LIBERTY PLAYERS PRESENT FIDDLER ON THE ROOF MAR 6-7

Broadway classic, Fiddler on the Roof. This heartwarming and powerful musical will take the stage for two nights only: March 6 and March 7, 2026, at 6:00 p.m.

Set in the little village of Anatevka, Fiddler on the Roof centers on Tevye, a poor dairyman, and his five daughters. With the help of a tight-knit Jewish community, Tevye tries to protect his daughters and instill them with traditional values in the face of changing social mores and the growing anti-Semitism of Czarist Russia.

"This story is about more than just a specific time and place; it's about family, resilience, and the struggle to hold onto one's identity in a changing world," says Adam Abouzeid who plays Tevye. "Our students have worked tirelessly to bring the humor and the heartbreak of Anatevka to life."

The production features iconic songs such as "Tradition," "If I Were a Rich Man," and "Sunrise, Sunset." Audiences can expect a high-energy performance featuring the talented student actors, musicians, and technicians of the Thomas Jefferson Arts Academy.

Thomas Jefferson Arts Academy is dedicated to fostering creative excellence and providing students with professional-level experience in the performing and visual arts. The Liberty Players represent the academy's premier theater ensemble.

ALL CHILDREN INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN PINEWOOD DERBY

The excitement is building for the Cub Scouts of Pack 23 as they get ready for the annual Pinewood Derby. Scouts are given a kit that includes a block of wood, plastic wheels and axles. With help from a parent or other adult, they transform those parts into a race car and then race it against their friends' cars, down a 30-foot long track. Trophies are presented to the winners.

Pack 23 would like to invite all boys and girls, from Kindergarten to the 5th grade, to join in the fun, even if they are not in Cub Scouts! The Pinewood Derby race will be held on Sunday, March 8, in Saint Genevieve's Church hall, 200 Monmouth Road, Elizabeth, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Derby kits cost $5 each and can be requested from Cubmaster Dan Bernier at 908-451-1948.

The Scouting program at St. Genevieve's Church teaches character, citizenship and physical fitness to the youth of Elizabeth and surrounding towns. New members are welcome at any time, all year round. For more details, please contact Dan Bernier, Scoutmaster, at (908) 451-1948 or webfootroop@gmail.com.

BOY SCOUTS NOW SELLING PALM CROSSES

(above) Palm crosses which were traditionally placed on graves are now also being used to decorate lawns and homes at Easter. Boy Scout Troop 23 will sell palm crosses and Easter flowers at St. Genevieve's Church from March 21 to March 29.

Though traditionally used to decorate graves in the Easter season, palm crosses are now also being used to proclaim the joy of Easter inside and outside of homes as well. Put one on your lawn, hang it on your front door, or place it on your mantel.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 23 will be selling Palm Crosses and Easter flowers outside of St. Genevieve's Church, 200 Monmouth Road, Elizabeth, on the two weekends before Easter. Sales will occur on Saturdays, March 21 & 28, from 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., and on Sundays, March 22 & 29, from 7:15 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Palm crosses can be blessed during any Mass on Palm Sunday weekend.

Cub Scout Pack 23 and Boy Scout Troop 23 have served the youth of St. Genevieve's Parish and the surrounding area for over 60 years. For more details, please contact Dan Bernier, Scoutmaster, at (908) 451-1948 or webfootroop@gmail.com.

AN UNFORGETTABLE NIGHT OF MUSIC TO TRANSFORM YOUNG LIVES

On March 21, Pegasus: The Orchestra will perform with the Chatham High School Chamber Choir in a dazzling benefit concert for the TheraYouth Foundation at the Dorothy Center for Performing Arts at Drew University. Led by accomplished conductor and pianist, Karén Hakobyan, the vibrant program includes Haydn's "Fire" Symphony and a rousing version of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, both composed exclusively for this ensemble. GRAMMY-nominated cellist Sergey Antonov - hailed by The Washington Post as "destined for cello superstardom" - will bring his soaring tone and formidable technique to Saint-Saëns' Cello Concerto No.1. All proceeds support pediatric medical therapy for disadvantaged youth. Normally this ensemble performs in New York City theaters so tickets are a steal at $41-$61 and can be purchased at therayouth.org.

TERAYOUTH CELEBRATES THREE YEARS OF TRANSFORMING CHILDREN'S LIVES

In just three years, the TheraYouth Foundation has become a beacon of hope for families across New Jersey struggling to secure essential therapy services for their children.

Physical therapist Dr. Irina Marcoff, DPT, founded TheraYouth to address a troubling reality: too many children with treatable conditions were being left behind. Long waitlists for public Early Intervention and school-based services; a shortage of pediatric providers accepting Medicaid; and the high cost of private therapy (often exceeding $125 per session); placed critical care out of reach for hundreds of families.

"Early therapy can change the entire trajectory of a child's life," says Dr. Marcoff. "But for many families, access is the greatest barrier."

At its Elizabeth, NJ clinic, TheraYouth provides affordable physical, occupational, and speech therapy to disadvantaged children, more than 90% of whom rely on Medicaid. Since its inception, over 113 patients have "graduated" from therapy by achieving critical developmental milestones.

