Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Repertory Theatre is thrilled to present Guys and Dolls, the beloved Broadway musical that brings together gamblers, showgirls, and unlikely romances in a colorful, high-energy celebration of love and luck. Featuring music and lyrics by Frank Loesser and based on the classic stories of Damon Runyon, Guys and Dolls is widely regarded as one of the greatest American musicals of all time. Tickets are on sale now at spfhsrep.com.

Set in a vibrant, colorful world of 1950s New York City, Guys and Dolls follows high-rolling gambler Sky Masterson, perpetually engaged gambler Nathan Detroit, and the strong-willed women who challenge their assumptions about love, faith, and redemption. Packed with iconic numbers such as "Luck Be a Lady," "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat," and "A Bushel and a Peck," the show features sharp comedy, touching romance, and infectious music.

"Guys and Dolls is a perfect blend of classic Broadway charm and big-hearted storytelling," shared Director Morgan Knight. "It's joyful, stylish, and endlessly entertaining. Everything fun about classic musical theatre can be found in Guys and Dolls." The production will transform the Manya Ungar Memorial Auditorium into a stylized vision of New York City, complete with bustling street scenes, neon-lit nightclubs, and dynamic choreography. Audiences can expect bold visuals, polished musical performances, and an ensemble-driven production that highlights the talents of SPFHS's student performers and technicians.

Guys and Dolls features over 100 students in the cast, orchestra, and crew, and is guided by a creative team including:

- Morgan Knight (Director)
- Kelly Ruggieri (Producer)
- Brent Geyer (Music Director)
- Kyra Robinson (Choreographer)
- Trey Shore (Orchestra Director)
- Joseph Napolitano (Set Designer)
- Evan Perrotta (Technical Director)
- Christian Confalone (Lighting Designer)
- and Joanne Sprague (Costume Designer)

PRESENTATION FEATURES EIGHT NOTABLE NEW JERSEY WOMEN - MARCH 24TH

Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood

These women, whose names are etched in history, continue to make a significant impact on society. From literature and education to medicine, business and women's rights, their influence and legacy extend far beyond the borders of New Jersey.

Clara Barton, an educator before she became a renowned nurse, opened one of the state's free public schools. Mabel Smith Douglass, the first Dean of NJ College for Women in New Brunswick, was honored with the college's name, Douglass College. Lucy Stone and Alice Stokes Paul were prominent suffragists. However, how many are familiar with the poet Annis Boudinot Stockton or the businesswoman Sara Spencer Washington? Rounding out the list are Mary Philbrook, an accomplished attorney, and Clara Maass, another remarkable nurse.

The Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood is delighted to have Marylou Morano Kjelle present these eight remarkable women, their accomplishments and their profound impact. Kjelle is a well-published author in the children's nonfiction book market and is now venturing into the adult market with two upcoming books in 2026: "Notable Nurses" and "Trauma in the Garden State." Her diverse background includes being a former lecturer, English professor and reporter for the Westfield Leader/Times of Scotch Plains-Fanwood. Given her extensive experience and expertise, she promises to be a dynamic and captivating speaker.

As March is celebrated as "Women's Month," this program is particularly timely. The Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood invites you to attend this free and open-to-the-public meeting. There is no need for registration—just come and join us! The meeting will commence on Tuesday, March 24th starts at 7:30 p.m. and will be held at the historic Shady Rest Golf Club, located at 820 Jerusalem Road (corner of Plainfield Ave.) in Scotch Plains. Refreshments and fellowship will be provided after the presentation. For further information, contact Connie Klock at 908-337-7735.

YOUTH SYMPHONY REHEARSALS FREE AND OPEN TO PUBLIC - MARCH 1-5

The New Jersey Youth Symphony (NJYS), a program of Wharton Arts, invites young musicians and their families to experience the excitement of ensemble music-making during the NJYS Open Rehearsals Week, taking place March 1-5, 2026.

Throughout the week, visitors are welcome to observe live rehearsals of any of NJYS's 15 ensembles, offering a rare behind-the-scenes look at how young musicians collaborate, learn, and grow under the guidance of NJYS's accomplished artistic staff. Open Rehearsals Week is designed for students in grades 2-11 who are curious about joining a youth orchestra or expanding their musical journey.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet NJYS conductors, experience the rehearsal process firsthand, and explore how NJYS nurtures musical excellence, teamwork, and confidence in young performers.

Said Artistic Director and Principal Conductor Helen Cha-Pyo, "At the New Jersey Youth

Symphony, we hold our students to the highest standards of musical excellence and artistry because they are capable of extraordinary things. At the same time, our core mission goes beyond performance. We want our students to experience the profound connection between music and life, and to understand the power of music as a force for service, empathy, and community building. Open Rehearsals Week is an open invitation to parents, educators, and students to step inside our rehearsal rooms, feel the joy of our community, and witness the 'serious fun' that happens when young people make music together with purpose, passion, and heart."

NJYS is one of New Jersey's premier youth orchestra programs, serving talented young musicians from across the region through a comprehensive range of ensembles and educational experiences. Open Rehearsals Week reflects NJYS's commitment to access, education, and artistic excellence.

Attendance is free, but advance registration is encouraged. Registration and additional information available at NJYS.org.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HIT "PAUSE"?

The parishes of St. Bartholomew the Apostle, Immaculate Heart of Mary in Scotch Plains along with the Church of the Little Flower Berkley Heights and St. James the Apostle Springfield are inviting men of all ages to attend this year's Men's Cornerstone XVII retreat. It will be on Friday March 6th and Saturday March 7th and held at St. Bartholomew in Scotch Plains.

WHAT IS CORNERSTONE?

Cornerstone is an opportunity to hit the "pause button" in life and a chance to renew and strengthen your faith and grow in your experience in the Christian faith. It is led by a team of parishioners from various backgrounds and ages who themselves have experienced an increased presence of Christ in their lives.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND CORNERSTONE?

You will have a unique opportunity to meet other men of the community and together listen, reflect, and share real life experiences. Taking the time to retreat from daily routine and stress is both a necessary and rewarding experience.

WHAT DOES "CORNERSTONE" MEAN?

The word "Cornerstone" describes Christ as the main foundation ("the cornerstone") of our lives. His presence within us allows us to live, grow, and become more loving and vibrant people of God.

What can I expect at Cornerstone? It will begin on Friday evening March 6th at 6 p.m. and end on Saturday evening March 7th after Mass and dinner. There will be talks, followed by small group discussions, time for quiet personal reflection, Reconciliation, and Eucharist.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.

Please visit the web sites of either St. Bartholomew the Apostle at stbartholomewchurch.org/mens-cornerstone or Immaculate Heart of Mary at ihmparish.net.
