LASAGNA LOVE: SPREADING KINDNESS WITH FOOD

Florham Park Education Association

On Saturday, February 28th, the Florham Park Education Association hosted its 2nd Annual Lasagna Love cooking event. Volunteers cook and deliver lasagnas for local families in need. The FPEA doubled their goal from last year going from 32 to 60 lasagnas donated to local families, food pantries and homeless shelters. It was an honor to bring together our association members, staff, administrators, police officers and family members to give back to others! A huge shout out to @pizzavitany for their generous donation of ingredients to support our cause!

Lasagna Love is a global, volunteer-driven non-profit that fights food insecurity by connecting neighbors to deliver free, homemade meals. Founded in 2020, it provides a "culinary hug" to families, and individuals. If you or someone you know are in need - please reach out to lasagnalove.org.

POLICE CHIEF CHRISTOPHER CANNIZZO HONORED ON HIS RETIREMENT

County of Morris

Morris County Commissioners Douglas Cabana and Thomas Mastrangelo joined Sheriff James Gannon, the Morris County Police Chiefs Association, East Hanover Police Department officers and community members in honoring East Hanover Police Chief Christopher Cannizzo during a luncheon and walkout retirement ceremony held in January at the East Hanover Police Department, where the commissioners presented Chief Cannizzo with a framed Resolution of Honor recognizing his years of service and commitment to public safety.

Chief Cannizzo retired after more than three decades in law enforcement, having begun his career with the East Hanover Police Department in July 1995. He advanced through the ranks as a patrol officer, DARE officer, Emergency Services Unit operator, sergeant, lieutenant, and was promoted to chief of police in 2016. His final day of service was Feb. 1, when Capt. Christopher Berres assumed the role of chief.

Throughout his career, Chief Cannizzo earned numerous commendations, including seven Excellent Police Duty awards, three Meritorious Police Duty awards, a Unit Citation, and the 200 Club Valor Award. A lifelong East Hanover resident, he has served the community he calls home with professionalism and dedication.

TITAN IS WELCOMED INTO SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Morris County Sheriff's Office

Titan, a five month old Belgian Malinois puppy, joined the Sheriff's Office in December, and is now in training. Titan was surrendered to Mike and Michelle McMahon of Garden State K9 by a client who reported that Titan was too much for the family to manage. Titan was evaluated by Garden State K9 for temperament and workability, and tested for patrol and scent detection work. His evaluation was impressive, and Garden State K9 sought to donate Titan to the Morris County Sheriff's Office to ensure Titan had the proper working environment and the right conditions to thrive.

Titan has been paired with Detective Corporal Marc Adamsky, and began the bonding process and initial training. Training at this age is fun and geared towards building a bold, sociable, and confident puppy. The training will continue until certification is complete in both explosive detection and patrol techniques. Every day the new canine team of Detective Corporal Adamsky and Titan work towards achieving milestones. The drive to succeed is highly based on food and toy reward. Titan will learn obedience, tracking, evidence recovery, on and off leash searches for suspects, the odor of explosives, criminal apprehension and handler protection. It is anticipated that Titan will begin working the road and responding to calls for service when he is approximately two years old.

Certifications to ensure Titan maintains expected performance standards will be completed through evaluations by both the Morris County Sheriff's Office and the United States Police Canine Association. Once certifications and high quality performance have been achieved, Titan is slated to replace Detective Corporal Adamsky's current partner, Canine Tim, who is nearly nine years old. Tim is trained in narcotics detection and patrol techniques and serves alongside Detective Corporal Adamsky with the Sheriff's Emergency Response Team. Canine Tim is a very accomplished canine partner. The Morris County Sheriff's Office operates with seven canine handlers, and twelve canines trained in multiple disciplines. The Canine Section has responded to 742 calls for service through the month of November. Titan is expected to perform at the same high level of success that Tim has achieved. Everyone at the Sheriff's Office is ready and waiting with excitement and anticipation to see the great things Titan will accomplish.
