ROTARY GIVES GRANT TO GIRL SCOUTS TO ENHANCE FACILITIES

Morristown Rotary Club

The Morristown Rotary Club is pleased to announce it has awarded a $2,300 grant to the Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey (GSNNJ) to enhance their outdoor leadership and team-building facilities at the Jockey Hollow Girl Scout Camp in Mendham.

The funding will cover the purchase and installation of a "Whale Watch" element for the camp's existing low-ropes challenge course. The Whale Watch is an 8-foot by 12-foot, large-scale, see-saw-like platform designed to accommodate up to 12 participants at once.

This dynamic new element requires campers to work together in unison to keep the platform balanced, presenting a significant and fun challenge that encourages the development of crucial skills.

"The Morristown Rotary Club is dedicated to 'Service Above Self,' and we recognize the immense value of fostering leadership and confidence in young people," said Aaron Oliver, President of Morristown Rotary. "By supporting the installation of the Whale Watch, we are directly investing in the growth of hundreds of Girl Scouts, equipping them with essential communication, problem-solving, and teamwork that will benefit them throughout their lives."

DEVELOPING FUTURE LEADERS

Jockey Hollow Camp serves more than 500 girls aged 6-16 during its seven weeks of summer camp, in addition to year-round visitors. The challenge course, which currently features elements like a Burma Rope Bridge, Swinging Log, and a zip line, is a core component of the camp's mission to develop courage, confidence, and character.

The Whale Watch is a perfect addition to the challenge course. It is a powerful tool that moves beyond individual achievement, compelling 1 girls to practice effective communication and collaborative leadership to achieve a common goal. This will be a permanent, transformative feature for campers for many years.

The project is scheduled to begin in Winter 2025-2026, with installation expected to be

ROBOTIC PETS BRING COMFORT TO SENIORS

County of Morris

Morris County recently distributed robotic companion pets to seniors living in county-supported housing as part of the “Joy for All” Companion Pet Program, sponsored by the Morris County Office on Aging, Disabilities and Community Programming and expanded this year to include the Morris County Housing Authority.

The Office on Aging partnered with the Housing Authority in 2025 to broaden the program’s reach to seniors residing in senior housing. As part of the expansion, the Housing Authority received 36 robotic companion pets, 26 of which have already been distributed to residents age 60 and older.

The companion pet program was launched in 2024 to help reduce social isolation, loneliness and cognitive decline among older adults by providing the comfort and companionship of a pet without the responsibilities associated with caring for a live animal. In its first year, the program distributed 110 robotic companion pets to eligible residents and facilities throughout Morris County and partnered with the Morris County Sheriff’s Office Project Lifesaver program.

The robotic cats and dogs are designed to respond to motion and touch, offering realistic behaviors such as purring, rolling over, barking and wagging their tails.

“The companion pets have been the focus of rigorous, peer-reviewed studies demonstrating their effectiveness in reducing loneliness and social isolation,” said Christine Hellyer, director of the Office on Aging, Disabilities and Community Programming. “Recipients often name their pets and keep them as long as they wish, forming meaningful emotional connections.”

The program is funded through the Aging American Rescue Plan. To qualify, recipients must be at least 60 years old, homebound, and either socially isolated or living with dementia or a similar cognitive condition.

HIGH SCHOOL CHAMBER CHOIR JOINS PEGASUS

At Dorothy Young Center for the Arts, Drew University, Madison, NJ • Saturday, March 21, 2026 • 4:00 PM

The Chatham High School Chamber Choir will take center stage along with the acclaimed professional ensemble Pegasus: The Orchestra during the Third Annual TheraYouth Benefit Concert, taking place on Saturday, March 21 at 4:00 PM at the Dorothy Young Center for the Arts at Drew University.

