FREE 'MUSIC OF LIBERTY' CONCERT - JULY 7

Hanover Wind Symphony

What better place for New Jersey to celebrate the birth of the United States of America than in Morris County, the home of Washington's headquarters and Jockey Hollow?

Join the renowned Hanover Wind Symphony for a free patriotic concert, titled "The Music of Liberty," at 7 p.m., on Tuesday, July 7, outdoors at Ginty Field, 50 Woodland Ave., in Morris Township. This musical tribute to our nation's 250th anniversary is part of the Morris Township Summer Gazebo Series at Ginty Field. Bring a lawn chair or blanket.

"Come celebrate the 250th anniversary of America with the Hanover Wind Symphony," says HWS music director and conductor Matthew Paterno of Parsippany. "Our spirited 'Music of Liberty' concert will have you humming along with patriotic favorites, together with songs that shaped our nation from its founding until now."

Among the pieces to be performed are the following: "Salute to the Armed Forces," by Jari Villanueva; "America the Beautiful," arranger Carmen Dragon; "American Riversongs" by Pierre LaPlante; "American Salute" by Morton Gould; "American Spirit" by Dennis Eveland; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," arranger Peter Wilhousky; "Chester," by William Billings; arranger Jari Villanueva; with Ayden Khan, associate music director, conducting "Chimes of Liberty" by Edwin Franko Goldman; "Concord" by Clare Grundman; "Fanfare 250" by Noah D. Taylor; "Irving Berlin's Songs for America" by Irving Berlin; arranger James Swearingen; "Land of Liberty" by John Wasson; and "The Stars and Stripes Forever" by John Philip Sousa.

The Hanover Wind Symphony is a unique extension of the great American tradition of adult music performance. One of only a handful of outstanding community-based adult wind bands in New Jersey, the Hanover Wind Symphony delights audiences of all ages by giving a contemporary twist to traditional favorites. The large orchestra, made up exclusively of woodwind, brass and percussion instruments, embraces as its mission bringing “music to people and people to music.”

For more than 40 years, the Hanover Wind Symphony (HWS) has played to enthusiastic audiences. HWS members are volunteers who share a love for music and a passion for enriching the cultural fabric of the community with the thrill of live wind band performances. By day, HWS members are accountants, engineers, teachers and executives. They come together to connect musically with others, share the enjoyment of music with live audiences, and help mentor the next generation of wind musicians.

For further information about the Hanover Wind Symphony, visit hanoverwinds.org.

NJFO PRESENTS STRANGER THINGS: THE 1,000 CANDLES CONCERT EXPERIENCE

The New Jersey Festival Orchestra (NJFO) invites audiences to step into the world of Stranger Things this summer with Stranger Things: The 1,000 Candles Concert Experience, a one-of-a-kind candlelit event combining the excitement of live music, beloved television themes, and the unforgettable sounds of the 70s, 80s, and 90s.

Performed by a live string ensemble and narrated by Maestro David Wroe, this immersive concert experience celebrates the nostalgia and atmosphere of the hit Netflix series while showcasing iconic pop and rock classics that defined a generation. Audiences will hear music inspired by the show's haunting soundtrack alongside recognizable favorites from the decades that shaped its distinctive sound and style.

Illuminated by the warm glow of candlelight, the performance offers a unique blend of cinematic storytelling, nostalgia, and live music, creating an unforgettable evening for fans of Stranger Things, music lovers, and newcomers alike.

"This concert is designed to bring people together through music they know and love," said Maestro David Wroe. "Whether you're a longtime fan of the series, grew up with the music of the 70s, 80s, and 90s, or are simply looking for a memorable night out, this experience offers something for everyone."

Perfect for family outings, date nights, multigenerational gatherings, and summer entertainment, Stranger Things: The 1,000 Candles Concert Experience welcomes audiences of all ages. To encourage younger attendees to experience live music, NJFO is offering $25 student tickets for patrons age 21 and under.

43RD ANNUAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TORCH RUN

Hanover Township Police Department

On June 5, 2026, members of the Hanover Township Police Department joined police officers and other community members from across the state to be Guardians of the Flame in the 43rd Annual Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics of New Jersey. Over 3,000 Police Officers took to their local streets to raise funds and awareness for this incredible organization. They carry the "Flame of Hope" which officially leads into the Special Olympics Summer Games. This event helps raise awareness and funds to support year-round sports training and competition opportunities for thousands of athletes with intellectual disabilities throughout New Jersey.

ABOUT LAW ENFORCEMENT TORCH RUN®

The Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR), initiated in 1981 by Wichita Police Chief Richard LaMunyon, has grown into a worldwide movement. What began as a humble initiative has transformed into a global beacon of hope and unity, driven by the collective efforts of law enforcement volunteers. Known as Guardians of the Flame, these dedicated individuals join hands with Special Olympics athletes to champion the cause of acceptance and inclusion for individuals with intellectual disabilities. The essence of LETR lies in its community-centric approach. Law enforcement members from various levels, including federal, national, state, provincial, local, and even military sectors, come together to support this noble cause. Their collaboration extends beyond mere participation; it signifies a commitment to fostering a society where everyone, irrespective of their abilities, is embraced and celebrated.

