LIBRARY TO HOST TWO CONCERTS IN APRIL

Friends of the New Providence Memorial Library

In April the New Providence Memorial Library will have another double feature of free community musical performances on April 12th we host the talented Jazz group, Bradford Hayes Trio for the first time; and on April 26th, the Concord Singers, back by popular demand. Both concerts will begin at 3:00 p.m.

APRIL 12TH AT 3 P.M. - BRADFORD HAYES

Bradford Hayes, a Dinwiddie County, Virginia native, is a veteran jazz saxophonist who has appeared at venues including Birdland and the Beacon Theatre in New York and L'Entrepot in Paris. He has performed with artists such as Jimmy Heath, Rufus Reid, Ray Bryant, Dr. Lonnie Smith and others, and his band has shared bills with Gerald Albright, Betty Carter, Joe Henderson and Max Roach, among many more. Hayes spent 15 years with Babatunde Olatunji's Drums of Passion and was photographed by William Gottlieb for what became the legendary jazz photographer's final session. He has also collaborated with the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra and performed at NJPAC with pianist Steve "Adegoke" Colson. Hayes holds a B.S. in Music Education from North Carolina A&T State University and studied privately with George Coleman and Charles Davis. His latest recording, The Jazz Life, continues to receive rave reviews. Bradford has also recorded two other CDs entitled "Bianca's Dance" & "Our Fathers" and is also featured on a compilation CD released by BMG Direct entitled "A Jazz Discovery Showcase." WBGO's Dorothea Kirk says Hayes is "a musician who deserves more recognition." Join us on April 12th at 3 p.m. in the Conti Room.

APRIL 26TH AT 3 P.M. - THE CONCORD SINGERS

Later this month the New Providence Library will host a special concert, featuring The Concord Singers. This community-based women's chorus located in Summit, provides a musical home to both novice and experienced singers. Members come from a wide range of ages, professions and backgrounds, and hail from 23 towns across NJ. Their repertoire is varied and includes secular and sacred music from composers ranging from classical to modern. Join us on Sunday, April 26 at 3 p.m. in the Conti Room.

CELEBRATE AMERICA 250!

Let's get excited for America's 250th birthday in 2026! New Providence's America 250 committee aims to bring our town's Revolutionary history into focus, offering residents and visitors a chance to discover, engage, and celebrate the stories that shaped our community. In partnership with local businesses and organizations, we're creating programs and events that help us connect with our past, celebrate today, and inspire our future. Join us for two very special events

The Liberty Tree Lanterns movement; ALL YEAR invites residents, schools, and businesses to add lanterns to their property and keep them shining throughout 2026. Our goal is for New Providence to shine brightly.

Revered Caldwell Day: April 18, 2026: SAVE THE DATE! Reverend Caldwell Charity Drive Day: First annual community charity drive honoring Rev. Caldwell's historic work to support Washington's troops. The Book Sale is a vital community event and the primary fundraiser for the Summit College Club each year. Proceeds are used to provide college scholarships to deserving young women from local high schools who will be attending a 4-year college, and to women returning to a local community college after a break in their education. Since its inception, the Summit College Club Foundation has awarded hundreds of scholarships totaling over $1 million, reinvesting those funds in the community.

Thanks to the generosity and interest of the local community, our book sale has thrived, even with the growing popularity of online alternatives to books and print media. Community members contribute by donating books and other media, as well as volunteering their time. The Summit College Club is grateful for these volunteers who help with various tasks, including receiving and sorting books before the sale, assisting customers during the event, organizing the book sections, and cleaning up afterward. If you would like to volunteer, please fill out the "Volunteer with Us" form at summitcollegeclub.org/booksale.

All are welcome! For questions about book donations, sales, volunteering, or the Summit College Club and its scholarships, please email summitcollegeclub@gmail.com or go to summitcollegeclub.org.

A DIFFERENT APPROACH TO STRENGTH TRAINING.