Led by Choral Director Kenneth Bryson, the Chatham High School Chamber Choir is a dynamic ensemble of talented student singers that has earned regional and national recognition. Over the past two years, the choir has performed in the East Wing of the White House, opened a New York Mets–Miami Marlins game by singing the National Anthem at Citi Field, and most recently gave performances at the Empire State Building and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Their participation in this concert highlights the Choir’s commitment to musical excellence, community engagement, and service through the arts.

The Chamber Choir will present a featured interlude during the program, offering audiences a powerful moment of youth artistry within an afternoon of professional orchestral performance. Their appearance underscores the event’s mission of uniting musicians across generations to support children in need.

Pegasus: The Orchestra, founded in 2017 by pianist, conductor, and composer Karén

Hakobyan, is known for its distinctive artist-led approach. Its internationally recognized musicians interact One young child arrived at the clinic with severely weakened neck muscles after spending months on an Early Intervention waiting list until his pediatrician referred him to TheraYouth. As he grew larger without access to therapy, his condition risked becoming untreatable, threatening his ability to crawl, walk, or develop independently. At TheraYouth, he began individualized physical therapy focused on strengthening his neck and core. After just four months of treatment, he could lift his head, push up on his hands, crawl, and eventually walk, catching up to his peers and overcoming a barrier that once endangered his future mobility. Stories like his reflect the life-changing impact that timely, appropriate care can have on a child’s development and independence. as a collective of artist leaders rather than a traditional section-based orchestra, creating performances of exceptional clarity, immediacy, and expressive intensity. The New York Concert Review calls

Pegasus “a truly first-rate ensemble” and a “can’t miss” for audiences.

The program begins with the rousing Haydn’s Symphony No. 59 (“Fire”), followed by the delicate Three Armenian Miniatures by Komitas. Acclaimed GRAMMY-nominated cellist Sergey Antonov, described by The Washington Post as “destined for cello superstardom,” follows with Saint-Saëns’ Cello Concerto No. 1, where the audience can truly appreciate his masterful playing in the intimate chamber orchestra setting. Pegasus’s program continues with the soulful elegance of Rachmaninoff’s Vocalise before concluding with Gershwin’s Rhapsody in Blue, capturing the spirit of American jazz in an exuberant finale.

Proceeds from the concert will benefit the TheraYouth Foundation, a nonprofit founded by Dr. Irina Marcoff, DPT, which provides physical, occupational, and speech therapy to children who face barriers to accessing care at the Arlene S. Chasek Clinic in Elizabeth NJ. Since its opening in 2023, over 170 children have been treated, with over 300 children on its waitlist.

“Having the Chatham High School Chamber Choir participate in this event reflects the power of community coming together to support children’s health and independence,” said Dr. Marcoff. “Their voices help amplify our mission in a truly meaningful way.”

OPERA AT FLORHAM PRESENTS VALENTINE SERENADE

Lenfell Hall, The Mansion, Fairleigh Dickinson University (285 Madison Ave, Madison, NJ) • Sunday, February 15, 2026 at 2:00 PM

Opera at Florham invites audiences to celebrate Valentine's Day weekend with a concert of love on stage: Valentine Serenade, a special Sunday afternoon concert on February 15, 2026 at 2:00 pm at Lenfell Hall, The Mansion, Fairleigh Dickinson University (285 Madison Ave, Madison, NJ 07940).

Featuring beloved Opera at Florham favorites Sarah Barrera, Soprano, and Pedro Barrera, Tenor, this program showcases a married couple united on and off the stage, whose shared artistry brings rare intimacy and authenticity to every performance. The concert unfolds as a cinematic emotional journey - exploring love, longing, joy, and farewell through music that resonates deeply with the heart.

In past performances, the Barreras have captivated audiences with repertoire ranging from Giuseppe Verdi, Giacomo Puccini, and Charles Gounod to Ennio Morricone, Stephen Sondheim, and other modern favorites, seamlessly bridging Opera, theater, and film in performances that are both emotionally rich and theatrically compelling.

