YWCA NORTHERN NEW JERSEY HONORED DURING WOMEN'S HISTORY

Town of Morristown

YWCA Northern New Jersey (YWCANNJ) was honored by the Morristown Mayor and Council with a Women's History Month proclamation recognizing the organization's transformative impact helping women across northern New Jersey overcome adversity, achieve economic independence, and build stronger futures.

For more than a century, YWCA Northern New Jersey has helped women at critical turning points in their lives, whether recovering from trauma, returning to the workforce, or seeking stability for themselves and their families. Each year, thousands of women across Morris, Hudson, Passaic, Bergen, and Essex counties, including many in Morristown, rely on the organization's programs and services.

"We are deeply honored to be recognized by Morristown during Women's History Month," said Helen Archontou, CEO of YWCA Northern New Jersey. "Every day, we work with women who are determined to move forward as they find employment, heal from trauma, and create new opportunities for themselves and their families. This recognition reflects their strength and the importance of ensuring women have access to the resources and support they need to succeed."

Through its Women of the Workforce equity initiative, programs such as YW WE360° Business Essentials Program, YW Tech Lab, and its annual Career Expo connect women with career coaching, job training, and employers actively hiring to help participants secure meaningful employment and long-term stability. The organization's Reentry Support Services helps women returning from incarceration rebuild their lives by providing case management, employment assistance, and housing connections.

YWCA Northern New Jersey also provides critical support for survivors through healingSPACE, Bergen County's only sexual violence resource center, which offers a 24-hour confidential hotline, counseling, and advocacy. Through Operation Sisterhood, the organization supports women veterans with mental health services, career readiness training, and specialized support for those recovering from military sexual trauma.

In addition, the organization recently launched New Jersey's first Center for Racial Healing, expanding access to culturally responsive mental health care. YWCANNJ's groundbreaking Know Your Employee Rights initiative equips women with tools to protect themselves in the workplace, helping them recognize and respond to discrimination, harassment, and inequity.

Beyond workforce and trauma services, the organization supports families through affordable childcare, youth development programs, and STEM initiatives that empower young girls to pursue careers in fields where women remain underrepresented.

As YWCA Northern New Jersey looks to the future, its mission remains as urgent as ever: ensuring that every woman, regardless of her circumstances, has access to the resources, support, and opportunities she needs to thrive.

ABOUT YWCA NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

For over a century, YWCA Northern New Jersey has improved the lives of thousands of women, girls, and families and is on the forefront of the fight against gender and racial discrimination. We work to build more just and inclusive communities through programs for women and girls, anti-racism training, and policy advocacy. We operate healingSPACE, Bergen County's only Sexual Violence Resource Center (hotline number: 201-487-2227) and provide year-round child care, and senior wellness programs. YWCA Northern New Jersey serves Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Morris, and Passaic counties. To learn more, visit ywcannj.org and follow @ywcannj on social media.

OVER $11K IN GRANTS AWARDED TO THE MORRIS SCHOOL DISTRICT

Morris Educational Foundation

The Morris Educational Foundation (MEF) is proud to announce that a new round of grants totaling $11,600 has been awarded to enrich the educational experience of students in the Morris School District. These grants fund programs and resources not covered by the school budget or tax dollars and bridge gaps to ensure students have access to exceptional learning opportunities that extend far beyond the classroom.

With this latest round of grants, the Foundation has awarded over $100,000 this school year to date, thanks entirely to the continued generosity of donors.

The following grants were awarded at the January 12th Morris School District Board of Education meeting:

ONE GOOD SCENE SCRIPTWRITING

A professional scriptwriter and actors will visit Morristown High School to guide advanced Creative Writing students in crafting and performing original short dialogue scenes, strengthening their storytelling and communication skills.

WRITERS CIRCLE WORKSHOPS

Third-graders District-wide will participate in Writers Circle Workshops, which will provide interactive, confidence-building creative writing experiences that inspire a lasting love of storytelling.