THINK MOVEMENTS, NOT MUSCLES.

Preserving your muscle mass and strength is crucial if you want to enjoy an active life. It's what allows you to go skiing with the kids, travel with your spouse, and join the family hike without hesitating or having to worry about your pesky (insert troubled body part here).

Unfortunately for us humans, muscle mass starts to plummet after age 30. You can lose 4-6lbs of muscle tissue every decade if you aren't building strength training into your fitness routine.

That's a Christmas ham's-worth of muscle, gone by the time you're 40. And a family-sized Thanksgiving turkey of muscle that has vanished by your 60th birthday.

Muscle loss is inevitable, UNLESS you're doing something to prevent it. This is where strength training comes in.

With over 600 muscles in the body, it would be impossible to come up with an exercise routine that worked each of them individually. So instead of thinking "what muscles should I be working?" think more along the lines of "what movements should I be working?"

To maintain strength throughout your whole body, you should be addressing these 5 movements in every workout- Squatting, hinging (bending at the hips), upper body pushing, upper body pulling, and core.

Squatting: working on your squat will make it easier for you to sit down on the toilet, get up off the couch, and take a knee to talk to your grandkids. Squatting works the muscles in your feet, shins, knees, thighs and hips, as well as requiring a strong core. Work on full depth squatting or lunging so you can keep your mobility and work dozens of muscles at the same time. Examples: bodyweight squats, lunges, side lunges, single leg squats.

Hinging: hinging primarily works your bum and back of your legs. Keeping strength in this area will make it easy to push the lawnmower, hike uphill, pick up boxes in the basement and climb stairs like a champ. Examples: deadlifts, glute bridges, hamstring curls.

Upper body pushing: using your upper body to push something away (or push yourself away from something) requires dozens of muscles in your arms and shoulders and also calls for a strong core. Ask anyone who has struggled to get their suitcase in the overhead compartment of a plane, upper body strength disappears fast if you aren't working on it. Examples: push ups, overhead presses, medicine ball chest passes.

Upper body pulling: this is the most challenging movement to work on outside of a gym setting, and it's probably the one we need most to improve posture and back/shoulder health. Pulling works the muscles in the arms and back, will help you avoid shoulder pain, and may even make you look taller to your friends (because of your improved posture).

Examples: rows, chin ups/chin up variations, vertical hang.

Core: a strong core is the foundation of creating strong movements. All strong movements go through a strong, stable core. If your core is weak, all other movements will be weak as well. Like they say, "you can't shoot a cannon from a canoe." Maintaining core strength means you'll have better spine health, less back pain, and the potential to improve strength across your entire body. Examples: planks, side planks, suitcase carries.

Check these 5 boxes with every workout and you'll be well on your way to keeping your muscle mass, maintaining your freedom, and being the happiest, healthiest, most active version of yourself.

If you want to incorporate more strength training into your routine, but you aren't sure how to do it, scan the QR code and you'll receive a FREE:

- 1-on-1 consultation with a certified personal trainer
- Personalized strength training program so you know the movements that are right for you, even if you have an injury, aches and pains, or limitations you need to work around
- 14 Days of unlimited sessions with a professional trainer who will teach you proper form and help you make quick progress

SHE WAS A 48-YEAR-OLD MOM FROM BERKELEY HEIGHTS... TERRIFIED TO WEAR A LITTLE BLACK DRESS AT HER DAUGHTER'S WEDDING - UNTIL THIS HAPPENED

When guests gathered for a recent summer wedding in town, expectations were clear: a beautiful bride, proud parents, heartfelt speeches, and a lively dance floor.

What no one expected was that one of the most talked-about moments of the night would involve the bride's mother.

As Helen, 48, walked down the aisle in a fitted dress with a tastefully exposed back, heads turned. Conversations paused. By the time the reception was underway, it was clear this mother of the bride had made an impression few would forget.