WHY YOU CAN'T MISS IT

- A rare opportunity to hear a married couple perform together, bringing genuine intimacy and emotional authenticity to the stage

- A cinematic, story-driven program that goes beyond a traditional recital
- A unique blend of Opera, musical theater, and film music
- Performed in the elegant, intimate setting of Lenfell Hall at The Mansion, perfect for a Valentine's weekend experience

JASMIN MORIN AND HER SONS, ALEXANDER AND FRANCIS GRADUATE FROM CIVIL AIR PATROL GROUND SEARCH & RESCUE SCHOOL

Curtiss-Wright Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol

During summer break 2025, Livingston resident Jasmin Morin and her sons, Alexander and Francis, graduated from the 2025 New Jersey Ground Search and Rescue (GSAR) School operated by Civil Air Patrol's New Jersey Wing. The Morins, who have resided in Livingston for the past five years, are all members of the local Curtiss-Wright Composite Squadron. They were among the 24 graduates of the summer GSAR School hosted on Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst from August 9 to August 16, 2025.

Cadet Chief Master Sergeant Francis Morin (16) is a junior, while his brother Cadet 2nd Lieutenant Alexander Morin (14) is a freshman. First Lieutenant Jasmin Morin is a 25-year employee of the Federal Reserve System.

A cornerstone of the Civil Air Patrol's emergency services mission, the weeklong GSAR immersion training helped CAP members earn qualifications for Ground Team Member 3, Ground Team Member 2, and Urban Direction Finding. The Morin family and other students completed online prerequisites before attending in-person classroom sessions and field exercises, culminating in a two-day, overnight field training exercise. Emergency services readiness ensures CAP members are ready to support communities in need after a natural disaster or other community emergency.

"GSAR school is where our future ground team specialists take their first big step," said Col. Amy Myzie, commander of the New Jersey Wing. "The training here combines field readiness with real-world mission skills, ensuring our teams are prepared to assist whenever and wherever we're needed."

Over the past four decades, New Jersey Wing

GSAR School has become one of Civil Air Patrol's premier emergency services schools, producing mission-qualified graduates who support search and rescue, disaster relief, and homeland security missions.

A FAMILY COMMITMENT

The Morins have been active members of Curtiss-Wright Composite Squadron (Fairfield, NJ) since 2023. Jasmin Morin serves as the squadron's Cyber Education Officer, where she leads teenage members through national competitions and other activities designed to spark interest and foster career paths in the cybersecurity industry. She is also the Assistant Deputy Commander of Cadets and works closely with the unit's roster of 54 teenage members.

In addition to executing their squadron duty positions, the two Morin brothers recently completed leadership training at New Jersey Wing's Non-Commissioned Officer Cadet Academy and in the Advanced Cadet Squadron at New Jersey Wing's Basic Encampment, a one-week immersion program focused on teamwork, personal growth, cybersecurity, and aerospace. The cadets also attended a one-week Civil Air Patrol Engineering Technology program held at Middle Tennessee State University (Tennessee).

"The Morin family's commitment to the missions of CAP is a great example of the enthusiasm we seek to ignite in all our members," said Lt. Col Carol McCloud, the commander of the Curtiss-Wright Squadron. "A family's relationship with CAP usually begins with a teen's interest in aviation or rocketry, and quite often it blossoms into a family's expression of community service. Parents and teens end up working side by side and independently on the missions of CAP — to make our communities stronger and safer."

In 2024, New Jersey communities benefited more than $6.7 million in community service value from CAP New Jersey Wing members (approximately 600 adult members and 954 teen members).

ABOUT CIVIL AIR PATROL

The Civil Air Patrol is the longtime auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force and, as such, is a valued member of its Total Force. In its auxiliary role, CAP operates a fleet of 560 single-engine aircraft and 1,550 small Unmanned Aircraft Systems. It performs about 90% of continental U.S. inland search and rescue missions.
