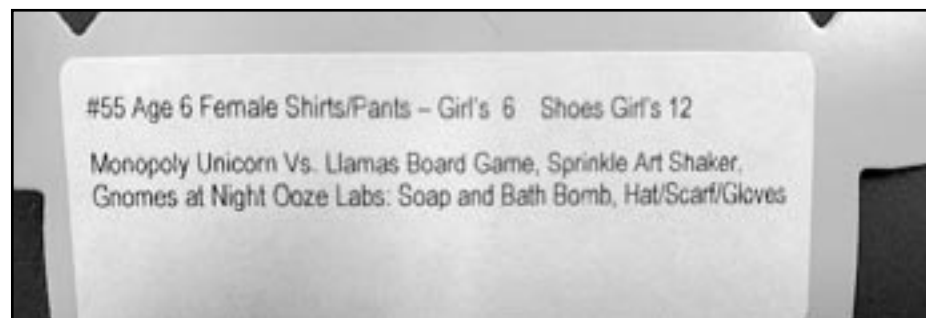

Rotarian Betty O'Brien reminds all that in many cases this is the only thing a child may receive during the holiday season.

Residents may select an ornament from the Angel Tree and return with that wrapped gift by December 19.