The impact of timely intervention is undeniable. One young patient, unable to crawl or walk due to congenitally weak neck muscles, faced the risk of permanent disability due to delays in care. After just four months of physical therapy at TheraYouth, he graduated from treatment, able to walk normally, transforming his future.

Unfortunately, demand continues to outpace resources with more than 400 children on TheraYouth's waitlist for services. The foundation operates entirely through donations, community partnerships, and fundraisers.

On March 21st, TheraYouth will host a benefit concert to raise vital funds for pediatric therapy services. Help transform the lives of New Jersey's most vulnerable children through buying a ticket, or through a donation at www.therayouth.org.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HIT "PAUSE"?

The parishes of St. Bartholomew the Apostle, Immaculate Heart of Mary in Scotch Plains along with the Church of the Little Flower Berkley Heights and St. James the Apostle Springfield are inviting men of all ages to attend this year's Men's Cornerstone XVII retreat. It will be on Friday March 6th and Saturday March 7th and held at St. Bartholomew in Scotch Plains.

WHAT IS CORNERSTONE?

Cornerstone is an opportunity to hit the "pause button" in life and a chance to renew and strengthen your faith and grow in your experience in the Christian faith. It is led by a team of parishioners from various backgrounds and ages who themselves have experienced an increased presence of Christ in their lives.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND CORNERSTONE?

You will have a unique opportunity to meet other men of the community and together listen, reflect, and share real life experiences. Taking the time to retreat from daily routine and stress is both a necessary and rewarding experience.

WHAT DOES "CORNERSTONE" MEAN?

The word "Cornerstone" describes Christ as the main foundation ("the cornerstone") of our lives. His presence within us allows us to live, grow, and become more loving and vibrant people of God.

What can I expect at Cornerstone? It will begin on Friday evening March 6th at 6 p.m. and end on Saturday evening March 7th after Mass and dinner. There will be talks, followed by small group discussions, time for quiet personal reflection, Reconciliation, and Eucharist.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.

Please visit the web sites of either St. Bartholomew the Apostle at stbartholomewchurch.org/mens-cornerstone or Immaculate Heart of Mary at ihmparish.net. SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ ANNOUNCES MONROE QUINN TRIO

w/opening act Pillars Of Praise children's choir

The Salem Roadhouse Café presents Monroe Quinn Trio and the Pillars Of Praise children's choir on Saturday, March 14, 2026. The doors open at 7:30 p.m., the show starts at 8 p.m. Admission is $20 and includes show, snacks, non-alcoholic beverages, and dessert. The venue is located in Bailey Hall, at Townley Presbyterian Church, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. This year's charity is Townley Church's "Blessing Room", a place where needed items find their way into the hands of needful people. The Blessing room operates in coordination with local and county governments and agencies to put clothing and small household items needed most by families and individuals.

The Pillars Of Praise children's choir is a group of dedicated children under professional direction who harmonize and sing in multi-part harmony. This group performed at the 2024 Townley Church/Roadhouse Café "Sounds of the Season" Christmas show to rave reviews and a standing ovation.

If you like pure, unadulterated jazz instrumentals presented in a classy, intimate nightclub atmosphere, this show is for you! The Monroe Quinn Trio has delighted audiences in the tri-state area with performances of music ranging from the American Songbook to jazz arrangements of pop classics and original works. Monroe is joined by bassist Jose Rodriguez and Michael Advensky on drums. Monroe Quinn began playing professionally at the age of thirteen as part of a musical family that included his father, Joe, a drummer, and his brother, Alan, an exceptional trumpeter, whose own big band would rehearse in their living room. Michael Advensky is a full-time musician and educator who's been performing for the past 4 decades. Throughout his career, he's shared the stage with artists such as Gavin DeGraw, Gloria Gaynor and many more. Jose Rodriguez is a native to New York City and currently resides in Teaneck, NJ. He began piano studies at the age of eight and bass at the age of twelve. Jose earned a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education at New Jersey City University with concentrations in classical and jazz studies. He also worked on a master's degree at S.U.N.Y Purchase Conservatory and concluded his Master's degree at NJCU. Jose established himself as an on-demand freelance bassist on double bass and electric bass over the years and now enjoys an active freelance career.

As always, the Salem Roadhouse Café music is live, intimate, up front, and personal. All ages are welcome.

ABOUT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

It's not "church music." It's music music. Folks who've come to the Salem Roadhouse Café know that it's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music — in a world otherwise filled with clubs and bars. The Roadhouse has always offered its stage to local and independent mainstream musicians. Jazz, rock, folk, and other groups have performed. What's the common thread? They're all great musicians playing the kind of music people like to hear. There's no message, just music.

Now in its 18th year of operation, the Roadhouse started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth. Hey — that's why we're located where we are, 829 Salem Rd, Union, NJ. The Roadhouse operates as a non-profit that raises funds for numerous carefully chosen local charities. That's its social mission.

But the many musicians who've played the Salem Roadhouse Café see it as a solid performance venue. They love it because of its special intimacy and great audiences. They say people here "really listen." Ask any of the musicians you meet here — they love to play the Roadhouse, and they want to come back often.

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, Groundwork Elizabeth and others. Many thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.