It wasn't just that she looked great. She looked strong. Defined. Confident. Guests kept asking the same question throughout the night:

What does she do to look like that?

That question is how this story begins.

FROM TIRED, SOFT AND WEAK TO STRONG, LEAN AND CONFIDENT

A few years ago, Helen was not the woman people were buzzing about at a wedding. "I was tired all the time," Helen said. "My back hurt, my knees hurt, and I just felt older than I was.

I was in my late 40s, yes — but I felt like that was my whole identity."

Like many adults in their 40's 50s and 60s, Helen assumed aches, pains, and declining energy were simply the cost of aging. Exercise felt intimidating and confusing. Big gyms felt impersonal. Working out on her own felt unsafe.

"I didn't know what I should be doing, and I was afraid of hurting myself, so I just did nothing," she said.

A friend introduced her to a local personal training gym in Berkeley Heights, and she started with a free trial.

"I was so scared. I didn't walk in thinking I'd change my body," Helen said. "I was just hoping I could finally find a program that was right for me and do something for my health consistently."

THE UNKNOWN WORKOUT PLAN THAT CHANGED THE GAME

What Helen found was not a room full of treadmills and mirrors, but a personalized fitness program led by highly knowledgeable personal trainers who specialize in working with adults ages 40–60.

Helen didn't need anything extreme — she needed the right program and the right support.

She started with two days per week. As her energy improved and her pain decreased, she gradually built up to three days per week. Each workout was done in a small-group setting, allowing for personalized coaching without the pressure or cost of one-on-one training.

"The accountability mattered," Helen said. "If I didn't show up, someone noticed. And if something hurt, they adjusted things immediately."

REDEFINING WHAT SOMEONE IN THEIR 40s CAN LOOK AND FEEL LIKE

Over time, the changes added up. Helen lost body fat. She gained muscle. More importantly, she gained confidence.

"I stopped thinking about what I couldn't do... and started thinking about what was next."

Years later, Helen is still a member and has even become a Grandma! She lifts weights people half her age shy away from. She moves pain-free. She keeps up with her grandchildren - and sometimes outpaces them.

So when her daughter's wedding approached, Helen didn't think twice about wearing the dress she loved.

"I didn't choose it to show off," she laughed. "I chose it because I felt good in my own skin."

The reaction at the wedding told the rest of the story.

A LOCAL SECRET GETS PUBLIC

As word spread, one question kept coming up again and again:

What is the secret workout plan that's making her look that good?

The answer was simple: Gabriele Fitness — a small community personal training gym right in Berkeley Heights.

Helen's transformation didn't come from crash diets or marathon workouts. It came from consistency, expert coaching, and a supportive environment designed for real people — not fitness models.

FEELING BETTER AT 48 THAN SHE DID AT 28

Helen's story may have started with wedding buzz, but it's really about something deeper: what's possible when people stop accepting decline as inevitable.

"I wish I had started sooner because I feel better at 48 than I did at 28," Helen said. "But I'm grateful I started when I did."

A personal and confidential message from Helen to anyone on the fence about getting started.

"Ladies, having a personal trainer changed my life. Without a trainer, I never would have come close to looking and feeling this good. I tried so many times on my own and failed. I know it's hard to get started — I was scared myself. But if you find an amazing gym like I did (Gabriele Fitness), it changes everything.

The funny thing is, on the front door of the gym there's a sign that reads, 'You just did the hard part. We'll take it from here.' And I truly believe that if you find a place you trust, that genuinely cares about you, and you show up consistently, you'll get into the best shape of your life.

For me, being in great shape has made my entire life so much better. I'm happier, stronger, full of energy... and my workouts are the reason."

For those who see themselves in Helen — those who feel older, weak, tired, stressed, struggling to burn fat, and are secretly starting to believe their best years are behind them — Read This:

Gabriele Fitness has opened 13 spots for local residents to experience their personal training program...FREE for 14 days. The offer expires on April 1st and is available to only 13 people.

