FLORHAM PARK, NJ 07932

JOE GUERIN NAMED FOURTH OF JULY PARADE GRAND MARSHAL

Florham Park 4th of July Celebration Committee

The Florham Park 4th of July Celebration Committee is proud to announce Florham Park's 69th Annual Fourth of July Parade, widely recognized as the longest continuously running Independence Day parade in New Jersey. This year's theme, "America's Birthday Bash," adds to the excitement as our community comes together to celebrate not only this beloved local tradition, but also America's 250th birthday. The 4th of July celebration is the focal point of Florham Park's Semiquincentennial events.

First organized in 1957 by members of the Florham Park Volunteer Fire Department, the parade has become a cherished local tradition spanning nearly seven decades. The Committee will once again present a full day of activities on Saturday, July 4, 2026, beginning with a ceremony at Fire Company 1 at 9:00 AM, followed by the parade kicking off at approximately 9:30 AM and concluding at the Florham Park Municipal Complex.

The parade's 2026 Grand Marshal, Joe Guerin Jr., is not only a valued member of our community, but also a longtime volunteer whose dedication has helped shape the very celebration we gather to enjoy each Independence Day.

Joe was born and raised in Philadelphia, PA, the oldest of seven children. An avid Philadelphia sports fan, Joe mastered the SEPTA system as a young boy to attend Eagles games at Franklin Field, Phillies games at Connie Mack Stadium, Big 5 college basketball at the Palestra, and Flyers games at the Spectrum.

After attending the University of Scranton, Joe moved to New Jersey to begin a career in financial services. He held roles in actuarial work, municipal bond pricing, systems development, finance, and retirement services, ultimately concluding his career as a fixed income compliance officer.

Following his retirement from financial services, Joe began a second career in municipal tax collection, serving in Florham Park, White Township, Mansfield, and Fanwood.

Encouraged by his in-laws, Joe and Valerie Chauvette, to volunteer with the Florham Park 4th of July Celebration, it quickly became a family affair. Four generations have since participated, including Joe's in-laws, his wife Linda, and their two children, Suzanne and Joseph. Today, even his grandchild, AJ, volunteers at July 4th activities. A cherished photo captures Joe Guerin and a teenaged Suzanne alongside her grandfather serving in the Food Court. It is a testament to the family's long-standing commitment and to the family picnic that remains vital to the event's success.

Joe has also coached his children in baseball and basketball and served on the Recreation Committee, contributing to early planning efforts for what is now Volunteer Park.

He has been involved with Holy Family and the Morris County CYO for more than 25 years and currently serves as Treasurer of the Upper Morris CYO. He also volunteers for three Knights of Columbus organizations, including the McDowell Council, which supports Holy Family and Saint Vincent Martyr.

A dedicated supporter of the Florham Park "Community of Volunteers," Joe currently serves as President of the Florham Park Library Board of Trustees and as Vice Chair of the Florham Park Planning Board.

OPERATION SMILE VOLUNTEER VISITS ROTARY

This summer, Jesse Kramer and Ava Hartman plan to continue their long-term involvement with Operation Smile by Volunteering in Ghana, Nepal, and Thailand. These young women will build upon their prior volunteer experiences to build community partnerships, support sustainable development, and student outreach in these countries. Jesse recently visited a Florham Park Rotary meeting. She underscored the urgent need for increased awareness and timely intervention for children born with cleft lip and palate. That cleft lip and palate are among the most common congenital conditions globally.

In 2025 both Jesse and Ava spent two months in Nepal volunteering at the Kopila Valley Children's Home and School, a non-profit school, children's home, women's cooperative, and women's center. This summer they will continue to lead and support student leadership, fundraising, and efforts to teach locals about clean water using Waves4Water filters.

In Ghana Jesse and Ava will visit traditional schools to speak to students about studying medicine, starting Operation Smile school clubs, and getting involved in local surgical programs.

In Thailand, Jesse and Ava will join the university team of the Operation Smile International Student Leadership Conference. They'll use the opportunities of seeing the lives of students all over the world to inspire other students to go where they are needed, network with speakers and career professionals, and speak on an international stage to inspire the next generation to take action and become advocates for Operation Smile and beyond.

PASSING THE TORCH AT 250: HOW NORTH JERSEY'S NEWEST ENLISTEES CARRY AMERICA'S LEGACY FORWARD

Martha Papson Garcia, Ed.D. (U.S. Army)
Director of Veterans Services, ROTC Liaison,
Fairleigh Dickinson University

Veteran organizations often serve as the backbone of community support for those who have served in the military. Yet, one group is uniquely transforming how America honors its newest service members—before they even don the uniform. While traditional groups like the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and the American Legion focus primarily on veterans returning from conflict, Our Community Salutes (OCS) dedicates its mission entirely to the next generation of patriots: high school seniors stepping into the U.S. Armed Forces.

As communities across the nation prepared for Fourth of July celebrations and looked forward to America's milestone 250th birthday, the work of Our Community Salutes of North Jersey stood as a powerful reminder of what local support truly meant.

