

BOY SCOUT TROOP 23 CAMPS ON STATEN ISLAND

The William H. Pouch Scout Camp is a forested oasis surrounding a pond in the middle of Staten Island. When Boy Scout Troop 23 spent a weekend there in the middle of February, it was hard for them to tell that they were in one of the five boroughs of New York City.

The Scouts stayed in Black Oak Cabin, where they learned about the safe use of a knife and ax, as well as other outdoor skills. The Scouts took turns cooking and cleaning up from four meals, including French toast, chicken fajitas and cheesesteak sandwiches. They even baked brownies in a Dutch oven in the cabin's fireplace.

Boy Scout Troop 23, sponsored by St. Genevieve's Church of Elizabeth, welcomes any boys who are at least 11 years old or graduated from the fifth grade to join them on upcoming camping trips and hikes, a 4-day trip on Memorial Day weekend, and a week-long summer camp in July. Contact Scoutmaster Dan Bernier at 908-451-1948 or webfootroop@gmail.com for more details.

BOY SCOUTS EARN GOLD NUGGETS IN ANNUAL KLONDIKE DERBY

Many years ago, men raced by means of dogs and sledges across the frozen wastes of Alaska in search of gold. The Scouting America program capitalized on this theme and developed the Klondike Derby as an exciting annual event. Scouts pull a sled full of equipment over a field course in the Watchung Reservation to simulated towns, where the Scouts are challenged to solve problems using Scouting skills, such as firebuilding, first aid, and orienteering.

On February 28, the Flaming Arrow and Red Eye Crow Patrols of Boy Scout Troop 23,

sponsored by St. Genevieve's Church of Elizabeth, competed against 27 other sled teams in the Pioneer District Klondike Derby. Under the direction of Patrol Leaders Alex B. and Michael R., the Scouts earned gold nuggets by solving 8 problems and cooking a hot lunch. The Flaming Arrows were awarded a plaque for having the second highest score in the senior Scouts division.

Troop 23 welcomes any boys who are at least 11 years old or graduated from the fifth grade to join them. Contact Scoutmaster Dan Bernier at 908-451-1948 or webfootroop@gmail.com for more details.

CUB SCOUTS LEARN TO FISH

Cub Scout Pack 23, sponsored by St. Genevieve's Church in Elizabeth, attended a fishing seminar on March 3 at the Kenilworth Veterans Center. The seminar was conducted by the Newark Bait and Fly Casting Club, and included instruction about freshwater fishing, salt water fishing and fly tying.

Some Cub Scouts even won fishing poles and fishing tackle to take home! They are now looking forward to taking part in a fishing tournament in Echo Lake Park in April.

Cub Scout Pack 23 provides activities and training for boys and girls in Kindergarten through fifth grade. Boy Scout Troop 23 is for boys who are at least 11 years old or graduated from the fifth grade. New members are welcome at any time, all year round. For more details, please contact Dan Bernier, Scoutmaster, at (908) 451-1948 or webfootroop@gmail.com.

SCHOOL NO. 12 HOSTS LIVE MUSEUM

Elizabeth Public Schools

Elmora School No. 12 hosted its annual Live Museum in celebration of African American History Month.

Two students from each homeroom were assigned to research an African American individual who made a meaningful impact on the world. The students dressed as their chosen historical figures and memorized their stories.

As guests walked through the "museum," they tapped each student's picture, bringing the historical figure to life through a live presentation.

The school chorus, directed by Sara Edreira Fidalgo, performed "Lift Every Voice and Sing" and "Lean on Me." The school band, directed by Bruna Esteves, played "Wade in the Water."

Students from Wil Horner's Drama

Class reenacted the story of Rosa Parks, highlighting her bravery and lasting impact on the Civil Rights Movement.

Among those in attendance were Mayor Bollwage, members of the Elizabeth Board of Education, Commissioners Jerry Jacobs, Charlene Bathelus, and Stephanie Clervoyant-Noel, Councilwoman Patricia Perkins, as well as many parents and grandparents who came to support the students.

Board of Education Commissioners addressed the students and guests, reminding everyone that "African American history is American history!"

The event was a powerful and inspiring celebration of culture, resilience, and achievement.