P.S. Many people reading this article will be inspired by Helen... yet still feel hesitant to try the program. With anything new, there's always uncertainty — especially with something like a new fitness routine. But if you're not working out right now, or you've been inconsistent (like most people) you've read the exact article you needed to read today because...

Gabriele Fitness has helped thousands of people in this community over the past 18 years. For some, the program has had a life-changing effect, and many members have stayed for nearly two decades.

A large number of them are now in the best shape of their lives (...and 2 decades older) — but they all started in the same place as anyone reading this and considering starting their fitness journey.

If you're still hesitant, visit our website gabrielefitness.com/results for an ocean of success stories from people just like you... who've transformed their lives... and in some cases, the lives of everyone in their family. This is powerful stuff.

WHY GABRIELE FITNESS FOCUSES ONLY ON ADULTS OVER 40

Adults over 40 face a perfect storm of demands that make fitness more critical — and more challenging — than ever before. They're in the prime of their careers, often in leadership roles where the pressure is relentless and the hours are long.

They're raising children or supporting aging parents — sometimes both at the same time. Their stress levels are high, their metabolism is slowing down, and their bodies don't recover like they used to.

Yet this is precisely when they need their health and energy most — to perform at work, to be present for their families, to enjoy the success they've worked so hard to build, and to avoid the chronic diseases that affected their parents' generation.

The cruel irony is that when fitness matters most, it's also when finding time for it feels nearly impossible.

That's why adults over 40 don't need another generic gym membership. They need expert guidance designed specifically for their unique challenges, their busy schedules, and their refusal to accept that their best years are behind them.

CALL FOR ARTISTS - AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL ART SHOW

NPL Friends of the Library

We invite all artists and photographers from New Providence and the surrounding areas to participate in the New Providence Memorial Library's annual Community Art Show, in this milestone year marking the 250th anniversary of our nation. This three-month summer exhibit runs from June through August 2026, and is curated by the Friends of the New Providence Memorial Library. We welcome a mix of two-dimensional framed arts, crafts, and photography created by the public in a celebration of the American Spirit, reflecting our country's landscapes, peoples, and cultures.

We will be taking submissions up to Friday, May 8, 2026, in any medium (painting, photography, drawing, collage ...) and are looking for an artistic expression that captures the spirit and history of our nation. It could range from images of our grand landscapes, to people in American daily life or historical and folk subjects. However, we are only accepting art that can be wired and hung on the wall. We will not be accepting any 3D work for the cabinet, which will be filled instead by the Historical Society.

Brainstorming art ideas for The United States of America's REV250 celebration:

- American landscapes: from wilderness to urban architectural cityscapes
- Scenes, or interiors, depicting urban or rural American life
- Folk crafts, such as barn quilts, showcasing regions and community pride
- Expressions of our country's ideals, struggles, and identity

- Patriotism, reflecting on American pioneer spirit
- American identities, industrial change, regional diversity, and shifting modern times
- Depicting American cultures or historical experiences
- Allegorical representations of a nation through symbols or figures, such as Martin Luther King Jr.

We hope this theme will motivate the artists and crafters in our New Providence community to use your creativity to be a part of this celebration. So grab your camera, paintbrush, fabric and sewing machine, or embroidery thread and get inspired! It's time to start creating!

Please be aware that since it is a public space, the submissions must be appropriate for all ages: no nudity, graphic, or violent images. The number of acceptances of work will be limited by the wall space available for the show and appropriateness for this year's theme.

Please be sure to completely fill out the application form, including the sizes of your entries, and remember to upload a photo of your submission(s).

Thank you,
Louise Wheeler, Lynn Celler, Denise Moser, Beth Spiegel, Joel Francisco, and Joyce Luzzi

42ND ANNUAL QUILT SHOW - APRIL 11

Harvest Quilters of Central NJ will present their 42nd annual Quilt Show on Saturday, April 11, 2026. Sharing the Quilts 42 will be held at the Willow Grove Presbyterian Church, 1961 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains, NJ from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $8 for adults and $3 for children under twelve.