PASSING THE TORCH AT 250: HOW NORTH JERSEY'S NEWEST ENLISTEES CARRY AMERICA'S LEGACY FORWARD

Martha Papson Garcia, Ed.D. (U.S. Army)
Director of Veterans Services, ROTC Liaison,
Fairleigh Dickinson University

Veteran organizations often serve as the backbone of community support for those who have served in the military. Yet, one group is uniquely transforming how America honors its newest service members—before they even don the uniform. While traditional groups like the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and the American Legion focus primarily on veterans returning from conflict, Our Community Salutes (OCS) dedicates its mission entirely to the next generation of patriots: high school seniors stepping into the U.S. Armed Forces.

As communities across the nation prepared for Fourth of July celebrations and looked forward to America's milestone 250th birthday, the work of Our Community Salutes of North Jersey stood as a powerful reminder of what local support truly meant.

Founded in 2009 by educator and Army veteran Dr. Kenneth Hartman, OCS was created to fill an important gap in community recognition. While college-bound seniors receive enthusiastic decision-day applause and student-athletes draw local headlines for signing with sports teams, military enlistees often quietly slip away to basic training without public acknowledgment. Our Community Salutes ensures these young men and women are the first to hear a collective "thank you" from their hometown.

The organization operates on a three-pronged support model. For enlistees, public recognition ceremonies provide resources, mentorship, and a sense of pride to ease their transition into active duty. For families, educational tools, community connections, and peer networks that help parents and siblings navigate the military journey. For communities, a collaborative platform uniting local business leaders, veterans, educators, and elected officials to honor local defenders.

Each spring, the North Jersey chapter of OCS brings this essential mission into focus. Recently, the group hosted its 10th Annual Enlistee Recognition Ceremony at Fairleigh Dickinson University's Florham Campus in Madison, New Jersey.

At this high-profile event, more than 90 high school seniors from across northern New Jersey were honored as they committed to enlist in the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, or National Guard. Surrounded by active-duty military leaders, veterans, local dignitaries, and emotional families, these young patriots received a formal send-off recognizing their induction into the elite "less than 1% club" of Americans who wear the uniform. To further support families, OCS introduced programs like OCS Connect, designed specifically to build community for those at home during their loved ones' military journey.

As America approaches its Semiquincentennial—its 250th birthday—the thread connecting these North Jersey enlistees, today's veterans, and the original patriots of the Revolutionary War becomes profound. It is an unbroken chain of everyday citizens choosing extraordinary sacrifice.

In 1776, the Continental Army was built by farmers, blacksmiths, and tradesmen who swapped civilian tools for muskets to defend the ideal of freedom. Many marched through northern New Jersey, known as the "Crossroads of the Revolution," enduring hardships such as brutal winters in Morris and Bergen counties. Today's veterans have inherited the responsibility of maintaining peace through decades of global conflict. Now, these high school enlistees—stepping onto the same historic Jersey soil—carry forward that legacy by voluntarily safeguarding American liberty. Just as only about 3% of colonists fought for independence, today's service members represent a committed minority protecting the majority.

Many historical battles that were won long ago are celebrated on the Fourth of July. But organizations like Our Community Salutes remind us that freedom is an active, ongoing relay race. By honoring the new generation of military enlistees, OCS ensures that the legacy of American liberty remains vibrant.

The act of honoring veterans isn't just about looking back - it is an investment in the future of the nation. Through grassroots support and community recognition, these young patriots receive a powerful message: their sacrifice is valued, their service is celebrated, and their legacy is America's ongoing story.

MORRIS COUNTY LIBRARY JULY EVENTS

30 E Hanover Ave, Whippany, NJ 07981 • (973) 285-6930 • www.mclib.info • Registration at: tinyurl.com

Morris County Traveling Mural Project
Tue., July 7, 7:00-8:30 p.m.
The mural is a collaborative public art initiative designed to celebrate the nation's 250th anniversary while engaging residents across the county in a shared creative experience. We begin with an introduction to the Mural Project by the artists behind this work, Kadie Dempsey and Dan Fenelon. Then, we'll invite the public to take brush in hand and paint a bit of history themselves! No registration required.

A People Harassed and Exhausted: The NJ Militia in the Revolution
Wed., July 8, 7:00-8:00 p.m.
Historical researcher, author, and speaker, Larry Kidder, will share the story of the men in the First Hunterdon County Regiment of the New Jersey militia during the Revolution. No registration is required to attend in-person. Please visit our website to register for Zoom

Brick City, Silk City & Beyond: Baseball's Rich History in North Jersey
Thu., July 23, 7:00-8:00 p.m.
Explore key locations throughout the top half of the Garden State and learn about the personalities that made those diamonds sparkle. Presented by lifelong baseball fan and proud New Jerseyan, John D. Cerilli. No registration necessary, however seating is first-come, first-seated.