Founded in 2009 by educator and Army veteran Dr. Kenneth Hartman, OCS was created to fill an important gap in community recognition. While college-bound seniors receive enthusiastic decision-day applause and student-athletes draw local headlines for signing with sports teams, military enlistees often quietly slip away to basic training without public acknowledgment. Our Community Salutes ensures these young men and women are the first to hear a collective "thank you" from their hometown.

The organization operates on a three-pronged support model. For enlistees, public recognition ceremonies provide resources, mentorship, and a sense of pride to ease their transition into active duty. For families, educational tools, community connections, and peer networks that help parents and siblings navigate the military journey. For communities, a collaborative platform uniting local business leaders, veterans, educators, and elected officials to honor local defenders.

Each spring, the North Jersey chapter of OCS brings this essential mission into focus. Recently, the group hosted its 10th Annual Enlistee Recognition Ceremony at Fairleigh Dickinson University's Florham Campus in Madison, New Jersey.

At this high-profile event, more than 90 high school seniors from across northern New Jersey were honored as they committed to enlist in the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, or National Guard. Surrounded by active-duty military leaders, veterans, local dignitaries, and emotional families, these young patriots received a formal send-off recognizing their induction into the elite "less than 1% club" of Americans who wear the uniform. To further support families, OCS introduced programs like OCS Connect, designed specifically to build community for those at home during their loved ones' military journey.

As America approaches its Semiquincentennial—its 250th birthday—the thread connecting these North Jersey enlistees, today's veterans, and the original patriots of the Revolutionary War becomes profound. It is an unbroken chain of everyday citizens choosing extraordinary sacrifice.

In 1776, the Continental Army was built by farmers, blacksmiths, and tradesmen who swapped civilian tools for muskets to defend the ideal of freedom. Many marched through northern New Jersey, known as the "Crossroads of the Revolution," enduring hardships such as brutal winters in Morris and Bergen counties. Today's veterans have inherited the responsibility of maintaining peace through decades of global conflict. Now, these high school enlistees—stepping onto the same historic Jersey soil—carry forward that legacy by voluntarily safeguarding American liberty. Just as only about 3% of colonists fought for independence, today's service members represent a committed minority protecting the majority.

Many historical battles that were won long ago are celebrated on the Fourth of July. But organizations like Our Community Salutes remind us that freedom is an active, ongoing relay race. By honoring the new generation of military enlistees, OCS ensures that the legacy of American liberty remains vibrant.

The act of honoring veterans isn't just about looking back - it is an investment in the future of the nation. Through grassroots support and community recognition, these young patriots receive a powerful message: their sacrifice is valued, their service is celebrated, and their legacy is America's ongoing story.

FREE 'MUSIC OF LIBERTY' CONCERT - JULY 7

Hanover Wind Symphony

What better place for New Jersey to celebrate the birth of the United States of America than in Morris County, the home of Washington's headquarters and Jockey Hollow?

Join the renowned Hanover Wind Symphony for a free patriotic concert, titled "The Music of Liberty," at 7 p.m., on Tuesday, July 7, outdoors at Ginty Field, 50 Woodland Ave., in Morris Township. This musical tribute to our nation's 250th anniversary is part of the Morris Township Summer Gazebo Series at Ginty Field. Bring a lawn chair or blanket.

"Come celebrate the 250th anniversary of America with the Hanover Wind Symphony," says HWS music director and conductor Matthew Paterno of Parsippany. "Our spirited 'Music of Liberty' concert will have you humming along with patriotic favorites, together with songs that shaped our nation from its founding until now."

Among the pieces to be performed are the following: "Salute to the Armed Forces," by Jari Villanueva; "America the Beautiful," arranger Carmen Dragon; "American Riversongs" by Pierre LaPlante; "American Salute" by Morton Gould; "American Spirit" by Dennis Eveland; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," arranger Peter Wilhousky; "Chester," by William Billings; arranger Jari Villanueva; with Ayden Khan, associate music director, conducting "Chimes of Liberty" by Edwin Franko Goldman; "Concord" by Clare Grundman; "Fanfare 250" by Noah D. Taylor; "Irving Berlin's Songs for America" by Irving Berlin; arranger James Swearingen; "Land of Liberty" by John Wasson; and "The Stars and Stripes Forever" by John Philip Sousa

The Hanover Wind Symphony is a unique extension of the great American tradition of adult music performance. One of only a handful of outstanding community-based adult wind bands in New Jersey, the Hanover Wind Symphony delights audiences of all ages by giving a contemporary twist to traditional favorites. The large orchestra, made up exclusively of woodwind, brass and percussion instruments, embraces as its mission bringing “music to people and people to music.”

For more than 40 years, the Hanover Wind Symphony (HWS) has played to enthusiastic audiences. HWS members are volunteers who share a love for music and a passion for enriching the cultural fabric of the community with the thrill of live wind band performances. By day, HWS members are accountants, engineers, teachers and executives. They come together to connect musically with others, share the enjoyment of music with live audiences, and help mentor the next generation of wind musicians.