At 10:30 a.m., Katherine Evans will present "My Journey - Stitching Together an International Community of Quilters." Evans' talk will cover her years living in Brazil, Costa Rica and Mexico from 2007 to 2025. She'll highlight her outreach to local women who together developed sewing and design skills creating one-of-a-kind group quilts, many of which will be on display.

Sheridan is an award-winning multidisciplinary artist whose work spans fiber, watercolor, ink, and acrylics. With a lifetime of experience in fabric and fiber arts, she has created quilts, housewares, and costumes, serving as costume mistress for the Union County Academy for the Performing Arts from 2008-2012.

Her fiber art installation "What We Did This Summer," in collaboration with Lauren Reidy, has been on display at the New Jersey Transit Rahway station in the fall/winter of 2025-2026. "I love bold color, an explosion of color shows up in all my art forms," said Sheridan, a retired electrical engineer and technical writer.

Local charities will benefit from drawings for a traditional queen-sized quilt with a modern flair, gift cards and craft themed gift baskets.

In addition to viewing a full array of modern, traditional, art and wall-hanging quilts, attendees can participate in viewer's choice awards, kid's crafting table and vendor sales area.

A tearoom offering lunch, snacks, homemade baked goods, and beverages will benefit Willow Grove Church programs.

WHAT IS THE SECRET TO LONGEVITY?

Flintlocks BSA, Inc.

Studies show that generous people live longer; and that frequent social interaction is important for longevity. Combine them and what do you get? The Flintlocks! On Thursday, February 19, 2026 they celebrated birthdays of two of their members Joe Schott at 104, and George Van Dyke, 90. Another member who is 95 was too shy. Generosity, social interaction, staying active, and doing some good in the world, help with longevity.

The Flintlocks are volunteers who get together every week to have fun and provide manpower to support Scouting. They are not associated with firearms. The name comes from an old device which is still useful, implying that they are old guys who are still useful. They maintain 3 scout camps and two scout shops, have built new buildings, repair older ones, and provide volunteer manpower for scouting activities. By keeping the camps in good shape, it enables the youth to have good experiences with outdoor activities.

The Flintlocks celebrated their 38th year anniversary of service this year. They provide approximately 6,000 hours of volunteer skilled labor at the camps and council activities every year. The Flintlocks BSA, Inc. is a 501c3 consisting of 28 retired scouters who support the Patriot's Path Council (PPC) of Scouting America, (formerly Boy Scouts of America). The PPC serves 11,800 scouts in over 300 scouting units in five counties of northern New Jersey.

The Boy Scouts of America changed their name to Scouting America to reflect the fact that they opened membership to all youth in 2019. There are over 176,000 females in the program, and 8,000 young women have achieved the rank of Eagle Scout to date. The purpose of including girls was to include entire families in the program. The Scouting program focuses on developing good citizens, ethical conduct, learning useful skills and hobbies, exploring careers, and making lifelong friends. The website for the Patriots' Path Council is ppcbsa.org.

Cub Scouts consist of all girl Packs or all boy Packs which include children in kindergarten through 5th grade. Scouts consist of all girl Troops or all boy Troops from 5th grade through age 18. Three additional programs are coed, and go from age 14 up to age 21: Sea Scouts – which focus on learning to run ships; Explorers- which focus on specific careers; and Venture Crew - which go on high adventure trips. To find a scout unit near you, go to the website beascout.org.

The Flintlocks meet every Thursday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Camp Winnebago, 102 Timberbrook Road, Rockaway, NJ. Guests are always welcome.

Their Facebook page show photos of their activities. Google "Flintlocks88". If interested, contact Secretary Dr. Michael Hart drmhart@yahoo.com.