MORRISTOWN HIGH SCHOOL ACADEMICS

A generous donor has designated two separate grants to support the Morristown High School Chemistry and Math Departments, reinforcing continued community commitment to academic excellence.

“These grants reflect what’s possible when a community invests in its children,” said Ann Rhines, MEF Grants Chair and former teacher and member of the Morris School District Board of Education. “As an educator, I’ve seen firsthand how experiences like these ignite curiosity, build confidence, and create meaningful connections to learning. The MEF is proud to support programs that enrich classrooms and expand opportunities for every student.”

Through strategic partnerships and the generosity of donors, the MEF continues to fund innovative programs that enhance education in all ten Morris School District schools. Highlights and updates from these programs are shared on the Foundation’s social media pages, celebrating the real impact of community support.

Additional grants will be awarded in March and May of 2026. The MEF encourages community members to contribute to its 180 Days of Impact campaign, where every donation, large or small, delivers transformative opportunities, inspiration and growth.

SPRING BLOOMS RETURN TO THE GARDEN AT MACCULLOCH HALL HISTORICAL MUSEUM

As spring arrives, the historic garden at Macculloch Hall Historical Museum, located at 45 Macculloch Avenue in Morristown, NJ, begins its annual transformation, offering visitors a season-long display of colorful blooms from early April through early summer.

The garden's bloom season begins in early April with tulips and daffodils, followed by the striking blossoms of redbud trees in mid-April. In late April and early May, visitors can experience the museum's historic wisteria, along with peonies and magnolias in bloom. The season concludes in late May and early June with a vibrant display of roses—roses, and more roses.

Courtesy Photo

Because the garden evolves week by week, visitors are encouraged to return often and experience the changing landscape as new blooms appear throughout the season.

The gardens at Macculloch Hall Historical Museum are open to the public free of charge seven days a week from 8:00 a.m. until dusk, offering a welcoming space for residents and visitors to enjoy nature in the heart of Morristown.

Guests are invited to stop by for a morning walk, a quiet afternoon break, or an evening stroll while discovering what's blooming in the historic garden.

NJ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA TO PERFORM ONE THOUSAND AND ONE NIGHTS

The New Jersey Festival Orchestra brings its season to a close with One Thousand and One Nights, an evening shaped by storytelling, imagination, and the vivid orchestral palette of two beloved works. Performances will take place on Saturday, May 30, at 7:00 pm at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield, and Sunday, May 31, at 2:30 pm at the Sieminski Theater in Basking Ridge.

The program pairs the elegance of Joaquín Rodrigo with the sweeping narrative of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov, inviting audiences into a world where music and myth intertwine. At its center is internationally acclaimed Slovak guitarist Karol Samuelčík, whose appearance is presented in collaboration with the Slovak American Cultural Center.

Samuelčík takes the stage in Rodrigo's Fantasia para un gentilhombre, a work that draws from Spanish baroque dances and unfolds with graceful lyricism and rhythmic vitality. The guitar's voice, at once intimate and radiant, moves fluidly between courtly refinement and expressive brilliance.

A seasoned international performer, Samuelčík has appeared across Europe, Asia, and the Americas, with engagements at venues including London's Purcell Room and Shenzhen Concert Hall. A prizewinner of numerous competitions and a professor at the Academy of Music and Performing Arts in Bratislava, he is equally recognized for his scholarship, including a landmark publication on guitar technique in 2022.

The program culminates in Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, a work long associated with the fantastical tales of One Thousand and One Nights. Though the composer ultimately removed explicit programmatic titles, the music retains its narrative spirit; waves swell and recede, melodies shimmer and twist, and the orchestra becomes a storyteller in its own right. Echoes of distant voyages, whispered secrets, and unfolding drama emerge through richly layered textures and luminous orchestration.

Together, these works form a fitting close to the season: a journey that moves from the refined intimacy of the guitar to the expansive storytelling power of the full orchestra.

Tickets are available at www.njfestivalorchestra.org/concerts or by calling (908) 232-9400.
